THE MORTGAGE LAW

Summary of the Measure Authorizing Deductions.

HOW EXEMPTION IS OBTAINED

Not More Than $700 Reduction is Allowed One Taxpayer.

It will be but a few days until the assessor will make his annual appearance. For the benefit of the readers of THE CITIZEN we publish the law governing exemptions.

Under no circumstance can one person legally secure more than $700 deduction under the law, no matter how many mortgages he may have given or assumed, neither can he deduct his mortgage indebtedness from the assessed valuation of his real estate, and then use that portion of the mortgage indebtedness so deducted as a deduction from his personal credit.

If a husband and wife own real estate together as tenants by entireties they must join in the affidavit, and are entitled jointly to not more than $700 deduction, but if they own real estate separately, they are each entitled to the deduction provided in this law, but each must make and sign separate affidavits.

The affidavit required by the mortgage deduction law may be sworn to before any person authorized to administer oaths, (this includes notaries public,) and must be filed with the auditor between the 1st day of March and 1st day of May of each year, showing the amount of mortgage indebtedness on said 1st day of March; said affidavit must be sworn to by the person securing the deduction personally.

A husband can not make an affidavit for his wife, nor she for him.

Under no consideration can a deduction from real estate exceed one-half its appraised value of such property for taxation. This means the appraised values shown on the duplicate for the year in which the deduction is prayed.

The word mortgage used in this law includes mortgages held by non-residents of this state, as well as school fund mortgages and mortgages held by building associations. Only one claim can be made upon any one mortgage. A bond for a deed, a vendor's lien or a ditch assessment is not a mortgage and does not entitle the owner of the land to a deduction.

The taxpayer is entitled to his deduction; no matter how many tracts of land it is divided into, he can claim but one deduction. He can not have more than one deduction no matter how many mortgages he may have on various tracts of land or upon the same tract.

Birth Registration.

Law and custom have established in many nationalities a complete registration of births. Any native of England or Germany, for instance, even if a citizen of a foreign country, could prove their parent, age, date and place of birth, from these records. For various reasons, easily recognized, this has become a very important part of the public service of those countries. Marshall county desires to record the name of every child born upon her soil. The law requires it. A fine is imposed upon any physician in attendance, or householder, who fail to completely report a birth in due time to the proper health officer. It is the legal duty of the secretary of the county board of health, to collect these reports, and make a full and complete registration, in the county records, of the required nineteen items concerning the birth of every child born in his county. Under the present system, if he attends to his legal duty as required, his task becomes a stupendous one. He is also required to submit evidence to the proper officer for prosecution of any delinquent physician, midwife or householder, whose legal duty it is to report these births in full. Blanks will be furnished upon application to the county health officer. Be sure to write the full name of the child, and the township, city or town where born very distinctly, for all is transcribed on the books for permanent record. A separate record will be made of each township, city and town in the county. Every parent should see that the birth of their child is properly reported. If your physician fails to do this, report to secretary of the county board of health yourself, with information of the physician's delinquency. The future rights of your child is involved in this report. In some future time such child may desire to establish some legal claim, of which this record will be the only useful evidence.

Brookville's Famous Men.

The little town of Brookville is famous as the home of men who have made a name in the world. Beside Gen. Wallace and his father there were: Charles H. Test, for years a distinguished jurist; James Lane, the orator; United States Senator from Kansas in the "bleeding Kansas" period; Hiram Powers, the famous sculptor, who gave to the world the "Greek Slave"; James B. Eads, who built the great bridge at St. Louis; Gen. Ambrose E. Burnside, who became Governor of Rhode Island after the civil war; James A. Harrison, United States Senator; James N. Tyner, Postmaster-General; Thomas Noble, United States Senator; his brother Noah Noble, who became Governor of Indiana; John A. Maitson and his son, both of whom were candidates for governor and both met defeat; and Will Cumback, once the caucus nominee for United States Senator.

A Michigan Editor's Effort.

A Michigan editor growing tired of watching the whitewash break in the matter obstinately decided to reform and tell the truth just once. He commented as follows upon the death of a well known citizen:

"Died—aged 50 years, 6 months and 13 days. Deceased was a mild-mannered pirate, with a mouth for whiskey and an eye for blood. He came here in the night with another man's wife, and joined the church at first chance. He owes us several dollars for the paper, large bills to the grocers and butchers, and you could hear him pray six blocks. He died singing 'Jesus Paid It All,' and we think he is right as he never paid anything himself. He was buried in an asbestos lined casket, and his many friends threw palm leaf fans in the grave, as he may need them. His tombstone will be a resting place for hoot owls."

The President's Salary.

The Frankfort Times thus states the case: There has been a revival of the agitation of the idea of increasing the salary of the president to $100,000 a year. It has been demonstrated that a president can live on his salary in a style entirely in keeping with the ideas of true Americanism, and in keeping with his station and have a fair share of his salary left. The larger the salary for the presidency beyond the present figure the further will its occupant drift from the influence and walks of the common people.

Vernon Hardin, a farmer in Rock Creek township, Huntington county, is the first to put in a crop for the year 1905, it being a crop of oats. Mr. Hardin had a hired man to drive a sled over the field while he stood on the rear part of the sled and sowed the seed in the usual manner. The oats were sown on the snow that covered a field of loose-blank soil. The idea is a new one and the result is being watched closely by Mr. Hardin's neighbors.

We do not believe the published report that about twenty per cent. of the telephone girls marry every year. Many of them would be horrified at the idea of changing husbands that often.

The new flag will have forty-seven stars in its field, with a possibility that there may yet be fifty in all. When Arizona finally gets in she will be represented by the forty-eighth star and eventually Hawaii, Alaska and Porto Rico may be claiming their right to a star each.

In a recent letter to Rev. Geo. R. Stroeter, Hon. Daniel McDonald, referring to the Parks anti-cigarette bill, says: "I voted for the bill and against all amendments, making it as drastic as possible, as I believe that the only way to get rid of them is to prohibit everything connected with the making and selling of cigarettes."

A Claypool young lady quarreled with her best fellow and sent back to him all the letters and little gifts she had received from his hands. He, not to be outdone, sent her a half dozen boxes of face powder and with them a note explaining that he had probably carried away that much on his coat since their acquaintance began.

It is reported at South Bend that the Commercial Credit Exchange, which has a branch at Plymouth, is in financial trouble and an effort is on foot to re-organize the concern. A collector collecting from a collector is a peculiar situation, but this is about the condition affairs pertaining to this association are now in, as several South Bend firms are clamoring for money due them from the exchange.

Last Friday morning two sled loads of ladies drove to the country home of Lou Neidlinger. It being a surprise on Mrs. Neidlinger. The day was spent in chats, instrumental and vocal music. At one o'clock a sumptuous dinner was served to which ample justice was done. Improvised speeches were made, Mrs. Charles Stahl on the subject of "Sleigh Riding" carried honors. The gathering was an enjoyable one which will be long remembered by all present.

There will be an entertainment given next Saturday evening March 4th, for the benefit of the M. E. church under the direction of George Kollins and the young willing workers. Menu: 1st—Making popcorn balls; 2nd—Pulling home made candy; 3rd—Hot coffee, doughnuts and cake; 4th—Musical concert by the colored people. Supper begins at 6 p. m.; Concert at 8 p. m. Admission 25 cents for adults, 15 cents for children. Pay at the door and everything free.

An exchange says: "Limburger cheese laid in cupboards will drive away ants." Verily I say unto you, it will drive bugs out of a tanyard; it will drive bazzards away from a carcass; it will drive a herd of buffalo through a barb wire fence; it will drive men crazy if compelled to stay within twenty feet of its polluted presence. Indeed it will drive away ants—and uncles too, and mothers and fathers, brothers, sisters and grandmothers, even to the seventh generation; still some there are who claim to like limburger.

CONTAGIOUS DISEASES FEWER

Smaller Number of Cases Prevalent Than in Many Years.

The people of Marshall county have taken note that there has been less of contagious diseases within the county for the last nine months than for the same period in many years. In comparison with what existed just previously it is truly remarkable. In a period from Jan. 1, 1902 to May 1, 1904, there were recorded in the book of contagious diseases by the secretary of the county board of health, 31 cases of small pox, 31 cases of diphtheria, 124 cases of scarlet fever and 165 cases of measles. These were outside of town corporations. The cases recorded within Plymouth, and the towns of the county together with those not reported, would undoubtedly amount to double that number, and far more in cases of measles. Since May 1 last, there have been reported but four cases of small pox (in June), and a few cases of scarlet fever. Some peculiarities of these scarlet fever cases will be noted in next week's publication.

It may be that Providence has been disposed to be more gracious unto us, which will account for this radical change. Rather it may be on the principle that the Lord helps those who help themselves. It should be noted that we have an efficient and thorough corps of local health officers in Plymouth, and in the incorporated towns of the county. They are competent medical men of large experience in medical work. We now have a united medical fraternity. They may differ, in a few cases, on diagnosis, but all are united in stamping out dangerous contagion of any kind. There is but very little disposition now, on the part of the people, to resist the efforts of the health officers, and an increased willingness to submit to the inconveniences of quarantine for the public good. Beside our city and town health officers above mentioned, we have a regularly appointed health officer who stands on guard in every school district of the county, while every teacher, township trustee, and the county superintendent, are greatly interested. The united vigilance of all will save the county from sickness and loss of life, and a great amount of expense and money.

The Junita Glee Club consists of nine ladies and comes to us highly recommended. The program will consist mostly of vocal music interspersed with instrumental music and readings. You thus have an opportunity of spending an enjoyable and profitable evening with us and aiding the Culver school library.

A PLEASING AFFAIR

Were the Exercises in Honor of Washington's Birthday.

MINSTRELS A GREAT SUCCESS

Participants Display an Unusual Degree of Talent.

The closing exercises on 22nd, in honor of Washington's Birthday, passed off very pleasantly, and certain it is that not a spectator willingly took his departure until the celebration was well advanced and the regular school work begun on Thursday morning.

The gymnasium club directed three o'clock Wednesday afternoon attracted a large audience, and clever stunts of the club, under Capt. Davis' direction, won universal admiration. The brilliant manner in which the cadets the basket ball game afterwards wisely lessened the good opinion the spectators had formed of the speaker's ability along athletic lines.

At eight o'clock the Saturday Night Club gave a minstrel in the school chapel. The grammar was excellently presented and unexpected artistic ability displayed. Vocal solos were rendered by Cadets Madeto, D. Pfiffner, while Jaquith, McCrumpacker and Rankin distinguished themselves as "musical prodigies."

Cadet Page as an interlocutor was well received, and also gave a pleasing monologue. Several musical numbers were given, and Rankin and Crumpacker were honored repeatedly in their appearance as vaudeville artists. The entertainment concluded with the presentation of "The Violin Maker," by Cadets Jaquith, Dodson, Page and Pfiffner.

While the track team has not yet been regularly organized, the school spirit is decidedly in favor of excellent track work, and individual aspirants for track honors may be seen daily at their try-outs in the gymnasium. The Academy boasts of some splendid material, although the veterans of last year's team will be sorely missed.

The debating team is preparing for the coming debate with Lako Forest Academy on March 11th. The question decided upon relates to municipal ownership in the United States. Cadets Pfiffner, Arnold, Fleet, R., and Hostetter, have been selected to represent the Academy.

A board has been appointed to superintend the edition of a school Annual, the first number to be issued during the coming spring. The spirit is commendable, and the enterprise will undoubtedly prove a success.

Capt. F. I. Hunt led the Y. M. C. A. meeting Sunday evening, the topic being "Holding Out Against the Enemy." An innovation was the instrumental service immediately preceding the regular exercises.

Dr. J. B. Raymond, of the University of Chicago, will deliver a lecture on "Russia" at eight o'clock Saturday evening. His address will be illustrated by stereopticon views.

The last basket ball game will be played on Saturday afternoon against Wendell Phillips High School, of Chicago.

Rev. J. H. Moore, pastor of the Centenary Church of Chicago, conducted the chapel exercises.

Horse buyers from Plymouth, Ohio, assisted by George Busart, bought for shipment fifteen head of fine horses as have ever been loaded into cars in Marshall county. Six of them were bought of John, William and Theodore Kline, which fact is evidence that they were firstclass. Did you ever see a Kline drive a poor horse? Not in twenty years.

Elmer Scheuerman brought to the CITIZEN office some very fine specimens of fruit, grown at Portland, Oregon and preserved in alcohol. A stem 2 1/2 inches long had seventeen well matured cherries each one being nearly twice the size of cherries grown here. They are of the Royal Ann variety. There are in his collection some fine specimens of Hungarian and egg plums, also a few peach plums. Oregon is a great country for fine fruit and is noted for a sure yield.

The funeral of the late Adam Souder occurred at the Reformed church yesterday afternoon. The sermon preached by the pastor, Rev. F. E. Zechel was one of the most remarkable ever heard in Fostoria on such occasion. He told of the army life of the deceased, of his good record and honorable discharge. Of his former qualities and their destruction and his death as a result of the saloon. His arraignment of the saloon evil was awful. He stated that he had knowledge of the deceased having been in a saloon as late as one o'clock Sunday morning and had reason to believe that he was thrown out as late as three and in addition to calling attention to these things as infractions of the law stated that he and most law abiding people would consider those who wrecked his life as his murders.—Fostoria (Ohio) Paper.

The people of North Bend township, Starke county, are circulating a petition for an election to vote on the construction of a gravel road beginning at Bass Lake, thence around the lake to Winona and from there east to the Marshall county line. If this road is built, Union township should build a good gravel road west, beginning at Culver and intersect with the proposed North Bend township road. Such a road would be of great benefit to all the people along the entire route, and of unusual benefit to Culver and Union township.

Teacher Forced To Quit.

Prof. Lewis Ford, principal of the high school at Winamac has handed in his resignation on account of trouble in the high school room last week. Prof. Ford tried to whip one of the boys and the rest of the boys of the school interfered, forcibly stopping him and threatening to trash him. But for the intervention of Supt. Harrington, who came in at the time a fist fight would have resulted.

This trouble is the culmination of a whole year of trouble in the school. Disobedience on the part of the pupils and a lack of harmony on the part of the teachers. Mr. Ford's successor has not yet been named, and the high school work is at a standstill.

Blame Placed on Operators.

An investigation into the head-end collision on the Lake Erie & Western railroad near Argos, Feb. 13, has been held by Superintendent M. P. Deniston, and it is said that operator Quinn at Stillwell and operator Marcombe at Plymouth were to blame for the accident. The former, when he took the train order from the dispatcher at Peru, took it incorrectly, substituting the name of Peru for Plymouth. He gave conductor Al Pontius an order giving him the right of track from Stillwell to Peru over train No. 76. The operator at Plymouth, it is said, heard the incorrect order repeated, and by a previous message he had learned that the two trains should meet at Plymouth. He let the work train pass Plymouth without warning it of its danger.

No Age Limit for Teachers.

"I am for the girl of sweet sixteen," was the sentiment of Senator Coats, when he made a strong attack against the Sweeney House bill which sought to prohibit persons under sixteen years of age from teaching school.

"I maintain," declared the senator, "that the girl of sixteen years can better teach school than the antiquated old maid. Many times the young girl is more competent for such work, especially in the primary departments."

In spite of the fact that the bill was defended by Senator Milburn on the ground that there should be an age limit for school teachers, the same us for voters and senators, it failed to pass, the vote being 10 to 32.
