INHERITED CLAIRVOYANT GIFT

Joe Baker Said to Be Following in His Father's Footsteps.

Joe Baker, of this town, so it is said, is giving startling proof that the mysterious clairvoyant power of his father, the late Dr. Baker, is still one of the characteristics of his family. Last Saturday, if we are to believe what was seriously related, he approached a farmer on the streets and warned him to hurry home saying that he would find his cow in the barn and at the point of death from foundering. The man looked incredulous but Joe was persistent. "I see the whole thing," he said, "your barn has just four stalls. The cow's stall is the one farthest from the door and your large square bran box is directly back of it in the south-west corner of the barn. Someone has left the lid raised and I see her eating the bran right now." After a few questions that convinced the farmer that Joe never had seen the barn nor knew anything of the locality he started home and found the cow in the condition that had been foretold.

One of the most vicious of the new laws enacted by the recent legislature compels the money for ditches to be paid out of the general tax. Eventually those directly benefitted by the ditch are assessed and the money raised is used to reinstate the general fund but a great injustice has been incurred because it puts the tax payer under stress of raising a loan for interests which may not in the least concern him. If Marshall county should have $100,000 in ditch contracts as some of our adjoining counties have, it would necessitate a raising of our taxes at least one-third.

Even with much less ditching the advance in tax will be decidedly noticeable next year.

A critical school man who has recently visited Inwood says that its high school comes very close to an ideal. All four teachers, Messrs. Teeby and Jackman and two ladies, are experienced and vastly competent. "It is fortunate for Inwood," said the critic, "that this combination came in control of the school for they have brought it up to the standard of the highest salaried commissioned high schools in the state." The chemical and physical equipment of the school is said to be very good.

A variously minded christian much given to dividing his time among all churches is inclined to be emphatic that Plymouth now has the strongest corps of preachers all told of any one previous time in the history of the town.

Wickizer and Bondurant have added an abstracting department to their real estate and loan business, placing it under the able direction of Miss Ida Klinger, assisted by Miss Elma Filar.

The high school band gave a social last Friday night and treated their patrons to an excellent concert.

Hoy Singrey, county auditor has purchased the Allman home on Center street.

C. W. Metaker has bought the two Allman store rooms on Michigan street.

Michael G. Walters, a brother to Daniel Walters, and a resident of Elkhart was found dead in his bed last Thursday morning. The coroner reported that the immediate cause of his death was heart failure. Mr. Walters was 52 years old and was a scale inspector for the Lake Shore Railroad for the past twenty years. He leaves a wife, one son and two daughters, his father, five brothers and three sisters also survive. He was council commander of Elkhart Tent W. O. W. and a member of the Lake Shore carpenters union.

This Should be Looked Into.

A South Bend store conducting a "white goods sale," inserted this advertisement in the papers: "One of these nights a mouse will gnaw a match on your pantry shelf, dear sister, and the fire will spread till it reaches your room, and you will escape with your life, clad only in your night garments. Such a spectacular opportunity to create a sensation does not occur oftener than once in a life time, and how will you make it, dear sister? Will your night clothes be such that the firemen will want to plunge in the flames and die for your sweet sake? Or will you look like the picture on the billboards?"

School Consolidation.

The question of consolidating the schools of Knox and those of the township was discussed in a mass meeting held at the opera house Saturday. Superintendent Golhams, of Lagrange county, was present and gave his experience in the matter. Some of the people from the country opposed the idea, giving as their reason that whenever the country had anything to do with the town it was always to the former's detriment. It will be a matter of sincere regret if such a feeling causes the pupils of the township to secure fewer advantages than those of the town enjoy. Surely persons who entertain such sentiments as the foregoing cannot be thinking of how the high schools in the town have been crowded to accommodate pupils from the country desiring better instruction than they could get in the district schools. There usually is an imaginary strife between towns and the surrounding country, but no good ever comes from cherishing it. The people should know that the interests of the towns and country are mutual, and that what injures one injures the other, likewise what benefits one benefits the other. Better be neighborly all around and remember the Golden Rule.—Starke County Republican.

Woman Dead; Still Lives.

After having been pronounced dead by two physicians and a nurse Mrs. Charles A. Sweet, wife of a St. Louis provision merchant, was restored by the infusion of a salt into her veins and is now believed to be recovering her health.

Five weeks ago Mrs. Sweet, suffering from gastritis, went to Hot Springs, Ark., in the hope of recovery. On the night of Feb. 13 she seemed to be dying and eventually her heart ceased beating and respiration stopped. She was pronounced dead. A third physician, however, decided to try a solution infusion and there followed signs of animation. The operation was continued and Mrs. Sweet revived. She has returned to her home in St. Louis and is now apparently recovering her health.

C. M. A. Notes.

Mr. H. H. Culver, of St. Louis, made a short visit at the school last week.

Major Gignoullat spent several days last week in Chicago and Saint Louis.

In Memoriam.

Walker Wayne Curtis, son of Benjamin and Georgia Curtis, was born March 1, 1905, and died March 15, 1905, aged 14 days.

We lay here in the silent tomb,
Sweet blossom of a day;
We just began to view thy bloom,
When thou wert called away.
Friendship and love have done their best,
And now can do no more;
The bitterness of death is past,
And all thy sufferings o'er.
Thou mightest now in that bright throng,
Among the eternal throng,
And join in the everlasting song,
With those before thee gone.
C. McCONNELLY.

Rev. L. H. Seager, of Cleveland, Ohio, Editor of the Sunday-School Literature and Y. P. A. Herald, will preach at the Culver Evangelical church, March 26th at 11 a. m., West Washington at 7:30 p. m., Rutland at 7:30 p. m., Monday, South Germany at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday. You are cordially invited to attend these services.—Chas. McConnehey, Pastor.

TEST THE SEED CORN

Practical Benefits That Will Result From Careful Selection.

SOME WILL NOT GERMINATE

Simple Method of Determining the Vitality of Corn is Given.

Some recent germination tests of seed corn from farmers' supplies indicate that there is probably a lot of corn intended for seed which will not germinate, or, at least, has been seriously injured, on account of its having been exposed in out-buildings while still in a more or less moist condition during the period of extremely low temperatures during February.

In a view of this probability we deem it wise to urge upon farmers the necessity of making thorough tests of vitality of any seed corn which was not protected from those severe frosts.

A convenient home tester can be made by taking an old baking pan of large size or a shallow tray made of boards, tightly wrapping around it, at intervals of about an inch and a half, crosswise and lengthwise, a long piece of strong cord or light wire, and filling it with fine, moist soil or sand. The surface of the soil or sand in the tray will thus be marked off into inch and a half squares. The squares may be marked more permanently by fastening the cross wires in the sides and ends of the tray. A tray of this kind, two by three feet in size, will be large enough to make an individual ear test of about five bushels of seed ears at one time.

The test will not be complete unless each ear is tested by itself. Take five kernels out of each ear, from different parts, and place them in one of the squares of the tester, pressing them firmly into the soil. The ears of corn should be so arranged in single rows on a shelf, table or floor that the one corresponding to each square in the tester can be easily located. After the tester is filled moisten the soil thoroughly, cover with an old gunny sack to keep the surface from drying and set in a warm place, but not near a stove. The ordinary living room or a place of similar temperature will do perfectly. Keep the soil thoroughly moist. All kernels which do not send out strong root and stem sprouts within five days, under these conditions, should be considered as too weak to properly germinate under ordinary field conditions. If the germination of any lot of kernels is unsatisfactory, the ear from which they came should be discarded. About 95 per cent. of the kernels should germinate strongly within the five days.

Farmers who wish to do so may have small lots of corn tested by sending samples to the station.

It may interest a few people to know that Mrs. Oyama, the wife of the victorious Japanese general, is a graduate of a female seminary in New York, having resided in this country from 1872 to 1882. She is a christian.

Judge Grosseup, of Chicago says that the corporations in this country are in their infancy. That explains why the senate of the United States has taken the corporations and trusts under its parental protection.

The Czar is proposing to keep on to the "bitter end." If he had only read the little boy's illustration he might conclude that his pussy was just now going under the house, while Oyama was playing the canine part to perfection, when he bitter end.

Some republicans are now trying to raise a fund of $15,000 with which to buy a certificate of innocence for one Caleb Powers, three times convicted for complicity in the murder of Governor Goebel, of Kentucky. Such a course will stimulate lynch law in a sister state. It is a deplorable fact that some prominent Indiana politicians are at the head of this movement. The state is already harboring two fugitives from justice, which should satisfy the abnormal desire to thwart the requirements of law.

Henry Buckheister has sold his town property to Benjamin Easterday, and contemplates moving to Indianapolis. Mr. Easterday will move to town.

Many of the people are shifting their sympathies to the Russians on the ground that they always sympathize with the under dog in a fight. If the under dog is ten times the size of the victor, his position in the fight, instead of eliciting sympathy, should breed contempt.

A democracy spending hundreds of millions for warships and forts, for armies and navies, is enough to give devils joy. If we spent one-fourth of this treasure in schools and missions, the whole world would soon be ours in bonds of love and there would be no need of these engines of death and destruction.

There is no excuse for the petty jealousies that come to the surface in different localities. An electric line built in any part of the county will be of benefit to the entire county, as it will increase the value of taxable property in the county. We want all the electric lines here at Culver that we can get, but if we cannot get them ourselves we are pleased to see neighboring towns succeed.

In regard to Argos produce markets for the coming season, do the Argos merchants intend to give the farmers a market or will prices here continue to be dictated by parties who have no interest whatever in Argos or its advancement. Argos should have an Argos Produce Market—not a Plymouth branch.—Argos Reflector. Bring your produce to Culver where the market is always good. Compare the market quotations of Culver with those of neighboring towns and note the difference in our favor.

The Purdue University instructors are again urging farmers to test their seed corn and many who did not heed their warning last season will probably give it more attention this year. The scientific men argue that if one ear in the seed corn fails to germinate on account of being frozen before planting, that the farmer will be short five bushels when he harvests his crop. It is quite apparent that a test can do no harm and for every bad ear thrown out the farmer will be rewarded by an extra five bushels.

Kenesaw M. Landis has been named for the federal judgeship in Illinois at a salary of $5,000 per year. This is the fourth of the Landis family who is drawing government money. Charles B. Landis is congressman at a $5,000 salary; Frederick Landis is also congressman at a $5,000 salary; Kenesaw Landis as judge will get a $5,000 salary; and Walter K. Landis is postmaster at San Juan, Porto Rico at a salary of $2,700. The reason that no more of the Landis family have received government positions is because there are no more Landises.

A Feast of Bargains That Will Long Be Remembered

EVERY factory and mill, in the manufacture of its products, accumulates "Mill Ends," or "Loom Ends," as they are commonly called. They are short lengths from the looms, generally one-half to ten yards in length. These are laid aside until the end of the weaving season, then tied up in great bundles and disposed of by weight—so much per hundred pounds—instead of so much a yard, the price always being less than the actual cost of the raw material they are made from. Loom Ends accumulate in all mills, therefore careful buyers, by a persistent system of buying can secure Loom Ends of every conceivable kind of piece goods made. If you imagine these Loom Ends to be a lot of plunder you will be disappointed. Do you remember our Loom End Sale last fall? We are going to eclipse it or any other sale ever given in Plymouth. We never inflate values—never quote merchandise as being worth more than it really is. This great sale means a wonderful saving to the people of Plymouth and surrounding country. Come expecting big bargains—you will not be disappointed. Tell your neighbors and friends of this big sale. Don't wait, but come early and get the cream of the bargains. We have engaged plenty of extra salespeople to wait on you promptly. Remember, this sale lasts but seven days, and the prices named are good for seven days only. We have lots and lots of other good values to offer you which space forbids mentioning, but you will find them at our store just the same. Don't fail to attend this greatest of all sales. You will get the best and most goods for your money these seven days.

Just a Few Don'ts to Keep in Mind

DON'T miss the opportunity. Don't wait too long. Don't be skeptical. Don't hesitate to come. Don't fail to tell your friends. Don't overbuy yourself. Don't be broke next week. Don't miss the place. Don't kick at the crowd. Don't get mad if someone happens to tramp on your pet corns in the rush for bargains.

Begins Saturday, March 25, and Ends Saturday, April 1st

In order to arrange properly for this big sale it will be necessary to close our store to the public all day on Friday, March 24, to give our salespeople a chance to become acquainted with the reduced prices we will name on goods all over the store

Getting Rich Slowly.

Ordinarily a great fortune is built up like a stone wall—a stone at a time. The young man who declines to lay the first stone, because it comes so far short of a wall, will never make progress in financial masonry. An immense proportion of the people of this country live up their incomes, laying aside nothing for the traditional rainy day. Because they cannot save $1,000 in a bunch they save nothing. The greatest financial kings of the world have not been above taking care of the pennies even. The great financial institutions look after even the fractions of pennies.

His Needs.

The following is from a leading North Dakota newspaper: "It is reported that one of Harvey, N. D., fastidious newly married ladies kneads bread with her gloves on. This incident may be somewhat peculiar, but there are others. The editor of this paper needs bread with his shoes on. He needs bread with his shirt on. He needs bread with his pants on, and unless some of the delinquent subscribers of this 'Old Bag of Freedom' pay up, before long he will need bread without a damn thing on, and North Dakota is no garden of Eden in the winter time."

If it is a bilious attack take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and a quick cure is certain. For sale by T. E. Slattery.

News of the New Suitings

They have all arrived now, and in addition hundreds of samples are shown. All the materials, colors, shades and weights that will be fashionable this season are here and will be shown you any time you wish to see them. A proper idea of the variety of these patterns can be had only from an inspection of the stocks we show. The first time you come to Plymouth step in and let me go into particulars with you. Our prices range from $15.00 up to $40.00.
