Commencement - Exercises At Culver Military Academy

The Most Elaborate Affair in the History of the School.

The commencement exercises at the Culver Military Academy this year exceeded in point of interest and attendance all former years. Many distinguished visitors were present, among them Governor Shaw, of Iowa. On his arrival at the academy a salute of seventeen guns was fired by the cadet battery of artillery.

The exercises opened Saturday evening with an illumination of the camp and an excellent band concert by the cadet band, after which the visitors inspected the camp and saw the boys toss each other in blankets and cut other fantastic capers.

Sunday morning hundreds of people attended divine services and listened to the able baccalaureate sermon by Dr. Haines, of Chicago.

On Monday the Grand Army Posts from Plymouth and Culver were the honored guests of the academy, and the scarred veterans of many battles viewed with considerable interest the faultlessly executed maneuvers of the cadets. Congressman A. L. Brick, of South Bend, was also present, and was greeted with a salute from the two magnificent cannon which he was so instrumental in procuring for the academy. In the afternoon Mr. Brick favored the cadets with a spirited address which was well received.

In the evening occurred the declamatory contest, Cadet E. T. Noel, of Nashville, Tenn., getting the decision. The Mandolin Club then rendered the "Cadet's Rag," a very catchy rag-time two step composed by Cadet H. S. Adair and dedicated to the class of 1901. The club was also obliged to answer several hearty encores. After this occurred the production of the "Bold Buccaneers," a musical operetta written and arranged by Cadet R. H. Morehouse. Were it possible for us to give this the description it deserves, it would seem incredible to all who were not fortunate enough to behold it. Perfect electric light and scenic effects, clever acting and excellent singing entered into the production of the best entertainment ever given by the Saturday Night Club.

The daily military exercises consisted of regimental parade, infantry artillery and signal drills, battle exercises and Graeco-Roman and rough riding by members of the Black Horse Troop. The cadets impart to their drill a "snap" and beauty of execution that makes it a pleasure to look upon even to those unacquainted with its technical details. Each day at 9:00 a. m. occurred the cavalry exhibition in the riding hall. The visitors were carried away by the nerve and abandon of the cadets as they dashed over hurdles standing Graeco-Roman style on three horses or sprang from the ground to a standing position on the horse's back while it was galloping, or vaulted to the back of a flying steed, twisting in air and landing with back to the horse's head, or performed some other daring feat of horsemanship, and when the control of rider over steed was pleasingly illustrated by the throwing of horses in four seconds the audience expressed its appreciation in salvos of applause that would have stampeded any but a well trained troop of horses.

The artillery drills from time to time by the cadet battery were very interesting features of this year's exercises. The incessant booming of the two large breech-loaders recently added to the artillery department, with the camp in the background, and numerous uniformed figures fitting here and there among the white tents, gave the scene the appearance of a battle-ground, and made a fitting feature of each day's program.

The drill and parades this year were faultless in their execution. On Wednesday afternoon occurred the final dress parade of the year. This is one of the most impressive of a week of pretty and effective scenes. The long motionless line of gray and white and gold, the background of lakes and trees, the booming of the evening gun, and the inspiring strains of "The Star-spangled Banner," as the national colors float slowly down the staff, combine to make a stirring scene that elicits from the spectators the tribute of impressive silence. Instinctively the visitor rises and stands uncovered until the last strain has died away and "Old Glory" has completed its stately journey down its tall, white staff. Then comes the manual of arms. Every piece moves as if by a single impulse, every white gloved hand moving to the shoulder or dropping to the side as one. And now the command is "Commissioned officers front and center, march!" but this last evening they are not alone, for behind them march the other members of the graduating class. They halt before the major, who congratulates them on the completion of their military course. They then form behind him and the battalion is passed in review.

The cotillion Tuesday evening and the final ball Wednesday evening were the principal social events of commencement week. The latter was opened by a very pretty figure executed by the cadet officers and their partners, the booming of a cannon announcing the start.

The graduation exercises proper took place Thursday morning. A class of thirty-six cadets was graduated. Of this number, six were accorded the honor of delivering their orations. They were: S. J. Bernheimer, St. Louis, "The Might of Method;" H. R. Phinney, Alton, Ill., "The Louisiana Purchase;" E. C. Eppley, Akron, Ohio, "Reserve Power;" W. R. Cole, Des Moines Iowa, "Journalism;" H. L. Nearpass, Culver, Ind., "Silent Forces;" R. H. Morehouse, Omaha, Neb., "Class Poem."

The other graduates were: Henry S. Adair, Ohio; Tom W. Aishton, Illinois; Henry A. Bruce, Frank C. Cadden, Illinois; Leonard L. Campbell, Indiana; Saxton D. Crawford, Tennessee; H. L. Durborrow, Ind., John K. Gordon, Texas; Merryl Greenwood, Ohio; Robert Herkimer, Indiana; Joseph B. Hooper, Kentucky; Frank H. Jackson, Iowa, Wm. H. Jackson, West Virginia; Everett B. Langenberg, Missouri; Fred W. Maddux, Ohio; John H. McNeely, Indiana, Ralph D. Norwood, Ohio; Clark Z. Potter, Michigan, Samuel G. Ray, Edward M. Read, Missouri; Thomas K. Roach, Indiana; Perry C. Rude, Iowa, Reinhart A. Rueger, John W. Shepardson, Illinois; Rush Shortly, Iowa, Wallace R. Tindall, Missouri, Frederick M. Wilbur, Raymond S. Wile, Iowa; Lawrence J. Younge, Indiana; Howard W. North, Indiana.

After the exercises of the morning and a short address by Col. A. F. Fleet, the medals and diplomas were awarded. Those securing medals this year were:

Excellence in drill, W. B. Judson, Chicago; best deportment, J. W. Spellman, Lincoln, Ill.; spelling, C. W. Adams, Vincennes, Ind.; best shot, C. L. Taylor, Dunkirk, Ind.; excellence in cavalry, L. J. Younge, Fort Wayne, Ind.; elocution, E. T. Nowels; special mention in United States Army Register, F. H. Jackson, Des Moines, Ia.; F. W. Maddux, Xenia, O., S. J. Bernheimer, St. Louis.

The battalion was then marched to the parade ground where, in accordance with time-honored custom, the officers of the graduating class were relieved from duty new appointments and promotions announced, arms stacked and the battalion dismissed for the summer the playing of "Auld Lang Syne."

The following promotions and appointments were made in the corps of cadets for 1901-2.

Special Notice.

After a two week's vacation, the HERALD again greets its readers. The suspension for two issues was forced upon us by the cruel hand of fate, simply because the residence we have occupied for the past two years was sold, and we had to seek quarters elsewhere, and there not being any vacant houses or rooms in Culver, we were compelled to move to Hibbard, a suburban town north of Culver, where we shall reside until something turns up in the future. It has been circulated that the "HERALD" is about to suspend publication, but we deny the allegation, and will state for the benefit of all concerned that there never was a time in the "HERALD's" history when its prospects were brighter, and will add that as we have published it for nearly seven years amid extreme difficulties owing to financial matters we still are determined to buckle on the armor anew and make the "HERALD" sought after. In doing this we shall be assisted by our son Homer L. Nearpass, who will take entire charge of the local and business part of the office, hence all orders left with him will receive prompt attention. Thanking our friends for past favors, we are yours very truly,

NEGROES ARE BLAMED

DEATHS OF THREE SOLDIERS LAID TO THEM.

Each of the Dead Men Had Drunk Freely of Liquor Sold by Colored Men Near Georgia Post—Tragedy Near Newport, Ohio.

Three soldiers at Fort Fremont, near Beaufort, Ga., met mysterious deaths in four days. First W. E. Wright died suddenly. He was the son of one of the wealthiest department store owners in Indiana. His term of enlistment expired about a month ago and his commander tried to persuade him to return home, but he insisted on re-enlisting. The second victim was Emmet Easterling, of South Carolina, who was a clerk at post headquarters. Both men had been drinking freely of the contraband liquor sold by the negroes near the post. Finally the third victim, a private, died, and it was rumored the deaths were the result of a conspiracy on the part of the negroes to avenge alleged indignities. All of the victims are said to have died in extreme agony. All the circumstances went to show that the men did not die of alcoholism, but had been poisoned. The greatest consternation prevails at the post and in Beaufort.

VICTIM OF FORTUNE TELLER.

Told Twice She Would Die Within a Month, Woman Fulfills Prophecy. Mrs. C. J. West, aged 34, wife of C. J. West of the Duluth Iron and Metal Company, while in Chicago a few weeks ago visited a palmist with a party of friends and was startled to be informed that she had but thirty days to live. She laughed the matter off and made light of the prediction, but evidently it made considerable impression upon her. After a visit of two weeks in Chicago Mrs. West went with her friends to a small town across the Indiana border, where a party was given in her honor. One of the women with whom Mrs. West had been playing cards proposed to tell her fortune. Again the fateful prediction was made that Mrs. West had but two more weeks of life. Two days later Mrs. West complained of feeling ill and returned to her home in Duluth. Eminent physicians were gathered in consultation, but despite their best efforts she died upon the last day of the fatal two weeks. Dr. Graham, who was in attendance upon Mrs. West, says that the fortune-telling undoubtedly exerted an influence to produce the woman's death.

The wife and daughter of John Hielt of Hielt postoffice, left there just before the storm broke, and are both supposed to have been lost. Eagle Creek suffered severely, and a number of people are reported missing. Three bridges were swept away and several buildings moved down the stream. Advice from other parts of Brown County and the adjacent country show that the wind and rain storm covered a considerable area. At Ellsberry many houses were flooded and their occupants were driven to higher ground, while their houses were destroyed. Fifty cattle were drowned near Ellsberry and all the telephone and telegraph lines in the path of the storm suffered.

ATTEMPT SUICIDE TOGETHER.

Man and Woman Take Poison and the Latter Dies. J. Albert Brink, city solicitor for a wholesale grocery house and a leading society young man, and Mrs. Mabel H. Walker took poison in Brink's room at the Lindell Hotel, Lincoln, Neb., in an effort to commit suicide. When found at 1 o'clock in the morning the woman was dead. Brink is in a fair way to recover and is in the custody of the police. The body of Mrs. Walker was taken from the Lindell Hotel to the morgue. Her husband is agent for an Eastern publishing house. Brink says the dead woman and himself were infatuated, that she challenged him to die with her, and they both swallowed cocaine and wood alcohol. Mrs. Walker was attractive and educated. Brink came from Milwaukee and is well connected, two of his aunts in Lincoln being leaders in church and society work.

DOUBLE MURDER AND SUICIDE.

Boy Stabs His Sister, Strangles His Brother and Kills Himself. Leroy Grove, the 16-year-old son of a farmer living near Napoleon, Ohio, stabbed his sister, aged 24, to the heart, killing her instantly. He then strangled his 13-year-old brother to death, and, firing the gun, ran in and shot himself through the temple. The tragedy occurred just after midnight. His charred body was recovered in the morning. It is supposed he was insane, made so by reading novels of the Jesse James stripe.

EIGHT MEN KILLED IN MINE.

Eight men were killed at the seventh level of the Ludington shaft, Chapin mine, Iron Mountain, Mich., by an explosion and suffocation from the fumes of burning powder. All the men in that part of the mine are dead, so the exact cause of the burning of the powder cannot be determined. All the men but one were married.

Fatal Fire in Milwaukee.

Fire in the elevator and malthouse of the Pabst Brewing Company at Milwaukee destroyed $150,000 worth of property. John Smith, one of four tinsmiths who were at work on the roof of the elevator and from whose furnaces the blaze is supposed to have started, was killed by jumping to the ground, a distance of about 100 feet.

Big Blaze in Lexington, Ky.

The Otts copper shop in Lexington, Ky., burned and the fire communicated to other buildings so rapidly that it was feared for some time that the city would be laid in ashes. Twenty-three houses, mostly tenement, were totally destroyed with their contents. The loss approximates $80,000.

Coed Arrested for Theft.

DAMAGE BY DROUGHT

LACK OF RAIN IN THE NORTH-WEST HURTS WHEAT.

Effects of Drought Aggravated by the Ravages of Fly—Lower Lake Region and the East Gulf Coast Suffer from Too Much Rainfall.

Practically an entire absence of rain over a large part of the Missouri and upper Mississippi valleys has intensified the drought conditions previously existing in these districts, while the greater part of the region extending from the east gulf coast to the lower lake region and New England suffered further from excessive rains. The week has been abnormally cool to the eastward of the Mississippi river, and in the west gulf States, with frosts in the central Rocky Mountain districts, upper lake region, Kansas and Oklahoma, causing little or no damage except in northern Wisconsin, while temperatures much above the average occurred in the upper Missouri and Red River of the North valleys.

The northern Rocky Mountain and Pacific coast districts experienced a favorable week. On the whole the week has been unfavorable to corn, which, owing to low temperatures, has made very slow growth throughout the principal corn States, damage by cut worms being extensively reported. In the Southern States further improvement in the condition of the crop is generally reported.

Planting has been much retarded over the northern portion of the middle Atlantic States and New England on account of cool, wet weather. In the States of the lower Missouri valley winter wheat has suffered further from drought, and damage from fly is more extensively reported throughout the winter wheat belt, the most marked deterioration being shown in the reports from Missouri.

Harvesting has begun as far north as Arkansas, and will soon begin in Kansas. The crop in Oregon has improved, and in California, where harvest is beginning, the largest yield in many years is promised. Spring wheat is generally in need of rain throughout the spring wheat region, especially in the Dakotas. The crop has, however, made fair progress in portions of the Dakotas, and notwithstanding the dry weather in Minnesota has made good growth.

In the States of the Missouri and upper Mississippi valleys, especially in the former, the oat crop is much in need of rain. In the upper Ohio valley and Tennessee the condition of the crop is improved. Harvesting continues in the Southern States. Cotton has made slow growth generally throughout the cotton belt, and is suffering for cultivation in the eastern and over portions of the central districts. Warmth, and, in the eastern districts, dry weather is generally needed for cotton.

With the exception of apples the general outlook for fruit is satisfactory. Apples are dropping extensively, and the prospects for this crop in many important apple States are not encouraging.

Crop Reports by States.

Missouri—Drought severe; in many Southern counties wheat shortened one-fourth to one-half by drought, insects, and rust; oats practically a failure in many districts; meadows very unpromising except in northwest; too cool for cotton; corn very uneven and small, much damage by worms and mice; full crop of apples indicated in south, less promising in north.

Illinois—Dry, cool weather retarded vegetation; corn has made slow growth and much is badly colored, some injury by cut worms; condition of oats slightly deteriorated; wheat much damaged by fly, especially in central districts, crop otherwise in good condition; meadows and pastures injured by dry weather; gardens and potatoes doing fairly well; apple prospects deteriorating, but other fruits fairly promising.

Indiana—Cool weather and local rains almost every day retarded growth of crops; corn coming up slowly, but worms injurious, much to be replanted; wheat heading, injury by the fly increasing; rye maturing well; tobacco being transplanted; potatoes, barley, oats, grass, clover, and timothy growing slowly; fruit promising well, but apples dropping much.

Ohio—Plowing, planting, and cultivating much delayed; grass, grain, and pastures made good progress; corn yellow and nearly at standstill; damage to wheat by fly more general; apples and pears promise only light to fair yield, other fruits good; tobacco plant in beds unfavorably affected; potatoes and gardens made some growth.

Michigan—Continued low temperatures and much cloudiness have checked germination of corn and growth of vegetation; early corn up and looks yellow, some late seedling has rotted; Hessian fly doing great damage to winter wheat in southern counties; sugar beets slow, but doing well, being thinned, and weeded; oats short, but healthy; hay prospect fair; frost damage light.

Wisconsin—Week cool with heavy to killing frosts in exposed localities in northern section causing considerable damage to gardens and fruit; corn planting completed, early plantings up, but look yellow on account of cool weather; much replanting being done; winter wheat doing well, but stand generally thin; rye heading; spring grains fairly good, but need warm weather; grass and pastures doing well.

Minnesota—Practically no rain during week; notwithstanding very dry conditions, most wheat, oats and barley are strong and growing well; late flax, pastures, grass for hay, and grain on sandy soils need rain; strawberries ripening in southeast; corn and potatoes being cultivated.

Iowa—Week dry with cold nights, checking normal growth of corn; cultivation in progress, and fields generally clean; oats suffering most seriously from drought, and all cereals and the hay crop greatly need copious rains and warmer weather; small fruit doing fairly well.

North Dakota—Drought continues, but most of early sown wheat, oats, barley, and rye doing fairly well; all late sown flax and grain, just up, suffering badly, and somewhat damaged, while most of it has not germinated; grass suffering more than grain, and fast dying out.

South Dakota—Dry, except scattered showers Sunday; drought upper Missouri valley injured spring wheat, oats, and grass; otherwise made fair progress, but rain generally needed in east portion; many fields of wheat weedy in north portion; growth of corn fair; grass less promising; germination late sown flax retarded.

Nebraska—Clear, dry week; winter wheat heading short and generally less promising, because of continued dry weather; oats and grass need rain; early planted corn growing slowly, and late planted coming up unevenly. Kansas—Wheat generally in fair condition; needs rain; harvest will begin about the 15th in south portion; fly damage continues in some central counties; corn growing slowly; fields well-worked and clean; alfalfa hay progressing, good crop, much in stack; gardens and potatoes injured somewhat by frost; drought shortened strawberry crop.

NO EXTRA SESSION.

ANNOUNCED THAT CONGRESS WILL NOT BE CALLED.

Cabinet Holds that President's Military Authority Is Ample for All Purposes in the Philippines—Methods in Conformity with Court Decisions.

Washington correspondence:

There will be no extra session of Congress. That much at least was decided at the cabinet meeting Tuesday. Secretary Root and Attorney General Knox united in expressing the opinion that there was nothing in the recent decisions of the Supreme Court which need alter in any material degree the plans already laid down for the government of the Philippines. A form of civil government for the islands will be established as soon after July 1 as it can possibly be done. There will be a deviation from the original plan only so far as regards the question of theory. The Spooner resolution is not to be relied upon at all. On the contrary, the civil government to be established by the Taft commission will act under the authority of the war power of the government. It will create municipal and provisional governments, but each of these will derive its authority from the powers of the President as commander-in-chief.

There will be no limit to the free exercise of the civil government in the Philippines, and after a while it will be entirely independent of a military commander. It has been held that the President can govern the islands without question by the exercise of his military authority, while it is an open question how far he can go in this direction under the delegated authority he acquired from the Spooner resolution.

For the present at least the Dingley rates will be enforced in San Francisco and other United States ports against Manila, and the rates of duties in the islands will be those fixed by the old Spanish tariff as modified by the military orders of Gen. Otis and his successors.

It will be remembered that the Supreme Court, in its decisions, held that the tariff promulgated by Gen. Miles, as a military commander in Porto Rico, was entirely legal, because it was a proper and even necessary exercise of the war power. The administration is, therefore, proceeding on this same theory. It assumes that the Philippines are not yet actually in the possession of the United States, and hence a government under the military power is actually a necessity to provide for the well being of the people. The civil government to be established by the Taft commission will be nominally under control of the military authorities, but will be independent.

It will be analogous to the municipal and provincial governments in Cuba, which derive their authority from the commanding general, although the people themselves administer them. In this respect, the Philippine government will be distinctly different from that created for Porto Rico under the Foraker law.

This difference, it will be observed, is much more one of theory than of actual fact. The original instructions to the Taft commission have been revived and will form the temporary constitution of the island. In manifest disproof of the theories that the administration is proceeding along arbitrary lines, it is extremely timely to note that these instructions to the Philippine commission, written by the President, include certain inviolable rules for the government of the Philippines. These rules, which cannot be violated by the commission or by any one else, are in fact a mere transcript of the bill of rights of the constitution of the United States.

KILL IN DASH FOR LIBERTY.

Burglars Extradited from Chicago Stay a Toronto Constable.

An almost unparalleled attempt of captured criminals to escape was made in Toronto Tuesday night, with the result that a constable was shot dead, one of the criminals badly wounded, and two of his associates hurt. It is believed that a woman, disguised as a man, threw two revolvers into a carriage in which three burglars recently extradited from Chicago were being taken from court to jail. The men were Frank Rutledge, Fred Rice and Frank Jones, who were on trial for a robbery committed at the small town of Aurora, a few miles north of Toronto.

There were four in the band originally, and they were accused of a series of bank and postoffice burglaries committed in Toronto and its vicinity last year. They escaped to Chicago, where Rutledge, Rice and Jones were arrested. The fourth was never caught. After a hard legal fight they were extradited.

They were daily conveyed in a cab from the jail to the court house and back. At about 7 o'clock at night the cab was moving slowly along Gerrard street to the jail, the prisoners chained together, and under the charge of Constables Boyd and Stewart, when a man, or, as suspected, a woman in man's clothing, ran alongside the cab and handed in two pistols, one of which Rutledge grabbed and Jones the other. The two began firing at the constables, the second bullet entering Boyd's temple, causing instant death. In the confusion the prisoners got out of the cab and boarded a street car, which had stopped on the conductor hearing the shooting.

The prisoners tried to put power on. The motorman snatched off his brake handle and felled Rutledge, the conductor assailing the other two and knocking them senseless. The shooting had attracted the police, who came up speedily with revolvers ready. The three men were taken to the jail, where it was found that Jones had a bad wound. The burglars are now in jail charged with murder.

POINTS IN HERRON'S LETTER TO THE CHURCH.

Prof. Herron's letter to the Church Council contained these striking sentences:

- "1. Such a crisis might come to a life without any one being morally to blame.
- "2. I did not desert my children. I have long held it a principle that children first belong to their mother.
- "3. I do not believe the present marriage system is sacred or good.
- "4. No law in the universe has the right to keep together those who are not vitally and essentially one.
- "5. It is not the business of society to unite or separate men and women in the marriage relation.
- "6. I will not live a lie—not to win or keep the favor of gods or men.
- "7. After I have lived so many years because she (his present wife) has lived also, for me to leave her to face the world alone would be for me to commit spiritual suicide."

HERRON IS CAST OUT.

Council of Congregationalists at Grinnell Deposes Him.

The Congregational council of the Grinnell (Iowa) district reached the unanimous verdict in executive session that George D. Herron is guilty of immoral and unchristian conduct; that he be dropped from the membership of the First Congregational Church of Grinnell and that he shall no longer be considered a Congregational minister of the gospel in good and regular standing.

Spurred from the ministry of his church, repudiated by the college faculty of which he was a member, expulsion from the church even recommended, George D. Herron stands convicted of immoral and unchristian conduct, inhuman treatment and heartless desertion of the wife and children, who lived and suffered for him. The Congregational council, a jury of his peers in the church, after reading the defense which he offered, declared their belief that he had convicted himself of deliberately falsifying his marriage vows and that his self-styled defense was an exploitation of his views upon the marriage question, which are "abhorrent to enlightened Christian sentiment."

Next to the verdict, the most interesting feature of the trial was a lengthy communication from Herron accepting in advance the decision of the council. In this letter he sought to justify on theoretical grounds the rectitude of his conduct. He announced that henceforth his efforts would be devoted to "the Socialistic revolution." The letter inveighed against the conventionalities which trammel men's actions to-day, and declared that the writer's life was one of truth and honesty as against the slavish superstitions which guided the course of his accusers.

It was proved to the satisfaction of the council that Mrs. Herron did not initiate the divorce proceedings. Tortured by years of flagrant and studied neglect, herself and her children daily insulted by the patronage and presence of the woman who had led Herron away from his family, the patient wife, yet hoping that her supreme devotion and unflinching loyalty would win him back, refused to resort to the divorce courts. Woman teachers at Grinnell College who were classmates of Mary Eberhart in the old days at Ripon, Wis., when George Herron, then a student, wooed and won her, told the council that the divorce proceedings, while technically coming from the wife, were prompted, urged and even forced by Prof. Herron.

HERE SHE IS AGAIN.

VON WALDERSEE'S RECALL.

State Department at Washington Receives Notification from Berlin.

The State Department at Washington has been informed by the German government that in view of the favorable circumstances Field Marshal Count von Waldersee, on duty in China as commander-in-chief of the allied forces, would be recalled. Nothing was contained in the notification about the withdrawal of the large German military contingent in China, but it is believed in official circles that Count von Waldersee's recall will be coincident with the reduction of the German forces. There is some ground for this belief in reports from China and Count von Waldersee has been endeavoring to charter transports. While no direct suggestion has been made by Germany that a successor of Count von Waldersee as commander-in-chief of the foreign troops in China be chosen by the powers, it was intimated Tuesday afternoon that this matter had been considered, and that the United States would not put forward a candidate.

COUNT VON WALDERSEE.

WILL CARRY 1,000 TEACHERS.

Vessel for the Philippines with a Unique Passenger List.

If the plans of Secretary Root and Col. Edwards, chief of the insular bureau of the War Department, are carried out, there will soon sail from San Francisco a ship with the most unique passenger list ever recorded. The vessel will carry 1,000 teachers for educational work in the Philippines.

Since the Philippine commission has urged Secretary Root to send 1,000 teachers to the Philippines the insular bureau has been swamped with applications from school teachers. The applicants must be either normal or college graduates; must have several years' successful experience in school work, and be now engaged in teaching, and must be physically sound and able to withstand a tropical climate, and accept whatever location may be assigned to them by the general superintendent of education for the Philippines. These teachers must also agree to remain three years. The salary will be $75 a month (gold) and traveling expenses from the United States.

JUSTICE BREWER WEDDED.

Member of the Highest Bench in the Land United to Miss Mott.

Official circles have not been so deeply agitated for months over a social matter as over the wedding of Associate United States Justice Brewer to Miss Emma Mina Mott. The wedding took place

JUSTICE BREWER. MRS. BREWER.

Thursday at Burlington, Vt. Judge Brewer is 65, and his bride is 50. The wedding was very quiet.

VICTORY FOR MRS. EDDY.

Verdict for the Defense in the Famous Christian Science Libel Suit.

Mrs. Eddy will not have to pay Mrs. Woodbury $150,000 or any other sum. The Judge took the case away from the jury because there was no evidence to show that the defendant, when speaking of "the Babylonish woman," meant the plaintiff.

The famous Boston libel suit of Mrs. Josephine Woodbury against the founder of Christian Science came to a sudden and almost dramatic conclusion, when the jury, without leaving their seats, returned a verdict for the defendant. From the very first it seemed apparent that it was a hopeless task to prove that some particular person was intended to be stigmatized by a quotation of one of the highly figurative passages of Revelation, and after vainly trying to extract something that would help their cause from unwilling witnesses, the prosecution threw up its hands, so to speak, and the judge called time, declaring that no case had been made out against Mrs. Eddy.

Therefore this litigation has served only to give employment to some distinguished lawyers who have charged well for their services, and to make many people who have not been in the habit of reading their Bibles carefully study closely the Book of Revelation. When they were told that it was alleged that Mrs. Eddy had accused Mrs. Woodbury of being the woman St. John saw sitting upon a scarlet-colored beast with seven heads and ten horns, they took down their Bibles and read all about that woman. When the statement was made by Mrs. Woodbury's friends that Christian Scientists saw in Mrs. Eddy the woman spoken of by St. John, who was clothed with the sun, had the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars, Revelation was searched to discover all it had to say about the woman thus strangely appeared. This libel suit has resulted in a great deal being said about these two singular women whom John saw in a vision, but it has thrown no light on their personality.

RECORD OF THE WEEK

INDIANA INCIDENTS TERSELY TOLD.

The total school enumeration of the State, according to the report of the State superintendent of public instruction, is 757,523, an increase of 1,198 over the enumeration of last year. Of this gain an increase of 651 is reported from Grant County. Fifty counties in the State show a loss in the number of pupils enumerated. They are Allen, Bartholomew, Benton, Brown, Carroll, Cass, Clay, Clinton, Dearborn, Decatur, De Kalb, Elkhart, Fayette, Gibson, Hamilton, Henry, Huntington, Jasper, Jay, Jefferson, Jennings, Johnson, Knox, La Grange, Marshall, Martin, Monroe, Newton, Noble, Ohio, Orange, Owen, Parke, Pulaski, Putnam, Randolph, Ripley, Rush, Scott, Shelby, Spencer, Steuben, Switzerland, Tipton, Union, Warrick, Wayne, Wells, White and Whitley. The total number of white children is 742,306; last year it was 740,928, an increase of 1,378. The total number of colored children is 15,220; last year 15,076, an increase of 144. The total number of male school children, white and colored, 391,798; last year it was 390,787, an increase of 1,011.

Brothers Exchange Wives.

William and John Church, brothers, lived in Indianapolis. The two young men courted and married young women who were friends. The young woman who married William became infatuated with William's brother, John, before the wedding, and the young woman who married John was in love with William. This fact developed after the weddings of the two brothers, but they lived, with their respective wives for a number of years, and children were born to both households. Separations followed, and the brothers secured divorces from their wives. They then married their first loves, the wives took the children, and their uncles became their stepfathers. William Church went to Marion and embarked in business, and John went to Peru. Recently Mrs. William Church left her husband and home in Marion, took her children and went to Peru. It is now asserted that she has gone back to her first husband, who is her brother-in-law, and has taken his own children, who had become his niece and nephew, and also her children, born to her second husband. The double marriage has badly complicated the relationship of the two families.

Murder Ends Petty Feud.

A murder, growing out of a quarrel over a petty incident, occurred in Rushville. George Rotherford, 50 years old, connected with one of the county's oldest families, is dead and Jesse Hilling, 25 years old, a drayman, is in jail, charged with the killing. Rotherford took offense at a joking remark of a boy and struck him. Hilling sided with the boy and was soon involved in a fight with Rotherford. The men were separated, but Hilling returned in a few minutes with a revolver. Rotherford seized a dray pin and attacked him regardless of the revolver. Hilling fired four shots, one of which passed close to Rotherford's heart, causing death. Hilling will plead self-defense.

Stabbed by a Physician.

J. W. Allen of Terre Haute remonstrated with Dr. Cassius Wright of Paris, Ill., on a Vandalia train against the use of vile language in the ladies' coach. Wright at once attacked Allen with a knife, stabbing him seriously in the shoulder and chest before the other passengers could come to the injured man's relief. Dr. Wright then ran to the car platform and jumped from the moving train.

By motion, those from a distance were thanked for the part they took in the meeting, as well as the business men of Culver for the grounds and advertisements, and the glee club for music.

NOTES.

It is not necessary any longer to give farmers taffy. That they can appreciate a "roast" as well, is shown by the applause given McCormick's address of welcome.

A most thoughtful paper and well read, secured a good hearing to L. C. Zechiel. Its discussion waxed warm.

Mrs. Leroy Staley knows a few things about chickens. Her paper was a thorough and comprehensive presentation of the subject.

Mrs. C. W. Newman knows how to present practical ideas on poultry in a most charming manner.

The great success of the institute was due largely to having only practical farmers on the program. No statesmen nor professional men were given an opportunity blow their horns or save the country.

Martin Lowry is a host at a Farmer's Institute. He knows how to say the right thing at the right time.

Visitors were enthusiastic in their approval of Mrs. Charity Stahl's paper at the Institute.

"Good hard sense well expressed" was the verdict on J. L. Scheureman's paper devoted to the ordinary farmer.

Managers should find a way to shut off the man who talks too much and too often at an institute. Time is short and valuable, and none can be given to foreign topics, or allowed to the man who can't stick to the text.

J. E. Myers is a good all-around man at an institute. A little tedious at times, but so much good sense and a knowledge of what he talks about, makes him a useful member. We like to hear him.

J. A. McFarland is a wheel horse in farmers' institutes. He spoke extempore here, using notes only. He is instructive and more pleasing than he looks.

The Most Common Ailment.

More People Suffer from rheumatism than any other ailment. This is wholly unnecessary, too, for a cure may be effected at a very small cost. G. W. Westcott, of Meadowdale, N. Y., says: "I have been afflicted with Rheumatism for some time and it has caused me much suffering. I concluded to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm and am pleased to say it has cured me." For sale by T. D. Slattery.

Ye can have the wagon box,
'N' the smokehouse, 'n' the barn,
Take 'm—we don't care a darn.

If nothing happens there will be an immense wheat crop in Union township this year. In fact this leads all other townships in the county in point of acreage. Corn owing to the cold weather of the past is very backward and it will take lots of hot weather to push it to the front. Cats will be a fair crop, and hay looks fine, especially clover.

Bradley Hotel.

During the late commencement exercises at the Culver Military Academy, the Bradley Hotel was filled with guests from all parts of the continent, among the guests being W. L. and H. H. Culver of St. Louis, Mo., also W. R. Stuart, one of the wealthiest business men of the above city. Very recently this house has been thoroughly overhauled and refurnished, besides an addition containing several excellent rooms has been added to this famous hostelry. Every room in the house is scrupulously clean, and furnished in the most modern manner. At the restaurant in connection, the guests can be accommodated with first class meals, in fact the tables are supplied with everything the market affords. The proprietor and his amiable wife have long been in the business and thoroughly understand how to cater to the wants of a hungry public. The terms are a dollar a day, but parties who can give references can be accommodated by the week.

DECORATION DAY.

A Mammoth Crowd of Patriotic People in Culver.

Decoration Day, although the weather was cold, with the appearance of rain, was observed in Union township with unusual patriotism. At Burr Oak the old veterans and citizens in general observed the day by paying the usual tribute to the departed heroes by repairing to the cemetery and, after appropriate ceremonies, placing flowers upon their graves. At Poplar Grove a large crowd assembled at the M. E. church and listened to a most pathetic and patriotic speech by M. C. McCormick, of Culver, who has but few equals on the rostrum. His speech was principally a historic review of the past, detailing in brief the causes of the rebellion and the great results following the sacrifices made by those men who died to save the Union, which stands today the foremost nation of the earth, with all animosities erased and the nation enjoying peace and prosperity. After the speech, and several songs by a most excellent choir, the old heroes of many a hard-fought battle repaired to the cemetery (which by the way is the finest in the county) and decorated the last resting places of their departed comrades.

The exercises did not occur in Culver until the afternoon, and long before 2 o'clock hundreds of citizens from all over the country commenced to arrive, and when the doors of the M. E. church were thrown open it was soon packed with people who were desirous of witnessing the impressive ceremonies of the G. A. R. upon this solemn occasion. Major Anderson, proprietor of the Park Cafe, in Culver, was the orator of the day, and for the space of twenty minutes related some very interesting reminiscences of army life. After the services at the church, escorted by the cadets of the Culver Military Academy, the old veterans, followed by hundreds of citizens, went to the cemetery and decorated the graves of departed comrades. The cadets, by companies, marched into the cemetery and at the proper time fired their salutes in honor of the dead.

The Black Horse troop and cadets in their beautiful uniforms, flying banners and glistening guns and side-arms, make a very striking appearance, and was greatly admired by the hosts upon hosts present. All in all, it was a grand event, and Jacob Myers, officer of the day, and his staff, can feel proud of the grand exhibition of patriotism on this memorable day, and especially thank the choir for its excellent services.

WHY MRS. PINKHAM

Is Able to Help Sick Women When Doctors Fail.

How gladly would men fly to woman's aid did they but understand a woman's feelings, trials, sensibilities, and peculiar organic disturbances.

Those things are known only to women, and the aid a man would give is not at his command.

To treat a case properly it is necessary to know all about it, and full information, many times, cannot be given by a woman to her family physician. She cannot bring herself to tell everything, and the physician is at a constant disadvantage. This is why, for the past twenty-five years, thousands of women have been confiding their troubles to Mrs. Pinkham, and whose advice has brought happiness and health to countless women in the United States.

Mrs. G. H. CHAPPELL.

Mrs. Chappell, of Grant Park, Ill., whose portrait we publish, advises all suffering women to seek Mrs. Pinkham's advice and use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as they cured her of inflammation of the ovaries and womb; she, therefore, speaks from knowledge, and her experience ought to give others confidence. Mrs. Pinkham's address is Lynn, Mass., and her advice is absolutely free.

SPORT IN WESTERN CANADA.

While the Farmers' Grain Is Ripening and His Stock Growing Fat, He May Have Plenty of Shooting.

There is probably no country on the American continent where the life of the farmer carries with it that assurance of comfort and success as does Western Canada. Nor is there to be found anywhere else such a pleasant combination. Game abounds everywhere, and nowhere does it afford such perfect amusement. A noted sportsman writing of the favorite pastime says: "There is one particular spot where I saw a man drop seventy mallards one morning, and bring them down on flat prairie in light season of the year you can see black lines and triangles cut sharply out against the sky all round you, moving very swiftly, and you begin to wonder whether you have enough cartridges to hold out. You can hear the prairie chicken crowing like barn-door fowls; and a little to the northeast is a bit of marshy ground, cattle-poached, and dappled with gleaming pools, where the snipe are nearly as thick as mosquitoes. A thin column of blue smoke curling up in the distance shows you where a few wandering Indians have pitched their camp, but there is no other indication of civilization in sight. Still, the neighborhood is well settled, and a short drive will bring you to a farmhouse where you can buy the finest butter and the freshest eggs for uncivilized prices.

"A very short railway journey will bring you to a country full of deer and the lordly wapiti, the king of the deer tribe the world over; and down on the flat, boggy land by the lake shores the moose will stand knee-deep in water on the summer evenings, ready to lie down when the flies get bothering. All day you breathe the wild free air of the prairie, and at night you are lulled to sleep by the surge and ripple and splash of the waves on the beach, broken now and then by the weird bansheecry of strange water fowl."

Particulars regarding settlement of the lands of Western Canada can be had from any agent of the Canadian Government, whose advertisement appears elsewhere in your columns.

Repatee.

As the automobile whizzed by it glanced at the horse and exclaimed, with fine scorn:

"I guess I've put you out of business."
"Oh, I don't know! I've not heard of your being utilized as a serum plant!" exclaimed the equine.—Commoner.

Grandmother's Revolt.

An excellent woman, whose married sons and daughters have a way of flitting off every summer to seashore or mountains, leaving their offspring in her loving care, was delicately approached by one of them as to her plans for the coming season.

"I suppose you will open the cottage as usual, won't you, mother? The children so enjoy being with you!"

"No, I shall not open the cottage," was the quiet but decided reply. "My grandchildren will be abandoned to the care of their parents this summer. I am going abroad."—Youth's Companion.

Couldn't Wear Shoes.

Sumpter, Ill., June 10.—Mrs. J. B. Flanigan of this place had suffered with Dropsy for fifteen years. She was so very bad that for the last three years she has not been able to wear her shoes. She had doctored all the time, but was gradually getting worse.

Last winter Mr. Flanigan, who was very much discouraged, called for some medicine at Mr. J. J. Dale's drug store in Carmi. Mr. Dale persuaded him to have his wife try Dodd's Kidney Pills, and he bought six boxes. His wife used five out of the six, before she was entirely cured. She is now as sound and well as ever she was, completely restored to health, and free from any symptom whatever of Dropsy.

To say that Mrs. Flanigan is pleased at her wonderful deliverance does not half express her feelings, and she and Mr. Flanigan are loud in their praises of Dodd's Kidney Pills, and of Mr. Dale for recommending this wonderful remedy to them.

The fact that Dodd's Kidney Pills cured Mrs. Flanigan of such a severe case of Dropsy, after the doctors had given her up, has made them the most talked of remedy ever known in White County.

Wanted to Be Sure.

An old woman of undeniably Celtic origin entered a provincial savings bank the other day and walked up to the desk.

"Do you want to withdraw or deposit?" asked the clerk.

"Naw, oi don't. Oi wants to put some in," was the reply.

The clerk pushed up the book for her signature, and, indicating the place, said, "Sign on this line, please."

"Above it or below it?"

"Me whole name?"

"Yes."

"Before Oi was married?"

"No, just as it is now."

"Oi can't write."—London King.

The Absent Mind.

When Schneider Played.

I liked to hear the old band play
When Schneider played the drum,
My, that wuz music they made! Say,
When Schneider played the drum!
'Twan't like what the bands play now,
'Twan't quite so pop'lar, I'll allow;
But I liked that music best somehow
When Schneider played the drum.

They practiced in the town hall there
When Schneider played the drum.
Say, there wuz music in the air
When Schneider played the drum!
There's Turner—now, what's come o' him?
And Pete Jerome, so tall and slim;
And Jones' boys—where's one called Jim,
When Schneider played the drum?

I liked to watch 'em standin' there
When Schneider played the drum.
Mike Brown had such a lofty air
When Schneider played the drum.
Hank Smith and Jimmy Sikes would stand
'Longside o' Jake and Ira Sand
And toot their best when with the band
Old Schneider played the drum.

Lew Hawks wuz always out o' tune
When Schneider played the drum.
Joe Askins always stopped too soon
When Schneider played the drum.
The big bass horn wuz always heard,
The tenor and the alto blurred,
But all the country round wuz stirred
When Schneider played the drum.

They might not equal bands these days—
Schneider don't play the drum.
They might been out in lots o' ways
When Schneider played the drum.
But, spite o' this, I almost know
There can't be music here below
Like what that old band used to blow
When Schneider played the drum.
—Detroit Free Press.

Destiny.

I tore my hair."
"Destiny is writ!" I cried.
"Well, the way you look at me, anybody might think I'd said it was wrote!"
whimpered the woman, my wife, and burst into tears.

I knocked her head against the piano and left the room. For, after all, she was but a child, and I could not find it in my heart to be harsh with her.—Detroit Journal.

What Do the Children Drink?

Don't give them tea or coffee. Have you tried the new food drink called GRAIN-O? It is delicious and nourishing and takes the place of coffee. The more Grain-O you give the children the more health you distribute through their systems. Grain-O is made of pure grains, and when properly prepared tastes like the choice grades of coffee, but costs about 1/4 as much. All grocers sell it. 15c and 25c.

A man who merely leans one way is naturally a burden to the party he favors.

FOR SYSTEMIC CATARRH

Peculiar to Summer Pe-ru-na Gives Prompt and Permanent Relief.

Clem G. Moore, Editor of the Advocate-Democrat of Crawfordsville, Ind., writes the Peruna Medicine Company as follows:

Gentlemen—"After four years of intense suffering, caused by systemic catarrh, which I contracted while editing, and traveling for my paper, I have been greatly relieved by the use of Peruna. I gave up work during these years of torture, tried various remedies and many doctors, but all the permanent relief came from the use of Peruna. My trouble was called indigestion, but it was catarrh all through the system, and a few bottles of Peruna made me feel like a new person, noting the improvement after I had used the first bottle. Peruna is undoubtedly the best catarrh remedy ever compounded.—Clem G. Moore.

Captain Percy W. Moss, Paragould, Ark., says: "I think Peruna is undoubtedly the finest and surest catarrh cure ever prepared, and it has taken but two bottles to convince me of this fact."
Judge Wm. T. Zenor of Washington, D. C., writes from 213 N. Capital street, Washington, D. C.:

"I take pleasure in saying that I can cheerfully recommend the use of Peruna as a remedy for catarrhal trouble and a most excellent tonic for general conditions."—Wm. T. Zenor.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.
