Mrs. Houser will return to Payne after a short visit with her parents.

The story is told of a certain little Sunday school scholar who has recently taken quite a notion to read the Bible says an exchange. He has also been punished several times lately, for "prevaricating" and his mother told him that pretty little story about George Washington, who for some peculiar cause could not tell a lie. This little fellow paused and in a few moments, remarked; "Mamma, I just read here in the Bible that no liar can enter the kingdom of Heaven. If that's so, then I don't believe that there will be anybody there but Jesus and George Washington."

While upon the train the other day the editor of the HERALD saw a young man dressed in a handsome uniform which denoted that he was an officer in the United States army. The scribe approached the soldier and asked him if he was connected with the army, and received a reply in a whisper, that he was First Lieutenant of Company "I," 20th U. S. Infantry, Philippine Islands, and had completely lost his voice owing to a severe sun stroke, and was upon his way to New York to place himself in the hands of a famous specialist.

He was enthusiastic in his praise of Gen. Otis, and said that the war was practically at end, but that it would take a large body of soldiers to maintain order until the United States could adopt a system of government satisfactory to all concerned. He said that he would be in favor of capturing the Insurgent leaders and hanging them at once, as this method would save a heap of trouble in the future. He said the rank and file of the inhabitants are in favor of the United States adjusting matters, and giving them a fair show in conducting government affairs, as they are utterly tired of war. The young man was born in Canada, but became a United States citizen by enlisting and taking part in the late Indian revolt.

WAR IN SOUTH AFRICA

BRITISH ARMY SEEMS TO BE HELD AT BAY.

All Along the Line, from the Modder River to the Tugela, Britain's Operations Have Resulted in a Series of Severe Defeats.

The first chapter of the war in South Africa is closed and it closed in gloomy disaster for Great Britain. In spite of the bravery of her troops and the scientific training of her generals, she has experienced such a series of defeats at the hands of the Boers that for the time being all important operations are suspended.

Following Gen. Buller's defeat at Colenso, Dec. 15, in his attempt to force back the Boers and press on to the relief of Ladysmith, it became imperative, if the siege of that place were to be raised, to devise some other plan to reach it beside by direct frontal attack upon an entrenched enemy.

The first serious fighting in this movement began Jan. 20. All that day and each succeeding day until the 25th the fighting continued, the Boers making a most stubborn resistance.

and the following day they brought all their resources into action to dislodge them. Following the tactics that won them Majuba, they rode up the slope of Spion kop to the first ledge, where they left their horses in safety on the dead ground where they could not be reached by the British fire.

The latest estimate of the Boer forces north of the Tugela places their number at 20,000 men. Of these 7,000 are around Ladysmith, 7,000 opposing Buller and 5,000 held ready to throw their strength where needed.

The Government is being called on to send re-enforcements to Buller to overcome the advantage which the Boers have strategically, but it will not waste more troops in Natal.

Much criticism is expressed not only by general public, but in the House of Commons public declarations are made denouncing the withholding of news. The officials, however, show no inclination to throw light upon the conduct of the campaign of Buller.

A "winged victory" perches on the top of the monument, a woman's figure holding in her hands the laurel crown of the victor.

Z. G. Simmons, the donor, is one of the oldest citizens of Kenosha. He went to Kenosha from New York over fifty years ago, with all his possessions done up in a pocket handkerchief. He hired out as a clerk in a store at $2.50 a week. From that beginning he became one of the most influential men in the Northwest.

The transport Ohio arrived at San Francisco Friday from Manila with the bodies of 138 soldiers who died during the campaign in the Philippines. The trip was made in twenty-seven days, the run from Nagasaki having taken twenty days. When the Ohio left Nagasaki the transports Benmor, Patison and Indiana were in port there. The Indiana has about 200 bodies on board. The bodies of the soldiers will be removed to the Presidio, where they will remain pending shipment to the homes of relatives.

No session of the Senate was held on Saturday. The House passed the Indian appropriation bill. It was slightly amended in unimportant particulars. An attempt to revive the policy of making contracts with religious schools for the education of Indian children, which has been gradually abandoned by the government during the last five years, failed on the ruling of the chair that the amendment offered was out of order.

GOEBEL TAKES OATH.

SWORN IN AS GOVERNOR WHILE FIGHTING DEATH.

Democratic Legislative Majority Declares Him Legally Elected—Goebel Orders Militia to Disperse—Taylor Adjourns Legislature to Meet in London.

The State of Kentucky Thursday had two Governors, each claiming the full de facto and de jure powers of the office. William Goebel, fighting death in his room at the Capitol Hotel at Frankfort, a martyr to his political ambition, was given the oath of office as Governor by Chief Justice Hazelrigg at 9 o'clock Wednesday evening. The oath was administered to him as the result of the action of the Democratic members of the Legislature, who signed a resolution declaring Mr. Goebel and J. C. W. Beckham the rightful executive officers of the Commonwealth. This resolution was formally adopted, it is asserted, in secret meeting. Gov. Taylor made the declaration that a state of insurrection prevails in Kentucky, and especially at the capital, and adjourned the General Assembly, to meet at London, a town in one of the mountain counties, where the Republicans are in the majority. The Republican members, acknowledging his authority, started there. The Democratic members of the Legislature, who are in the majority, met Wednesday night in the Capitol Hotel, and there declared Goebel the Governor and Beckham Lieutenant Governor of the State. These men were sworn in at once by the chief justice of the Court of Appeals. Propped up in his bed Mr. Goebel took the oath of office and immediately signed a proclamation disbarring the militia gathered there under Gov. Taylor's orders. He also appointed Brig. Gen. John B. Castleman, U. S. V., retired, adjutant general to take action of the army. As a result of this rest of the day were the legislators participating in it on the charge of treason.

The contest between the two men, each claiming full legal powers as Governor of the State, seemed to have reached its climax. At the end of the most eventful day in Kentucky's history, saving perhaps only the days at the outbreak of the civil war, the issues were so sharply drawn that open conflict and bloodshed, if not a real internal war, seemed unavoidable.

Shooting of Goebel.

At Frankfort, Ky., Senator Goebel, contestant for the position now occupied by Gov. Taylor, was shot and seriously wounded at 11 o'clock Tuesday morning. John Whitaker, a farmer of Butler County, was arrested, charged with the crime. Mr. Goebel was walking up a sidewalk leading to the Senate when a man in the second story of the building immediately to the east of the capitol fired upon him. Five shots were fired and Mr. Goebel fell to the ground, writhing with pain. He was at once carried to a hotel. The bullet struck Senator Goebel in the right side, passed through the body, coming out below the shoulder blade, and when the news was first sent out it was declared that the Senator had been instantly killed by this one shot.

The wildest excitement was instantly created in the town and within ten minutes after Mr. Goebel had been shot the streets were filled with men carrying rifles and revolvers. A guard was thrown around the building from which shots were fired, in order to prevent escape of the assassin. A force of men dashed into the building and up to the room from which the shots were fired, but could find no one. The guard was redoubled, and Adj. Gen. Collier, an ardent political opponent of Goebel, took charge of it, leading the work of finding the man who fired the shots.

"They have assassinated Senator Goebel!" was shouted into the house door an instant after the shots rang out. The members rushed pell mell over one another down the steps to the front of the building, coatless and hatless. In five minutes the whole city learned the news and hundreds poured into the state house yard and it looked as if a riot would result.

John Whitaker was arrested a few minutes after the shooting trying to escape from the building from which the shots were fired. He was caught by John E. Miles, a man past 75 years of age. When searched five pistols were taken off his person. He loudly protested his innocence. A heavy guard of police surrounded him on the way to the county jail, followed by hundreds. Cries of "Mob the assassin!" and "Let's take him away from the police and hang him!" were heard all along the route from enraged people.

When Gov. Taylor was informed of the attempted assassination he threw himself back in his chair and wept. All of the doors leading to the executive office were locked, and presently a special guard of State militia lined up in front of the executive and capitol buildings.

CRY OF TREASON RAISED.

Exciting Debate Takes Place in the United States Senate.

Debate in the United States Senate, ordinarily calm and dignified, burst Wednesday into passionate utterances and bitter recriminations. Senators hurled denunciations one at another until the auditors quivered with excitement. The debate grew out of a phase of the Philippine question, and no scene has been witnessed since the discussion of the war resolution in the last Congress which, in sensational features, compared with that of Wednesday.

Mr. Pettigrew, who has precipitated nearly all of the debate upon the Philippine question during the present session, sought to have read a resolution embodying a document written by Emilio Aguinaldo upon the Filipino insurrection and containing his version of the alleged recognition of the Filipino republic by Admiral Dewey.

Senator Lodge of Massachusetts protested against printing the document in any form and read a letter from Admiral Dewey, in which that portion of Aguinaldo's statement relating to the admiral was denounced as "a tissue of falsehoods." Senators on the floor listened with eager attention and many gallery spectators leaned far over the railings in their desire not to miss a sentence. Mr. Lodge said he preferred accepting Dewey's word to that of Aguinaldo and was satisfied the American people would also.

In a passionate reply Mr. Pettigrew declared that Admiral Dewey had recognized the Filipino republic, and, although afforded an opportunity heretofore to deny Aguinaldo's statements had not done so. In an instant half a dozen Senators were on their feet. Mr. Hawley, the venerable Senator from Connecticut, denounced Mr. Pettigrew's action as treason. In rapid succession Senator Pettigrew was made the target of stinging arraignments by Senators Spooner, Hawley, Sewell and Gallinger. That the feeling was at a pitch seldom noted in the Senate was evidenced by the pale faces of the men who spoke.

Mr. Jones (Dem.) of Arkansas and Mr. Teller of Colorado endeavored to stem the tide of protest and deep feeling by conciliatory speeches.

GOEBEL PASSES AWAY

CLAIMANT TO KENTUCKY GOVERNORSHIP DIES OF WOUND.

Bullet of the Assassin Proves Fatal—Victim Made a Brave Struggle for Life—Beckham Assumes the Functions of Chief Executive.

William Goebel, the Democratic claimant to the Governorship of Kentucky, died in his chambers at the Capitol Hotel, Frankfort, at 6:44 o'clock Saturday evening from the effects of the gunshot wound inflicted by an assassin. Mr. Goebel fought against the end with all the vigor and fortitude of his nature, and persisted till he lost consciousness that he would live, but the arch enemy slowly but surely conquered the wounded leader.

Mr. Goebel's sister, Mrs. Herman Brunnecke, and his brother, Arthur Goebel of Cincinnati, were alone with him when he died. They remained with the lifeless form until the arrival, at 7:10 o'clock, of Justus Goebel, another brother, who had been hurrying from Arizona to Frankfort on a special train. As soon as Justus Goebel reached the capital he hurried to his brother's apartments, where he found Arthur Goebel and his sister weeping over the body of the dead man.

The news of Mr. Goebel's death, although expected, came at a profound shock. It spread like wildfire, and awful consequences were again feared. At the State House grounds extraordinary precautions were taken to put down any disturbance which might arise.

Mr. Goebel rested well Friday night and early Saturday morning announced that he felt better than he had at any time since he was wounded. At his request ex-Congressman John H. Kendrick, one of the Goebel leaders, was called into his room and they were in consultation concerning the situation for an hour. After that Mr. Goebel asked for something to eat, and light food was given, but he could not retain it in his stomach.

The patient then began to sink and his physicians realized that the end was but a question of a few hours. The doctors tried to keep Mr. Goebel alive by the introduction of oxygen and artificial blood until his brother from Arizona could arrive, but in this they were unsuccessful.

The news of Mr. Goebel's death rapidly spread over the State. In half a hundred cities Saturday night mass meetings were held deploring the assassination and calling upon the people not to resort to violence, but to allow the law to take its course. At many meetings Gov. Taylor and the other Republican State officers were severely denounced.

Twenty minutes before the death of Mr. Goebel was publicly announced J. W. Beckham, the Democratic Lieutenant Governor, was duly sworn in as chief executive of the State by one of the Democratic Judges of the Court of Appeals of Kentucky.

BIG FIRE IN ST. LOUIS.

Loss Is Placed at $1,500,000—One Fireman Killed and Several Injured.

Fire broke out at 9:55 a. m. Sunday in the five-story brick building at Broadway and Franklin avenue, St. Louis, occupied by the dry goods firm of Penny & Gentles, and in a few hours had consumed $1,500,000 worth of property, caused the death of one fireman and the serious injury of many others, and alarmed the entire city. The cry that the city was burning succeeded in almost breaking up the services in many downtown churches, and for a time it looked as if the cry was to prove true. Only by the most strenuous efforts of the firemen was the commission district saved.

Soon after the flames broke out the entire building of Penny & Gentles was enveloped. Sparks and brands were blown in every direction by a strong northwest wind, and the destruction of adjoining property was threatened. A general alarm was turned in, and soon every engine in the city was at the scene.

On the south of Penny & Gentles' the flames communicated with the buildings occupied by Schaper Bros., dry goods, and The Famous, dry goods. The burning area increased minute by minute, the flames gaining great headway and leaping across to the east side of Broadway. In a short time a large empty store building on the corner of Franklin avenue was destroyed, with those directly south occupied by the People's House Furnishing Company, the Marks millinery store, Dill's dental parlors and Derr Brothers' 5 and 10 cent store. Falling walls caused the death of one fireman and wounded several others.

Before the flames had been subdued the following had sustained heavy losses: Schaper Bros., Penny & Gentles, The Famous, dry goods; Fach Millinery and Cloak Company, D. Crawford building, the People's House Furnishing Company, Derr Bros., the St. Louis Dressed Beef and Provision Company, Yued & Prast, commission merchants; A. Stauffer, barber; J. H. Rohde, retail liquor dealer; Herboth Mercantile Company, and the Schister-Cornelia Company; A. Nasse, wholesale grocer; Plant Seed Company, Krenning Glass Company, Bassett's plumbing establishment, McLain & Alcorn Commission Company, Bueller Block Commission Company, Nelson Distilling Company, Hake & Sons Commission Company, George A. Benton, produce; Bauer Flour Company, Shaw & Richmond, produce; Fred Pohlman's saloon.

A private watchman of Penny & Gentles was arrested and held at the Four Courts, pending an investigation into the origin of the fire. He was taken into custody as the result of a statement by a woman rooming opposite to the effect that she had seen a man answering the watchman's description lighting matches in the store previous to the fire. He denied having had anything to do with it, and states that he was at home when the fire broke out.

RECORD OF THE WEEK

INDIANA INCIDENTS TERSELY TOLD.

Elaborate Plan to Burn Two Stores in Terre Haute—Children Run Away to Wed—Minister's Prophecy of His Own Death Comes True.

An attempt was made at Terre Haute to burn and blow up three storerooms over which thirty-two persons were sleeping. A fire in its incipient stage was discovered in the office of Dr. Casto's drug store, and when it was extinguished it was found that in each cellar and store there were improvised gutters and troughs filled with oil and fuses made of saturated toweling running through the stocks of clothing, dry goods and groceries in Casto's general store adjoining the drug store. Holes were cut in the floors to make stronger draughts, and dynamite and gun powder placed where they cause the greatest destruction. The fire had not reached the troughs and fuses when the firemen put it out. Enough dynamite was found to have destroyed all the buildings on the block. Casto and some of his clerks were arrested for arson. He says his enemies did the work because he has prospered in business. He carried a large insurance.

Says Farewell to His Flock and Dies.

Rev. Charles Harvey has been pastor of the Methodist Church at Eaton for many years. On a recent Sunday he preached his last sermon. He explained that his congregation would never hear his voice from the pulpit again, as he had a premonition that he would die before another Sunday dawned. He had never felt in better health, he explained, but nevertheless he felt sure that death was nigh. His prediction was fulfilled. He is dead. Shortly after leaving church he was seized with an illness. He grew rapidly worse and died before the night was past. He was 58 years old and had been a minister thirty-seven years.

Four Young People Elope.

Roy Teagardner and Ethel, the 15-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Creek, and Guy Whetzel and Miss Pearl Landon eloped from Trenton. All are the children of well-to-do farmers, and the only objection to the marriages was the age of the parties, young Whetzel being only 18. The two couples have been devoted lovers, and feeling that they could not gain parental consent disappeared together, young Whetzel leaving with his father's horse and buggy.

Baby Suffocated, Woman Hurt.

The home of William Miller, four miles west of Muncie, was destroyed by fire. Frank Stephens and wife discovered the blaze while driving past the house. Mr. Stephens jumped from the buggy to notify the Miller family and his team of horses ran off. Mrs. Stephens was thrown from the buggy and will die here in a few days. A 2-year-old grandchild of Miller's was suffocated.

Within Our Borders.

In Salem, smallpox has been dubbed "Cuban itch."

Andrew J. Carmichael, 70, near Hartford City, is missing.

Sugar water camps are being opened in Montgomery County.

A general vaccination order has been launched at Martinsville.

Postmasters of congressional district 6 have formed an organization.

Ghouls were frightened from the Dunlapville cemetery by a pedestrian.

Charles Blevings, 25, Mitchell, B. & O. brakeman, was killed near Huron.

Oil well drilled just across the Indiana line in Ohio will open up a new field in eastern Indiana.

Anderson capitalists have secured a large tract of land on the isthmus of Tehuantepec, Mexico.

Dante Comstock, 17, Marion high school student, has invented a system of wireless telegraphy.

Marcus C. Smith died at his home in Muncie of general debility. He had held many important political positions.

A human freak was born at Mooresville the other day. It had neither eyes, ears nor nose. It lived but a few minutes.

Mrs. Olive G. Hall, Kokomo, has purchased the William Henry Harrison homestead, at North Bend, Ohio. It consists of the old mansion and seven acres of land and cost $55,000. It is the birth place of ex-President Harrison.

Tax levy in Grant County will be upon $22,853,760 worth of property, amounting to $391,655.31, and represents a poll of 8,357.

One of the trustees of the Methodist Church at Montpelier has rented his business room for a saloon, and there is a riot in the church.

A free-for-all fight occurred in the basement of a Lafayette school among the smaller pupils, the other day, and it was all two teachers could do to quiet them.

Mark Hillis, soldier in the Philippines, and son of John Hillis, Kokomo, committed suicide by shooting himself in the head. An open hole was found near the body.

A successful test has been made of crude oil for fuel in the Anderson steel mill. On account of shortage of gas the company intended to move, but will now stay.

Nearly all the fruit growers in the fruit belt report a total destruction of buds. The warm weather brought the trees out in bloom and the first frost destroyed them.

Albion has an economical genius in the person of James Hyde. He makes his own teeth out of hickory wood and holds them in place with a wooden handle. He is able to eat the roughest meat and is quite an interesting sight while engaged in eating.

The bulletin of the State Board of Charities, for the year ending Oct. 31, 1899, shows that the cost to the State of maintaining the 13 charitable and correctional institutions was $1,213,213.56, with $144,879.52 for improvements and new buildings. The earnings of the institutions were $112,402.91, leaving the net cost $1,245,630.17, an increase over 1898 of $127,884.43. The nine charitable institutions had an enrollment of 5,913, an increase of 347. The correctional institutions show a decrease of 100. There was a daily average attendance of 3,215 in the four insane hospitals, an increase of 127; State prison, Michigan City, 768, a decrease of 60; reformatory, Jeffersonville, 940, increase of 41. There were 769 prisoners in the State prison, Oct. 31, and 819 in the reformatory. The average number in the women's prison was 51, an increase of seven, and in the boys' reformatory, 512, a decrease of 38. The per capita cost of subsistence for the different institutions for 1899 was: Central hospital for the insane, $53.90; Northern hospital, $43.72; Eastern hospital, $56.25; Southern hospital, $59.97; Soldiers' home, $50.39; Soldiers and sailors' orphans' home, $54.42; institution for the deaf, $37.85; institute for the blind, $54.05; school for feeble minded, $32.00; industrial school for girls and women's prison, $38.02; reform school for boys, $25.94; reformatory, $35.09; State prison, $39.69.

According to the report of the State superintendent of public instruction, Frank L. Jones, for Jan. 1 there was a deficit of $353,145.90 in school funds during 1899. The Governor and Attorney General have made an investigation and find the State has not been receiving the full amount for liquor license fees. The United States Government issued 7,170 retail liquor licenses in Indiana during the last year and from these figures it is shown that the State should have received $717,000, or $100 for each license. Only $377,000 was received, leaving $340,000 unaccounted for. This sum, together with the 600 malt liquor licenses, which also show a shortage, is sufficient to make good the deficit in the school fund. It is said that rigid prosecution of all violators will follow. The next Legislature will be asked to amend the liquor laws of Indiana that a repetition of present conditions cannot again occur.

F. A. Cotton, assistant superintendent of public instruction, has made up the January apportionment of school funds. It shows that there are in Indiana 755,727 children of school age, and that the total amount of school funds collected totals $1,008,015.71, making $1.32 for each school child. The apportionment for January is $1,008,015.71, making $1.32 for each child. The January apportionment is from the December collection of taxes. The per capita one year ago was $1.30, and in June, 1899, $1.45. The June per capita is always heavier than that for January. Marion County paid in $83,584.14, and will get back $61,626.84. Indianapolis will get $51,699.12. Marion County, outside of Indianapolis, will get $9,922.72. The amount to be received by any school corporation can be found by multiplying the number of children of school age by $1.32. There is a net balance of $10,414.02 in the treasury.

Judge Baker, in the Federal Court, granted a temporary injunction forbidding the Indianapolis Union Railway Company and other railroads which run into Indianapolis to discriminate against the Interstate Stock Yards Company in the delivery of freight consigned from other stations than Indiana. A restraining order, granted when the suit was begun, has been in force since that time and the temporary injunction granted now is ordered to continue in force until the final hearing. The court declared that the owners of the new stock yards have an undeniable right to have any kind of freight delivered on their side tracks and switches and said that the courts would not assist in enforcing a monopoly such as the old stock yards company was claiming, unless clearly compelled to do so by positive law.

The Supreme Court recently decided a habeas corpus case from Knox County in ten days. J. M. Pritchett was fined for having a "trammel" net in his possession under the fish law. His attorney construed the law as invalid and appealed the case. The Supreme Court affirmed the judgment of the lower court.

Called It Furniture Medicine.

"The secret of never wanting new things is to keep the old ones well mended," said a wise housekeeper, as she exhibited the shelf where she kept what she called "furniture medicine." There were tins of different colors of paints and enamel, brushes of several sizes, a bottle of liquid gilt, some good glue, and remnants of all the different kinds of wall paper. A handsome six-leaved Japanese screen had been badly mutilated by a careless housemaid, so that two of its panels were unsightly. She patched the gashes carefully with court plaster, and with a box of water colors and the liquid gilt so concealed the patches that it was as good as new. A somewhat top-heavy but sturdy little boy made a seat of the handsome porcelain umbrella jar, when down came both boy and jar, the latter in a dozen pieces. It was not therefore discarded, but piecing it with the greatest care with cement, a brush was dipped in liquid gilt and covered all the cracks, which, from their zig-zag directions, really added to its Oriental appearance. —Short Skits.

The editor left Culver Friday night via the Vandalia for Hubbard, where he changed cars, taking a train at midnight upon the Nickel Plate for the extreme eastern part of Ohio, where he visited his aged father and other friends over Sunday. Monday and Tuesday, arriving home on Wednesday morning. When the editor left Culver, the ground was bare and dry, with the moon shining bright with no signs of snow. But when about 30 miles east of Ft. Wayne the light of day began to dawn, and as far as the eye could reach, the "beautiful snow" covered the ground about eight inches deep, and soon sleigh of every description could be seen flitting here and there. Several of the old inhabitants informed the editor that snow had been plenty, and that the wheat in that section would be an excellent crop. After passing Bellevue, for miles upon miles vineyards covering hundreds of acres. The editor found his father in poor health and his sister-in-law, Mrs. C. F. Narpass, quite ill.

The Indiana Portland Cement company is preparing to erect a mammoth plant at Milford, Kosciusko county, intending to make it one of the largest in the country. At the outset the factory will have a daily capacity of 1,500 barrels, and the machinery will be so arranged that with but little additional expense it can be changed to a capacity of 2,500 barrels daily.

Young & Keen are now doing a rushing business since the advent of their new engine and boiler in their repair works. The engine and boiler possesses sufficient power to run all the machinery at the same time, with surplus power to spare for any new machinery that may be added. The lathes, planers etc., are first class, and consequently the firm can repair with neatness and dispatch, anything in wood, iron and steel in a most satisfactory manner. If you have anything in the machinery line that must be repaired give them a call.

Up to date the Boers have held their own with Great Britain, and although the British government has met the enemy about four to one, the sturdy Boers have out-generated their foes, and have proven to the world that for once, the boastful Brits have run up against the real thing and are not fighting semi-savages, but a civilized nation, who like Washington of old, will die for freedom and the maintenance of individual rights. In this instance, it is truly depicted to the world, that greed has led England into this war, which is not only costing the best blood of the empire but millions upon millions of dollars, and the end no nearer in sight than it was at the beginning.

The Assassination of President Lincoln.

coln was present, prostrated with grief, and other members of the family, Senator Sumner, Speaker Colfax, military officials of the War Department, several generals and physicians, the latter including Surgeon General Barnes, who had from the first assisted Dr. Stone, the President's family physician.

President Lincoln never recovered consciousness. As day dawned his pulse failed and a look of perfect peace over-spread his features. At 7:22 a. m. he ceased to breathe. Rev. Dr. Gurley knelt down and prayed and Secretary Stanton broke the silence which followed with the remark: "Now he belongs to the ages."

The South lost, in Lincoln, one who would have proved to be its best friend, as is, perhaps, now realized. In a letter written to Gen. Van Allen on the last day of his life, Lincoln wrote words that strike the keynote of his character. In it he said:

"I thank you for the assurance you give me that I shall be supported by conservative men like yourself in the efforts I may make to restore the Union so as to make it, to use your language, a union of hearts and hands as well as of States."

Over all the members of that presidential theater party a black and awful fate hung menacingly.

Many have not followed the end of others indirectly associated with the tragedy. The stricken widow of the martyred President passed the balance of her days in melancholia and madness. Of the guests who were with her in the box that night, one slew the other and ended his own life a maniac.

VALENTINES OUT OF DATE.

Original Verse, Flowers or Candy Are Now the Proper Gifts.

Valentines are out of date. That is the edict of society. When the 14th of February comes around now the proper paper is to write to your lady fair a few choice stanzas of valentine verse, or, in case of your inability to construct proper rhyme, send around a few bunches of violets or sweet roses or a nice box of candy—a heart shaped box preferred, of course—all tied up with pretty silk ribbons. The flowers and the candy may not last as long as the poetry, but the flowers will be prettier, the candy will taste better and both will be more appreciated.

When it is said that valentines are out of date the statement has to be made, of course, with some reservation. They are out of date as gifts between fashionable adults, but among children they are popular still.

Every little lad and lassie watches for the postman on the morning of St. Valentine's day, of course, and is disappointed if the mail brings no love message, no little embossed and painted cupid. What is meant by the statement that valentines are out of date is that the day of the three-story, fussed and fuzzy, hand-painted, lint and nonsense creation, over which young ladies used to go into ecstasies of delight and young men used to go into bankruptcy, has long been passed. The custom of sending that sort of remembrance is as dead as the custom of New Year's calling. It was never a sensible custom anyway, for no young man felt really repaid in putting a week's salary into a gift to a young lady when, believingly holding a pistol in one hand and a knife, or dirk, in the other. Maj. Rathbone rose and asked this intruder his business. Booth rushed past the Major without making a reply and, placing his pistol close to the President's head, actually in contact with it, fired, and instantly sprang upon the cushioned baluster of the box, when he made a backward plunge with his knife, aimed at the face or breast of Mr. Lincoln. Maj. Rathbone, springing forward to protect the President, received the stab in his arm.

It was towards the latter part of the play. Perfect stillness reigned throughout the house. The audience listened to the dialogue between Florence Trenchard and May Meredith, when the pistol shot rang through the theater. It was apparently fired behind the scenes on the right of the stage, and it was accepted by the audience as an introduction to some new passage, several of which had been interpolated in the early part of the play.

Booth had been noted as a leaper, having become habituated to sensational leaps in his repertoire of characters. He leaped nine feet down on the stage, but his spur caught in the flag decorating the front of the presidential box and as he reached the stage he fell, recovering himself in a wonderful way, though his leg was broken. He bounded across the stage, pushing past Miss Laura Keane, striking her on the hand with his own, still holding the dagger. As he crossed the stage Booth cried out, dramatically, "Sic semper tyrannis!" and "I have done it!" Once through the side scenes Booth quickly escaped by the rear door of the theater, where a horse awaited him, its bridle held by an employe of the theater whom Booth rewarded with a kick, his agony from his broken leg being intense.

Meanwhile the shrieks of Mrs. Lincoln made clear to the audience the nature of the horrible crime that had just been perpetrated. Pandemonium reigned. Women cried, men hollered and children screamed. Miss Laura Keane advanced to the footlights and called out: "For God's sake, have presence of mind! Keep your places and all will be well!"

Miss Harris called to Miss Keane to bring some water, which the actress did, and afterwards accompanied Mrs. Lincoln to the house opposite, to which the unconscious President was at once removed. It was found that he had been shot through the head, above the back of the temporal bone, and that some of the brain was oozing out and that death was inevitable.

Within a comparatively short time the terrible news had spread all over Washington, and by midnight every member of the cabinet, except Seward, whose own life was attempted, had gathered at the bedside of their dying chief. Mrs. Lincoln cause of the mystery and secrecy that have to be observed in sending valentines, he could not accompany it with his card. It was altogether too discouraging to have his hated rival get the credit for sending a sentimental lot of poetry all done up in fluffiness for which he had cheerfully emptied his pockets and "gone broke." Valentines of that sort have had their day and belong now to the sweetly remembered past.

PRAYER TO ST. VALENTINE.

Hearts or dollars? ah, to which Should my maiden heart incline? To be loved or to be rich? Tell me, good St. Valentine.

Should I scorn the shining gold? Is a heart a richer mine? Here I'm waiting to be told— Tell me, good St. Valentine.

Mrs. De Whiskers (his young wife)—Nothing on earth, dear.

President Krueger Ahead.

Pretoria, Transvaal, South Africa, Dec. 7, 1899.

Messrs. Swanson Rheumatic Cure Company, Chicago, Ill., U. S. A.: Gentlemen—Your last shipment and communication received. I am very much pleased with the information which you have so kindly given me.

Please find enclosed bank draft to the amount of $412 10s, for which send me twenty-five (25) gross of Swanson's "5-DROPS." Ship same as before in order that there may be no delay, as this medicine will be greatly needed before it reaches us. The last shipment is almost disposed of, as the medical department of our army uses large quantities. This order is entirely for use in the army.

I have been told that our success on the battlefield is due to a certain extent to the use of "5-DROPS" Rheumatic Cure, which has relieved and prevented a great deal of suffering among our men from Rheumatism, Neuralgia and other acute pains caused by exposure. Your "5-DROPS" is as good as a Transvaal soldier!

In one of the battles, a small quantity of "5-DROPS," together with other medicines, was captured by the English, which was a great loss to our men. The Ruinecks won't do it again.

Wishing you and your remedy the success you deserve, and hoping to receive this order soon, I am, respectfully yours,

PETER HAAS.

"5-DROPS" is the most powerful specific known. Free from opiates and perfectly harmless. It is a perfect cure for Rheumatism, Sciatica, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia, Backache, Asthma, Catarrh, La Grippe, Neuralgia Headache, etc. Large sized bottles (300 doses), $1.00, or three (3) bottles for $2.50. Sample bottles 25 cents.

THE NERVES OF WOMEN

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Relieves the Suffering from Overwrought Nerves.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I am so grateful for the benefit derived from the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that I wish you to publish this testimonial that others may know the value of your medicine. I was suffering such tortures from nervous prostration that life was a burden. I could not sleep at all and was too weak to walk across the floor without aid. The disease had reached a condition where my heart was affected by it, so that often I could not lie down at all without almost suffocating. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it worked like magic. I feel that your medicine has been of inestimable benefit to me."—MISS ADELE WILLIAMSON, 196 N. Boulevard, Atlanta, Ga.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I was thin, tall and nervous. I had not had my menses for over a year and a half. Doctored with several physicians in town and one specialist, but did not get any better. I finally decided to try your medicine, and wrote to you. After I had taken three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and three of Blood Purifier, my menses returned, and I feel as well and strong as I ever did, and am gaining flesh."—MISS LENA GAINES, Visalia, Tulare Co., Cal.

Half a Bottle Cured Me

"About thirty years ago I bought a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor to stop my hair from falling out. One-half a bottle cured me. A few days ago my hair began to fall out again. I went to the medicine shelf and found the old bottle of Hair Vigor just as good as when I bought it."—J. C. Baxter, Braidwood, Ill., Sept. 27, 1899.

Keeps Thirty Years

Ayer's Hair Vigor is certainly the most economical preparation of its kind on the market. A little of it goes a long way. And then, what you don't need now you can use some other time just as well. It doesn't take much of it to stop falling of the hair, restore color to gray hair, cure dandruff, and keep the hair soft and glossy. There's a great deal of good and an immense amount of satisfaction in every bottle of it.

Write the Doctor

If you do not obtain all the benefits you desire from the use of the Vigor, write the Doctor about it. Address, Dr. J. C. Ayer, Lowell, Mass.

GREAT STREET IN LONDON.

What the Retarding of Business Traffic Now Costs.

Sir J. Wolfe Barry believes that the "retardation" of business traffic between east and west, more especially coal traffic, costs the trade interests of London £90,000 a year, the owners of vehicles £1,189,000, and pedestrians £65,000, or a total of £2,150,000 a year, says the Spectator. This he would correct by cutting a single mighty street, 125 feet wide and five and one-half miles long, from west to east, and this, with its subsidiary connections, would cost £6,120,000. This had been ridiculed when originally proposed, but when the loss was fully understood it would be found that the saving fairly repaid the cost.

The arterial street is, we fear, a brilliant dream for the present, but if London advances for twenty years as it has done for the last twenty something very like it will have to be constructed. We wonder if it would be quite impossible on the great lines to construct underground lines, confining their use to the conveyance of goods. That would enable us to pass a law which would relieve London more than any new openings—namely, a law insisting that all vehicles in motion shall travel at an equal speed. We always speak of the "stream" of London traffic, but it is the absence of streaminess which produces the fretting delays that take a year from the life of every active man.

In After Years.
"Why, what's the matter, Nellie?" asked her maiden aunt.

"Oh, auntie," replied the bride of a month, "it's too provoking for anything. Tom treats me just as if I were a child."

Too Good for the Place.
"Well, lady, it was like dis," began Han'out Harry. "Yer see, I wuz workin' fur de Guvment, and I tought de position wuz good fur two years."

"And wasn't it?"
"Naw! Dey discharged me fur good behavior."

"For good behavior?"
"Sure! Oh, t'anks fur de quarter, lady—yer see, I wuz up fur larceny."—Philadelphia Press.

Constancy.
"I have been married for fifteen years, and my wife never fails to meet me at the door."

"Wonderful!"
"Yes; she's afraid I might go in without wiping my feet."—Chicago Times-Herald.

What Do the Children Drink?
Don't give them tea or coffee. Have you tried the new food drink called GRAIN-O? It is delicious and nourishing, and takes the place of coffee. The more Grain-O you give the children the more health you distribute through their systems. Grain-O is made of pure grains, and when properly prepared tastes like the choice grades of coffee, but costs about 1/4 as much. All grocers sell it. 15c and 25c.

Done With Forever.
"Ah," he moaned, "this is not the kind of bread mother used to make."
"Perhaps," his fair young wife said, preparing to abolish one joke from their family forever, "it is not the kind she used to make, but it's the kind she makes now. She brought over a loaf this afternoon, saying she knew you would be so glad to get another taste of it!"—Chicago Post.

THE OLDEST MAN IN AMERICA

Tells How He Escaped the Terrors of Many Winters by Using Peruna.

Mr. Isaac Brock, Born in Buncombe Co., North Carolina, March 1, 1788, Says: "I attribute my extreme old age to the use of Peruna."

Born before United States was formed.
Saw 22 Presidents elected.
Pe-ru-na has protected him from all sudden changes.
Veteran of four wars.
Shod a horse when 99 years old.

Always conquered the grippe with Pe-ru-na.
Witness in a land suit at age of 110 years.
Believes Pe-ru-na the greatest remedy of the age for Catarrhal Diseases.

Isaac Brock, a citizen of McLennan County, Texas, has lived 111 years. He now lives with his son-in-law at Valley Mills, Texas.

In speaking of his good health and extreme old age, Mr. Brock says:

"After a man has lived in the world as long as I have, he ought to have found out a great many things by experience.

"One of the things I have found out to my entire satisfaction is the proper remedy for ailments that are due directly to the effects of the climate.

"During my long life I have known a great many remedies for coughs, colds, catarrh and diarrhoea. I had always supposed these affections to be different diseases, but in reading Dr. Hartman's books I have found out that these affections are the same and that they are properly called catarrh.

"I had several long sieges with the grippe. At first I did not know that Peruna was a remedy for this disease. When I heard that la grippe was epidemic catarrh, I tried Peruna for la grippe and found it to be just the thing.

"As for Dr. Hartman's remedy, Peruna, I have found it to be the best, if not the only, reliable remedy for these affections. It has been my standby for many years, and I attribute my good health and extreme old age to this remedy.

"Very truly yours,

Isaac Brock,

BOWEL BAY-WINDOWS

When a man gets one, he becomes a slave to his bowels. Every person ought to have control over the different parts of the body, and it is the easiest thing in the world to educate the bowels, make them do their duty naturally and regularly, and keep them from becoming a source of misery and a deformity as well.

Educate your bowels!
Don't neglect the slightest sign of irregularity but see that you have at least one natural easy movement a day. Pills, salts and black draughts are dangerous because they strain and weaken the bowels. What you want is a mild but sure laxative, that tones and strengthens the bowels and stimulates their movements. Such a laxative is CASCARETS, and when you try them, you will find that it is the easiest thing in the world to make and keep your bowels clean and regular, strong and healthy. Be sure you get the genuine. CASCARETS are never sold in bulk. Look for the trade-mark, the long-tailed "C" on the box. By keeping the bowels clean, all serious disorders are

ACADEMY NOTES.

BY OUR REPORTER. Cadet Cyp. Conningham is on leave at his home in St. Louis, owing to the severe illness of his mother.

Cadet, Elian, of the city of Mexico has been in Toledo, Ohio, for some time, being treated for kidney trouble.

Cadet J. N. Howe, of Michigan city, is the latest addition to the corps.

Campbell's Steam Laundry at Logansport burned down last week, and considerable C. M. A. laundry was consumed.

A game of base ball has been arranged with Purdue University for April 30.

Major General Chas. King, the famous author of war stories, was to have lectured to the cadets Tuesday evening on "The American Soldier in the Philippines," but was obliged to postpone his visit to Culver until February 20, in order to attend the funeral of General Lawton.

Cadet Davis, of Youngstown, Ohio left for his home in that city today (Friday) owing to the severe illness of his father.

Mrs. G. J. Eacock, of Lafayette, visited her son over Sunday.

Many of the old members have again joined the band, and that organization is now in a flourishing condition.

Rev. Dr. Shaler Matthew, of the University of Chicago, will preach to the cadets next Sunday morning at 11:00 a. m.

The occupants of room 131 report that they are on the sick list. Gilbert, homesick; Bernheimer, same, and "There are others."

Capt. de Blumenthal and Mr. G. B. Taylor, business manager of the academy are the originators of a plan whereby the cadets, members of their families, and their intimate friends may make a European tour under the management of experienced travelers, and at a very moderate cost.

The itinerary includes all of the interesting points in Germany, Austria, Hungary, Switzerland, France and England. A trip up the Rhine river, several days spent in the Alps, about a week devoted to reviewing the Paris exposition, and visits to London and Vienna are among the pleasing features of the trip.

The managers have issued a small pamphlet containing information relative to the proposed trip and describing many of its interests to be visited.

The academy has purchased a considerable amount of new equipment, to the cavalry department including saddles, blankets, etc.

A large amount of new scenery has been purchased by the academy for the dramatic club, and a fine stage will be erected in the gymnasium, large enough to stage all the plays given by all ordinary traveling troupes and after its completion the management will engage a number of troupes to give their productions upon our stage, for the entertainment of the cadets.

It is needless to say that this will be welcome news to the cadets, as anything that breaks the monotony for the cadet life is looked upon with favor.

Mr. A's basket ball team goes to South Bend tomorrow Saturday, where they contest with Notre Dame's team for honors.

CULVER SCHOOL NOTES.

The pupils of the high school received their monthly report this week. The advice of our teacher is that we could do better in our grades.

Now is the time that the pupils would appreciate walks upon the school grounds.

How about the Culver high school star?

Some excitement on the school grounds Wednesday.

I. E. Rowe will take part in the debate Friday February 16.

Horace Shugrue and Willard White former students of the high school are attending business College at Indianapolis.

The pupils of room C. are doing some fine work in geography.

The program in room B. last Friday was rendered in a very elaborate manner.

We have fair prospects for some addition to the library.

The Latin class should put more time on their work.

The debate by the high school last Friday was the best that the pupils have produced so far this term. It was a hard fought contest, as the arguments on both sides were strong and precise. The judges gave the decision to the negative.

The question for debate Friday February 16th, is: Resolved "That England is not justified in waging war with the Boers." The program committee has arranged for an excellent entertainment on the afternoon of February 16th. All are invited. Edward Zechiel, Lucretia Rea and Winnie McFarland support the affirmative, and I. E. Rowe, Edgar Bessie and Levi Osborn support the negative.

Obituary.

James T. Bartlett was born August 16, 1842, died January 26 1900, aged 57 years, 5 months, and 10 days. He was married to Elizabeth Davis at Kalamazo, Mich., March 16, 1869. Six children have been born to them, the widow and five of whom remain to mourn his death. April 15, 1861, he enlisted as a private in Co. F, 17th Ind. Vol. Inf. September 12, 1863, he was wounded and captured at Rock Springs. Was held at Atlanta, Ga., three weeks, at Libby Prison and Belle Isle, three months, making his escape therefrom by tunneling. Was recaptured and held in jail at Richmond, Va., four weeks. Was then taken back to Belle Isle, enduring the hardship of prison life for nine months. He was wounded three times, gun shot in left arm, sabre cut in left shoulder, and gun shot across small of the back. In 1861 he was detailed as scout, serving in this capacity until discharged. He was honorably discharged, July 21, 1864, at Columbia, Tenn. Re-enlisted March 23, 1865, at Washington, D. C., in Co. I, 8th U. S. V. Inf. He fought at the battles of Green Briar, Crab Orchard, Murfreesboro, Stone River, Pittsburg Landing, Deep River, and Lookout Mountain.

A Narrow Escape.

Thankful words written by Mrs. Ada E. Hart, of Groton, S. D. "Was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four Doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles. It has cured me, and thank God, I am saved and now a well and healthy woman." Trial bottles free at T. Slattery's drug store. Regular size 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed or price refunded.
