BIG CAR FERRY SINKS

GRAND TRUNK TRAIN IS PUT ASHORE JUST IN TIME.

Thrilling Race for Safety on Detroit River—No Great Damage Is Done—Bank Swindler Makes Big Haul with Raised Checks in Toronto.

The Grand Trunk car ferry Huron ran aground in the slip at Windsor, Ont., with fully ten feet of water in her forward compartment. She ran aground of a huge boulder the previous day, but it was supposed no damage was done. She made two trips afterward. On the last trip she carried a passenger train from the Brush street depot in Detroit, and when in midstream it was discovered that the boat was leaking badly. By crowding on steam the ferry reached the Windsor slip and the train was got off with difficulty. Despite the efforts of steam pumps, she sank.

BIG HAUL BY BANK SWINDLER, Stranger Dupes Toronto Institutions by Raising Checks.

A bank swindler made a heavy haul in Toronto. A stranger, claiming to live in Halifax, opened an account in the Imperial Bank, depositing $50. Shortly afterward he presented a check for $20, which was marked by the ledger keeper. Shortly before 1 o'clock during the rush preceding the close, this check, raised to $2,455, was presented to the teller and cashed. The same procedure was adopted at the Bank of Commerce, where a check raised from $20 to $2,900 was cashed. It is believed several other banks were victimized.

Killed by a Train as He Was Starting to Illinois to Marry.

Rev. Edwin J. Oliver, aged 28, pastor of the Evangelical Church at Peru, Ind., while returning from conference, jumped from a Wabash train in front of another and was crushed to death. The accident was due to his haste to catch another train at the crossing. He had just been transferred to East Germantown by the conference. He was to have departed the same night for Aurora, Ill., to marry Miss Selfrink, daughter of Rev. J. B. Selfrink.

Herron to Wed Again.

Prof. D. Rand and Miss Carrie E. Mrs. Eve sold their property in Grinnell, Iowa, and will return to New York at once. On good authority it is said that Miss Rand and Prof. George D. Herron will be married in a few weeks. The judge who a few weeks ago granted Mrs. Herron a divorce from her husband refused to sign the decree until the check for $60,000 alimony was in his hands.

City Is Moved Six Inches.

A portion of Butte, Mont., believed to embrace the larger part of the big hill upon which some of the Anaconda mines are located, has made a very perceptible movement southward. At the foot of the Anaconda hill the slide pushed the tracks of the street railway line about six inches for a distance of about 300 feet along the road.

Mrs. Nation Is Fined $500.

Mrs. Carrie Nation, who was in Kansas City arrested for obstructing the streets, was fined $500 and given eight hours to leave the city. Fifteen minutes later she boarded a street car for Kansas City, Kan. Pending her absence from Missouri the collection of the fine will not be enforced.

THE JAPANESE CRUISER 'KAJAGI'

soon as Russia has done something which will give justification for a protest, Japan will protest first in words and then with lead and iron.

Dispatches from Tokio and Yokohama leave no room for doubt that the temper of the Japanese people is at the danger point and cannot much longer be restrained. The government itself is properly careful of every step it takes, but once it officially confirms the impression now prevailing that Russia intends to steal a land that should have been Japan's by virtue of her recent victory over China, the whole island empire will set up a demand for war against the Czar that cannot be resisted. Tokio dispatches all give indications of preparations for the conflict; interviews with prominent men breathe the war spirit; the newspapers are cautious in tone, but denounce Russia's aggression in plain terms; and all these things are having their effect on the populace. The government is seemingly desirous of delaying the conflict for a time, perhaps until the outlook for peace in South Africa is brighter, for it is plain that Japan would rely upon and would undoubtedly have the moral support of England, and such support could only be of value if England's hands are not too closely tied in the Transvaal.

In order to understand why Japan is perturbed almost to the verge of declaring war against Russia because the latter refuses to relax its masterful grip on Manchuria, one has only to study the map of Asia. Manchuria's natural outlet to the sea is Korea, of which it is the hinterland. All the coast to the north of Korea is Russia's. That sunny peninsula extends far into the southern waters. For Russia to clutch it, drop a railway down through it and establish a great seaport in the latitude of Nagasaki and only a short sail from that city would be to sap the vitality of Japan and open wide the jaws of the Russian nut-cracker to crush the Mikado's empire.

"Russia and Japan will be at war before summer—perhaps before the middle of spring." This is the consensus of diplomatic opinion in Washington, according to a correspondent, although the American and foreign diplomats from whom expressions on the situation are asked for publication are naturally reticent and almost silent. Privately, however, these men, who to a large extent hold in their hands the fate of nations, shake their heads solemnly when they are led into an expression of their views. The present lull in incidents that might provoke early hostilities does not deceive anybody familiar with the deep-seated causes of the hatred between the two countries, or those who know the present temper of the Japanese people. It is looked upon as the calm before the storm which seems bound to break sooner or later, and to all appearances soon.

The most general belief is that Japan will suddenly break her reserve and precipitate the expected war by taking the bull by the horns and assuming a protectorate over Korea, which, of course, in view of Russia's designs, would be equivalent to throwing down the gage to the Czar. The Japanese know that if Russia is likely to persist in her encroachments on Manchuria, and the Czar shows no sign of desisting from his long-established policy to that end, the chances of Japan will diminish in reverse proportion as Russia's scheme succeeds. The Japs are perfectly aware of the fact that if war must come over this question, the sooner it comes the better it will be for them. It is undoubtedly the impression not only in high diplomatic but in the higher business circles as well, that Russia intends to possess herself of Manchuria. On the other hand, it is accurate knowledge that justifies these men in saying that Japan is persuaded that Russia purposes obtaining possession of Manchuria, ultimately Korea, and that as

PLAGUE IS HERE.

Dread Bubonic Disease Gets a Foothold on American Soil.

The most dreaded of all of the physical afflictions of mankind, the bubonic plague has gained a foothold in America, and the federal authorities are taking vigorous steps to hold in check so far as is possible the fearful disease that in the past half decade has decimated India. There can no longer be any doubt of the identity of the disease. The special commission hastened to San Francisco by the Secretary of the Treasury to investigate supposed cases of the malady there has returned to Washington with confirmation of the worst suspicions.

The text of their report has not been made public, but its substance is known, and it is to the effect that the bubonic plague does exist in the California capital; that there are numerous cases and have been six deaths recently; that the situation is alarming, and that unless the promptest and most drastic measures are adopted there is danger of the dread malady spreading to other parts of the country. Close on the heels of the Federal investigators came a committee of San Francisco citizens to deny the existence of the plague there and protest against any steps which may place an embargo upon the Eastern business of their great State.

That general alarm felt among the neighbors of California is evidenced by numerous petitions telegraphed from Western States to Washington asking the Treasury Department to quarantine the entire State of California, so that they may not be exposed to the contagion. It is recognized by the federal authorities that San Francisco, with its squalid and secretive "Chinatown," into whose dirty recesses the sanitary officers have the greatest difficulty in penetrating because of the ignorant and superstitious opposition of the Mongolian denizens, is one of the worst places where the disease could have gained a foothold.

The Treasury Department does not believe that it will be necessary to quarantine the State, or even the whole city. A quarantine will be placed on the Chinese quarter, where the deaths have occurred, and where the remaining cases are now under treatment. In any event, individual isolation of the cases will be effected and rigidly enforced by federal command. The disease was undoubtedly brought to America from oriental countries by ships plying between this country and the far East.

Surgeons of the marine hospital service stationed in various parts of the world have reported to the Treasury Department a total of more than 40,000 cases of bubonic plague and 18,000 deaths from the disease since November last, and these reports in many cases do not include the period between December and March. Treasury Department reports show the disease, although most violent in India, exists in every part of the world.

STATUE OF GEN. LOGAN UNVEILED IN WASHINGTON.

FRANKLIN SIMMONS' STATUE OF GEN. JOHN A. LOGAN.

Gen. John A. Logan's statue, regarded as a masterpiece of the sculptor's art, was unveiled in Washington Tuesday morning. President McKinley was present and made a brief address. Senator Chauncey M. Depew of New York made the speech of the day, and the veil that concealed the statue was pulled aside by Master John Tucker, a grandson of the famous soldier and statesman. Mrs. Logan was one of the most conspicuous and interested spectators, but there were many notables at hand. A military detachment from the District of Columbia militia furnished the escort of honor to the President and his cabinet.

The statue has a fine position in Iowa Circle, in the center of what is now the most fashionable part of the capital city. The statue is unique in being the only one of the kind that has been erected in the United States. The monument, being wholly of bronze and the pedestal ornamented with about twenty life-size figures in high relief—nearly all of which are portraits of generals, senators and statesmen, friends of Gen. Logan—attracts to the work especial character and interest.

CUBAN CONVENTION REJECTS PLATT AMENDMENT.

Votes in Same Motion to Send a Commission to Washington—Acts of Local Government in Havana Promote Discontent and Distrust.

The constitutional convention in Havana, Cuba, on Friday voted on a combination proposition to send a commission to Washington, after categorical rejection of the Platt amendment. The vote was divided on the motion in this form, some believing that a commission would be necessary after a flat rejection of the Platt amendment.

The motion was carried, 18 to 10, some members voting against it who are known to be opposed to the Platt amendment proposition.

Beyond a doubt the last few days have shown the development of a feeling of discontent and resentment in Havana. This is due to various causes more or less directly connected with the method of handling the political situation, especially the arrogation of interference with the judicial authority.

This has been illustrated in the case of the suppression of a newspaper, in the matter of the gas company, in the arbitrary imprisonment of members of the staff of a labor union paper, called L'Estivador, without trial, and in the position of the military government in the matter of the choice of a Mayor of Havana.

There is also a growing feeling among all classes, due to Washington cablegrams asserting that sovereignty will be assumed by America in case the Platt amendment is not accepted, of distrust of the local administration, extending to Washington and the American people, because it is feared that these local acts, which seem to form part of a plan to compel the acceptance of the Platt plan, are receiving the support of the American people.

The situation is beginning to present rather serious features, even among the conservative classes, many of whom now support the convention in opposition to the Platt amendment. Reliable private sources of information in Santiago province report that secret preparations are being made for a forcible resistance to the imposition of the Platt amendment.

Cuban Wife of American Soldier Attempts a Stowaway to Manila.

MRS. W. P. HAYES.

was put ashore. She is a Cuban girl, and speaks no English. She was smuggled from Cuba to New York on a transport, and ever since has followed the regiment, often beating her way on trains to follow the man she loves. She has been sent to her husband's friends in Pennsylvania.

CHURCH AND CLERGY.

A beautiful new Methodist church was dedicated at Bellevue, Mich.

The death of the Rev. Dr. Crystal of Auchinleck, in Ayrshire, father of all the Scottish churches, at the age of 94 years, has been announced.

Dr. H. C. Estes, one of the best-known Baptist preachers in New Hampshire, died recently in Newton Junction, N. H. He was 77 years of age.

The new Baptist church at Princeton, Ind., was destroyed by fire. It had not been dedicated, and had just been completed. It cost $9,000, and the insurance was $3,000.

The Grace Episcopal Church property in Cleveland has been sold to a company of local capitalists. The congregation will seek a new location in a section of the city remote from the business district.

It is related of the Rev. Dr. Haweis, whose death in New York occurred a few days ago, that on one occasion on entering his pulpit he found that he had forgotten to bring the manuscript for his discourse. He was entirely self-possessed as he announced: "I have forgotten my sermon; therefore, instead of preaching, I shall play you some sacred music on the violin." The story is concluded with the statement that the congregation was pleased with the change.

MCKINLEY ON WHEELS

TOUR TO BE MADE BY PRESIDENT AND CABINET.

For Thirteen Thousand Miles the Nation's Business Will Be Transacted in a Parlor Car—Extreme Boundaries of the Country Will Be Touched.

Washington correspondence:

PRESIDENT McKinley's tour to the Pacific coast and thence eastward to Buffalo, whence the return to Washington will be made, will be one of splendor. The train upon which he will travel will be the most gorgeous and costly that has ever been hooked up behind a locomotive. The suite that will attend him during his travels is intended to be the most commanding that has ever accompanied a President on a sight-seeing journey of the United States. When President Cleveland made his famous wedding trip fifteen years ago his train was composed of but two cars and his suite consisted of his private secretary and some servants. His immediate predecessor, President Arthur, visited the Yellowstone with Gen. Phil Sheridan and Col. Mike Sheridan and Buffalo Bill, but left his cabinet behind him in Washington to transact official business.

President McKinley will travel across the continent surrounded by his entire cabinet, with the single exception of Secretary Gage, who has consented to remain in Washington. It is proposed to transact important business while en route. The cabinet officers will keep in close touch with the heads of bureaus of the respective departments. The President will transact all of the vast routine which the chief executive must look after while in Washington. A corps of expert telegraph operators, representing the two big telegraph companies, will accompany the train to handle official messages, and every telegraph station along the lines of the railroads which are to be traversed will be subject to their orders to the exclusion of all commercial and newspaper business. Cabinet meetings are to be held on Tuesdays and Fridays, just as they are now held in Washington, whether the train is speeding across the deserts of Arizona or is sidetracked in the railroad yards at New Orleans. The questions pertaining to domestic and foreign policies will be discussed. Cipher dispatches from all over the world will be laid before the President, experts from the State Department being in attendance to reduce them to English. The conclusions reached upon all public questions will be conveyed to the acting heads of the departments in this city, and will by them be disseminated to all those concerned.

Make-Up of the Train.

There will be six cars in this train. President and Mrs. McKinley, with Private Secretary Cortelyou, will occupy one; cabinet ministers and their wives two; reporters and clerks one; dining car, and baggage car. Among the baggage will be a barber shop, a bathroom and a library. The train will be vestibuled, manned with the best crews the railroads can produce, and a pilot engine will precede it a mile or two nearly all the time. Every precaution will be taken to prevent the occurrence of a catastrophe. Minute and critical inspection of all roadbeds to be traversed will be made. The boss of the trip will be Secretary Cortelyou. He will be in absolute charge from the time the train leaves Washington until its return.

Trip for Recreation. As this is to be a trip for recreation and pleasure, the President wants it understood that he will avoid formal receptions wherever possible and make speeches only where he cannot escape doing so. Instead of attending social functions and dinners, he and his traveling companions want to take long, invigorating drives and go to the theaters. Boat rides and short excursions on railways to points worth visiting will please them more than standing in line and shaking hands with multitudes. They want to see everything that will serve to give them an idea of the progress and advancement of the country, and its commercial growth and mercantile stability. Mr. McKinley and the members of his cabinet are to be accompanied by their wives and several other ladies, well known in Washington society, will accompany the party.

Secretary Cortelyou. The train will be vestibuled, manned with the best crews the railroads can produce, and a pilot engine will precede it a mile or two nearly all the time. Every precaution will be taken to prevent the occurrence of a catastrophe. Minute and critical inspection of all roadbeds to be traversed will be made. SUICIDE OR MURDER?

A Mysterious Tragedy Agitating the People of Vermont.

Much mystery surrounds the supposed murder of Ida Fosburg, at Shoreham, Vt. It is quite certain that she died from the effects of strychnine which came in an envelope through the mail. It was believed at first that she had ordered the poison and taken it with suicidal intent. Later, circumstantial evidence led the authorities to believe that some other person, who might have desired her death, had sent the poison to her and that she had taken it in the belief that it was something else. On this theory her affianced husband, Aldace Vondette, was arrested, but after a preliminary examination was released. On a recent evening the greatest surprise in the case was sprung. Nelson Jones, son of Merritt Jones, one of the wealthiest men in the county, was placed under arrest.

Miss Fosburg was in the employ of Merritt Jones. Early in March, F. C. Spooner, a druggist at Brandon, received a letter asking him to send some strychnine to "kill sparrows." The letter was dated "Shoreham" and signed "Ida Fosburg," but was not in her writing. The druggist mailed fifteen grains of the poison as directed. He first inclosed it in a paper wrapper marked "Poison" and placed this in one of his business envelopes. The envelope found in Miss Fosburg's room was not the same. The mail for the Jones household was usually brought by Nelson Jones, the young man under arrest. It is believed that he delivered the fatal missive to Miss Fosburg, but whether he knew its contents or not is the important question. It is the the-

RECORD OF THE WEEK

INDIANA INCIDENTS TERSELY TOLD.

New Scale for Miners Agreed Upon—Matters Made Lively for Robbers—Davies County Farmer Mysteriously Persecuted—Son Finds His Mother.

The wages contract signed by the Indiana operators and miners at Terre Haute for the ensuing year gives the miners an advance of pay from $2.10 to $2.25 for one class of inside day labor and from $2.28 to $2.30 for another class, and grants recognition of their organization for outside labor, such as engineers and blacksmiths who had their own labor organizations and wanted to be recognized independently. There is, however, some feeling over the concession to the operators of the clause requiring miners to buy powder from their employers at $1.75 a keg. When the scale committee, which agreed on this clause after a week's deadlock, reported to the miners' convention some sharp things were said and when it came to a vote approving the scale committee's report it was carried by 85 to 77. The Great Northern Supply Company, which has been selling powder to miners at $1.25 by the single keg, made a strong fight to keep the miners from binding themselves to the operators. The operators make a profit of $125,000 a year on the powder.

Hounded by Unknown Enemy.

John Matthews, a farmer of Davies County and a victim of a mysterious persecution for twenty years, moved to Indianapolis, having sold his farm and given up the hope of ever finding out and punishing his persecutors. The persecution consisted in killing his horses, cattle, sheep and hogs, in setting fire to his meadow, burning his barns and attempting to burn his residence. Rarely more than a month passed without some act on the part of the unknown enemy which resulted in loss. Within the past year four valuable horses have been killed, his barn burned, his haystacks destroyed by fire and a crib containing 1,000 bushels of corn destroyed. Mr. Matthews has spent considerable money in employing detectives, but finding he could not contend against his unknown enemy, he moved to Indianapolis and will engage in business.

Lively Fight with Burglars.

Burglars at Michigantown wrecked the safe in a brick building occupied by C. A. Marshall, a merchant, and after a desperate running battle with citizens, in which Marshall was slightly wounded and one of the robbers was perhaps fatally shot, escaped with a small amount of booty. The safe contained several hundred dollars in cash and many valuable papers, and all was practically destroyed by the force of the explosion. The big steel vault was blown out and across the room, and a drawer containing a package of bank bills was blown in an opposite direction, and the bills torn into a thousand pieces. It is not thought the robbers succeeded in getting to exceed $50 in cash, the other money being destroyed. The property damage to the safe, building and goods will probably reach $3,600.

Son Finds a Lost Mother.

Forty years ago Mrs. Ida Parson of Hamilton, Ohio, then aged 30 years, was deserted by her husband, who went to California, taking with him their only child, a son. For twenty years the son, who lives in Ivesdale, Ill., and is now wealthy, has tried to find his mother. He finally found his mother at Frankfort.

State News in Brief.

W. M. Reed of Frankfort died of hiccoughs, after five months' suffering. Muncie and Normal City are having an epidemic of burglaries and general thievery.

N. C. Wright, aged 64 years, a prominent resident of Wayne County, committed suicide by hanging. Cause unknown.

D. W. Minshall of Terre Haute has added $15,000 to his previous gift of $25,000 for a new science building for DePaul University.

Mrs. Ferdinand Roose, a Polish woman of Hudson township, is 107 years old. She saw Napoleon on his invasion of Russia. Her husband is 83.

The safe in the office of the Brown County auditor, at Nashville, was robbed of $40 at noon, the auditor and his deputy having gone away and left the safe open.

The Indiana glass manufacturers will close all their plants in the United States May 11. This is two weeks earlier than usual. The factories will not reopen until late in the fall.

Burglars are raiding summer cottages at Lake Wawasee. Among those robbed were the cottages of the late Eli Lilley of Indianapolis and W. H. Hoops of Goshen and the Indianapolis club house.

Ben S. Hudnut of Terre Haute has petitioned the county commissioners for a franchise to build seventy-five miles of electric railroads in the county. He proposes to build a line from Vincennes to every town in the county.

Mrs. Mollie Fisher, aged 80, and her husband, aged 81, appeared in court at Bloomington in the former's suit for divorce, both so feeble that they went to the witness stand with difficulty. Judge refused to take action, saying their dispute soon would be settled by the Great Master.

Secretary of State Hunt has notified the officers of Pierpont Morgan's billion dollar steel trust that they must comply with the Indiana law requiring corporations, organized outside of the State but doing business in Indiana, to pay one-tenth of 1 per cent on the capital invested in business in the State, and he expects to get one of the largest fees ever received from a corporation by Indiana from the steel trust.

CONGRESSMAN BOTKIN

The Well-Known Kansas Statesman, Cured of Catarrh of the Stomach by Pe-ru-na,

AFTER TWENTY-FIVE YEARS' SUFFERING

More Evidence of Interest to the Millions of Catarrh Sufferers in the United States.

HON. J. D. BOTKIN, CONGRESSMAN-AT-LARGE FROM KANSAS.

In a recent letter to Dr. Hartman, Congressman Botkin, of Winfield, Kan., whose name is a national one, says of Peruna:

My Dear Doctor:—"It gives me pleasure to certify to the excellent curative qualities of your medicines—Peruna and Manalin. I have been afflicted more or less for a quarter of a century with catarrh of the stomach and constipation. A residence in Washington has increased these troubles. A few bottles of your medicine have given me almost complete relief, and I am sure that a continuation of them will effect a permanent cure. Peruna is surely a wonderful remedy for catarrhal affections."—J. D. Botkin, Congressman-at-Large.

CONGRESSMAN BOTKIN is one of the most influential and best known men in the State of Kansas. Whatever he may say on any subject will be accepted by the people as the truth. So famous a remedy as Peruna could not have well escaped the attention of so famous a man. He not only has heard of the remedy, but he has used it and was relieved of an affliction of twenty-five years' standing. Peruna is the one internal remedy that cures chronic catarrh. It cures catarrh wherever located. This is a fact that the people are rapidly finding out, but there are still a large multitude who need to know it. Mr. Frank Richter, of Winona, Minn., says in a letter to The Peruna Medicine Company: "As a remedy for catarrh I take pleasure in recommending Peruna for catarrh of the stomach. I know what it is to be afflicted with this awful disease and consider it my duty to say a word in behalf of the remedy which gave me such relief. Peruna cured me, and I know it will cure any one else who suffers from this disease. It gives me great pleasure to testify to the curative effects of this medicine. Peruna is a well tested and frequently used remedy, and for catarrh of the stomach it is unsurpassed. "My catarrh was principally located in my head and stomach. I tried many remedies without success. I tried several doctors, but they were unable to cure me. I read of Peruna in the papers and five bottles cured me."—Frank Richter.

The gastric juice is secreted by the mucous follicles of the stomach. When this juice is normal it digests (dissolves) the food without producing any disturbance whatever. If, however, the gastric juice is not normal, digestion causes many disagreeable symptoms. This condition is known as indigestion. Peruna will cure this.

Mrs. Selma Tanner, Athens, O., writes: "I cannot find words to express my thanks for your kind advice. I never once thought I had catarrh of the stomach. I commenced taking Peruna as you directed. My stomach continued to hurt me for about two weeks after I began the medicine and then it stopped. I now have a good appetite while before I was nearly starved."—Mrs. Selma Tanner.

Mr. L. O. Marble, of Geneva, Neb., writes:

"I do believe that my catarrh is entirely cured. I have not had any trouble with my stomach for a long time. I am as well as one of my age could expect (seventy years). I have had the catarrh ever since I was a young man, and have doctored for it for years and got very little better, but thanks to you and your Peruna and Manalin I believe I am well of it. I can eat anything now and it doesn't hurt me, and Peruna is the only thing I have ever found that will cure the catarrh. I believe it is the only cure for catarrh, and I hope every one troubled with catarrh will try Peruna and be cured."—L. O. Marble.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Pale Women!
A bloodless face indicates trouble. Watery blood a menace to health. We know how pale people can get rich blood. Come let us tell you about VINOL.
When blood is watery and thin, or, as doctors would say, lacks red blood corpuscles, it is a sign that much is radically wrong. We would advise everyone who has such symptoms to start at once to take a proper remedy to overcome this trouble. That remedy is VINOL, the greatest and most modern tonic and re-builder. VINOL owes its virtues to the fact that it contains in a highly concentrated state the active principles extracted from Cod's Livers, the same elements that have made Cod Liver Oil famous for wasting diseases. Because we know so well and because we know so surely what it will do, and how it will accomplish the good it does in a scientific way, we unreservedly endorse and recommend it, and in every instance guarantee to refund to anyone what they pay us for VINOL if they do not find it entirely satisfactory.
