We are informed by those whose reliability are unquestioned, that Dr. Wiseman of Culver will be nominated by the republicans for State Representative. If this should be the case, they would have a strong man to place as an opponent against the Plymouth Independent editor. The doctor is well known in the county, and his friends are very numerous; and he will fill the bill to perfection.

Notice is hereby given to the electors of Culver City, Marshall county, Indiana, that an election will be held in said town on the 7th day of May, 1900, for the purpose of electing town Trustees for the 2nd and 3rd wards, and a town Clerk, Treasurer and Marshal. FIND NEW GOLD FIELD

DISCOVERY THOUGHT TO BE THE RICHEST YET MADE.

Tributary of the Yukon Yields Sand that Washes Out $8 to the Pan—One Man and Forty-two Horses Perish in a Lively Stable Fire.

J. M. Rice arrived at Vancouver, B. C., from Skaguay, bringing news of a very rich gold find in Alaska. The new creek is as yet unnamed. It joins the Yukon at White Horse Rapids, rising in American territory. A few days ago two men came down to the new town of Closeleigh at White Horse with two sacks of nuggets, being the picked specimens from the results of about three months of work. They said that though the weather had been cold and the snow deep, their party of seven had done exceedingly well during the last three months. Pans taken out yielded as much as $8. They went back next day to the diggings, about twenty miles up the stream from Yukon. A couple of days later nearly all of the 500 men working at railway construction for the White Pass people went on the stampee; locations were being taken up rapidly when Rice left to come out.

FATAL FIRE IN PERU, IND.

One Man and Forty-two Horses Perish in Burning Stable.

At Peru, Ind., fire destroyed the livery barn of Ward Brothers & Co., together with all the contents, including forty-two horses, eighteen of which were owned by the firm and the others by private parties. Reilly Gregory, an employe, was burned to death. Two other employes made desperate efforts to save Gregory, but finally were forced to leave him to his fate. Lazarus, a promising trotter with a record of 2:20, was among the horses burned. The loss amounts to over $30,000, partly insured. The fire is supposed to have been of incendiary origin.

Butcher and his wife entertained friends till 9 o'clock and the husband played the violin much of the evening for their guests. In the morning he and his personal effects were missing. Sheriff Long and his deputies are looking for him.

Pitcher was a trustee of the estate of the late Thomas Varney, deceased, valued at $600,000. His trust was being investigated in court. Pitcher was to produce his books in court and testify as to how he handled the bank and the trust. Rather than appear in court he blew his brains out.

THE KANSAS CITY CONVENTION BUILDING IS BURNED.

Great Auditorium in Which the National Democratic Convention Was to Have Been Held Is a Total Loss—Will Be Rebuilt Without Delay.

The Kansas City convention hall, the largest auditorium in the United States, with perhaps one exception, and in which the Democratic national convention was to have been held, caught fire shortly after 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. The fire started in the rear, and the beautiful building was soon a mass of flames. The firemen could do but little but to attempt to save surrounding property. Half an hour after the fire was discovered the roof fell in with a crash. The Second Presbyterian Church nearby caught fire, and is almost a total loss. The fire next spread to a row of three-story flats, and the Aldine flats, an apartment, was threatened. The Lathrop school caught fire, but the pupils were marched out in safety.

The convention hall cost about a quarter of a million, and is insured. Before the roof of the building fell $10,000 had been subscribed by spectators to rebuild the hall, and it is claimed the entire amount will be raised in a short time by public subscription. The directors of the burned building say it will be rebuilt, and be ready for the opening of the Democratic convention on July 4.

OVATION FOR THE QUEEN.

Victoria Sets Foot on Irish Soil After Nearly Forty Years.

Queen Victoria set foot on Irish soil Wednesday for the first time in almost forty years. Dublin was resplendent. The decorations in the city and along the route which the Queen took from Kings-town were lavish and more magnificent than those of London at the time of the diamond jubilee. The streets were spanned in a hundred places by elaborate arches bearing mottoes of welcome and expressions of loyalty. The entrance to the city at Leeson street bridge was marked by a huge triumphal arch of flags, flowers and evergreen on which was emblazoned a welcome to Dublin in gold letters. The streets were jammed with people at an early hour. Irishmen had gathered from the ends of the island, and hundreds of Englishmen were in the throng. The entire route from Kings-town to Dublin was lined with spectators. The Queen was received by the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, Earl Cadogan, the Duke of Connaught, commander of the forces in Ireland, Lord Mayor Talbot of Dublin and a number of other nota-

Route of Broadwood's Force Proves Skill in Preparing Ambuscade.

The London correspondents with Gen. Roberts add little of importance to the commander-in-chief's account of the disaster to Col. Broadwood's column. All the accounts of the fight from a British source concur in stating that Col. Broadwood's force of about 1,000 men was outnumbered by the Boers eight or ten to one, and the arrival of the infantry division and Gen. French's cavalry alone prevented the annihilation of Col. Broadwood's command.

As regards the details of the affair, the stories differ considerably. The affair seems rather to testify to the skill of the Boers in preparing ambuscades than to neglect of the British to reconnoiter the route of the convoy. It seems that the scouts of the convoy must have passed close to the ambushers, who apparently were as invisible as partridges in cover.

The correspondent of the London Morning Post, in describing the working of the trap, says the convoy had scarcely proceeded 300 yards, and the men were still eating breakfast, when the enemy opened fire from a donga in front and eighty yards from the head of the convoy. The fire was deadly, and the men of the leading troops, Roberts' horse, were swept from their saddles. A scene of confusion followed. The teams of four guns, their drivers having been shot, stampeded and carried the guns out of action. These and one other gun were saved. The teams of the other guns were shot, and the guns, with the convoy, fell into the hands of the enemy. Meanwhile Gen. Alderson's brigade held back a force of the enemy, estimated to number 7,000, with great gallantry, losing heavily, and falling back by degrees. The enemy in a donga in their rear pursued the flying guns until the approach of the Ninth division from Bloemfontein checked the pursuit.

CONDITION OF CROPS.

Unfavorable Reports of Winter Wheat in the Middle West.

The chief of the climate and crop division of the weather bureau reports the crop condition on the 1st of April. East of the Mississippi River, except in the Southern States, the season has been generally backward and unfavorable for farm work, with excessive rains in portions of the Gulf States, and heavy snows in portions of the lake region and New England. On the Pacific slope and in the Rocky Mountain districts exceptionally favorable conditions have prevailed, and farming operations are progressing rapidly.

Unfavorable reports regarding winter wheat continue from Wisconsin, Michigan, Ohio, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and portions of Missouri, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky and Maryland; elsewhere the

The Queen drove the ten miles to Dublin in a carriage drawn by four horses with outriders and escorted by the Life Guards. The royal procession passed through a lane of thousands of people, who cheered her Majesty continuously.

The Queen arrived at Leeson street bridge early in the afternoon. Here a platform had been erected for the ceremony of presenting Victoria with the keys of the city. The keys were presented to her Majesty on the same cushion that was used on the occasion of her previous visit.

FIRES AT WALES.

Attempt Is Made to Assassinate the Heir to the English Throne.

An attempt to assassinate the Prince of Wales was made at Brussels Wednesday. Two shots were fired at him, but both went wide of the mark. The would-be assassin was arrested. The attempted assassination occurred in the station du Nord. The Prince, accompanied by his wife, was descending from the train when a young fellow rushed forward and crop looks favorable and enters spring in excellent condition. Outside of a limited area in Southern California, winter wheat on the Pacific coast is well advanced and promising. Some spring wheat has been sown over the southern portion of the spring-wheat region, and also in Montana, where the season is unusually advanced.

Corn is being planted in the Southern States, some as far north as North Carolina. In Southern Texas the bulk of the crop has been planted. Oats are being sown in Kansas, Missouri, Ohio and Kentucky, and are coming up to good stands in Oklahoma, Texas, Arkansas, Tennessee and Mississippi. Reports of winter killing of the fall crop are received from Virginia and Georgia. Cotton planting has begun over the southern portion of the cotton region. The prospects for fruit are favorable, although peaches sustained some damage in Missouri, Arkansas, Illinois and Ohio.

The soil is in good condition and considerable plowing has been done in all except the more northerly sections, where frost still remains in the ground, and in portions of New Jersey, Maryland, West Virginia, Tennessee and North Carolina, where this work has been delayed by wet weather.

CHURCH AND CLERGY.

One hundred and twelve pupils of the Indian school at Carlisle, Pa., have been received into the Catholic Church. The school has 162 pupils.

The British Foreign Bible Society intends to provide all Boer prisoners with Bibles printed in Dutch, and the plan will be carried out within a few weeks.

Cardinal Vaughan received from the Pope a dispensation remitting the Lenten fast on thirty-eight out of forty days of Lent. This act of his Holiness was owing to the prevalent influenza in England.

The queerest church in the world is in Bergen, in Norway. It is completely made of paper, and rendered waterproof by an application of quicklime with curdled milk and white of eggs. Over 1,000 people may be seated in its interior.

THE PRINCE OF WALES.

fired two shots from a revolver at the Prince. Instantly there was great confusion in the station, and bystanders seized the man before he could fire again. Anxious officials surrounded the Prince when it was learned that the shots had gone wide and that he was unhurt. The Prince and Princess of Wales were in Brussels en route to Denmark.

Surrounded Near Reddersburg and Forced to Surrender.

The reports of the recent operations in South Africa are full of suggestion as to the nature of the difficulties with which Lord Roberts is now contending and the renewed vigor of the resistance offered by the Boers. Instead of falling back to strongholds farther north and waiting in their intrenchments the burghers evidently are acting on the aggressive on all sides of Bloemfontein. Within a week there have been engagements to the southeast, to the south and to the northwest of the Free State capital. It would appear that so far from having accepted Lord Roberts' proffered terms of pacification, the Boers are determined to make his present position very difficult, even if they do not undertake to hem him in.

According to Friday's dispatches an engagement at Boshof, a town to the north and west of Bloemfontein, resulted in a Boer loss of fifty men and the death of Gen. Villebois de Mareuil, the well-known French strategist. But simultaneously came the report of the capture of five companies of British infantry to the south of Bloemfontein at a town named Reddersburg. The sudden appearance upon Lord Roberts' rear and near his main line of communication of a force large enough to carry off half a British regiment is suggestive, and the news of the reverse cannot fail to create considerable uneasiness in London. It is true that Lord Roberts was able to communicate with Gen. Gatacre at Springfontein, ordering him to advance upon Reddersburg, and presumably the main British army is by no means cut off from its base. But why Roberts should have called troops from Springfontein instead of detaching some of his own men at Bloemfontein, and how the Boers come to be operating in such force near the British line of communication, are puzzles which cannot be solved in the light of the dispatches.

The death of Gen. Villebois de Mareuil will be a serious loss to the Boers, but it is more than offset by the British loss at Reddersburg. The moral effect of the Boer success in trapping five British companies will be reflected both in the activity of the encouraged burghers and in the chagrin and disappointment shown in England.

RULES IN FAVOR OF BECKHAM.

Kentucky Court of Appeals Decides the Governorship Case.

With a full bench sitting, the Court of Appeals of Kentucky Friday handed down a decision in the governorship case. By a vote of 6 to 1 the ruling of Circuit Judge Emmett Field of Louisville, in favor of Beckham is sustained. The dissenting vote was cast by Judge Durrelle, one of the three Republican judges, who wrote a separate opinion. The principal opinion was written by Judge Hobson. Judges Guffy and Burnham, Republicans, presented shorter concurring opinions.

Judge Hobson's opinion recites that the action of the Legislature was final; that the courts have no authority to reverse this action; that the Governor exceeded his authority in adjourning the Legislature in Frankfort to London, and that the journals of the two houses of the General Assembly being regular, cannot be impeached. Judge Durrelle's dissenting opinion was based on the fact that the Legislature at the time it assumed to act on the gubernatorial case was a mere contest board, and under the notice of the contestants had no jurisdiction to act in a judicial capacity at that particular time. He therefore holds the action of the Legislature to be null and void and subject to reversal in courts of law. The separate assenting opinions of Judges Guffy and Burnham practically agree in all vital points with the decision of Judge Hobson. But while assenting as to the main issues, Judges Guffy and Burnham strongly condemn the Goebel election law.

BLOODSHED IN PORTO RICO.

Trouble with English-Speaking Negroes Culminates in Violence.

There has been bad blood between the foreign colored workmen in Porto Tiera, Porto Rico, and the natives for some time. The natives were particularly incensed against the English-speaking negroes from St. Thomas and St. Kitts. Thursday afternoon an immense mob of infuriated Porto Ricans attacked the foreigners with the greatest violence. Revolvers, clubs, stones and any weapons at hand were used.

The negroes resisted stubbornly and killed one of their assailants. Several of the foreigners were seriously clubbed or stabbed. A recent strike caused the trouble, the natives declaring the foreigners were trying to take their places, and that every one would be driven into the sea. One hundred American soldiers were sent to the scene, and took charge of the docks where the trouble occurred.

Peace was restored before the Senate convened on Wednesday and during the proceedings of the session there was only a reminder of the harsh language used just before adjournment Tuesday. The session opened with a lively and interesting discussion of the status of the Quay case, in the course of which Mr. Wolcott apologized for the language he had used Tuesday, disclaiming any intention of being offensive to anybody, least of all to his friend Mr. Lodge. The Colorado Senator made a vehement and eloquent appeal for early action upon the Quay case. He was supported by other friends of Mr. Quay, and it was decided finally to take up the case Thursday, under the unanimous consent agreement made on March 16. In accordance also with that agreement the Spooner bill was made the unfinished business, thereby bringing the Philippine question to a direct issue in the Senate. In the House there was an exciting scene as the climax of a discussion of the Kentucky situation when Mr. Wheeler, a Kentucky Democrat, and Mr. Pugh, a Kentucky Republican, faced each other from opposite sides of the main aisle and indulged in a wordy duel. Mr. Pugh charged Mr. Wheeler with misrepresenting certain facts. He was laboring under great excitement. Mr. Wheeler showed admirable temper, and though quick to resent the fancied insult, awaited the explanation of Mr. Pugh, in which he disclaimed any intention of imputing to him personally a desire to distort the facts. Throughout the debate, which was precipitated by Mr. Boering, the other Republican member from Kentucky, there was an air of suppressed excitement. It was the first time the subject had been broached in the House, and intense interest was manifested. Mr. Lacey of Iowa concluded the debate with a general denunciation of the Goebel election law. This incident overshadowed the other speeches on the Hawaiian bill, many of which were irrelevant.

Mr. Gallinger presented an argument in the Senate on Thursday against the seating of M. S. Quay as a Senator from Pennsylvania. He devoted himself almost entirely to the constitutional phases of the question. Most of the day was spent in executive session on the Hay-Pauncefote treaty. In the House when 4 o'clock, the hour fixed for taking a vote on the bill to provide territorial government for Hawaii, arrived, less than half the bill had been covered and so many amendments remained that it was agreed to continue the consideration of the bill finished the five-minute rule until it was were agreed. Several important amendments: To nullify among them these in the islands, to prohibit the sale of intoxicating liquor in saloons, to limit the land holdings of corporations to 1,000 acres, to substitute for the House provision relating to the appointment of judges and other officers of the island the Senate provision. The House provision lodged the appointing power in the Governor, the Senate placed it in the President.

During almost the entire session of the Senate on Saturday an amendment to the Indian appropriation bill offered by Mr. Jones (Ark.) providing for the continuance of the Government's employment of the contract Indian schools, in certain circumstances, was under consideration. The debate took a wide range, the whole question of sectarian schools being gone over at length. The notable feature of the discussion was an eloquent speech delivered in support of the amendment by Mr. Vest. The amendment was pending when the Senate adjourned, the vote upon it disclosing the fact that no quorum was present. The House paid tribute to the memory of the late Richard Parks Bland of Missouri, popularly known as "Silver Dick" Bland, who was a member of the House for twenty-six years. Splendid eulogies of the life and career of the great champion of silver were offered by members on both sides of the political aisle. At the conclusion of the ceremonies the House, as further mark of respect, adjourned. A resolution was adopted calling upon the Secretary of War for information as to whether Charles E. Magoon, the legal adviser of the insular bureau, had ever rendered an opinion that, by the treaty with Spain, the Constitution was extended over Porto Rico and the Philippines.

After some further discussion the Senate on Monday rejected the sectarian school amendment to the Indian appropriation bill offered by Mr. Jones (Dem., Ark.) by a vote of 30 to 16. As has been the practice for two or three years, the free homes measure was offered as an amendment to the bill, but it was ruled out on the point of order that it was general legislation and therefore not germane to an appropriation bill. Without division, the bill was passed. The measure carries about $8,414,000. An unsuccessful effort was made to agree upon a date for a vote on the resolution relative to the seating of Mr. Quay as a Senator from Pennsylvania. During the last two hours of the session the Alaskan civil code bill was under consideration. An amendment offered by Mr. Hainsbrough concerning the title to mining claims in the Cape Nome district provoked a warm debate. In the House the agricultural appropriation bill was under consideration and was made the vehicle of considerable desultory debate on irrelevant political topics. Good progress was made with the bill after the close of general debate, twenty-five of the thirty-seven pages being covered before adjournment.

RECORD OF EVENTS OF THE PAST WEEK.

Almost Suffocated in a Beer Vault—Marion Girl Found in an Ohio Convent—Diamonds Discovered in a Paper Mill—Children Burn to Death.

Sanuey McWilliams, the oldest hotel porter in Muncie, who has amassed a snug sum from many years' service at the Kirby hotel, had a close call for his life the other night. He entered the beer cooler under the barroom in the hotel. The door was mysteriously slammed shut. It locked from the outside, and there seemed no possible means of escape from suffocation. McWilliams knelt and began a prayer when the thought struck him that if the beer was shut off an investigation might bring relief. With a mallet he pounded flat the lead pipes connecting the beer counter with the keys, and shortly the door was opened. McWilliams was nearly dead when found.

Disappeared Into a Convent.

Miss Kittie O'Brien, a girl 17 years of age, disappeared from Marion Feb. 13, and no trace of her could be found by the officers. The friends of the girl have been searching for her and sent a detective to Columbus, Ohio, where he found her in a convent. Mrs. Lizzie O'Brien, the girl's stepmother, was arrested on the charge of kidnaping and her son was also arrested at Crawfordsville on the same charge. It is the supposition that a love affair is the cause of the kidnaping.

Found Many Stones in Tin Box.

Rock Boine, a machine tender at the Hartford City paper mill, found in a bale of old papers which had been shipped from England a small tin box which contained thirty-one large brilliant stones, believed to be genuine diamonds. The box was wrapped in parchment, on the inside of which appeared the address: "London office Paper Trade Journal, 440 Cannon street, London, England." The stones are of various sizes and are believed to be worth a fabulous sum.

Two Children Burn to Death.

Two children of William York, a farmer, living six miles west of Mitchell, were burned to death while playing in a field of broom sedge. A farm hand was told to burn the sedge and after setting fire to one side discovered the children and warned them to run. In their flight one dropped her doll and both went back to get it. The fire overtook them and they were terribly burned, both dying a few hours later.

New Church at Vincennes, Ind.

The magnificent new stone church in Vincennes, just completed by the Methodists, was dedicated with imposing services by Bishop McCabe, assisted by Bishop Moore, editor of the Advocate. The church complete cost $425,000, every cent of which is paid. Thirty-one new members were received on the same day.

Within Our Borders.

Kokomo Congregationalists may start a college. Hendricks County wheat prospects are discouraging. Jonesboro may get a new flint workers' glass factory. Vacant houses scarcer than hen's teeth in North Salem. First Christian Church, Muncie, will build a new structure. Another monster oil well has been struck at Hartford City. Dublin possesses 57 widows, 27 old bachelors and 50 old maids. John Redinger and wife, Seymour, celebrated their golden wedding. South Bend is suffering from petty thieves. Thought to be boys. The new Hubbard chipped glass factory has started at Hartford City. Harry Blackwell, Bunker Hill, sold 49 chickens, averaging 11 pounds, for $49. James R. Rouk, Boone County farmer, was killed by the tree which he felled. John Bailey, oldest engineer on the Fort Wayne branch of the Lake Shore, fell from his engine and was killed. Little Perry Chilcote, Butler, put a toy pistol in the fire to melt off some lead. Little finger and side of hand amputated. Laporte County Commissioners have ordered a special election, May 8, on the proposition to spend $75,000 for gravel roads. Rev. A. D. Buck, Noblesville, presiding elder of the Holiness Church, was showered with ripe eggs and other missiles at Hobbs. Peter Wolfe, a Warrick County farmer, found dead by the roadside near Evansville, was killed in a runaway. His neck was broken. Wm. Meinert, Evansville brick maker, drowned himself in a pond. He told friends several days before that he wanted to die by drowning. A receiver has been appointed for William Buschmann & Co., an old grocery firm of Indianapolis. The liabilities are $42,000; assets about the same. The Midland steel works at Muncie has been transferred to the sheet iron trust. The sale price was about $1,000,000. Work in the mill has been resumed. The boiler in the grist and saw mill of Jacob Kiefer at Selvin exploded and Roscoe Day, the engineer, was fatally scalded. Parks Bradley, W. W. Stewart and Joel Taylor received severe injuries. The St. Joseph and Elkhart Power Company has begun preparations at South Bend for the construction of a dam in the St. Joseph river above South Bend. The power generated will be used, 4,000 horse power of electricity to be conveyed to and sold in South Bend for manufacturing purposes.

The dam across the Colorado river at Austin, Texas, which was washed away the other day, was built in 1894, at a cost of $1,500,000, and was a marvelous piece of work. The dam created a fall of sixty feet, and developed at the lowest stage of the river some 12,000 or 14,000 horse-power, available ten hours a day, being in excess of the permanent water power at Lowell, Mass. Compared with some dams, built for the purpose of impounding water, this was not regarded as a high dam. For a dam discharging the drainage of 40,000 square miles of ground, it was unique in the history of engineering. The dam was nearly 1,200 feet in length, measured on the crest, resting throughout its entire length upon a solid and refractory rock, rising above the same to a height of seventy feet at the highest part. The width at the bottom was sixty feet, at the top sixteen feet. The water fell down an incline, changing by a gentle curve to a horizontal direction near the bottom, and spent its force on the water below instead of the bed of the stream. The entire exterior of the dam, including the massive capstones, was of dressed granite, and the interior of limestone rubble-work, all laid in hydraulic cement.

JULIA ARTHUR RETIRES.

Ill-Health May Prevent Her Return to the Stage.

Julia Arthur, the actress, has again broken down under a nervous strain and has been obliged to leave the stage. Her retirement will be permanent, unless her health shows considerable improvement. This is the third time in three seasons that she has been obliged to cancel her engagements. Her millionaire husband, B. P. Cheney, says if she ever returns to the stage it will be for short seasons of ten weeks, and New York, Boston, Philadelphia and Chicago are the only cities in which she will perform.

Miss Arthur is a native of Hamilton, Ont., her family name being Lewis. She was only 15 when she made her professional debut with Daniel Bandman, the

The second year she did so well in such difficult parts as Portia, Juliet, Desdemona and Ophelia that her family sent her to Germany and England to study her art. Upon her return she identified herself with the Palmer stock company, and her ability was instantly recognized.

AGUINALDO IN MANILA.

Letters to War Department Intimate He is Hiding There.

In the mail from Manila, which arrived at the War Department on Friday, there were at least two communications expressing the conviction that Aguinaldo is hiding in that city. One of these letters is from a United States secret service official, who has found conclusive evidence that the Tagal leader had been in Manila since the rebel armies in Luzon were dispersed, and who was satisfied that, as he had not escaped by water, he was probably still concealed in the native part of the town. The other letter was from an army officer attached to headquarters, who voiced the opinion of all the higher military authorities that Aguinaldo was certainly not in any of the outlying districts on the island of Luzon.

The story of a massacre of Filipino prisoners by American soldiers is told for the first time in a letter written by a Brooklyn boy, Corporal Leonard Mygatt, who is serving in the Philippines with the Twenty-third regiment of regular infantry. To avenge the murder of their comrades, Mygatt says, thirty men of his company led the unarmed Filipinos into the jungle and fired volley after volley into them, until all of the brown skinned captives lay dead. Mygatt says he was an actor in the affair from beginning to end, and he describes it in a letter to his sister, Mrs. Henry A. Powell, in Brooklyn.

OTIS IS COMING HOME.

Permission to Return Granted at His Own Request—Will Start in May.

The official announcement was made at the War Department in Washington that Maj. Gen. Otis will return to the United States within the next two months. He will be succeeded in command of the division of the Philippines by Gen. MacArthur. Gen. Otis' return is in response to a cable request from him, in which he says that private interests require his return, and that he wished to sail by May 1, if possible. He adds that he believes matters can be placed in quite satisfactory condition by that date. Secretary Root laid this dispatch before the President and explained the situation, when it was determined to grant the request.

During March the gross earnings of the Iowa Central amounted to $196,523, an increase of $19,733 over March of last year.

It is said negotiations are in progress for the merging of the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburg road with the New York Central system.

Railway men from Arkansas report that railroad building is on a boom in Marion County, where extensive zinc fields are located.

It is stated unofficially in railroad circles that the Louisville and Nashville will become owner of the Monon, and secure its own line into Chicago.

Extensive new freight yards and docks are to be built by the Illinois Central in New Orleans. It will be one of the largest terminal yards in the world.

Demoralization is said to exist in passenger rates east-bound from Kansas City. Brokers are said to be loaded with tickets to New York via Chicago.

The Santa Fe has purchased property in Kansas City for which it paid $200,000. A new freight depot to cost $150,000 will soon be erected on the site.

A joint meeting of Eastern and Western passenger representatives was held in Chicago in an effort to adjust the difficulties surrounding the handling of western immigrant travel.

The columns of Eastern exchanges bristle with information concerning a new $20,000,000 trunk line system between Chicago and New York and Boston, with an annual earning capacity of $1,000,000 net.

General Passenger Agent Stone of the Chicago and Eastern Illinois is in Texas arranging details necessary to the through passenger business which the road has established by its connection with the cotton belt route.

Central Passenger Association rebate payments for the month of March were $148,342, an increase of $14,404 as compared with the payments made in March, 1899. The heaviest payments in any preceding month aggregated $138,750.

Already officials of Eastern lines are talking Pan-American exposition. If predictions prove true, the exposition at Buffalo will do more toward promoting trade and travel between this country and Central America than anything else could.

With one exception, east-bound shipments from Chicago last week of grain, flour and provisions were the heaviest on record. They amounted to 204,000 tons, divided as follows: Grain, 149,914 tons; flour, 40,459 tons; provisions, 13,626 tons.

During the month of March 15,478 interchangeable 1,000-mile tickets good on all Central Passenger Association lines were sold, an increase of 1,857 over the number sold in March of last year and an increase of 4,308 over the sales in March, 1899.

The Rock Island soon will begin the work of building 285 new steel bridges along its line, and it expects to have all of the structures ready for use by the beginning of the new century. Between $350,000 and $400,000 will be spent in replacing the present wooden bridges with the more durable structures.

Officers of the Chicago-Kansas City lines have practically withdrawn their protest against the date of the Democratic national convention in Kansas City. When July 4 was set by the national committee the railroads protested on the ground that they could not handle the crowds by reason of the fact that all available equipment of the different lines would be in use at that time.

Control of the Reading Railroad has been acquired by the Vanderbilts. In the variety of its important bearings no other railroad deal announced in years approached this. Not only is the vast mileage, with the extraordinary coal land holdings of the Reading company, taken over by the Vanderbilts, but the Lehigh Valley and the Erie systems are to be absorbed.

ing eastward. Creamer, one of the largest and most prosperous farmers. Mr. Creamer came to this country in 1880 and settled on a portion of the land which comprises his present enormous farm of 1,280 acres.

In common with many others of a similar period he experienced all the hardships and difficulties common to the absence of railway and market facilities. In nowise daunted, by energy, industry and indomitable will he has been able to surmount all obstacles and has achieved an unparalleled success, and is known throughout the district as one of its pre-eminent farmers. His operations extend over 1,280 acres, two sections (the thought alone of so much land makes the Eastern farmer dizzy); 800 acres of this is broken and the remainder is excellent pasture land and wood. This harvest he took off a crop of 500 acres of wheat and 200 of other grains. Four hundred acres are plowed and ready for wheat next spring. Mr. Creamer is, as has been stated, a mixed farmer of no mean proportions, having at the present time 40 horses, 60 head of cattle and 50 pigs. The most modern farm buildings are found on his premises, the main building being a barn 55 feet square on a stone foundation, containing stabling for 16 horses and a large number of cattle. The loft is stored with 29 loads of sheaf oats for feed and tons of hay; there is also a cutting box. Another building of large dimensions is the granary, in which, after teaming large quantities to market, he still has stored 3,000 bushels of wheat. A crushing machine is in the building. There are a number of lesser buildings containing chicken house, pig pens and cattle sheds. The farm residence is a handsome frame structure of ample proportions, in connection with it is a wood shed. The water supply is unexcelled; besides house supply there is a well in the stables and a never failing spring situated in a bluff, which never freezes. Surrounded by a thick bluff of poplars, extending in a semi-circle to the west, north and east, the winter storms are broken and accumulation of snow unknown. Added to his farming operations, Mr. Creamer conducts a threshing outfit for the season. His success is an instance of what can be accomplished in Western Canada.—Baldur (Man.) Gazette, Nov. 16, 1899.

Thousands of settlers are going from the United States to take advantage of the free homestead lands that are being offered by the Canadian Government.

GERMAN STREET CAR SYSTEM

Fares Can't Be Evaded Nor the Public Imposed Upon.

The chances of evading fares on the street cars of German cities are very slight. When a passenger steps on a car the conductor immediately asks where he is going, and then prepares his ticket, which serves also as a receipt for the fare. The preparation of a ticket consists only in detaching it from a block and punching it or marking it with a pencil. This process involves much more work than the simple process of ringing up the fares, as conductors do in America; but the task is lightened by the fact that only a certain number of persons are permitted to ride on a car at the same time. The number of sitting and standing places is plainly marked on each car. If a car is designed to carry thirty persons, no more than thirty persons will be permitted to ride on that car at the same time. When anything in Germany is forbidden it is settled once for all. In order that every person who rides shall get the prescribed ticket inspectors are employed who spend their time in ascertaining whether the conductors are doing their duty. These inspectors step into the cars and ask the passengers for their tickets. They note the number of the tickets and whether they correspond with the stubs retained by the conductor. The clerk who gives out the blocks of tickets to the conductors notes the number of the uppermost ticket, and at the return of each block collects from the conductor who returned it as many fares as there are tickets detached. The rate of fares varies from two and one-half cents to five, according to the distance. Small children are carried for one-half fare, and any one for the sum of $2.50 may secure a ticket which entitles him to ride as much as he wishes for one month. When a car is full the conductor displays a placard bearing the words "Occupied."

Misnomers.

Mrs. Brown—Our language is full of misnomers. For instance, I met a man once who was a perfect bear, and they called him a civil engineer.

Mrs. Smith—Yes, but that is not so ridiculous as the man they call a "teller" in a bank. He won't tell you anything. I asked one the other day how much money Mr. Jones had on deposit, and he just laughed at me.

Princes of Wales.

Of the sixteen predecessors of the Prince of Wales in his title only five have attained the age of 50, namely, Henry VIII., Charles II., George III., and George IV. Five died before the age of 20 and five died by violence—Edward I., Richard II., Edward, son of Henry V., Edward V. and Charles I.

Painless Dentistry.

"Great heavens! What's the cause of all that yelling around the corner? Come! Let's hurry, there may be a murder."

"Stay! Don't get excited. We're used to that. We hear it every day. There's a painless dentist's office around there."

Not a Speaking One.

Hoax—Henspeck's wife is an awful talker. Did you ever meet her?
Joax—Oh, yes; I have a listening acquaintance with her.

One Way of Emphasizing.

The late Gen. Logan, says a writer, was a most intense man in his feelings and his beliefs. He showed this in his public speeches. At one time I was a member of the reception committee at a small town where the General was to speak, and consequently sat quite near him on the platform. I forget what was the topic, but the General was deeply interested in it, and finally, in emphasizing a point, banged his hand with tremendous force upon a hard-wood table at his elbow. So strong a blow was it that one of the bones of his hand was broken. He nevertheless courageously finished his speech, but he had to carry his hand in a splint for some time thereafter, and it was a question of weeks before he wholly recovered its use.

A Pleading Question.

Old Man—Why don't you marry?
Young One—Do you think a man could procure all the necessities of life on $1,800 a year?

Old Man—Of course, but not the luxuries.
Young Man—Well, I haven't decided yet whether a wife is a necessity or a luxury.

A LIFE AND DEATH FIGHT.

Mr. W. A. Hines of Manchester, Ia., writing of his almost miraculous escape from death, says: "Exposure after measles induced serious lung trouble, which ended in Consumption. I had frequent hemorrhages and coughed night and day. All my doctors said I must soon die, then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which completely cured me. I would not be without it even if it cost $5.00 a bottle. Hundreds have used it on my recommendation all say it never fails to cure Throat, Chest and Lung troubles." Regular size 50c and $1.00. WINGED PESTS.

There are six species of mosquito found in New England.

The largest American fly is a little over half an inch in length.

It is said that hornets never use the same nest a second season.

According to the Mosaic law, the locust was "clean" and might be eaten by the Jews.

Italians call locusts "little horses," and the German term for these pests is "hay horses."

A fly which has been caught by adhesive paper has been observed to show signs of life at the end of nine days.

The wheat fly is said to have been nearly as destructive to the wheat crops of this country as the Hessian fly.

Mosquitoes and other gnats furnish almost the sole food for a very large family of insect-eating birds known as fly-catchers.

The nest of the wasp shows a degree of engineering skill and adaptation of means to end which rival the same talents of the bee.

The mosquitoes found in swamps and damp woods are generally more brilliantly colored than those varieties which frequent human habitations.

The flesh fly produces about 20,000 young in a season. The larvae are hatched almost instantly from the egg, and at once begin their work of destruction.

The wasp is an insect highwayman. Wasps have often been observed to rob bees while these industrious workers, laden with the fruits of an expedition, are returning to the hive.

When You Have a Bad Cold

You want a remedy that will not only give quick relief but effect a permanent cure.

You want a remedy that will relieve the lungs and keep expectoration easy.

You want a remedy that will counteract any tendency toward pneumonia.

You want a remedy that is pleasant and safe to take.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the only medicine in use that meets all of these requirements. This remedy is famous for its cures of bad colds throughout the United States and in many foreign countries. It has many rivals, but, for the speedy and permanent cure of bad colds, stands without a peer and its splendid qualities are everywhere admired and praised. For sale by T. E. Slattery, druggist, says he never had anything do him so much good and give such quick relief from as Chamberlain's Pain Balm. He was bothered greatly with shooting pains from hip to knee until he used this liniment, which affords prompt relief.—B. F. BAKER, druggist, St. Paris, Ohio. For sale by T. E. Slattery, Druggist.

When you can not sleep for coughing take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It always gives prompt relief. It is most excellent for colds, too, as it aids expectoration, relieves the lungs and prevents any tendency toward pneumonia. For sale by T. E. Slattery, Druggist.

"One Minute Cough Cure is the best remedy I ever used for coughs and colds. It is unequalled for whooping cough. Children all like it, writes H. N. Williams, Gentryville, Ind. Never fails. It is the only harmless remedy that gives immediate results. Cures coughs, colds, hoarseness, croup, pneumonia, bronchitis and all throat and lung troubles. It early use prevents consumption. T. E. Slattery.

G. A. R. Encampment.

The last time that the State Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic was held in Indianapolis was in 1891. At that session it was voted to hold the next Encampment in Fort Wayne. One of the reasons given for going the rounds of the other cities was that Indianapolis gave the veterans little or no attention. This was doubtless true, but it was not due to any lack of appreciation but because public attention was not called to the matter. And now that it has come to Indianapolis again, its citizens have taken action which will insure the Grand Army and other bodies a welcome and a provision for their entertainment and appreciation of the ever honored association, creditable to the patriotism and public spirit of the capitol city. The session of the encampment will begin Wednesday, May 16 and close the 17. A rate of one cent a mile over the railroads has been secured, inside of Indiana, a rate which the Grand Army in no other State has ever had. The tickets will be sold Tuesday and Wednesday and will be good until Saturday. The Grand Army headquarters will be at Hotel English where the rates will be $2 per day. One of the features of the occasion will be the parade. The military, the fire department and other organizations will participate. Wednesday night camp-fires will be held in Tomlinson Hall, Plymouth church and in Fletcher Place church which will be addressed by men of national reputation. An abundance of music has been provided. These are but a few of the attractions. Indianapolis one of the handsomest cities in the country, will have on its spring dress to welcome the veterans and their friends.

From North Dakota.

Mr. Editor.—I take pleasure in writing you a few lines hoping this will find you and family well, as it leaves us the same. We arrived all "O K." Arrived at Chicago at 4 p. m. left at 6:30, arrived at St. Paul at 10:00 a. m., arriving at Devil's Lake 9 p. m. and filed our land all right, had one set of papers made out by 9:30 p. m. Next morning, the office was filled with home-seekers. The climate is fine here, and has all indications of a fine spring. There was some snow in Wisconsin but none here. We will go to seeding in a few days. Mr. Snyder and daughter are well pleased with the country; 45 coaches came two days ago, 3 for Cando, 2 for Perth, 2 for Rolla, and 4 for St. John, near the Canada line. The railroad Co., gave ratee from Pennsylvania to any part of Dakota for $5.00. There were 40 car loads of freight side-tracked at Devil's Lake. When we came up the agent said there were about 10,000 emigrants coming to North Dakota. We had a most enjoyable trip. Well, have written about all the news at present. Yours respectfully,

Mrs. Edith Snyder.

Lectures.

The Epworth League will furnish to the citizens of Culver and neighborhood a rare opportunity in a series of popular lectures, to be given May 14-16.

The lecturers are men of well-known ability throughout the state as platform speakers. They are the Rev. S. W. Goss of Crawfordsville, J. A. Maxwell of Kewanna and Horace G. Ogden of Attica.

A full program will be published later. Good music will also be a feature of each evening's entertainment.

The success of this undertaking will of course depend upon public patronage, and it is one that deserves the most hearty support. The proceeds will be used by the League to help pay their share of the church indebtedness.

Season tickets including the three lectures will be sold at the low price of fifty cents. Single tickets twenty-five cents. Tickets will be on sale at Slattery's drug store, Thursday, April 19 at 9 a. m., and will also be sold by the League committee.

DAM CARRIED AWAY.

GREAT STRUCTURE AT AUSTIN, TEXAS, DESTROYED.

Flood in Colorado River Deals Death and Ruin—Forty-eight Persons Are Drowned and $8,000,000 Worth of Property Destroyed.

The great dam across the Colorado river at Austin, Texas, which was constructed seven years ago at a cost of $1,500,000, was swept away Saturday morning by an unprecedented flood in that river. The break occurred at 11:25 o'clock, causing an instant rise of fully fifty feet in the river below the dam. This torrent of water swept down upon the broad valley below in all of its force, leaving death and destruction in its wake. Forty-eight persons are known to have been drowned, and the losses at that point, including the destruction of the immense electric light and power plant, will reach $2,000,000.

At Wednesday night it began to rain very hard, the storm extending north along the water sheds of the Colorado river. The precipitation continued until Saturday morning. All this vast quantity of water along the water sheds of the Colorado river rapidly swelled the current, and at 8 o'clock Saturday morning the river had risen forty feet within ten hours. Small frame houses, trees and debris of every description in varying quantities descended the river and massed against the upper face of the dam. This weight was augmented every moment until by 10 o'clock there was a mass of debris lodged against the dam which threatened the safety of the structure. In addition, millions of gallons of water, maddly from its long journey, was whirling and plunging to the sixty-foot fall, and it was evident that no wall could withstand the immense pressure.

The crisis came shortly after 11 o'clock, when, with a report like the roar of the ocean, the great wedge twenty-five feet high, five hundred feet wide and about eight feet thick rolled out of the center section of the dam, down the face of the 60-foot depth into the river below. This left a yawning gap in the very middle of the dam through which the debris and water fiercely poured, while the flood, already raging, was threatening everything in its path, this sudden breaking of the dam but serving to add to the horror of the catastrophe. The released water poured into the power house, catching eight employees at work there, drowning all of them instantly.

The breaking of the dam caused wild excitement in the city. The telegraph companies at once wired to places below there to look out for the great wave, and runners were dispatched on horses to notify those living in the valleys below the city. Within a short time all the valleys to the south and west of Austin were filled to overflowing with water, and the southern portion of the city tributary to the river was inundated. Large crowds collected on the river banks, and several persons were swept into the river when the dam broke, but all were saved by boatmen.

It is below Austin for a distance of 200 miles that the greatest havoc has been wrought. Reports received show that the wall of water came down upon the homes of hundreds of families without warning. Almost every wagon road bridge across the river between Austin and Columbus, a distance of probably 150 miles, was destroyed. This accumulation of drift added to the destructive force of the flood, and few residences and other buildings that were in its path are now standing.

Many reports of loss of life have been received by telephone and messenger from points below Austin. A few miles downstream there is a narrow bend in the river, and there was situated quite a settlement, known as Hornsby's Bend. The flood struck that place in all its unrestrained fury and destroyed several houses. Thomas Helsey, a farm hand, and Joe Burns, a negro, were drowned.

The brick walls of the municipal water works, electric light and power plant just below the dam collapsed early Sunday morning. The expensive pumping machinery and dynamos fell into the river and they will probably be a total loss. The destroyed plant was erected by the city at a cost of $6,000,000, exclusive of the dam, which cost another $1,000,000.

The Colorado river is not the only west Texas stream that is on a rampage. The Concho, the Guadalupe, the San Marcos, the Llano, the Nueces and the Horro rivers are out of their banks and are flooding hundreds of thousands of acres of cultivated lands.

MANY ILLEGALLY MARRIED.

The New License Law in South Dakota Leads to Complications.

Because of an apparently innocent newspaper item, the matrimonial affairs of a large number of newly wedded South Dakota couples have been badly mixed. To straighten out matters many couples have been remarried. Others are to-day unaware of the fact that the ceremonies which were supposed to have tied them together for life are, in fact, illegal. This unfortunate condition is due to the publication by many of the South Dakota newspapers of an item to the effect that under the new marriage license law couples who obtained licenses in one county could proceed to another county and be married there.

The desire of many couples contemplating matrimony to conceal their approaching marriages from their friends and other residents of their immediate localities contributed to complicate the situation, as many of them quietly obtained their licenses in one county and proceeded to another county, where they were not so well known, for the purpose of having the ceremony performed. A short time ago, however, it was discovered that licenses obtained in one county were void in other counties, and then there was consternation in the ranks of the newly married.

HE IS RISEN.

THE LIGHT OF EASTER.

WELCOME, O light of Easter morn!
Whose glorious banners span the skies.

Bring thou the hope-of ages born—
That bids all slumbering nature rise.
Again shall earth, triumphant, free,
From winter's grasp, sing forth her pride,
Through spring's awakening melody,
O light of Easter-tide!

O blessed light! though darkly down
O'er Judah's hills her sun had set,
Yet thou didst Calvary's victory crown
And gild pain-shadowed Olivet,
When swift, before thee fled the gloom,
The grave's dark bondage thence aside,
And conquer thou o'er death and doom,
O light of Easter-tide!

Fair, peaceful light, in blessings fall
Round, weary feet and hearts that grieve,
Life's fairest promise bring to all,
Thy lilies with its egress weave;
Bring answer to the anguish prayer,
Bring peace where pain and storm abide,
And thou the longest linger there,
O light of Easter-tide!

O wondrous light! that shining through
Long vistas of the speeding years,
Still brings the hope of birth anew,
As each returning spring appears;
Emblem of life immortal thou,
As o'er the world, through spaces wide,
There breaks thy radiant glory now,
O light of Easter-tide!
—Woman's Home Companion.

AT THE CHURCH DOOR

VERY young woman, in this wonderful age, has a "call" to be a genius in some special direction, but Dorothy Lake was an oddity.

She was in no popular sense a fine de siecle girl, and her father, an old-fashioned man, without any soulful aspirations, had been heard to thank God for it.

His little laughing Dorothy quite satisfied his private ideal of what a girl should be, although she was a perpetual thorn in the side of his only sister, president of several clubs, and an earnest advocate of woman's rights.

"But so am I, auntie," Dorothy had argued, from the stronghold of her father's knee. "I believe in woman's rights as much as you do, only we differ about what these rights are."

"Will you explain your platform, my dear?" her aunt asked, grimly.

And Dorothy had laughed, and finally averred that, in her opinion, a woman's rights consisted in having all men honor and protect her, and one especial man love and take care of her.

Undoubtedly, Dorothy was an oddity, but several men of younger years than her father were not altogether displeased with the out-of-date characteristics of this winsome maid. One in particular, viewed her with eyes of distinct approval, and Dorothy's rosy cheek grew rosier still whenever Jack Eustis, junior partner in her father's firm, came near.

For Jack and Dorothy this dusty old world became a glorified romance; blessed by the dew and the sun, the rosy bud of passion slowly unfolded its perfumed leaves, until in perfect and wonderful bloom the rich rose of love stood waiting to be gathered.

Then some untoward fate turned Jack's eyes in the direction of a sparkling debutante, whose brunette beauty glowed like a rich ruby, in contrast with the cool, pure turquoise charms of his own little lady love. Dorothy watched his undistinguished masculine admiration, and her feminine soul grew bitter within her.

"How handsome Miss Hayden is," she remarked, with assumed nonchalance, following the direction of his gaze.

And Jack, not having attained the wisdom of angels, warmly agreed.

"Quite the prettiest girl in the room," pursued Dorothy, smoothing her gloves with assiduous care.

Jack cheerfully assented.

And then Dorothy waited away with a new partner, and, try as he might, Jack failed to catch a single glance over that partner's shoulder from the blue eyes that meant his heaven.

He took refuge in sulky flight, and Dorothy, having laughed and danced the evening through, spent the remainder of the night in tears, not of repentance, but of jealous wrath and pain.

The nightfall found her carefully dressed and willing to be sned into a forgiving frame of mind. But Jack, the outraged and indignant, had not yet reached the melting mood; he waited for a word of apology and recall, and when, after what seemed to Dorothy unpardon-able delay, he finally sent in his card, Miss Lake was "not at home."

Lent gave excuse to one aching heart for complete withdrawal from distasteful gaiety, and never was a "miserable sinner" sensible of greater misery than when lovely Dorothy Lake besought mercy in the church litany.

"Jack Eustis went home last night," announced Judge Lake, his eyes on his buttered toast, Palm Sunday morning. "Got a telegram at 4 o'clock that his mother was dying."

How small and pitiful now seemed the quarrel that had parted them. Being a proud woman, she could not stretch out a beseeching hand to her lost lover. For her there was nothing save the time-honored sorrow of silence.

Little Dorothy, fair as a violet in her Easter array of lilac crepe and snow-drops, knelt in the church where the air was heavy with the fragrance of lilies, and prayed for that "peace which the world cannot give."

"And, O God, don't let his mother die," she kept repeating with the persistency of a child, but not even to God was this shy, proud nature willing to formulate in words the prayer that shook her soul to its center.

She lifted her head to find the church almost deserted. Some one, pale and repentant, stood at the church door. The meeting was as solemn as the place, and broken words of love and sorrow were breathed on either side.

And only the birds on the belfry twittered above them and the green ivy peeped through the open windows to share their joy.

A few weeks later, at their marriage—for Jack would listen to no delay—an incident occurred irregular and unheard of in wedding annals. The bridal party was shocked, but the bride only smiled, when the bridegroom, contrary to all precedent, led her unsaluted from the altar, but bent down and kissed her at the church door.

Easter and Immortality.

Here are a few fit words for Easter Sunday morning from Edward E. Hale, a man whose large thought makes him at home with all sects, yet bound by none:

"Easter morning does not prove man's immortality. It asserts it. In the universal resurrection from the night of winter, as life which had been sleeping returns, it asserts man's communion and companionship with the God who is life, it declares that man, a child of God, cannot die. Because he is immortal he can come to his God as an immortal comes, can speak, can listen, can reply. He enters on this or that enterprise sure that he has infinite allies. If one of these be called away they shall meet again. He lives for and with those who are also immortal. Each for each has companionship, perhaps help. It cannot be that they are to grind along through ages stupid and alone.

"To renew such immortal life here is the yearly mission of Easter day. That this which is mortal may be clothed upon with immortality."

ORIGIN OF EASTER RABBITS.

According to Teutonic Tradition Bunny Was Once a Bird.

One of the quaint and interesting features of our modern Easter carnival is the appearance in shop windows, side by side with the emblematic colored egg, of a pert tall-eared rabbit, and those who cannot understand why bunny should have a place in our Easter decorations shrug their shoulders and think it a trick to please the children. But the legend of the Easter rabbit is one of the oldest in mythology, and is mentioned in the early folk lore of South Germany. Originally, it appears, the rabbit was a bird, which the ancient Teutonic goddess Ostara—goddess of the east or of spring—transformed into a quadruped. For this reason the rabbit or hare is grateful, and in remembrance of its former condition as a bird and as a swift messenger of spring, and of the goddess whom it served, is able to lay colored Easter eggs on her festival in the spring time, the colors illustrating the theory that when it was a bird the rabbit laid colored eggs, and an egg has always been a symbol of the resurrection, and therefore used as an illustration at Easter.

In many parts of Germany it is a common custom for children to go to their godmother at Easter to receive colored eggs and a baked rabbit. Sometimes the children are sent to the garden to make a "rabbit's nest" with straws and sticks, and in the morning they are sent to gather the wonderful colored eggs which the rabbit had laid for them. And they always find them.

LONG WAR IS AHEAD.

BRITISH UNABLE TO MOVE FOR MANY WEEKS.

Roberts Awaits Winter Clothing for His Troops—Bloemfontein Put into Shape for Defense Against Boers—Soldiers Guarding Free State Capital.

Britons are now beginning, though reluctantly, to realize that Lord Roberts is in for a winter campaign, lasting several months. This is the end, in a few words, of the high hopes based upon Lord Roberts' brilliant dash to Kimberley and Bloemfontein. Preparations are being made to hold Bloemfontein against surprises. Lord Kitchener has been given an important duty, being responsible for the protection of the railway, while Lord Roberts is waiting for remounts and winter clothing for the troops, whose thin cotton khaki uniforms and boots are worn out. Gen. Brabant and Gen. Gatacre are both at a standstill.

Lord Roberts will probably for some time confine his operations to clearing the Free State behind him of raiders and to relieving Mafeking, for which purpose apparently the eighth division, now arriving at Cape Town, has been ordered to Kimberley. Lady Sarah Wilson and other Mafeking correspondents send diaries of the doings there, showing that the Boers have tried by abandoning their trenches to lure the besieged out into a mined ambush. Fortunately the British engineers discovered the mine, cut the wire communication and uncarried 250 pounds of dynamite and war gelatine.

What the chances are for an advance to Pretoria may be judged from the fact that only from 6,000 to 10,000 horses are on their way to the Cape, and from the further fact that the military tailoring departments only within the last three weeks began making woolen khaki uniforms.

Fifty-two prisoners, who were captured at Boshof, have arrived at Kimberley. Only three are Dutchmen, the others being Frenchmen, Germans and Russians. Mr. Steyn's address to the Free State read at Kroonstad is confirmed. The Fischer-Wolmarans deputation has full power to negotiate for peace, subject to the raad's sanction. The retirement of the Irish rifles from Rouxville to Aliwal North leaves Gen. Brabant without communication with the other British forces. He has 2,000 or 3,000 colonials holding a fine defensive country, but he is apparently invested, so far as London knows.

The Russian and French papers are still excitedly protesting against Great Britain's use of the Beira route in transporting troops to Rhodesia, but there is nothing to confirm the dispatch from St. Petersburg to the Ardenlabet of Stockholm saying that Emperor Nicholas is "extremely agitated" over the Anglo-Portuguese arrangement and intends to issue a proclamation protesting against it during his forthcoming visit to Moscow.

A GIANT IN HIS DAY.

Ex-Minister John A. Bingham, Who Passed Away Recently.

John A. Bingham, who died recently at Steubenville, Ohio, at the age of 85, took no part in contemporary politics and had passed out of public notice. But time was when he was a leader in national affairs. He was in the House of Representatives during the first half of the civil war and for many years before that time was a special judge advocate in the trial of the conspirators against Lincoln's life, served in the House during the reconstruction period, and afterward was minister to Japan, a post which he held a dozen years, until he was recalled by President Cleveland in 1885, since which time the general public seldom saw his name. It was during his service in Congress that the greater part of Bingham's reputation was won. His principal claim to remembrance was through his connection with the impeachment of President Johnson. He was one of the managers of the prosecution, and associated with him were Thaddeus Stevens of Pennsylvania, George S. Boutwell and Benjamin F. Butler of Massachusetts, Thomas Williams of Pennsylvania and John A. Logan of Illinois. Bingham was a man of ability, public spirit and courage. He was one of the worthiest and most prominent members of the Ohio delegation at a time when that State had a particularly strong representation in both branches of Congress, including Sherman, Wade, Schenck, Hayes, Garfield and others.

LIABLE TO COURT-MARTIAL.
Gen. Funston Charged with Hanging Filipinos Without Trial.

An interesting topic of conversation in army circles at Manila is the investigation of Brig. Gen. Frederick Funston's execution of two Filipinos and the possibility of a court-martial resulting therefrom. The story is that the Filipinos captured three Macabebes scouts who were crossing the country near San Isidro and were preparing to kill them when one of the Macabebes escaped and found Gen. Funston with a scouting party near. This man guided the Americans to the rescue of his companions, and when the troops approached the Filipinos fled, leaving the Macabebes. Several of the Filipinos were shot and Gen. Funston captured two of them, took them to the village square and hanged them without trial, as a warning to the Filipinos. The present method of warfare and instances of the mutilation of prisoners have incensed the American soldiers to such a degree that they feel justified in making reprisals, which has been done on several occasions recently.

A MOTHER'S STORY.

Tells About Her Daughter's Illness and How She was Relieved—Two Letters to Mrs. Pinkham.

"MRS. PINKHAM:—I write to tell you about my daughter. She is nineteen years old and is flowing all the time, and has been for about three months. The doctor does her but very little good, if any. I thought I would try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, but I want your advice before beginning its use. I have become very much alarmed about her, as she is getting so weak."—MRS. MATILDA A. CAMP, Manchester Mill, Macon, Ga., May 21, 1899.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—It affords me great pleasure to tell you of the benefit my daughter has received from the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. After beginning the use of your medicine she began to mend rapidly and is now able to be at her work. Her menses are regular and almost painless. I feel very thankful to you and expect to always keep your Vegetable Compound in my house. It is the best medicine I ever knew. You have my permission to publish this letter if you wish, it may be the means of doing others good."—MRS. MATILDA A. CAMP, Manchester Mill, Macon, Ga., September 18, 1899.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

O, How Happy I am to BE FREE from NEURALGIA

Is what Mrs. Archie Young of 1817 Oaks Ave., West Superior, Wis., writes us on Jan. 25th, 1900. "I am so thankful to be able to say that your SWANSON'S '5 DROPS' is the best medicine I have ever used in my life. I sent for some last November and commenced using it right away and it helped me from the first dose. Oh, I cannot explain to you how I was suffering from neuralgia. It seemed that death was near at hand. I thought no one could be worse. I was so very weak that I hardly expected to live to see my husband come back from his daily labor. But now I am free from pain, my cheeks are red, and I sleep well the whole night through. Many of my friends are so surprised to see me looking so well that they will send for some of your '5 DROPS.'"

RHEUMATISM
"I have been afflicted with rheumatism for 2 years. I was in bed with it when I saw your advertisement in a paper, recommending SWANSON'S '5 DROPS' very highly. I thought I would try it. It has completely cured me, but I like it so well that I want two more bottles for fear I will get into the same fix I was before I sent for '5 DROPS.'" writes Mr. Alexander Furell of Vandalia, Ark., Feb. 6th, 1900.

Gems of Thought.

The true happiness of man consists in being united to God, and his only misery in being separated from him—Plato.

If a man say he loves God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar; for if he love not his brother, whom he hath seen, how can he love God, whom he hath not seen?—St. John the divine.

Nothing would give me more real satisfaction than to know the sentiments which are entertained of me by the public, whether they be favorable or otherwise.—George Washington.

Performance is the better part of promise. It is the way in which a lawyer or a physician handles his case today that gives value to his promise to handle another tomorrow. The habitually punctual man has little need to promise punctuality; the teetotaler is under no suspicion of getting into drunken brawls. A man's "I will" hangs largely on his "I do" and "I am." To have one's promises respected, one must show him—If worthy of respect when he makes the promise.—The Reflector.
