Local Notes Furnished by the Herald's Special Reporter.

In the temporary organization of battalion, the following cadets of the first class, taken in the order of their rank at the close of last session, have been detailed to act as commissioned officers: Captains, T. W. Maddux, L. J. Yougne, F. H. Jackson and L. L. Campbell. First Lieutenants, S. D. Crawford, G. Ray, J. H. Mc Neely and M. M. Beck. Second Lieutenants, R. D. Norwood, T. W. Aishton, E. C. Eppley, and Tindall. Adjutant, S. J. Bernheimer. Quartermaster, M. Greenwood. Cadet W. P. Taylor has been assigned to duty in the Hospital department, retaining his present rank of 2nd Lieutenant.

The following cadets of the second class are acting as First Sergeants: G. C. Lee, J. W. Woodward, J. M. Wood, E. W. Akin.

Sergeant Major, A. R. Nowels. Principal Musician of Band, Cadet Beyer. The following cadets have been detailed to act as guides and file closers: Calden, Morehouse, Durborrow, Sebulze, McGervey, Jackson W, Heintz, Fitton, Steger, North, Herkimer, Caynah, Van Brunt, Hooper, Blair, Derricksen, Herron and Van Ryper. This assignment is purely with reference to rank in the battalion last session and cadets may be dropped or added to this list or the relative order changed as may seem best in the permanent organization of the battalion.

Mrs. Kern, of St. Louis, is at the bedside of her son, Cadet Ray S., who is quite ill with malarial fever.

Cadet Champion's brother, of Atlantic City, N. J., was an academy visitor last week.

A large number of the boy's parents were here during the first week of school.

R. T. Blow, of Knoxville, Tenn. was here last week renewing old acquaintances.

Khaki uniforms have been issued to the "Plebes" and these will be worn until the regular gray uniforms arrive.

The work of organizing the cadet band is progressing rapidly, and in about two weeks it will be ready to furnish music for all occasions.

R. O. Morris, of Kansas City, Mo., is here visiting his many friends.

218 cadets are now enrolled and as soon as the new addition is made to the annex of the main barracks, this number will be largely increased. The brick work necessary to make the annex three stories high has been finished, and the work of making it ready for occupancy is being rapidly pushed toward completion.

J. M. Wood of Birmingham, England, registered this week. He was formerly from Ohio, and has been a cadet at C. M. A. for the past two years. His father established a glass factory in England this spring, and although about 4000 miles from Culver he again returned, and as center of our football team will help us win our victories.

C. M. A.'s second team will contest with the Plymouth high school team upon the home grounds tomorrow Saturday afternoon.

A new demerit system has been inaugurated in the academy. Until further orders, all minor offences not involving special penalty will be punishable by demerits only, but the total number of demerits so assigned shall not exceed seven per week. For each demerit over and above this number there will be an assignment of one hour of penalty duty to be performed on the nearest holiday, and being in excess of the amount which can be readily so performed, it will be reduced to this amount by performance during recreation hours in the afternoon. Under the above regulation any cadet may with reasonable diligence spare himself the inconvenience and humiliation of having penalty duty to perform while his fellow cadets are enjoying their recreation.

Although several of the old teachers are not with us this year, we are pleased to note that Captains Glascock, Hawkins, Wilson and Greiner are with us again. The latter, who faced the Spaniards at Porto Rico, and who was supposed to be a confirmed bachelor, appeared this year at the academy, accompanied by a young and beautiful wife. The Captain and his charming and accomplished wife received a hearty welcome.

S. J. Williams, of Indianapolis, registered Wednesday. He has served three years in the U. S. Army, and will be chief trumpeter, assistant cavalry instructor and librarian.

Although but three members of the last year's foot ball team are back, namely: Bodman, Akin and Campbell L., the outlook for a good team this year is very favorable. Harrison, Crawford, Cockrum, Wood J. Beyer, Van Ryper, Woodward J., Jackson W., and Cadden, of last year's second team are again with us, and there is also much good material among the new men. The most promising players among the latter are McQuaid, captain and full-back of the Des Moines high school team last year, Masters, quarter-back of the Toledo high school team, Standard, a guard on the Smith academy team of St. Louis, and Wilbur, a tackle on the Englewood high school team. We understand that "Fat" Campbell, who has been our immovable center for the past two years will not play this season, but he has a substitute in the person of Wood J., that is doing excellent work. Crawford will make a star quarter-back on the centering team, and Bodman is still playing his strong game at end. Captain Barber is manager of the team, Captain Montgomery is coach, and Captains Newman and Fleet are assistant coaches. At a meeting of the men of the last year's first and second teams, Thursday evening September 13, Bodman was elected Captain of the team by the unanimous vote of those present. The team is improving every opportunity to practice in order to get in shape for the first game to be played with Englewood high school, September 29th.

INDIANA BAPTIST'S CONVENTION at Ft. Wayne, Ind., Oct. 9 to the 14th, inc. Tickets on sale via the Nickel Plate Road on above dates, good returning until the 15th, inc. at one fare for the round trip within the State of Indiana, only; write, wire, 'phone or call on nearest agent' C. A. Asterlin, T P A, Ft. Wayne, Ind. or R. J. Hamilton. Agent Ft. Wayne, Ind.

LOCAL BREVETIES.

Grandma Stahl is quite ill.

The first new corn for this season was marketed at Indianapolis at 30 cents per bushel.

Don't complain about the price of fruit. Apples are a dollar a dozen in Alaska.

Logansport Democrats are preparing for a barbecue October 18. It will be on a big scale.

The tenth annual exposition of the Bourbon Fair association will open at the fair grounds at Bourbon, Tuesday, October 2, and continue four days.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Norris leave this week for Syracuse, Ind., where they will visit their son. They will also visit friends in Elkhart and Michigan.

Remember that the Republicans of Union township will meet in convention next Saturday, at Culver, and a full attendance is desired. In fact every Republican in the township should be present as there are men to fill important offices to select. Com.

In the publication of the trustees report in last week's "HERALD" the service account of the trustee's work appears twice, when it should have appeared but once. It was an overlooked error, and thus we rectify the same. Also the report of the tuition fund appeared twice and should have appeared only once.

Lloyd Lester, son of Zacharias and Ellen Horgeshimer, died Sept 14, aged two years and 21 days. Funeral services were held at the Evangelical church this city, Rev. Newman officiating. The parents live in Fulton county.

Born, to C. Emigh and wife last Sunday, a daughter.

D. E. Vanvactor will preach at Burr Oak next Sunday at the school house. Everybody invited. Services will be at 2:30 p. m.

Philip Working and Ben Overmyer went to Michigan and brought home a load of peaches.

Wm. Vanderweele is having his saloon building repaired.

Wm. Adler of Lane county, Kansas, has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Harvey Norris, the past three weeks. This is the first time they have met for 15 years. Mr. Adler went to Kansas years ago in poor circumstances, but by perseverance and grit, he is now one of said state's prosperous farmers.

A reunion was held at the residence of Joseph Lowe in Green township, Sept. 13, in the Santa-Ann neighborhood, it being the 40th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Lowe. There were about 80 people present, representing citizens from several states, including quite a number from Marshall county. Mr. C. H. Stahl and wife, who live south of Culver were present, Mrs. Stahl being the only one there on this occasion, who was present at the original wedding 40 years previous, she being only five years old. The feast served on this happy occasion was fit to tickle the palate of a king, and certainly was appreciated by those lucky enough to participate in the festivities. The host and hostess were the recipients of several valuable presents.

Alice Sholtz visited friends in Knox last week.

D. A. Bradley made Plymouth a visit Thursday.

A. R. Edwards closed his cottage and returned to Peru Thursday.

Miss Jennie Darnell and Chas. L. B. Martin closed their cottages and returned to Terre Haute Thursday.

M. B. Mawhorter returned home Wednesday. He is connected with the Herb's of Life Concert Company. He brought with him an elegant organ which he offers for sale very cheap. Call at the Mawhorter residence.

W. H. Maxwell and wife of New York City, are here visiting relatives and friends.

W. H. Porter and wife visited friends in South Bend Thursday.

We are pained to chronicle that Hettie Grubb, who has been ill the past three weeks, being afflicted with typhoid fever, passed into the great unknown, beyond the river Thursday night. Funeral services will be held at the M. E. church Sunday, at 10 o'clock. Obituary next week.

Jerry Blain, one of the oldest and most respected citizens of Plymouth, died last Friday in Ohio. His death was very sudden, and consequently was a great shock to the citizens of the entire county.

Emery Scates, of Plymouth is in town.

The Children's day exercises at the Reformed church Sunday evening were a grand success. The little ones did excellent work. D. H. Smith's little daughters, however, proved themselves to be prima-donas, as they have very sweet voices which was evidenced by their excellent vocal music.

An interesting Township Teachers Institute was held at Shaw school house last Saturday. All Culver teachers attended except Mrs. Curtis. The forenoon was devoted to the discussion of history led by Mr. Hahn with institute as a class, and afternoon to discussion of school management led by county Supt. Marks. In three weeks from last Saturday the next institute will be held at Culver. A splendid program is arranged consisting of discussions of History, Literature, and Life Ideals.

Sometime since the contract was let to Bremen parties to furnish dials for the new town clock. Last week the dials were delivered and the artist received his money and departed thence. Now it has been discovered that the work is a "botch," and will have to be done over again. We understand that there were men right here in Culver who stood ready to do the work and guarantee satisfaction and one man, who is an artist in every sense of the word, for less money. Yet the work was sent away from home, with the above results. This is a hard lesson, but it should be a warning that it does not pay to ignore home talent, when it stands ready to make good its claims.

Dressmaking.

Miss Louise Zechiel and Mrs. Carl are now prepared to do all kinds of dress making on short notice. All work guaranteed and prices reasonable.

ON TEN MILE HILL.
By Grace Duffie Boylan.

A call from Ten Mile Hill is not received with unmixed delight by the fledgling doctors at Charleston's famous school of medicine even today, although the negro cabins, formerly as close together as cells of a honeycomb, have been thinned out under the direction of the police and health commissioners and the plague spot made less dangerous to the city as a whole.

But a dozen years ago, after a quarter of a century of freedom, the black settlement hung like an ominous cloud over Charleston. The freedmen, with their occupation gone, bled together, grudgingly waiting for the promised fruits of Liberty to fall into their hands. Any real or imagined infringement of their rights or slight to their dignity was bitterly resented and revenged. It was this fact which caused the students acting as dispensary physicians to dread the night summons to the place. But it is the rule that such services be performed by the advanced classes of the college, and he it said to the honor of the school which sent out to the world such men as Dr. Robert Kitchin, Dr. Marion Sims and Dr. Galliard Thomas the young generation has been as unflinching in its attendance to duty as was the old.

Dr. Chester ran down the steps of the laboratory and met a boy coming up from the office.

"There's a hurry call to Ten Mile Hill, sir," said the lad. "One of the Lamsons has been hurt again."

"The Lamsons are the ones who brought the complaint against the dispensary doctors for neglect, are they not?" asked the young man a trifle anxiously.

"Yes, sir. And I'd look out if I were you. They may be trying to get even, seeing you couldn't give them any satisfaction. I wouldn't go into that den at night for a doctor's diploma."

"Then I guess you will have to remain a telephone boy, my lad. Good night to you."

The doctor walked rapidly after he left the street car, but it was almost midnight when he entered the squalid quarters known as Ten Mile Hill. There was no distinguishing mark to the cabins, but a small boy sitting in a low doorway halted him as he passed.

"Yo' de doctor, sah?"

"Yes," the young man halted and peered within. "Is this where the sick man lives?"

"De' all—where is he?"

"Then I guess you go' war to come up here."

He pointed to the ladder stretching to the left. The trespasser above it was shut, and there was no sound. Dr. Chester saw with a sudden flash of intensified consciousness that the boy crouched in the shadows and that his eyes were rolling and his teeth chattering as though in mortal terror. Some plot was on foot to injure, maybe kill the physician, and he realized it as he stood there. He grasped the boy by the shoulder and pointed to a candle sputtering dimly in the corner of the floor.

"Take that light and go ahead of me," he ordered.

"I—!" the boy gasped piteously—"I dars'n. Ise lame an kain't walk no-how, Ise!"

He lifted him to his feet.

"Go on!" he said, and the boy obeyed tremblingly, taking the candle in his hand and ascending the rude steps with the doctor behind him. At the top he paused and looked back, whimpering.

"Open!" called the physician, and in a second the door was slid back, and a revolver in the hand of a burly negro above was pressed against the forehead of the black boy.

The arm of the young man struck out like a catapult and sent the pistol whirling as it was discharged. The negro, taken by surprise, slumped down the trapdoor, and the boy tumbled to the floor without. There was a sound above of a number of feet, but the doctor did not wait to count them.

He was down the ladder, out of the hut, into the street and away toward the college at full speed. Startlingly he followed him for awhile, but the sound of their long leaps ceased as he reached the lighted thoroughfare, and he was for the nonce perfectly willing to go on alone, leaving his "sick" manifested to.

The authorities of Charleston made some attempts at an investigation, but beyond determining that the attempt to murder the young doctor was made from motives of revenge against the dispensary physicians for some fancied neglect nothing was done. Dr. Chester could not tell which cabin he had visited, and no mark distinguished one from another. Nor was there a trembling black boy waiting with his flickering candle to guide him when next he tried to find "the Lamsons" on Ten Mile Hill—Detroit News.

Many newspapers, chiefly of the Republican persuasion, are criticizing the administration of Secretary of War Alger for numerous blunders and some other things worse than blunders. This is done to shield the president, who is responsible for the acts of his war secretary.

Now that the political campaign has opened up in earnest, what is the matter with Culver having a couple of big rallies. The assembly grounds could no doubt be secured for the meetings and would be an ideal place. Let the party managers secure some of the big guns and advertise the matter properly and they will get the crowd.

Cured of Chronic Diarrhoea After Thirty Years of Suffering. "I suffered for thirty years with diarrhoea and thought I was past being cured, says John S. Holloway, of French Camp, Miss. "I had spent so much time and money and suffered so much that I had given up all hopes of recovery. I was so feeble from the effects of the diarrhoea that I could do no kind of labor, could not even travel, but by accident I was permitted to find a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and after taking several bottles I am entirely cured of that trouble. I am so pleased with the result that I am anxious that it be in reach of all who suffer as I have." For sale by T. E. Slattery, druggist.

WHITE HOUSE CHINA.

Even When Broken It Brings a Fancy Price in the Market.

Broken china from the White House commands a high price. Unless it is broken it is not supposed to be outside of the executive mansion, and possession of a perfect piece is prima facie evidence of theft by the possessor. But when nicked or broken the china is disposed of by the steward at public auction. Then collectors, professional and otherwise, buy it up and mend it, and add it to their collection or dispose of it again at a profit. There is a White House set for nearly every administration. Whenever it seems to be necessary Congress appropriates $3,000 for a new state dinner service. The master and mistress of the White House select designs, and then the service is made by some well-known firm. When a new service is brought in the one which has been in use is put in a cabinet, and is kept alone for exhibition purposes. The Lincoln, Grant, Hayes and Cleveland sets are now thus preserved. The Hayes set is thought by many to be the handsomest. A collector recently bought at an old curio shop a Lincoln, a Grant and a Hayes plate, and considered herself fortunate to get them at a price which would have bought a small house. There is never any question about the genuineness of these specimens, as they all bear the special White House mark, which is copyrighted. There is other china used at the executive mansion on ordinary occasions which has no marks, but it is not sought for.

Crane Carried the Satchel.

Arthur A. Leeds, of Toga, met Stephen Crane several years ago under circumstances which showed how little the novelist traded upon the fame that came to him. Mr. Leeds got off a train at Delaware Water Gap. The only man on the platform was humped up against the side of the depot gazing into space. He looked like a farmer's boy. His trousers were baggy, his coat battered and his hat rowdy.

"Say, carry this stuff to the hotel for me, will you?" asked Mr. Leeds. The man grasped the bags and started in the wake of Mr. Leeds toward the hotel.

When the hotel was reached Mr. Leeds lost sight of his porter for a few minutes while he greeted friends. Looking around for his baggage he saw the man who had packed it to the hotel sitting on the piazza with his legs on the railing. He was reading a book.

Pearls from Fish Scales.

M. Lemeret, the French manufacturer of artificial pearls from fish scales, says that he will come to the United States and erect works as soon as he hears of a locality where the right kind of scales can be had in large quantities. It is suggested that a suitable place might be found on the St. Lawrence river, among the Thousand Islands. The scales should be small and have a silver sheen. The brighter they are the higher price they will command. The scales should be removed while the fish is alive if possible. Twenty-five thousand pounds of these scales can be used a year. It is in anticipation that twice that quantity may be used in five years.

One Happy Town in Sweden.

One of the happiest places in the world is said to be located at Orsa, in Sweden. The community has in the course of a generation sold nearly $5,000,000 worth of trees and by means of judicious replanting has provided for a similar income every thirty or forty years. In consequence of this commercial wealth there are no taxes. Railways, telephones, etc., are free, and so are school houses, teaching and many other things.

Some Facts About Friday.

Columbus sailed from Palos on a Friday; discovered America on a Friday; the Mayflower arrived at Provincetown on a Friday; Dunker Hill was won on a Friday; Cornwallis surrendered on a Friday; Lincoln was shot on a Friday; Napoleon surrendered at Sedan on a Friday; France declared war against Prussia on a Friday; China asked Japan to stop the war on a Friday.

How They Made Their Haul.

"How the Roxsums do draw the long bow. Don't they make you smile when they brag about their 'ancestral halls'?"

"Yes, but there's nothing untruthful about that."

"What?"

"That's right. Old Grandfather Roxsum, who made the money for the family, was a teamster."

Irish Moss.

One of the many useful things which absolute privation has been the means of making known to the world is Irish moss. The poorest of the inhabitants of the Irish coast were driven to its use by the pangs of hunger. When boiled it produces a thick, nourishing and not unpalatable jelly. It is most beneficial for diseases of the throat and lungs.

BRITISH WARS AND THEIR COST.

immense Expenditure of the Empire during the Century.

The direct cost to Great Britain of the present war with the Boers up to the end of March was some $320,400,000, the cheapest in money in her history, considering the number of men put in the field and the distance to which they had to be transported.

In the American war of independence Great Britain expended $695,000,000.

The wars with France, beginning in 1793 and lasting with but little intermission until ended by Waterloo, cost her $4,155,000,000. The whole cost of the Napoleonic wars to France was $230,000,000. In the Crimean war Great Britain put 97,000 men in the field and the cost to her was $345,000,000, not much more than the present war up to the above date.

France sent 310,000 to the Crimean war at a cost of $495,000,000. Great Britain lost 27,000 men from battle and disease and Russia nearly half of the $30,000 which she mustered on the shores of the Black Sea. The American civil war cost the Federal Government $3,700,000,000 in money and 350,000 men, while the loss in life to the Confederates was some 300,000 more.

According to a report recently issued by the bureau of ordnance at Washington the cost of the ammunition used in destroying the Spanish fleet in Manila Bay was $45,000, while the destruction of Cervera's fleet off Santiago cost $100,000.

While Queen Victoria's long reign is accounted one of the most glorious and peaceful in English history, it is a matter of fact that throughout the whole sixty-three years since she ascended the throne there has never been a time when her war dogs have all been in the leash. The first Afghan war was the event of her ascension to the throne, as the present Boer war is probably the close of her reign, while twenty-eight other distinct wars, ranging over every quarter of the globe, including the Crimean war, have filled up the interval.

LIFE IS LONGER,

And Bodily Vigor Is Greater Now than Half a Century Ago.

Within half a century the average length of life has been extended over ten years. For a long time it was fixed at thirty-three years, and that is regarded as the length of a generation but now it is close to forty-five. It is noticeable that with the lengthening of the average of life has come the lengthening of the age of mental and physical activity. The statistics prove that mental and physical vitality are not mere matters of years, but that they depend upon judicious conservation of the vital forces.

There can be traced in contemporary history a noticeable increase in the length of human vitality. In this day we find men undertaking great enterprises at an age when their forbears were in their dotage, and proving themselves capable of long and sustained effort equal to that of the most lusty youth. The number of gray beards as bicycles gives evidence that the age of full physical vitality has been advanced greatly. The age at which men in our day go into enterprises demanding concentration of thought, physical strength, buoyancy of spirits and the sustained courage that can come only from sound health proves that the man of mature age is able to do his full share of the world's work.

Had an Opportune Fit.

Mrs. Henry Widmayer, a Wall street speculator in a small way, fainted in her broker's office recently, being on the short side of a bull market at the time, and while in a swoon things went against her to the tune of $700. The occurrence recalled to a veteran speculator here a coup which Addison Cammack once made in original fashion, says a New York correspondent. He, too, was on the short side, and the bulls were raising merry hades, when he arrived on Wall street from Tuxedo. At 10:30 he was loser to the extent of nearly $1,000,000. Suddenly he had a fit. He fell on the floor and foamed at the mouth. Doctors and things were sent for and news got out that Cammack was dying. It spread like wild fire and was in every office in the street. He was a big man then, dealing with the boldest and strongest operators in the street, and the prospect of his death sent the market reeling. In the meantime the wily old fox had out forty brokers selling short everything in sight, and when the day and the fit were over he had not only recovered his losses, but was $1,250,000 to the good.

One of Nobility's Woos.

A story which illustrates the fact that the nobility have some of the woes endured by common mortals appeared recently in a London exchange. It tells of little Prince Edward of York. Not long ago he was taken over a British man-of-war, and was much interested in a large, heavily built chest which was shown him. "What does that hold?" he asked the tall officer who accompanied him. "Powder," was the reply. The little boy looked sympathetically at the stalwart figure and observed, "Then do you take powders, too?"

The wolf in the fable put on sheep's clothing because if he traveled on his own reputation he couldn't accomplish his purpose. Counterfeiters of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve couldn't sell their worthless salves on their merits, so they put them in boxes and wrappers like DeWitt's. Look out for them. Take only DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It cures piles and all skin diseases. T. E. Slattery.

In India, the land of famine, thousands die because they cannot obtain food. In America, the land of plenty, many suffer and die because they cannot digest the food they eat. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat. It instantly relieves and radically cures all stomach troubles. T. E. Slattery.

The quicker you stop a cough or cold the less danger there will be of fatal lung trouble. One Minute Cough Cure is the only harmless remedy that gives immediate results. You will like it. T. E. Slattery.

Bismarck's Iron Nerve Was the result of his splendid health. Indomitable will and tremendous energy are not found where Stomach, Liver, Kidneys and Bowels are out of order. If you want these qualities and the success they bring, use Dr. King's New Life Pills. They develop every power of brain and body. Only 35c at T. E. Slattery's drug store.

Mothers endorse it, children like it, old folks use it. We refer to One Minute Cough Cure. It will quickly cure all throat and lung troubles. T. E. Slattery.

It Saved a Leg.

I have used Dr. C. D. Warner's Compound of Seven Cures with such good results that I recommended it to Geo. Chipp, who was taken with typhoid fever about two years ago. The disease settled in one of his legs, causing enlargement of the entire limb, which resulted in a fever, running sore, rendering the leg entirely useless. The doctors tried to cure it, but had no success, and they advised him that his leg would have to be amputated. Then I urged him to give the Seven cures a fair trial and accordingly he commenced taking it and continued to use it for six months. He is well and hearty to-day and his leg is just as sound as ever.

It Saved His Leg.

P. A. Danforth, of LaGrange, Ga., suffered intensely for six months with a feignful running sore on his leg, but writes that Bucklen's Arnica Salve wholly cured it in ten days. For Ulcers, Wounds, Burns, Boils, Pain or Piles it's the best salve in the world. Cure guaranteed. Only 25 cents. Sold by T. E. Slattery, druggist.

A Night of Terror.

"Awful anxiety was felt for the widow of the brave General Burnham of Michias, Me., when the doctors said she could not live till morning" writes Mrs. S. H. Lincoln, who attended her that fearful night. "All thought she must soon die from pneumonia but she begged for Dr. King's New Discovery, saying it had more than once saved her life, and had cured her of consumption. After three small doses she slept easily all night, and its further use completely cured her." This marvelous medicine is guaranteed to cure all throat, chest and lung diseases for only 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at T. E. Slattery's drug store.

EDUCATIONAL COLUMN.

Edited by Teachers and High School Scholars.

Culver schools opened Monday, but assign eat of work only, as the building was not quite ready yet.

As the building is now arranged it gives room for more pupils without being hampered or crowded.

Mrs. Elsie Curtis teaches the primary, Miss Woolbury the intermediate, Mr. White the grammar department, Miss Edith Schurman takes some work from the intermediate, grammar and high school.

Pupils are pleased with the improved condition of things and will surely feel more interested in school.

The school board should be commended for its effort to make the school building a place more fit for the education of the young.

It will be our aim in this department to have discussed, such questions as graduation in our common schools, and the value of high school education.

How many senators are there? How many representatives? How many electoral votes? What state has the most electoral votes? Name the five highest? How many has Indiana?

Who are the present U. S. Senators from Indiana?

Which is the most important legislative body, the house of representatives or the senate?

Next to the president, who is the most important government officer? Why?

What two legislative bodies has England? Which is the most important?

What kind of government has England? We have heard it claimed that our president has as much power in our government as the queen in England, is this correct?

The above questions should be answered next week in this column by teachers or pupils.

VISIONS SEEN IN SLEEP.

A dream about marriage denotes poverty and other misfortunes.

A dream of a lion means you will shortly get a profitable office.

A dream that you are bleeding indicates the loss of property or reputation.

To dream of being dressed in white means success in your next undertaking.

To dream of picture cards indicates that you will be married to a wealthy person.

To dream of finding a pocketbook or purse betokens unexpected success of some kind.

If you dream of a goose you may expect soon to see a friend who has been long absent.

A dream of being at a fair means you will soon be swindled by a pretended friend.

To dream of a monkey signifies that you will be deceived by the object of your affections.

To dream about a sheet of white paper means that you will marry a person you do not love.

Dreaming of an adversary signifies that you are to overcome obstacles which are in your way.

To dream of a swallow signifies that you will soon make the acquaintance of a strange young lady.

To dream that a policeman has you in charge is a sign that you will escape from some impending evil.

To dream that you are hungry means that you will rise to eminence and wealth by your own exertions.

To dream that you are kissing somebody means that an unknown friend will shortly confer upon you a great benefit.

A dream of ringing bells means either a speedy marriage among your acquaintances or some good news to yourself.

UNITED STATES FIRST THINGS.

The first telegraph wire was hung in 1836.

The first scientific periodical was issued in 1797.

The first public schools were opened in 1645 in Massachusetts.

Salt was first boiled in this country at Syracuse, N. Y., in 1787.

The first American telescope was put in position at Yale College in 1830.

The first Lombardy poplar in America was planted by Michaux in 1785.

The first iron forge in English North America was located at Raynham in the year 1652.

The first fire engine used in this country was brought from England to New York in 1731.

Tea was first brought to this country in 1719, a consignment arriving at Boston in the summer of that year.

The first mill for manufacturing cotton yarns was located in North Providence, R. I., by Samuel Slater, in 1793.

The first American railroad was laid in 1826. It was three miles long, from the granite quarries of Quincy, Mass., to Neponset river.

The first machine for the manufacture of cotton was invented in 1786. It was designed to card, rove and spin the raw cotton into thread.

The first paper money used in this country was issued by Pennsylvania in 1723. In the early part of that year $15,000 was issued on the credit of the colony, and a few months later $30,000 more followed.

Jews in the United States.

The American Jewish Year Book, just issued, gives the Jewish population of the country as 1,043,800. It is stated that of these there are 400,000 in New York, 95,000 in Illinois, 95,000 in Pennsylvania, 50,000 in Ohio, 35,000 in California, 35,000 in Maryland and 35,000 in Missouri.

The Prohibition special train, with the presidential candidates and other speakers on board, left Chicago Wednesday morning, and has traveled across Illinois, through Iowa and in South Dakota. Large crowds have met the train at all points where stops were made. This is the biggest campaign enterprise the Prohibitionists have ever undertaken and the party managers express themselves as highly pleased with the result of the first week's trip. The train returns to Chicago in time to start on its tour of Indiana Monday, Oct. 1st, on which day Goshen, Auburn and Fort Wayne will be visited. Evansville will have a stop from the train Oct. 6th, Indianapolis, Oct. 8th, and Logansport, Oct. 9th.

A young man by the name of Williams, who works on the Nickel Plate section at Burr Oak, took on a quantity of liquid dynamite Saturday evening and went on the war path. It is said he conceived the idea that he wanted the gore of an inoffensive young man by the name of Chaplin. He found his would-be victim and the result of the find is that young Williams was taken to Dr. Loring's office, as he badly needed fixing, and his wounds were properly attended to. It is said that the young pugilist, whose desire is to be a second Fitzsimmons, got just what he deserved. In the meantime there is a probability that the end is not yet, and in addition to receiving a sound trouncing, Williams will receive a dose of the law.

The Logansport Presbytery.

The session of the Logansport Presbytery closed at South Bend last week. The election of officers resulted as follows:

Moderator—Rev. J. L. Griffies of Remington.
Secretary—Rev. W. H. Wilson of Michigan City.

President McKinley's orders for the establishment of a government over the Filipinos were made public Monday. They were issued Apr 7 last in the form of instructions to the Taft commission, whose members were charged with promulgating, Sept. 1, a civil rule that should guarantee the fullest possible measure of freedom to all the islanders, safeguard their rights and separate church from state. They include the establishment of a civil government in which the natives shall take part so far as they show capacity to do so.

MARRIED.

Wednesday morning, at 10:30 o'clock, at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Jenks, on Long Point, occurred the marriage of Miss Harriet Bardsley of South Bend and Mr. S. E. Allen of Akron, Ohio. Miss Bardsley has held the responsible position of instructor in the State Normal at South Bend. Mr. Allen is a prominent and prosperous business man of Akron.

After the ceremony, conducted by Rev. Seamans of Logansport, a fine dinner was prepared by Mrs. Chadwick, was served. The cottage was decorated most beautifully with wild flowers and vines, also roses and smilax, the bride carrying white chrysanthemums.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen, previous to taking up their residence in Akron, will make a ten days' tour of the great lakes.

Loss by Lightning in One Year.

The number of deaths by lightning stroke in 1898 was 367 and the number of injuries 494. The places where the proportion of deaths to total population was the greatest were the upper Missouri valley and portions of the Rocky Mountain region. The proportion of deaths by lightning in the United States to the total population is about five in a million, which is higher than the average of most countries.

Nine hundred and fifty-six barns, sheds, etc., 735 dwellings, stores and office buildings, 95 churches and schools and 70 other buildings were struck and damaged by lightning, the approximate loss being about a million and a half dollars. Of the buildings struck, 40 were provided with lightning rods, 855 were not, and in 652 cases it could not be ascertained whether the building was provided with rods or not. Nine hundred and sixty-four head of cattle, 306 horses, 30 mules, 426 sheep and 116 hogs were killed by lightning during the year. The total value of the stock reported killed was $48,257.

Uncle Sam's Laundry Bill.

Uncle Sam's laundry bill costs many thousands of dollars each year, although it is all done under contract screwed down to the lowest figure. Most of the towels are manufactured on purpose, too, at an exceedingly cheap price. They are red-bordered, and have the letters "U. S." in the center of each. A large supply is kept on hand in a fair-sized warehouse.

The Treasury Department alone has 1,000 towels, and uses over 2,000 every day. The Interior Department uses 650, and the Pension Office 500 a day. Then there are the Postoffice Department, the great State, War and Navy Departments, the Library, the Agricultural Department, the Printing Bureau, the Patent Office, the bureaus of Education, of Labor, of Indian Affairs, the Census, the Geological Survey and many others, selling thousands upon thousands of towels every day.

One Way of Emphasizing.

The late Gen. Logan, says a writer, was a most intense man in his feelings and his beliefs. He showed this in his public speeches. At one time I was a member of the reception committee at a small town where the General was to speak, and consequently sat quite near him on the platform. I forget what was the topic, but the General was deeply interested in it, and finally, in emphasizing a point, banged his hand with tremendous force upon a hard-wood table at his elbow. So strong a blow was it that one of the bones of his hand was broken. He nevertheless courageously finished his speech, but he had to carry his hand in a splint for some time thereafter, and it was a question of weeks before he wholly recovered its use.

A Pleading Question.

Old Man—Why don't you marry?
Young One—Do you think a man could procure all the necessities of life in $1,800 a year?
Old Man—Of course, but not the luxuries.
Young Man—Well, I haven't decided yet whether a wife is a necessity or a luxury.

THE PATENT RECORD

A monthly publication of inestimable value to the student of every day scientific problems, the mechanic, the industrial expert, the manufacturer, the inventor—in fact, to every wide-awake person who hopes to better his condition by using his brains. The inventor, especially, will find in The Patent Record a guide, philosopher and friend. Nothing of importance escapes the vigilant eyes of its corps of expert editors. Everything is presented in clean, concise fashion, so that the busiest may take time to read and comprehend. The scientific and industrial progress of the age is accurately mirrored in the columns of The Patent Record, and it is the only publication in the country that prints the official news of the U. S. Patent Office and the latest developments in the field of invention without fear or favor.

ARMY TO QUIT PEKIN.

UNITED STATES WILL REDUCE ITS FORCE.

This Government Rejects Proposition of Germany, and Is Unwilling to Defer Peace Negotiations Until Persons Responsible for Crimes Are Punished.

The United States made a new move Friday in the game of diplomacy now being played in China, and that night President McKinley left Washington for Canton, having disposed of the proposals made by Germany, Russia, and China.

Russia proposed the withdrawal of troops from Peking. This has been disposed of by instructing Gen. Chaffee to withdraw from China, leaving a legation guard, to consist of one regiment of infantry, one squadron of cavalry, and a battery of artillery. China urged that peace negotiations begin at once. Without agreeing to an independent course, the President has instructed Minister Conger to arrange the preliminaries to a peace conference. He has also recognized Li Hung Chang and Prince Ching as peace commissioners on the part of China. Germany suggested the advisability of demanding the surrender of guilty Chinese leaders before the beginning of peace negotiations. On the general proposition that those responsible for outrages on foreigners should be punished, this government is in thorough accord with Germany, but that this should be done before opening peace negotiations does not meet with approval.

Gen. Chaffee was instructed to retire from Peking with all his troops, except one regiment of infantry, one squadron of cavalry, and a battery of artillery. It was determined that this force should be quartered in the legation compound and perform the duties of a legation guard during Minister Conger's stay in Peking. He will be accompanied by this guard should he go to any other point to continue negotiations. The legation guard will consist of about 1,800 troops. Battery F of the Fifth Artillery is the only American battery in China, and this will form a part of the guard. The order to Admiral Remy directed him to prepare to withdraw the marines from the shore to their respective vessels. They will then be transferred to Cavite in the Philippines.

This reduction of the military force in China leaves on foreign soil but little less than half of Gen. Chaffee's original expedition of 5,000 men. The withdrawal is to be made as rapidly as conditions in China will permit, the troops retiring to Tien-Tsin gradually and from there to Taku, where they will embark on the transports Indiana and Sumner, which have been held in readiness for such service. The supply ships now at Taku will take the bulk of their cargo to Manila, leaving in China a supply sufficient to meet the requirements of the legation guard for the winter.

CHINESE EXPLODE MINES.

Allies Lose 300 Killed and Wounded in Storming of Peitang Forts.

Five thousand Russians and Germans attacked the Peitang forts Thursday morning. After a bloody battle the forts were destroyed. Three hundred of the allies were killed and wounded by land mines exploded by the Chinese. The latter lost heavily. The attack on the forts began at 2 a. m. The forts replied with a hot artillery fire, well directed against the camp of the Russian infantry. At daybreak the allied forces advanced and the Chinese received them with a rattling rifle fire, in addition to shells from heavy guns. The ground was mined over which the allies advanced and the explosion of the mines killed and wounded almost all the 300 men who fell.

SLAIN BY A POSSE.

Men Under Orders of Schnytkill Sheriff Fire with Awful Effect.

Two persons are dead and ten injured as the result of a collision between riotous strikers and a sheriff's posse at Shenandoah, Pa. Of the twelve who fell nine were hit by bullets fired by the State's officers. Since daylight in the morning a spirit of turbulence had prevailed in and around the town, which culminated in the evening in a series of riots between striking mobs of miners and mine bosses and men on their way home from the mines. One man and a little girl were killed.

Sheriff Toole and Deputies O'Donnell and Brennan were called to Shenandoah to suppress the mobs that threatened mine workers and colliery property. At quitting time the three sheriffs and a small posse whom the sheriff had summoned on the ground went to the Indian Ridge colliery of the Reading company to escort the workmen to their homes. The colliery is located a short distance east of Shenandoah. The workmen left for home shortly after 4 o'clock. They walked up the middle of East Center street and reached the Lehigh Valley railroad station. Here had gathered a large crowd of Poles, Slavs and Hungarians, men, women and children, who lined both sides of the street.

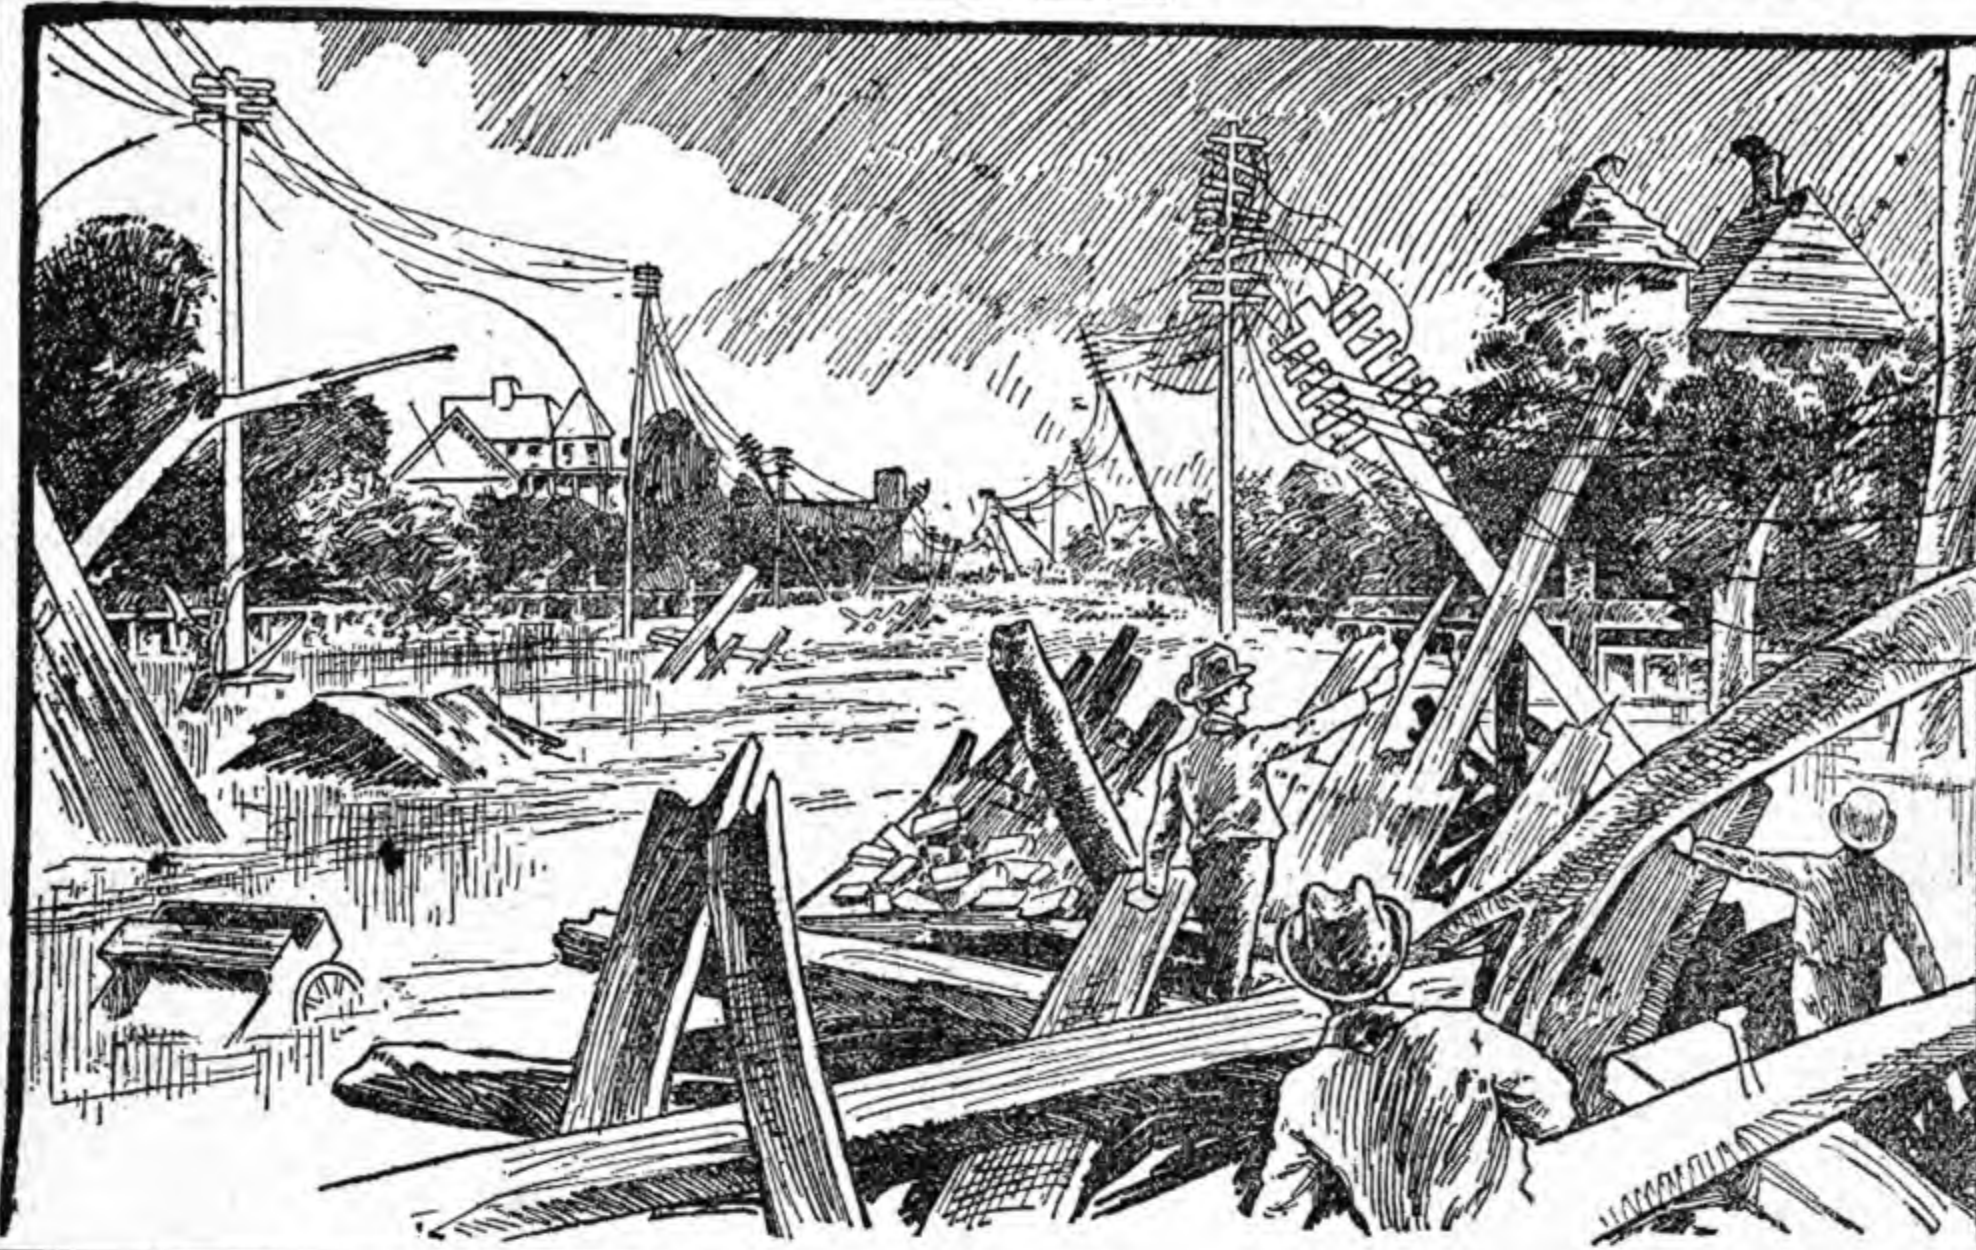

A shot rang out from a saloon. This was followed by a shower of stones. Many of the crowd had picked up sticks and stones and were acting in a threatening manner. Seeing this, the sheriff, who had previously cautioned his men to keep cool and not to use their firearms, commanded them to fire. The order was obeyed, with terrible results. The crowd pursued the sheriff and his posse to the Ferguson house, where they took refuge.

SCENE IN TREMONT STREET, GALVESTON, AS THE TIDAL WAVE RECEDED.

GALVESTON COUNTS HER DEAD.

Grand Total of the Storm's Victims Is About 6,500.

Those killed in Galveston during the great storm number about 6,500. The identified dead number 4,178; unidentified dead recovered, 300; estimated number missing, 2,000. Grand total, 6,478. There are also 300 lives lost on the mainland.

Laborers are still scarce and Gen. Scurry said that he could give employment to several thousand men. A few mechanics from other places have immediately found work. Many architects and contractors are preparing plans for new buildings and other improvements. Building material is needed, but its delivery is necessarily slow, owing to the lack of rail communication with the mainland.

There are still many pitiable cases of destitution. Many half-demented persons positively refuse to leave their wrecked homes and as persistently refuse to accept offers of relief extended them. In several instances parents who have lost children still occupy ruins of their former home and the surroundings have brought them to a state of mental and physical collapse.

The number who have gone insane as a result of their experiences will probably never be known. In every lot of refugees sent out of the stricken city there have been some insane men and women. The victims first make light of their losses, and laugh immoderately when telling of the death of relatives in the flood. It is a quick step from this to uncontrollable madness.

There are no developments which would lead to the belief that the estimate of a property loss of $22,500,000 is too high, writes a correspondent. While one occasionally finds a business man whose property has not suffered greatly, it must be stated that the class is hopelessly in the minority, and that large losses are the rule. The people are becoming more cheerful every day and it is more than remarkable to observe the composure exhibited by some of them under the terrible circumstances.

The sound of the hammer is beginning to be heard throughout the city and every man not engaged in the grim work of looking and caring for the dead is patching up the holes made by the great tidal wave. The spirit displayed by citizens is remarkable. They seem determined to immediately begin to rebuild the stricken city and want building material as speedily as possible. Business houses are being restocked and restaurateurs are conducting business on the sidewalks. The exodus of those who lost everything continues.

Galveston's Pluck.

While the catastrophe at Galveston is calling forth proofs of sympathy and a spirit of practical helpfulness on every hand, the people of Galveston themselves are giving the world an equally notable proof of courage and sturdy resolution. The situation as it has developed there from day to day has afforded a striking evidence of their ability to pull themselves together and prepare to face the future. The conditions which they had to confront on the days immediately following the catastrophe, when they were cut off even from communication with the outer world and were alone in their knowledge of the extent of the calamity, must have been appalling beyond conception. Stunned by a disaster in which individual griefs were lost in a common horror and the presence of death on all sides made the finding of the dead an incident of commonplace, they could scarcely have been expected to act with energy, organization or promptitude. The blow sustained by the city must have seemed irreparable.

STORIES OF THE STORM

Two more kodak fiends are said to have been shot by soldiers.

The number of business houses resuming trade is increasing rapidly.

The total number of people fed in the ten wards Saturday was 16,144.

Many refugees are in a pitiable condition, some of them showing unmistakable evidences of insanity.

Water mains in Galveston are being repaired as hastily as possible, and some are now in working order.

A remarkable escape is that of a batteryman, who was picked up at Morgan's Point, after a five days' fight with the waves.

Congressman Hawley of Texas bitterly attacks the statement of Quartermaster Baxter that Galveston has been hopelessly ruined.

No accurate statement of the amount of supplies received can be obtained as they are being put in the general stock as soon as received.

An appeal is now made for Texas points besides Galveston. There are probably fifty small towns and communities needing aid.

The condition of the dead is frightful. The burying squads have been compelled to tie cloths saturated with disinfectants over their mouths and noses.

The city's electric light service is completely destroyed and the city electrician says it may be sixty days before the business portion can be lighted.

In view of all the existing conditions it is no wonder that the cry is "Get the women and children to the mainland!"

anywhere off the island," nor is it a wonder that with one small boat carrying only 300 passengers and making only two trips a day people fairly fight to be taken aboard.

KILLED BY A TORNADO.

Morristown, Minn., Scene of Death and Ruin.

A tornado struck Morristown, Minn., at 6 o'clock Monday night, which resulted in the death of seven persons and the serious injury of at least four others.

Morristown is a place of 1,000 people about ten miles west of Faribault on the Chicago Great Western Railway. The cyclone lifted a new brick building from its foundation and then dropped it again, killing all the occupants but one. Many other buildings were wrecked.

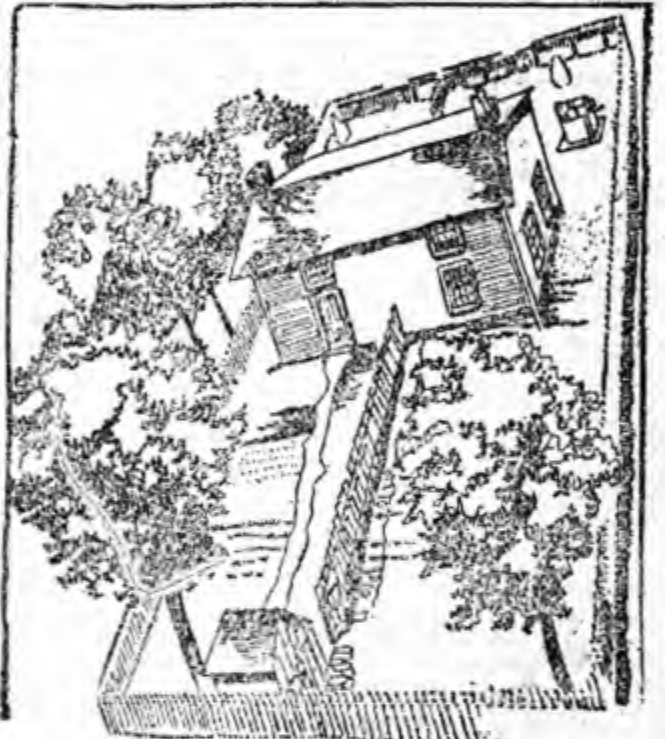

It had been raining hard all day and no one thought of a cyclone, but suddenly a heavy cloud as green as grass appeared and in three minutes the storm was upon the town. The gust seemed to drop from the heavens, striking two small barns, carrying them two blocks into the street, there tearing them into kindling. Then it dropped again, taking a new brick building, 80x36, used as a saloon, run by Paul Golzke. In this saloon were the eleven killed and wounded and three unknown strangers, who escaped before the building was wrecked. It took but an instant to crush the entire building, burying all its occupants beneath the debris. Groans of the wounded and dying were heard for three hours until one by one ceased their cries of agony in death. A crew of forty men to work to save the people. The last man was dug out, Mr. Goldzke, the proprietor of the building, at 8:15 p. m. Most of the dead are mangled beyond recognition.

After venting its rage in the village the storm struck a barn three miles east of town, belonging to John Hanson, tearing the structure to pieces over the heads of six horses. The animals escaped without a scratch, but Hanson's son was killed.

DIVIDED BY A FENCE.

Domestic Trouble of a New Jersey Couple Married Thirty Years.

Donnis Harrington and his wife of Somerville, N. J., have broken all family feud records. After living together happily, as far as the world can judge, for more than thirty years, rearing a family of six children and providing a comfortable home for themselves, they have parted. They have divided their house, each taking half. Have built a fence the length of the back yard, so that neither might encroach on the other. Still finding themselves unable to get along at such close range peaceably, the old man rented his half of the house to a Hungarian family, and boards in a nearby street, where he can look across at the home of his old age, in which he can no longer live. Recently the strife over this dividing fence became so hot that the wife had the husband arrested, says the Philadelphia North American.

RUSSIA GRABS MANCHURIA.

Partition of China May Be Precipitated by Action of the Czar.

Word comes from St. Petersburg that Russia has formally taken over all those regions of Manchuria occupied by Muscovite soldiers. A proclamation has been issued in which it is announced that the annexation is a punishment for the attack on Blagovestchensk. Hope is expressed that it will serve as a warning to the inhabitants to respect the power of Russia.

Grave doubts are expressed in diplomatic circles as to whether the action of Russia will not be regarded as a grab by the powers and lead to serious results. Indeed, many British statesmen fear that it will precipitate a general seizure by other nations and that the partition of China actually impends.

The reasons given by the Czar for his action are considered flimsy. Ample, if not excessive, reprisals were made by the Cossacks for the attacks of the Chinese along the Amur River, and besides the hostilities were not of a nature to warrant the annexing of a vast expanse of territory. It has been known all along that Russia has kept covetous eyes on Manchuria. She now secures practically all that would accrue to her by a partition.

BURNED THEIR EYES OUT.

Details of Horrible Tortures by Chinese in Hunan Province.

An official communication coming through diplomatic channels has been brought to the attention of the State Department giving information as to the conditions in the Yangtsekiang valley, and also giving detailed and fully authenticated instances of atrocities in the province of Hunan against Christian missionaries. The account is given by one of the Christian missionaries who escaped and who makes the report through the officials of the government now forwarding it to Washington.

In one case, it is stated, a missionary had his eyes burned out, then a portion of his body was cut off, and finally, a red-hot staff was driven through his back. In another case a missionary was wrapped in cotton, the cotton was soaked in oil and the mass set on fire.

RELIEF WORK IN GALVESTON.

Twenty Thousand Survivors of the Disaster Being Fed.

Twenty thousand people are being fed and cared for daily in Galveston with the supplies which are pouring in from all parts of the country. The estimated cost of the aid which is now being extended is $40,000 a day. The great bulk of the aid is going to the 4,000 men who are at work cleaning up the wreckage, digging for bodies and cleaning the streets. Through them it goes to their families. No able-bodied laboring man is allowed to escape the work, whether he needs aid or not, though most of them do. The business men who are in position to resume are allowed to attend to their stores, and their clerical forces are not interfered with. The first few days' wages consisted entirely of rations, which were given according to the number and needs of the laborer's family, regardless of the amount of work he accomplished. Since other supplies have begun coming in they have been added.

The work of distribution is being conducted systematically and with an apparent minimum of imposition and fraud. There is a central committee, of which W. A. McVitie, a prominent business man, is chairman. Then there is a committee for each one of the twelve wards. As fast as goods or provisions arrive from the mainland they are placed in the central warehouse, from there the different ward chairmen requisition them, and they are taken to supply depots in the different wards. All day long there is a motley crowd around every one of these depots, negroes predominating at least two to one. Every applicant passes in review before the ward chairman.

SUFFERING AND RELIEF

Three Letters from Mrs. Johnson, Showing that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Cures the Ills of Women

Wrote for Mrs. Pinkham's Advice November, 1897

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I am a great sufferer, have much trouble through the lower part of my bowels, and I am writing to you for advice. Menses are irregular and scanty, am troubled with leucorrhoea, and I ache so through my back and down through my loins. I have spells of bloating very badly, sometimes will be very large and other times very much reduced. —Mrs. CHAS. E. JOHNSON, Box 33, Rumford Center, Maine, Nov. 20, 1897.

Improvement Reported December, 1897

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I wish to tell you that I am improving in health. I am ever so much better than when I wrote before. The trouble through the lower part of bowels is better and I am not bloated so badly. I was very much swollen through the abdomen before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I still have a feeling of fullness across my chest. I have used three bottles of it and am on the fourth. —Mrs. CHAS. E. JOHNSON, Box 33, Rumford Center, Maine, Dec. 13, 1897.

Enjoying Good Health June, 1899

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Since a year ago I have been taking your medicine, and am now strong and enjoying good health. I have not been so well for three years, and feel very thankful to you for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I would advise all who suffer with female troubles to try your medicine. —Mrs. CHAS. E. JOHNSON, Box 33, Rumford Center, Maine, June 1, 1899.

BIG STRIKE BEGINS.

UNION MINERS IN ANTHRACITE REGION QUIT WORK.

Tens of Thousands Idle—Strikers' Numbers Estimated at from 60,000 to 120,000—Two Hundred Chinese Officials Commit Suicide.

The prophecy of the labor leaders that more than 100,000 anthracite coal miners would respond to the call to strike proved true, for even their own estimates were exceeded, as no less than 112,000 men are now idle and the operators themselves would concede that they are liable to soon lose the remaining 30,000.

President Mitchell's figures include the men who stopped work Friday and Saturday and the following reports from the several districts received by him Monday:

Table listing coal districts and their respective miner counts, such as Wyoming district with 50,000 miners.

In the neighborhood of Hazleton, Pa., the miners are at work, the strike being confined to a few collieries about McAdoo, on the south side, where most of the labor trouble of the section has its origin.

IN THE STRIKE DISTRICT.

in that big territory is working with badly crippled forces. President Nichols of District No. 1 reports that the entire Wyoming and Lackawanna districts are tied up completely with the exception of one small corporation employing 250 men.

In the Lehigh region, it is said, about 8,000 of the 16,000 mine employes have quit work. Nearly all the efforts of the strike leaders are being devoted to organizing the men in the Schuylkill and Lehigh regions, where they are weakest.

The strike came off officially with little excitement, but surrounded with all kind of doubt. The United Mine Workers leaders seemed to be the only ones who came near to the figures. The attempts of Father Phillips to have the troubles arbitrated are thought by a number of leaders to have slightly injured the cause of the strikers, because he seemed to place them in an equivocal position.

Representatives of the miners are trying to bring about a sympathetic strike in the Altoona district, but have not been successful so far. Similar efforts are being made by the strikers at Lykens and Wisconsin to get the men at Williamstown to join them and thereby close every colliery in the Lykens Valley region.

THE "QUEEN OF THE MINES."

"Mother" Mary Jones, Who Is the Idol of the Miners. "Mother" Mary Jones, "Queen of the Mines" and the idol of the miners, occupies a unique place in the world of labor.

This kind-hearted, philanthropic woman is so loved by the rough delvers of the coal mines in the anthracite regions that with their her word is tantamount to law. Mrs. Jones is 50 years old, silver-haired and beautiful. Her voice has been sweetly eloquent in behalf of the workers whose cause she has adopted, and her appeals have won unstinted sympathy for her simple, hard-laboring friends. She lives at Wilkesbarre, Pa.

Gladstone as a Chemist.

If Mr. Gladstone seldom indulged in sarcasm, it was not because he lacked the gift—for he possessed it in a high degree—but because he forebore to use it. To hurt an opponent's feelings gave him pain, and when he did it unintentionally he would sometimes cross the floor of the House, and, sitting for a few moments by the side of the man whom he had just demolished, say something to assuage the wound.

Sir John prided himself on his knowledge of chemistry, and in one of the debates on the commercial treaty with France he made a speech exposing, as he believed, a serious chemical blunder in the treaty. Mr. Gladstone followed, "and soon turned me inside out in the most amusing manner," said Hennessy in relating the story.

Feminine Superiority.

Here is a little local story that illustrates the calm self-satisfaction with which the feminine mind asserts its superiority:

Lucy and George are children of East End parents. Lucy is 7 and George is 5. She has attended the primary department of a private school just four months. Here is an overheard conversation between the two:

Lucy, with a greatly pained expression: "Why, brother, anybody could tell you are only 5. You don't even know the difference between corn and wheat."

George, who hates to acknowledge his inferiority: "I do, too. Wheat is—"

Lucy, taking pity on him: "Why, George, you know well enough you don't know. Listen to me and remember. Wheat is wheat and corn is corn, and wheat grows in a wheat field and corn grows in a corn field. And don't you ever forget it!"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Many a woman, sick and weary of life, dragged down by weakening drains, painful irregularities, depression, and the hundred and one ailments which affect women only, has found in Pe-ru-na a bright star of hope, which has changed her misery to joy, her suffering to health.

No woman need suffer from the derangements peculiar to her sex, if she will give Pe-ru-na a fair trial.

The majority of weaknesses which make woman's life a burden, spring from a simple cause. The mucous membrane which lines the pelvic organs becomes weakened and inflamed owing to strain, cold, overwork, etc. This causes catarrhal congestion, inflammation, painful irregularities, depression of spirits, irritability, weakness and suffering.

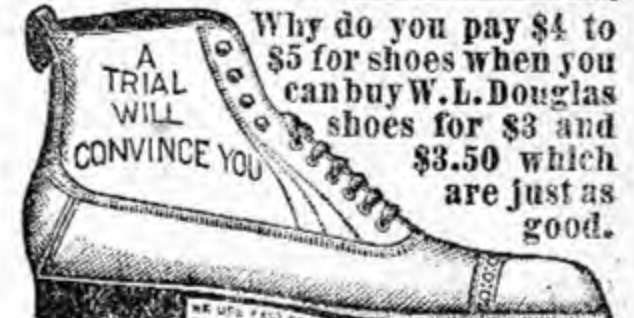

For the prompt cure of such ailments try Pe-ru-na. It drives away "the blues," clears the complexion, brightens the eyes, changes thinness to plumpness, and cures pains, aches and drains, because it immediately strikes at the root of such troubles and removes the cause.

The following persons visited the academy recently: L. W. Osborne, Mr. and Mrs. J. Y. Calahan, and Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Sanborn, Chicago; Mrs. J. Hooper, Louisville, Ky.; Mrs. N. A. Duff, Nebraska City, Neb.; Mrs. Agnes DeVay, Indianapolis; C. A. Urban, Terre Haute; Mrs. David June, Toledo, Ohio; Mrs. T. C. Knauss and daughter, Columbus, Ohio; F. O. Fitton and wife, New Harmony, Ind.; Mrs. C. H. Backus, Hampshire, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Trippe, North Vernon, Ind.; C. W. Seiwel and daughter, Danville, Ill.

W. K. Harrington of St. Louis was here Monday and placed his son in the academy.

Albert Knell of St. Louis, the academy architect, was here Monday and Tuesday on business pertaining to the new addition to the annex.

The new addition to the annex of the main barracks will be ready for occupancy in about a week. The partitions have all been put in and the plastering nearly completed. When finished it will not only give much additional room, but will also greatly improve the appearance of the main barracks.

Cadet Ray S. of St. Louis is on sick leave.

The Plymouth high school football team was to have played C. M. A.'s second team last Saturday afternoon. For some reason the game was called off.

The question of playing golf at the academy has been discussed quite freely ever since the opening of school and finally steps have been taken toward laying out golf links at this place. A representative of A. G. Spalding & Bros., has been here this week laying out golf links on the old fair grounds and ere long the lovers of this popular game will have a chance of indulging in their favorite pastime. About seventy-five cadets have signified their willingness to join a golf club and one will undoubtedly be organized. Our links will be the only ones in this part of the state and as the game can be played both winter and summer, it will certainly prove to be an interesting diversion from the regular routine of school work.

Every man in school should appoint himself a committee of one to see that our football team gets the right kind of support this year. There is nothing better to put life into a team than good "rooting" and if we give our century team sufficient encouragement, there is no reason why it should not meet with good success.

Pollard, a former cadet, is playing right end on the University of Illinois football team this year, and is doing most excellent work.

W. S. Voris, senior captain here last year and a guard on our football team, is now attending Cornell University. The following clipping from the Chicago Times Herald of Sept. 26 speaks for itself: "Voris also made his presence felt in the scrub line, through which but few gains were made by the 'varsity.'"

The following is the football schedule up to date:

- FIRST TEAM.
 Englewood high school, Sept. 29.
 Huntington high school, Oct. 6.
 Lafayette high school, Oct. 13.
 Wabash college, Oct. 20.
 Lake Forest academy, Nov. 3.
 Aurora high school, Nov. 10.
 English High and Manual Training school, Chicago, Nov. 20.
- SECOND TEAM.
 Plymouth high school, Oct. 13.
 South Bend high school, Nov. 10.
- We are pleased to chronicle that "Fat" Campbell has not consented to play on our football team this year and for the past week has been back in his old place as center, while Wood J. is playing tackle. We understand that McQuaid will be quarterback, Crawford will play end, while Bodman will be one of the half-backs.

Cadet Curtis, son of Hon. James Curtis of Clinton, Iowa, is the latest addition to the corps of cadets.

The new members of the faculty are as follows:

Head of English department, Capt. Hunt, Ohio Wesleyan university and A. M. from University of Chicago.

Instructor of history and manager of football team, Capt. C. M. Barber, University of Chicago.

Sciences, Capt. Newman, a son of Prof. Newman, of McMasters university, Toronto, Canada. Capt. Newman took his A. B. degree from McMasters in 1897, and since that time has been doing graduate work in the University of Chicago.

Latin and Greek, Capt. Timmons, Ohio Wesleyan university.

Modern languages, Capt. Hagons, Beloit college.

Mathematics and science, Capt. Brooke and Montgomery, Virginia Military Institute. Capt. Montgomery is also coach of the football team.

Calvary and mathematics, Capt. Winter, University of Virginia and late of Roosevelt's Rough Riders.

English, Capt. H. W. Fleet, Culver Military Academy and University of Virginia.

The above named gentlemen are all specialists in their line of work and the academy management is to be congratulated on having secured such an excellent corps of teachers.

ORDERS.

1. Cadets who have permission from their parents to go on the lake should file the same with the Post Adjutant. They will also state whether or not they are able to swim.

Permits to go on the lake cannot be granted to cadets unless they comply with these requirements, and cadets going on the lake without permission will render themselves liable to dismissal.

These stringent measures are necessary to the general safety and welfare of cadets, and they should give them their cooperation.

2. All permits for any person shall bear the word certified over the signature of the cadet submitting the same, this being understood to mean that the cadet is on honor while availing himself of the privileges granted in the permit to conduct himself in accordance with the regulations and to use his permit only for the purposes stated.

And in this connection it should be understood by all concerned that the authorities, and it is believed the cadets in general do not desire as a member of the academy, a cadet whose honor can not be relied upon. By order of

EDUCATIONAL COLUMN.

Edited by Teachers and High School Scholars.

When there are poor facilities for ventilating a school-room the teachers will do well to follow this plan. Get strips of boards about four inches wide, cut in lengths equal to the width of the windows, raise each of the lower sashes and place a board beneath. This will give a good current of air at the joining of the two sashes, which will go in an upward direction on entering the room and will become near the temperature of the room before striking the pupils.

Here is something we have seen used with success in the school-room. This is having one of the pupils to answer calls at the door. Frequently when the teacher is busy with a recitation there will be a knock at the door, the teacher will drop his work and leave the class sitting there while he answers the call. Instead of this have one of the larger pupils attend to the matter. Should the caller be a lady calling to visit the school and one of the boys has gone to the door, one of the girls can assist the lady in removing her wraps. This is only a small matter but looks well to the visitor.

There is a drayman in Valparaiso who got himself a home of his own in a novel way, says the Chesterton Tribune. For years he had worked hard and never got ahead. One day he made a bargain with himself that every time a dime came into his hands he would put it into a little tin box he had in his house. For two years this box was never opened. The bargain was faithfully kept and very time any one paid him a dime, into the box it went as soon as he got home. At the end of two years he opened the box and counted his dimes. There was a little over $200 in the box. The dimes represented beers that he didn't drink, smokes that he didn't smoke and a little self-denials. He was so encouraged that he bought a lot in a desirable location and in less than four years had it entirely paid for. In no other way would this man get a home. This is an absolutely true story.—Valparaiso Messenger.

In answer to the question in this department last week as to who is the most important government officer next to the president, the writer thinks this is the speaker of the house of representatives. To explain why we think this is the case will require going into details somewhat. In the first place there are but two United States senators in each state, while there is one representative for a certain number of inhabitants. In New York for instance there are 36. Now, in a republic the representatives are supposed to look after the interests of the people in their district, as well as the general welfare of the country, consequently the most bills will naturally be presented in the house. Now, when a bill is presented it is at once referred to a committee, whose duty it is to look after bills dealing with that subject. This committee can reject this bill entirely or return it with changes. Thus the people of a district may go to the trouble to petition their representative, asking for legislation upon a certain subject and the representative may go to the trouble to prepare a bill and then have it rejected by the committee. These committees are chosen by the speaker of the house. He is supposed to know or can find out the opinion of each member upon all the important subjects likely to come up during a particular session, so by appointing members on the different committees whose opinions coincide with his own he can control the legislation to a greater extent than any man in the government.

Attendance has been good this week. Repairs are rapidly approaching completion.

Two new students entered high school this week.

Rooms are being decorated by the teachers and will soon have a much better appearance.

Seats were rearranged in rooms B and C, making it more convenient. Schools will soon arrange lessons in drawing and music.

Quite a discussion arose in room B this week over the gender of the word "school." After hearing all the evidence the teacher decided it in favor of the common gender advocates.

School library was invoiced and found that no books were lost last year. Library contains many books that parents would enjoy reading. An effort will be made this year to increase the number of good books.

Culver schools now has five rooms in which recitations are held. Four years ago, but three rooms were occupied. It is easy to see that the school is destined to outgrow its present rooms in but a few more years, say four or five.

On the first Saturday in October the township teachers' institute will be held in Culver high school room. A very good list of subjects will be under discussion. The leading ones are "Literature," "Life Ideals" and "History." Patrons interested are invited to attend. Any pupil expecting to sometime teach would do well to attend such institutes.

Cold Steel or Death.

"There is but one small chance to save your life and that is through an operation," was the awful prospect set before Mrs. I. B. Hunt, of Lime Ridge, Wis., by her doctor after vainly trying to cure her of a frightful case of stomach trouble and yellow jaundice. He didn't count on the marvellous power of Electric Bitters to cure stomach and liver troubles, but she heard of it, took seven bottles, was wholly cured, avoided the surgeon's knife, now weighs more and feels better than ever. It's positively guaranteed to cure stomach, liver and kidney troubles and never disappoints. Price 50c at T. E. Slattery's drug store.
