Mrs. E. Churchill, Berlin, Va., says: "My baby was covered with running sores, I tried all kinds of ointments, but they did not cure him. I then used Dr. King's New Discovery for Croup, Croup, Whooping Cough, and all kinds of lung troubles. It cured him in a few days. I have since used it on my other children, and it has cured them all. It is a most wonderful medicine." F. E. King.

LOCAL BREVETIES.

E. J. Ervin and C. Mohr, of Toledo Ohio, were in town a short time Tuesday.

Trilla Fae Mohr, infant daughter of Fred Mohr of Maxinkuckee, was buried in Poplar Grove cemetery, Saturday 24. Funeral sermon preached by Rev. Wyatt.

General Harrison and several Indianapolis friends are duck hunting on the Kankakee.

Marshall county farmers have pledged 150 acres for sugar beet culture to the Kalamazoo factory.

Hammond is to have two cold storage buildings and eight miles of track built by the Chicago & Erie railroad at a cost of $75,000.

There will be an organization of the first, second and third class postmasters of Indiana within a short time after the state convention of the republicans, April 25 and 26.

Al Keen and Cal Rash have begun work on the Chaney Overmyre house recently purchased from Henry Koontz. When completed it will be one of the finest residences in Culver.

One year ago today many of our people were planting garden seeds. Today they are too busy—keeping dry and warm.

Miss Myrtle Nearpass is now compositor at this office.

The Rt. Rev. John Hazen White, Bishop of Diocese of Michigan City, will hold a Service and preach in the Reception Room of the Palmer House on Tuesday evening, April 3 at 7:30.

The Bishop is a preacher of great power and all are cordially invited to come and hear him.

The building committee of the Evangelical church of Bremen, Ind. was in town one day this week examining the M. E. church here. They will soon erect a $10,000 brick church at that place. They were quit well pleased with the appearance of the church here.

R. J. Wilkinson, son of Rev. R. C. Wilkinson, of St. Charles, Minn., but formerly pastor of the M. E. church in Kewanna, is in town visiting the Herald family.

On the 27th inst., several parties from this section departed for North Dakota, via the Nickel Plate. A large crowd of Culverites went to Burr Oak to bid farewell to parting friends, among the number being Wm. Wise, who has been spending the winter here with his parents. Wm. has been a resident of Dakota about four years, and aside from having 160 acres of land of his own, he works a large farm near Devil's Lake for a banker. Wm. is a hustler, and no doubt will cut quite a figure in the financial circle in the future.

Star City had a shooting scrape in a saloon brawl there last week. A lot of young fellows filled an old man named Hare full of whiskey and then proceeded to have some "fun" with him by knocking him around and kicking him. Finally the fun makers got into trouble among themselves and Lytle, the saloon-keeper, used a revolver with the result that George Hoffman got a bullet in his right shoulder.

Under the auspices of the Murphy Gospel Temperance League, Francis Murphy will inaugurate a great temperance revival in Indianapolis Easter Sunday.

Don't fail ye democrats, to give J. H. Castleman your support at the primaries.

Rev. J. V. Coombs, the State Evangelist of the Christian church, will preach at the Evangelical church next Friday evening April 6th. At the close of the sermon he will talk about the future of the assembly grounds. All are invited.

Henry Koontz, is remodeling his residence. He has moved it back a short distance from the street. He will then have a porch built on the east end and part on the north side and two extra rooms added.

Mr. Swibart who lives in the Wm. Jones' house near the cemetery will move to Delong; Mr. Jones will then move into his house. Mr. Hemminger will move on the Mrs. R. K. Lord's farm and Con Bonacker will move into the Houghton house now occupied by Hemminger; Wm. Overman will then move into his residence, Dan Walter will soon move into the Henry Lang house, J. O. Ferrier will then move into his house he recently purchased, John Osborn will then move into the John C. Zechel house now occupied by Ferrier.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Porter went to South Bend Tuesday and in the evening attended a very beautiful wedding at 1125 south Main street, on which occasion Miss Mary Pearl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Platz, were united by marriage to Mr. Ralph Method. The commodious residence was beautifully decorated. The bride is quite well known in Culver.

I will open my millinery store in Culver about April 1st, and will have a grand display of millinery novelties and trimmed hats, April 18 and 19th. I invite all the ladies to call and examine goods and prices. R. Edwards, opposite M. E. church.

John Osborn opened his grocery and meat market Thursday, and consequently is ready to furnish his patrons with groceries at reasonable prices. He earnestly requests you to call and look over his stock and learn prices. Store in Osborn block first door south of drug store.

Robert Rea, who has been visiting at home for a few days will return to his studies at the Chicago University Sunday. He will complete the course there in about one year, owing to his excellent work while at the C. M. A., he will be able to complete the four year's course in the University in three years.

J. H. Castleman of Culver is feeling jubilant of his prospects. The only fault that can be found with him, is, that he votes the Democrat ticket.

THE NICKEL PLATE ROAD will sell excursion tickets to students account the Easter Vacation at one and a third for the round trip. Tickets are available the day before school closes, the closing day and the day after, the return limit to cover period or vacation. Inquire Agents.

Samuel Osborn and family, are now occupants of their fine residence near the M. E. Church. They are heartily welcomed to Culver.

Every Democrat in union township should tender J. H. Castleman their hearty support at the primaries. He is a home man and deserves a full home support, for it must be acknowledged that Jim is a "make-work" good citizen, notwithstanding he is an advocate of 16 to 1 Democracy.

Chas. Curtis. We mentioned last week that certain men were supporting Chas. Curtis who are residents of Plymouth, and can farther add that he has the unanimous support of other representative men of Plymouth, who who stand high in the archives of their party, and in a business and social way. It also stated that his opponents have a big fight on their hands in Center township. The people of this township are thoroughly cognizant of the fact, that Curtis has the experience, the ability and all the traits of character that go to make a trusty man in a most important position. His party also knows that his loyalty to his party is unquestioned and that he stands prominently as a man who is worthy your confidence and support.

OHIO.

Facts Brought to Mind by an Approaching State Centennial.
Ohio was admitted to the United States as a State in 1802 and in 1902 there will be a formal official observance of that event by Ohio residents. Congress has appropriated $500,000 on condition that the city of Toledo raise an equal amount, which has been done, and a site is being prepared on Lake Erie, a few miles distant from the business center of Toledo, which, when completed for the buildings, will represent a cost of $300,000. Few American states have occupied a place of such influence in national affairs as has Ohio. Not only is President McKinley an Ohio man, but every candidate for the Presidency nominated by the Republican party since the close of the Civil war has, with one exception, been a native of Ohio. Of the conspicuous services in the maintenance and extension of the financial system of the United States of Chase and Sherman as secretaries of the Treasury it is usual to speak in praise, but these are not the only Ohio men who have been distinguished in the Presidents' cabinets. The first Secretary of the Interior, Thomas Ewing, was an Ohio man. Lincoln's Secretary of War, Edwin M. Stanton, was an Ohio man. The Secretary of State during the Spanish war, Judge Day, was an Ohio man, and before was an Ohio Attorney General when Mr. McKinley came into office on March 4, 1897. Grant, Sherman, Sheridan, Crook, Custer and McPherson were Ohio men, and on the Democratic side in politics Hendricks, Thurman, Pendleton and Payne were either natives or residents of that State.

Ohio's influence upon material matters, on the development of agriculture, and the extension of manufactures has been most important, but, unlike some of the other States in the same part of the country, Ohio has diversified its efforts to such an extent that in the product of such varied items of commerce as fish, wine, coal, pottery, wool, glass, agricultural implements, iron, wheat, beer and seeds, it occupies an important if not a leading position.

Ohio as a State enjoys a high credit in matters of legislation it has taken a high rank, the present liquor tax laws of New York, Pennsylvania and most other Eastern States being based upon the pioneer measure, the Dow law of Ohio.

Loss by Lightning in One Year.
The number of deaths by lightning stroke in 1898 was 367 and the number of injuries 494. The places where the proportion of deaths to total population was the greatest were the upper Missouri valley and portions of the Rocky Mountain region. The proportion of deaths by lightning in the United States to the total population is about five in a million, which is higher than the average of most countries.

Nine hundred and fifty-six barns, sheds, etc., 735 dwellings, stores and office buildings, 95 churches and schools and 70 other buildings were struck and damaged by lightning. The approximate loss being about a million and a half dollars. Of the buildings struck, 40 were provided with lightning rods 855 were not, and in 352 cases it could not be ascertained whether the building was provided with rods or not. Nine hundred and sixty-four head of cattle, 306 horses, 30 mules, 426 sheep and 116 hogs were killed by lightning during the year. The total value of the stock reported killed was $48,257.

Uncle Sam's Laundry Bill.
Uncle Sam's laundry bill costs many thousands of dollars each year, although it is all done under contract awarded down to the lowest figure. Most of the towels are manufactured in purpose, too, at an exceedingly cheap price. They are red-bordered, and have the letters "U. S." in the center of each. A large supply is kept on hand in a fair-sized warehouse.

The Treasury Department alone has 7,000 towels, and uses over 2,000 every day. The Interior Department uses 50, and the Pension Office 500 a day. Then there are the Postoffice Department, the great State, War and Navy Departments, the Library, the Agricultural Department, the Printing Bureau, the Patent Office, the bureaus of Education, of Labor, of Indian Affairs, the Census, the Geological Survey and many others, soiling thousands upon thousands of towels every day.

Thankful words written by Mrs. Ada E. Hart, of Groton, S. D.: "Was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Fear doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Saviour, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles. It has cured me, and thank God, I am saved and now a well and healthy woman." Trial bottles free at T. Stattery's drug store. Regular size 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed or money refunded.

Our Congressman.
In the Congressional Record of March 17, we find that Hon. A. L. Brick asked unanimous consent for the present consideration of the bill S. 427, reported favorably to the House by the committee on military affairs.

The clerk read as follows: A bill [S. 427] for the relief of A. F. Fleet, superintendent of the Missouri Military academy, Mexico, Missouri.

Be it enacted, etc. That the secretary of War be, and is hereby, authorized and directed to relative A. F. Fleet, superintendent of the Missouri Military academy, Mexico, Mo., from all money responsibility for so much of the ordnance and ordnance stores issued to said academy under its bond dated August 13, 1892, as was destroyed by fire on September 24, 1896.

The Speaker. Is there objection to the present consideration of the bill?

Mr. McClellan. I would like to have an explanation of the bill.

Mr. Brick. Mr. Speaker, I will briefly explain the purpose of the bill. The Missouri academy, located at Mexico, Mo., was founded in 1800, and on Sept. 24, 1896, was destroyed by fire originating from the electric lights. The cadets were transferred at once to the Culver Military academy in Indiana, and the two schools were united under the direction of the Missouri academy superintendent, Col. A. F. Fleet. During the six years of its existence the Missouri academy had in attendance 264 cadets, and since the union of the two academies the Culver Military Academy has 688 cadets, or total attendance of exactly 1,312, and the Culver Military academy is today, I am informed—and I make the statement upon that information—the largest school of its class in the United States. In the Missouri fire 115 Springfield cadet rifles and equipments, charged by the ordnance department to the academy at $2,066.90 were also lost. These rifles had been in use four years before they were received by the academy, and were consequently less valuable than when first issued.

The superintendent, A. F. Fleet, prays congress to authorize the Secretary of War to relieve him from all money responsibility for so much of the ordnance and ordnance stores issued to said academy as was destroyed by fire on September 24, 1896, on the following grounds. And I give as reason for that that the ordnance stores and the ordnance were destroyed without any fault of Colonel Fleet or the other officers of academy; these patterns of cadet rifles have largely gone out of use, having been entirely superseded by other improved patents so that if the rifles had not been destroyed they would have been of little more use to the government now than that amount of old iron. They would merely have brought a nominal price.

Now congress has recognized the value of these schools in various instances. It costs perhaps $5,000 to run a cadet through West Point. Here are over 1,000 cadets that have been put through this school without expense to government of the United States, and in times of war, for all military purposes, there are a thousand educated as they would have been at West Point without expense to the government.

For these reasons, and for the reason that the guns would be of no value if they had not been destroyed, and because of the great value of the severices of this institution to the United States, of America without any expense to the United States, I ask for Colonel Fleet that he be relieved from something that happened without any fault of his. There were five commissioned officers in the Spanish who came from Colonel Fleet's academy. The committee unanimously report in favor of this bill, and in all fairness I feel he should be relieved.

Mr. Cowherd and Mr. Clark of Missouri and Mr. Hull of Iowa endorsed what Mr. Brick had said.

Mr. Clark said, Mr. Speaker, I want to endorse everything that the gentleman from Indiana [Mr. Brick] and the gentleman from Missouri [Mr. Cowherd] and the gentleman from Iowa [Mr. Hull] have said about this bill. This school was in my congressional district. Professor Fleet is a man of the highest character, and this bill has been reported favorably, unanimously by two committees of the House and passed the senate once. Everybody conversant with the school knows that the facts set out by the gentleman are absolutely true, and I hope the bill will pass without any division.

The bill passed by a unanimous vote.

Where Advertisers Must Be Careful.

"An advertiser has to stick to the truth in South America," said the representative of a large shipping concern. "I know that seems incredible, but it's absolutely true. Some years ago a dealer in New Orleans sent an assorted lot of patent medicines to an American agent at Santiago, Chili. Among the stuff was a lot of toothache drops, which were warranted on the bottle to cure the worst case of toothache in ten minutes. Here nobody would take such an assertion seriously, but down there it's different. The first man who bought a bottle made an immediate application, and then pulled out his watch. When ten minutes elapsed and the tooth calmly continued to ache he was furious and at once had the agent arrested. The poor fellow was fined $1,000 and sentenced to three months in jail. Through the efforts of the American consul the imprisonment was knocked off, but he had to pay the fine, and it broke up his business. That story is absolutely true, as can be testified to by a dozen people now in the city. It is sad to fancy the effect on commercial circles generally if such a law was enforced in the United States."

Parental Diplomacy.

"But what are your objections to the young man?" asked the mother.
"None," answered the other half of the management of the young woman.
"Then why did you refuse his request for Ethel's hand?"
"Only for the dear child's good. If he have any spirit at all he will go ahead and marry her anyhow, and if he don't she is well rid of him."

Spreadin' Happiness.

"I have but one rule that I follow absolutely in this life, and that is to make other people as happy as possible."
"Well," she replied, "you ought to be gratified, then, at what I heard a young lady say the other day."
"What was that?"
"She said that whenever she saw you dancing she had to laugh."

An Injudicious Poet.

Nell—Mad at him! Why, he wrote a lovely poem to her.
Belle Yes, but she never read it. When she saw the title of it she tore the whole thing up in a fit of anger. You see, he called it "Lines on Mabel's Face."

Written words are the pictures of thought.

Wm. O'Keefe.

The subject of this sketch, one of the best known and one of the most progressive and successful business men of Marshall county, comes before the Democrats and solicits their support at the primaries for the nomination, to really the most important office in the county, namely, that of treasurer. Wm. O'Keefe not only stands forth upon his record of loyalty to Democracy, but he has a record of a business career which stands without a blot upon its pages, or a single act that can be counted dishonest between man and man. He was born 46 years ago in Terre Haute Ind., and moved to Marshall county in 1871, and since that time has been engaged in the lumber business and farming. He was educated in common schools, and commenced his business career without a dollar and today stands in the front ranks with the successful business men of the county. Being a man of great executive ability, he is ever on the alert to grasp and solve situations, hence the county owes him much for its splendid financial standing and industrial institutions. His successful business career eminently fits him for conducting the office of treasurer, safely and systematically. In fact his, is a life worthy of emulation, and in supporting him for the important office of treasurer, you will make no mistake. Socially he is a gentleman in every respect, and the man in the commonest walks of life will receive the same courteous treatment as the millionaire. These are facts and can be authenticated by the rank and file of citizens of Marshall county.

ACADEMY NOTES.

Dr. Rowitt, of the University of Chicago preached an excellent sermon to the cadets last Sunday morning.

Two artillery squads have been drilling under Capt. Wood for the past two weeks, and have become very proficient in the art of gunnery. They are carried through all the maneuvers of a section of artillery, and all the movements are executed with clock-work precision. The uniform consists of blue shirts, red neck scarfs, gray trousers, campaign hats, leggins and gannlets. The men will undoubtedly give several exhibitions of their skill during commencement weeks, and from time to time during the spring drills. Cadet Lee is Senior Gunner, and Cadet Matthew, Junior Gunner.

Spring drills commence April 1.

Capt. Adams the government inspector, was here this week.

Bert Culver, of St. Louis, was here Saturday, and Sunday, and Monday.

Chas. Mount, of Connersville Ind., was a Sunday visitor at the academy.

Capt. Wood and Cadets Fleet W. and Chapman were in Plymouth, Monday.

The piano music of the "Culver March", composed by Capt. Wilson, has been published and is now on sale.

The cover is adorned by a picture of the cadets in the parade during the Peace Jubilee in Chicago, and as it is truly a meritorious production, we predict for it a great success.

Mrs. Gov. L. M. Shaw and Miss Shaw, of Des Moines, Iowa, were over Sunday visiting cadet Shaw.

R. G. Culbertson, of Carroll Iowa, a former cadet at C. M. A., but now attending Armour Institute in Chicago, was here this week.

Xenophon de Blumenthal a graduate of C. M. A. last year and now attending the University of Chicago was here visiting his father, Capt de Blumenthal, and many other friends.

Pierre Rhodes and Robert Rea, who graduated in the class of '98, and now attending the University of Chicago, were welcome visitors at the academy this week.

Miss Ella Brookings, of Ypsilanti, Mich, was here this week visiting her brother, Capt. Brookings.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Hollermead, of Fremont, Ohio, were Academy visitors last Monday, and were so well pleased with the school they have decided to send their son here next year.

E. G. Pratt, of Des Moines, Iowa, was here this week.

Sol and Reynold Meyer, of Grand Lake, Arkansas, registered as cadets last Tuesday.

Harold J. Week, of Students Point, Wis., was added to the corps last Monday.

Mrs. R. C. Morehouse, of Omaha, Neb., was here over Sunday visiting her son.

Simon Koontz, of Marion, Ind., paid his son at the academy a visit last Thursday.

Col. Verbeck, Superintendent of St. Johns Military Academy at Maulius, N. Y. was here Monday forenoon and witnessed inspection. He making a round of the principal Military schools of the country and seemed to be highly interested in C. M. A. St. Johns is one of the largest and best known military schools in New York.

The spring examinations are being held this week.

The entertainment given last Saturday night by the Dramatic Club was the best ever given upon a C. M. A. stage. It consisted of the musical two act comedy, "Raising the Wind," and was so highly appreciated by the cadets that nothing but words of praise for it can be heard on all sides. Cadet Capt. Cu-ningham especially distinguished himself as a very clever actor, in fact every member of the troupe was fine. There were several dramatic situations in the play, everything went along as smoothly as could be wished. The orchestra under the direction of Cadet Ba W. is to be highly praised for most excellent playing. After show the members of the Dram Club and the Orchestra were given a supper by the academy, and together the affair was a brilliant success. We regret to say that owing to a lack of time and the fact that this is examination week, we are unable to give as extended a write-up of the show as it merits.

Wm. F. Young.

Wm. F. Young, of Plymouth, candidate for county treasurer has had resided in Plymouth for past 40 years or more. He has been one of the greatest workers in the party, and being a man of great business qualifications, he served with great satisfaction as trustee Center township, and served as ex-councilman two years, when the electric light and water works were made permanent fixtures in Plymouth. He also served with credit to himself and constituency, two years on the Board of health. In all matters of public interest he is right with the times and if nominated elected will serve the people of Marshall county with perfect satisfaction.

This remedy is indeed specifically coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough and influenza. It has become famous for its cures of these diseases, over a large part of the civilized world. The most flattering testimonials have been received, giving accounts of its good work; of the aggravating and persistent coughs it has cured, of severe colds that have yielded promptly to its soothing effects, and of the dangerous attacks of croup it has cured, often saving the life of the child. The extensive use of it for whooping cough has shown that it cures that disease of all dangerous consequences. Sold by T. E. Slattery, Druggist

Six Lots for Sale

Facing Toner Avenue. They are situated in Kreuzberger Park, and are the most desirable property in the city. They are within stone throw of beautiful Lake Maxinkucke and one block from depot and steamer boat landing. The park is one of the finest in the state, and this would be an excellent location for summer resorters. Call on or address R. Kreuzberger, Logansport, Ind.
