Indians Scalp Two More During Week

The Culver Indians racked up their third and fourth victories in a row on Friday night and last evening defeating Winamac 49-38 and Akron 53-22, respectively. The Sering men spoiled Akron's hope for winning their initial game in their newly remodeled gymnasium, where after a slow first quarter, Culver caught fire in the second stanza to pile up a 22-8 half-time lead. In the third period Coach Sering started substituting freely, and the subs continued to pour them in.

A large crowd saw the game including several Culver fans. Jim Kowatch led the scoring with 14 points, Ed Davis scoring 13. The Culver second team made it a grand slam as they defeated Akron 29-21 in the opening game after leading 13-11 at the half time.

Over 600 members of the Christmas Club of the State Exchange Bank of Culver and Argos will reap the benefits of their thrift throughout the past year today and Friday when they will receive through the mails their 1950 Christmas Club checks.

The State Exchange Bank stated yesterday that a total of $61,368.75 would be distributed by the Argos and Culver banks. A record amount will also be distributed by the Farmers State Bank of Lapaz, an affiliate of the local bank.

The local bank has announced plans for its 1951 Christmas club and details for the savings plan are contained in an announcement elsewhere in today's paper.

A Thanksgiving Song

"Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, all ye lands.

"Serve the Lord with gladness: come before his presence with singing,

"Know ye that the Lord he is God: it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

"Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and bless his name.

"For the Lord is good; his mercy is everlasting; and his truth endureth to all generations." Psalm 100.

Charles Leland Writes Interesting Account of Experiences in Norway

(Editor's Note: It is a real privilege to present to Citizen readers this interesting account and description of the Norwegian people. We are grateful that Charles Leland, American Fulbright scholar now studying in Norway, has written of his experiences. Actually his salutation directs the letter to Culver Friends. In a penned note he says, "I hope you think such a letter as this will be of interest to the people of Culver. If so, perhaps I can write others later." We are sure that it will be of interest, Charles, and please let us have more.

A graduate of the Academy and Oberlin College, he is the son of Colonel W. E. Leland. Just recently Charles sailed to England primarily to visit English Universities. He will remain there until just before Christmas, when he returns to Norway. His address is Charles Leland, c/o Professor T. Schjelderup-Ebbe, Eilert Sundts gate, 11 B., Oslo Norway.) Dear Culver Friends:

There are so many of you whom I would like to greet that I thought that the best way to do it would be through The Citizen. The only trouble is that in the last three months I have seen so many interesting things and had so many unforgettable experiences which I should like to share with you that only a small part of them can be put into one letter.

A rose fluttered down from the pier above as I stepped from the gangplank of the "S. S. Stavangerfjord" onto Norwegian soil last July. The rose was accompanied by a "Welcome to Norway, Charley!" Since then my visit has been a continual "welcome to Norway." I was received into the bosom of a large and wonderfully kind Norwegian family. Not only have I had the privilege of living and eating with them but of meeting their friends and of being invited to their frequent parties and get-togethers.

Norwegian Customs

So, although I know some of the American Fulbright scholars studying here and am a member of the British Club at the University, I have made a deliberate effort to stay within Norwegian society as much as possible in order to learn the language and try to understand the people, their habits and attitudes.

True it was a little difficult at first to down raw pickled herring and dark brown goat cheese for breakfast, to learn to wield a fork with the left hand, and to say the right kind of Norwegian "thank you" at the right time, but I'm slowly learning and am becoming more at home every day.

Beautiful Scenery

Next to its people the most attractive aspect of Norway is its wild and incomparably beautiful mountains and fjords, scenery which has touched the soul of every great Norwegian poet and the beloved composer Grieg.

This landscape I got to know well, for a friend and I took an extended bicycle trip through central and west Norway during August. It wasn't always easy going, pedaling among the mountains, but rough roads were compensated for by the awe-inspiring peaks, the lovely upland meadows ablaze with flowers, and the deep, silent forests.

Then there were long stretches (Continued on page 11)

Business Men Favor Re-Organizing Chamber of Commerce

Approximately 40 local business and professional men met last week at the Lions Den under the sponsorship of the business men's committee of the Lions Club and unanimously adopted a resolution to organize an association of business men.

The proposal sponsored by the Lions Club committee was heartily endorsed by the assembled business and professional leaders. The Lions Club study pointed out that there was a need and a real opportunity for service to the community for such an organization. It showed that many vital matters cannot possibly be handled by the Lions Club because of the very nature of the civic and social organization.

A. R. McKesson was named chairman of the committee to work out the details for the organization. Serving with him are Earl Foreman, Omer Hook, John Bigley, Ernest Neault, Earl Dean Overmyer and Bob Rust. The group will meet tonight following the Lions Club meeting to begin working out plans and purposes for the organization.

Earl D. Overmyer, serving as chairman of the meeting, set next Wednesday evening for the second meeting of business and professional men when the committee report will be heard and discussed. The meeting will be held at the Lions Den and business men throughout the township are urged to attend.

The majority of those present at the initial meeting favored the re-establishment of the Chamber of Commerce. The Culver Chamber was disbanded on November 29, 1948, when the group decided to incorporate its activities with the Lions Club. The C. of C. played an important role in the development and progress of this community during the years of its existence. At the time it merged with the Lions Club it asked the latter group to form a committee, composed entirely of local business men, to carry on the work of the businessmen's group. In 1948 the Chamber of Commerce had 85 members.

The Lions Club has worked diligently through its civic improvement committee to improve and foster the development of the community. Its accomplished projects have been significant. In its proposal the Club committee expressed the belief that there were certain types of civic activities where a business men's association could do more effective work.

Father and Son Banquet Monday

The annual Father and Son Banquet for Culver and community will be held next Monday, Nov. 27 in the social rooms of the Emmanuel Evangelical United Brethren Church. An interesting program is being planned. Dr. Marlo N. Berger of Dayton, Ohio, associate secretary of the Church extension society will be the speaker. His subject is "Comrades for Life." All men of the community are urged to bring their sons or a borrowed son and enjoy the evening fellowship with the men and boys of the community. Tickets are $1.00 and can be purchased from the cooperating churches.

THE SENIOR CLASS is sponsoring a dance this Friday at the Lions Den. Dancing will start at 9:00 p. m. and last until 12:00 p. m. Donation 25 cents.

Bell Telephone Petitions P. S. C. For Rate Increase

The Indiana Bell Telephone Co. filed a petition with the Public Service Commission late yesterday (Tuesday) requesting a review of its rates for local and long distance service in Indiana.

The company, serving about 80 cities and towns in the state, seeks to increase its rates revenues to "obtain a fair return on the fair value of its property." Total increase sought from exchange and intrastate toll rates amounts to about $4,900,000.00 annually, of which the Company would retain some $2,600,000.00 after taxes. Rate proposals for each community will be presented to the Commission later.

Indiana Bell's petition is the outgrowth of a rate order last September, when the commission halved the amount requested by the Company. The new petition states that the existing rates do not produce the earning anticipated by the Commission's order and do not justify the Company in continuing its program of new construction for the extension and improvement of service throughout the state.

Principle point at the issue now is the valuation of the Company's property. In its recent decision, the Commission valued the Indiana Bell plant at $88,000,000. The Company contends that a fair valuation would be not less than $121,000,000.

Higher cost of post war plant additions have made it impossible to realize earnings contemplated by the Commission in either of the two rate adjustments made since the present inflation began. Plant additions costing $55,000,000 have been made since January 1, 1948, the petition points out.

Wage increases since 1939 have resulted in paying present employees in excess of $12,000,000 more per year than the same force would have received under 1939 wage levels. Rate increases, based on the current volume of business have increased Company revenues only 6.6 million dollars it was said. The Company has asked the Commission for an early hearing on the need for increasing rates on a temporary basis, pending final determination of the case.

Further additions to plants are necessary, according to the petition, to provide: telephone service for waiting applicants; service with fewer parties on the line for those who have requested it; facilities needed for national defense, and to enable the Company to furnish service without delay where and when needed. Principal projects in the Company's two year program for Culver require an expenditure of about $48,000.00, according to C. G. Sacre, manager.

Mr. Dan Goldsmith, 3024 Curron Road, Louisville, Ky., owner of Coogla Cut Rate Store at 935 West Broadway, says there just aren't enough words in the English language to praise HADACOL correctly. He says he knows most folks don't realize what a change HADACOL can make in their life if their systems are deficient in Vitamins B₁, B₂, Iron and Niacin.

Here is Mr. Goldsmith's statement:

"Before I started taking HADACOL I was run down and nervous—and had a hard time sleeping nights. With my work in the store I have to spend sometimes 14 hours a day on my feet. Since I am in the retail business I saw how many folks were asking for HADACOL so I decided to try it myself. After the first couple of bottles I could tell a definite improvement. Now I have all the pep and energy in the world, my nerves are steady as ever and I really do get a good night's rest. HADACOL is wonderful—I not only take it, but recommend it to all my customers. I praise the day Senator Dudley J. LeBlanc put HADACOL on the market."

HADACOL Is So Different

Thousands are benefiting from HADACOL . . . whose systems lack Vitamins B₁, B₂, Iron and Niacin. HADACOL is so wonderful because HADACOL helps build up the hemoglobin content of your blood (when Iron is needed) to carry these great Vitamins and Minerals to every body organ—to every part of the body.

Give remarkable HADACOL a chance and if you don't feel better with the first few bottles you take—you get your money back. Only $1.25 for Trial Size; Large Family or Hospital Size, $3.50. If your druggist does not have HADACOL, order it direct from The LeBlanc Corporation, Lafayette, Louisiana.

good roads in the valleys, roads along which often grew luscious, big red raspberries. Here delicate wild strawberries. Here also we often watched farmers hanging up hay in long parallel rows to dry.

Youth Hostels

Not the least interesting aspect of our trip was the Youth Hostels in which we spent many nights. The accommodations, of course, were primitive by American standards, but then we only had to pay twenty-one cents a night! But the great advantage of the Youth Hostels was the people we met there; every evening we joined a group of fellow hikers and cyclers, often from foreign countries. During the trip we met fellows and girls from Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Belgium, England, France, Ireland, Venezuela, and the United States. It was a real experiment in international living!

Oslo Home Construction

The difficult mountain roads, which could not be kept up during the five years of occupation, are being continually improved. Very much needed apartment houses are being built in Oslo and elsewhere as fast as possible. The great Norwegian merchant fleet, much of which was destroyed during the war, now has a much greater tonnage than in 1940.

To accomplish all this the Norwegians have been working hard, paying fearful taxes, and tightening their belts. There are no dollars to buy luxury goods, like citrus fruits, canned and frozen goods, and fancy clothes, from America, when necessary machinery must be bought on the dollar market. The program director or the E. C. A. here told me the other day that as of last May (before Korea) it was thought that Norway would be able to stand alone on its economic feet by 1952, perhaps the only war-torn nation that would be able to do this.

Excellent Institutions

Since September I have been studying at the University of Oslo. There are special courses arranged for foreign students in the Norwegian language and institutions. The professors are generally excellent, the students serious and intelligent.

The most notable difference between our university system and that existing in Norway is that all instruction here is free, public, and voluntary. In other words, a student does not pay a cent of tuition; anyone can walk off the streets of the city into a University lecture hall and listen, a student can go to class or not, just as he pleases — no roll is ever taken. There are no semester exams, or quizzes, only big comprehensive exams when a student, after six or seven years usually, feels ready to take a degree.

I enjoy my life and work and feel that all told my experience here is becoming perhaps the most valuable, in the secular realm, of my life.

And so, best wishes to all of you.

Sincerely,

Charles Leland

An Important Step

Skipping over a lot of "ifs" Culver will someday have a sewage disposal system, according to the news story contained in last week's Citizen announcing that officials had given authorization for proceeding with the long delayed plans.

There are some "ifs" to be hurdled but most of them are concerned with extraneous national and international trends. Thus, "if" inflation doesn't block the financing; "if" war doesn't prevent the project from starting; "if" materials can be procured;—a sewage system for the joint use of the town and the Academy is in the not too distant future.

The accomplishment of this project together with the solvance of the west side drainage problem should greatly enhance the future of this community.

The Community Meets Another Obligation

Folks throughout the township are undoubtedly just a bit proud of the most welcome news telling about the successful conclusion of the 1950 Community Chest campaign. Citizens throughout the community have had a generous part in this notable achievement.

Through the hard work, time and effort of canvassers, and through the generous response of the local public the goal of $4,000 has been oversubscribed. In fact the contributions now total nearly $4,200 and donations are still being made.

It is not the first time the township has oversubscribed the Community Chest goal; in fact, there are few times since the establishment of the fund that the community has not met its obligation. However there was considerable skepticism that the goal would be met this year, therefore it is doubly gratifying to note the response. Not a few larger communities are having considerable difficulty in meeting their 1950 goal.

Hearty congratulations and a debt of gratitude are due to the large staff of men and women who generously contributed of their time in successfully reaching this year's goal.

Receives Letters From Gen. MacArthur And Sec. of Army

Leo Butler, father of PFC Eldon Butler, Culver soldier killed in the Korean war, received personal letters of condolence from General Douglas MacArthur, United Nations commander in chief, and from Frank Pace, Jr., secretary of the Army, on Monday morning.

Secretary Pace's letter tells of the posthumous award of the Purple Heart. PFC Butler, a member of the 77th Field Artillery of the First Cavalry Division, was killed in action October 13th.

The letter signed by General MacArthur follows:

"The untimely and tragic loss of your son, Eldon, who met his death on the field of battle in Korea, has shocked all of us deeply. Some measure of comfort may be derived from the knowledge that he died in the service of his country and in defense of a peace-loving people.

"I am confident that his devotion to duty, at the cost of all he held dear, will hasten the day when ruthless aggression shall disappear from the face of the earth and free men everywhere will live together in peace and harmony.

"Our faith enables us to withstand the shock and grief of death. It is my earnest prayer that Almighty God will sustain and strengthen you in this hour of trial. While the loss of your beloved one will be a hardship, we know that no life is really lost for those who have faith in God.

Sincerely yours,
Douglas MacArthur

Secretary Pace wrote as follows: "The President has requested me to inform you that the Purple Heart has been awarded posthumously to your son, Private First Class Eldon D. Butler, Artillery, who sacrificed his life in Korea.

"The medal, which you will receive in a short time, is of slight intrinsic value, but rich with the tradition for which Americans have so gallantly given their lives ever since the days of George Washington, whose profile and coat of arms adorn the medal.

"Little that we can do or say will console you for the loss of your loved one. He has gone, however, in honor and in the company of patriots. Let me, in communicating to you the country's gratitude, also express to you its admiration for his valor and devotion."

Sincerely yours,
Frank Pace, Jr.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

November 14, 1950

Sirs: I wonder if you could inform me as to what became of the Old Washington Acorn Hand Press used in printing the first newspaper, the Marmont Herald and later the Culver City Herald.

I pulled that press in 1896 and 1897, and have never seen one just like it. I am still operating a George Washington press in the printing of two pages of the Wanatah Mirror.

I have operated this press for 54 years, which I am quite sure is a world record. I sincerely hope you can furnish me with this information as I am deeply interested. I worked on the paper for George E. Nearpass, its founder. Thank you most sincerely.

Your Life
Insurance

When you think about your children it has probably occur- ed to you that some day they will be grown up and married, with homes of their own. When that time comes, will you have happy years ahead, free from fi- nancial worry? Will you have a sufficient retirement income to enjoy your later years in life? Have you already made sure of it?

If you want to make certain in advance, and also give your children the protection they will need in case you should not live until they are grown, consider life insurance.

Remember: The years do have a way of slipping by.

Mrs. Dick Newman and Pier de Boer were at Lafayette on Wednesday where Pier was shown the experimental work in the plant department and the dairy barns there. into a 14-2 lead in the first 6 minutes of the game. Two free throws by Bill Snyder was all Culver could do during those bewildering minutes. Jim Kowatch broke the ice for the Indians by scoring two close-in goals to make the first quarter score read 14-6. The second quarter was a complete reversal of form as Culver outscored Winamac 17-1 to gain a 23-15 half time advantage.

The overly aggressive Winamac team (they collected 25 fouls during the game) never seriously threatened the Indians in the second half.

Kowatch was high point man with 17 closely followed by Bill Baker with 14 and Bill Snyder with 12.
