Reflect Back // Reflect Back

As another year comes to a close, we Reflect Back on memories. We remember the time spent in classrooms, the camaraderie between friends, the thrill of sports, the unity of organizations and the everyday adventures of student life. We hope to have captured for you these moments to trigger personal memories for each and everyone.

COUPLES

Thinking about the great times in our lives and how they have passed so fast is a bittersweet experience. Sometimes we think of the good times and smile, and other times we think of the bad times and frown. But when we think of the good times, we smile. They were there when you had some time to spend with your friends. They were there when you had some time to spend with your friends. They were there when you had some time to spend with your friends.

Remember the moments of Student Life . . . the first football game, homecoming activities, Christmas break, the excitement of the home crowds, making new friends, the new songs, good movies, the new fads, the preparation for the prom, and finally graduation day. Along with many many more, Reflect Back . . .

6. T. Huters — hard at work. 7. C. Sander — not a boogie. 8. V. Caruso and M. Mayfield — what character! 9. T. Carlin and R. White — being hard alive. 10. D. Lowry, D. Dickey, and C. Bailey — playing it cool. 11. S. Osemyer and R. Schlader — "Last in Line".

ACTIVITIES

Eighty
Two

School Activities allow students to grow and develop. Through activities we experience many good times. Remember Homecoming . . . the Sweetheart Dance . . . the Prom . . . and Graduation. Remember the great times . . . Reflect Back.

1. Juniors show off their #1 homecoming float. 2. S. Bennett, B. Maister, M. Thompson, T. Bennett, and M. Elliott — trucking their way to a victory. 3. S. Smith and T. Posthuma — homecoming queen and her escort. 4. L. Bundy and R. Beach — L. Bundy accepts the award for the Junior class for 1st place in the homecoming float contest. 5. B. Valiquet participates in the tricycle race.

6. M. Wynn escaping the grasp of the opponent. 7. Culver's band leads the homecoming parade. 8. K. Van De Putte has the homecoming spirit. 9. Jorja Jones, crowns S. Smith 1981-82 homecoming queen, as her escort, T. Posthuma, looks on. 10. Cavalier football players anxiously awaiting a touchdown.

HOMECOMING

Homecoming was a spectacular event this year. The annual float contest and club activities created lots of enthusiasm. Included in the activities were an egg toss, a tricycle race, and a potato sack race. The OCHS band led a beautiful parade of homecoming floats through town. The Junior class took 1st place in the float contest with their "Whale of a Team" float.

That evening, last year's queen, Jorja Jones, crowned Shan Smith homecoming queen and the winners of the afternoon events accepted their awards.

During the game, fans cheered and created lots of excitement. The events were quite successful which made an evening to be remembered.

WAS HE ANYONE

1. The National Holy Yea Out Year Week crew ingenuously prepares a daring rescue. 2. R. Schmidt doubtfully views the rescue situation. 3. A. Zehner leads his people. 4. A. Lawson enjoys the glamorous role of being a drowning man's wife. 5. R. Harris insists that he has the only possible rescue plan.

This year's fall play was "Was He Anyone?" The play was based on life and used a drowning man to show how ridiculous all the red tape involved in even common situations can get. To begin with, he jumped overboard and was thrown a life preserver. He could have been rescued at that point, but that would have been too easy. Instead, his wife had to contact a professional rescue agency that could make the arrangements to get him out of the water. The press was contacted and his plight closely followed by the world. A piano was pushed into the water for him to play and he was given a floating platform to stand on so that he did not have to tread water. After twenty-seven months, all the arrangements were made and the rescue operation was about to begin when all their efforts to keep him afloat failed and he went under for the last time, making a mockery of all their involved planning.

6. R. Mallory does a one-woman chorus of "This is a Pleasure Cruise". 7. R. Harris conscientiously attends to business while A. Zehner dreams of following pleasure. 8. A. Fox serves hot country by diligently standing behind it. 9. S. Freytag sees the bright side of a two-year rescue operation. 10. R. Mallory, C. Hildebrand, and K. Robinson mourn the dearly departed drowned man.

Sweetheart Dance 1982

The first Sweetheart Dance took place in March of 1969. It was the brainchild of Mr. Stephan Brown, the FFA advisor at that time. The dance was to bring some cultural enrichment into school life. Another aspect of the dance was to crown the FFA chapter Sweetheart Queen and the FHA chapter Mr. Personality. The 1969 Sweetheart Dance has since become an annual event. The dance has always been semi-formal and all students have been invited to participate.

This year's dance took many months of preparation for each of the sponsoring clubs, FFA and FHA. FFA, headed by advisor Walden Hicks and President Steve Shank, put in a considerable amount of time and hard work to make this year's dance a success. FHA, headed by advisor Barb Winters and President Susan Currens, helped us with the long hours of making the dance worthwhile. Other important people who helped with the program include: Tim Posthuma, Vice-President of FFA, Rhonda Goodman, Vice-President of FHA, and Mary Newman, Secretary of FFA. All who helped had a feeling of accomplishment when the day of the dance finally arrived.

The night's events were started by the band North Side Station. The band played a large medley of popular songs. The cafeteria was an array of reds and pinks. The mood was set by the hanging crystal ball and the silvery stars strung from the ceiling. The highlight of the evening was the crowning of the Sweetheart Queen and Mr. Personality. Excitement rose as the program began with Tim Posthuma and Rhonda Goodman officiating. Tammy Engel and Mike Thompson certainly felt the crowd's electricity as they were crowned the 1982 Sweetheart Queen and Mr. Personality. Michelle Hyland and Mike Elliott, were first runners-up. All will reflect back and remember March 19, 1982.

WONDERFUL

Two young women go to New York to escape from the clutches of their protective family. Each comes to fulfill her own dreams. Ruth, played by K. Mallory, is determined to become an editor and thinks she finds a job. It turns out the job was set up by one of Eileen's boyfriends to get rid of Ruth. Eileen, Ruth's beautiful sister, played by C. Sage, finds herself constantly followed around by a variety of men.

Among Eileen's boyfriends are a straight-faced store manager, J. Hansen, and the sexy, man-about-the-town, S. Frettinger. Because of the location of their dumpy apartment, they are constantly bothered by drunks, C. Hildebrand and P. Bickel. Also by sailors, G. Hallinan and Jr. High boys, who want to "Conga". The girls are saved by their faithful cop, A. Zelnor.

The former tenant, A. Lawson, brings her calling cards around for the sisters to let men know that her business has been moved elsewhere.

Two friends, the wreck and his soon-to-be wife, B. Vantwood and L. Snyder, are trying to work out their differences with her mother, K. Bonine.

Butting in and confusing matters is Apopious, the sisters' landlord, R. Schmidt. He accuses the girls of stealing his painting. When they finally find good jobs, he tries to be their friend.

TOWN

The two girls find jobs at a night club, directed by R. Harris. Ruth and the editor, T. Mattison, work out their problems, discovering their feelings are mutual; they are in love.

1. C. Sage and K. Mallory are politely keeping their distance with former tenant A. Lawson. 2. Senior G. Hallinan leads Jr. high sailors in the "Conga". 3. L. Hildebrand and K. Mallory as they take on their new job advertising for night time entertainment. 4. C. Sage reminiscing of the "good old days". 5. Two outstanding judges, P. Bickel and N. Frettinger, looking for a unique work of art. 6. K. Bonine refuses to let her daughter, L.

Snyder, have her way. 7. A safari hunt can be dangerous with V. Gerr, R. Clifton, and P. Bickel. 8. R. Clifton peddling his products on the street corner. 9. C. Sage sings of her love, but to which of her boyfriends, J. Hansen or S. Frettinger? 10. D. Nix and C. Hildebrand enjoying a chief's delight. 11. R. Robertson, B. Vantwood, C. Hildebrand, and D. Smith really get into the "Conga". 12. T. Mattison sings of his love for his "Quiet Girl". 13. K. Mallory struggles to fight homesickness with her sister C. Sage. 14. K. Mallory, T. Mattison, J. Hansen, C. Sage, and S. Frettinger, enjoying a quiet dinner at home.

CEDAR POINT

At 4 o'clock in the morning on May 15, several sleepy-eyed seniors and sponsors could be seen huddled in groups in front of the high school. They all had one destiny in common — Cedar Point. Two huge silver buses pulled out of the school's driveway and determinedly edged their way up to the peninsula of Michigan. During the bus ride, seniors entertained themselves by playing cards, listening to music, eating, sleeping, and gossiping. A quick stop was made at McDonalds in Fort Wayne to pick up everyone's favorite breakfast.

As the dreary hours of riding past, excitement rose as seniors spotted road signs bearing the familiar words — Cedar Point. After 6 hours of riding, the group from Culver found themselves entering the ever famous amusement park. Instructions were given as to where and what time to meet for departing home, and then the senior class from CCHS was turned loose for the entire day of riding rides. Some brave seniors headed for the roller coasters while others rode what rides they saw first.

The day was enjoyable, except for the fact that the weather became very cool. Many sweatshirts and jackets were bought to keep warm and as a souvenir. As 9 o'clock rolled around, the Culver group slowly returned to the buses after a long day. Heads were counted and the buses roared home.

Many stories were exchanged and exaggerated about how many times a certain ride was ridden or who chickened out on a ride. Slowly the stories died as the exhausting hours of the day caught up with the seniors as they embedded this day in their minds.

1. The excitement mounted as the seniors and sponsors waited to enter the park. 2. A view of the park from the top of the big ferris wheel. The park sits on a peninsula, which is bordered by Lake Erie. 3. L. Wynn, E. Kibort, J. Ruby, B. Baker and S. Keller wait in line to get wet on the mill ride. 4. R. Harris, J. Hansen, and S. Cultice on their way to ride the rapids.

THE TIMES OF YOUR LIFE

The senior class would like to thank the junior class for a very unique, but nice prom. This year's prom theme was "The Times Of Your Life". The dinner was held at the country club in Plymouth. Guests were greeted at the door by senior class president Ed Rickman and his date Susan Currens; junior class president Lori Bondy and her escort Mike Elliott; Mr. and Mrs. Fujimura; and Mr. and Mrs. Schwartz. The dinner started out with a salad. This was followed by fillet mignon, a baked potato, and a beverage. Then ice cream was served for dessert. The meal was enjoyed by all.

The dance took place at the high school gymnasium, which was decorated beautifully. Besides the portraits taken by the photographer, pictures could be taken on a bridge and in a gazebo. To the surprise of all, the band did not show up. But thanks to Mr. Konzelman and his stereo, U-93 was the stand-in. The dance went smoothly, with an intermission for the garter ceremony. When it became time for the King and Queen to be crowned, the names of the King and Queen were announced over the radio. They were Mark Wynn and Lisa Kosuhik. They danced to the theme song "Time". Balloons were dropped from the ceiling following the King and Queen's dance.

The after-prom was held at the Camelot Bowling Alley in Culver. Bowling was a big feature. Prizes were given to the three bowlers with the highest score, and to the three bowlers with the lowest scores. Each participant of the after-prom received tickets to be cashed in, to be used for the video games. The two-man band, Duo, played in the restaurant, where refreshments were served. Door prizes were given and doughnuts, milk, and juice were served for breakfast. All of the excitement had ended by 4:30, and a lot of tired people went home. Many people enjoyed activities together the following day.

1. Ed, Justin and guest; 2. Fisher; 3. Wiggin pose for a picture; 4. L. Kosuhik being crowned; 5. P. Birkle trying his luck at a video game; 6. H. Wilder and G. Hunkler comically in love; 7. M. Elliot, L. Bondy, and E. Rickman guest people at the Country Club; 8. A. Link and D. Smith rock to the music of U-93; 9. B. Master demonstrating an easy win at Pin-Mat; 10. G. Hallman and B. Ventenat - the perfect couple; 11. V. Carnegie poses for the camera at the after-prom.

Graduation is a time of memories of the past and hopes for the future. For the class of 1982, like other graduating classes, this day was very special. It was a day that the graduating class would be recognized and honored for their academic achievements from the 1st grade to the 12th grade. It was a day for mixed emotions, for excitement, for glory.

The last week of school flew past. Addresses were exchanged, parties were arranged and final goodbys were said. It seemed there was barely enough time to study for exams and to get all the homework completed.

Commencement came and so did the nerves and excitement. Seniors gathered in the cafeteria an hour before the ceremony began. The "good ole times" were remembered and future plans were compared. Twenty minutes before three, there was a mass of confusion as caps and gowns were put on and checked by fellow classmates.

The procession began and the seniors filed into the gym to the notes of "Pomp and Circumstance". They walked in and sat down in a checkerboard of navy blue and white. Proud parents, relatives and friends watched as the students received their awards and diplomas. A special touch was added when the seniors, joined by the audience, gave Kathy Holbrook a standing ovation. After all the diplomas were received, the seniors filed out of the gym with high hopes and new expectations for their future.

1. The senior class of 1982. 2. J. Young, L. Wynn and A. Zeltner listen intently to the guest speaker. 3. E. Beckman congratulates R. Harlow on receiving her diploma. 4. C. Sissy walks proudly back to her seat. 5. M. Jamieson and L. Hildebrand enter the crowded gym for the ceremony. 6. S. Smith and T. Postuma congratulate each other. 7. C. Berenson gets ready to receive her diploma. 8. L. Solzer Meix and J. Morgan admire their accomplishments. 9. Mr. Mills hands D. Jaska her diploma. 10. P. Robbins, S. Calice, J. Ahlman, D. Nae, D. Smith, R. Bachman and L. Repp celebrate their freedom. 11. Senior class members L. Kautsky, R. Harris, A. Lawrence, P. Hessel, L. Ransdell, W. Nelds and C. Sage, have first row seats.

Who'll sign a pledge to give you the BEST bank service?

A bank, in itself, is nothing more than a bunch of money, stacks of paper, and brick and mortar. It's the people who work in our bank that have made our reputation for personal service. At The Willing Bank, we set out to make this reputation by hiring only people who are willing to give a little extra of themselves to personally serve customers.

Whatever your financial needs,
you'll find an attitude of friendliness and willingness that will spoil you for any other bank... as the bank that says, "We Will!"

A tradition of progressive banking

Progressive,
yet traditional.
Although that sounds like a contradiction, it's a description that fits us perfectly. Because we're really both. Traditional when it comes to such old-fashioned values as integrity and good business sense. Progressive in the way we continually find new and better services to meet your banking needs.
In a way, our customers have the best of both worlds. And since 1901, we've been working to keep it that way. With the last word in progressive banking. That's our finest tradition.

GOOD LUCK TO THE CLASS OF '82'

From: Bonnie M., Kirsten R., Christina H., Joanne R., Nancy F., Donna S., Georgie J.

Eddie,
We are proud of you and the class of '82.
Mom, Dad & the Girls

Tom & Cindy,
It's hard to believe you've graduated. It only seems like yesterday when we took this picture. We hope both of you will remember us always.
Love,
Dad, Mom, and Lisa

CLASS OF '82:
WE WISH ALL OUR FELLOW GRADS THE BEST OF LUCK IN THE FUTURE AND HOPE TO KEEP IN TOUCH. REMEMBER ALL THE FUN TIMES WE'VE SHARED DURING OUR LAST FOUR YEARS HERE AT CCHS.

SEE YA AROUND.

Lisa & Benjie

LISA: You've come a long way, baby, but you still have a ways to go. Love, MOM and DAD

TO: MARIA, CELINA, STEVE, EDDIE, JENNIFER, COLLEEN, KATHY, AND ALAN.

There is nothing more beautiful than a rainbow, but it takes both rain and sunshine to make a rainbow. If life is to be rounded and many-colored like a rainbow, both joy and sorrow must come to it. Those who have never known anything but prosperity and pleasure become hard and shallow, but those whose prosperity has been mixed with adversity become kind and gracious.

Love and God Bless

STEPHANIE STUTZMAN '83'

Lisa

I wish you the best of luck in years to come. I hope you have loads of fun at college. I know you won't believe me, but I will miss you. Don't celebrate graduating too much.

Your favorite sister,
Christina

Congratulations class of '82; we've finally made it! It's hard to believe that after 13 long years school is actually over. I hope that everyone had as much fun as I did. We were very lucky to have the best teaching staff around; without them a lot of us would never have made it. May each and every one reach for their dreams. May you find love by carrying it with you and know happiness by bringing it to others. Just remember;

"You can make yourself into the kind of person who can spread love around, and nothing can be more important to the world than that. When you know that you are a faith-building, cheer-spreading, hope-generating, encouragement-offering person, you will know how wonderful you are. For the person who gives love, falls in love with life, you find that living can be an inspiring experience. It is so exciting living with a heart full of love for others!"

Look to this day
 For it is life,
 The very life of life
 For yesterday
 Is already a dream,
 and tomorrow
 Is only a vision.
 But today, well lived,
 makes every yesterday
 a dream of happiness,
 and every tomorrow
 a vision of hope.

We, Cheryl Smith, Tammy Woodward, Jimmy Alderson and Rocky Backlund, took time out from our busy schedule to let your eyes get nice and back of our great bodies. CONGRATULATIONS CLASS OF 82!!!

Tomorrow is a dream
that leads me onward
tomorrow is a path I've yet to choose, it's a chance I've yet to take,
a friend I've yet to make,
it's all the talent
I have yet to use.

Tomorrow is a dream
that leads me onward,
always just a step ahead of me . . .
it's the joy I've yet to know,
the love I've yet to show,
for it's the person
I have yet to be.

Kathy

You've been such a great friend to all of us for four super years! Thank you for the sunshine you brought to our lives each day you were with us. May your future be filled with infinite happiness and success; nobody deserves it more than you.

TEACHERS AND ADMINISTRATION

Through my years here at Culver, I've learned responsibility, leadership, and companionship. Each of my teachers over the past 4 years have helped me in achieving the goals I set for myself. Each and every one of you have touched my life differently. At this I wish to thank you for leading me down the path of high school life.

My Hats Off To You,
Susie Currens

FHA

To the 1981-82 FHA members and officers, You've each brought a drop of sunshine into my life. The last year in the club has given me the chance to grow and experience many things I thought unattainable. The single greatest thing about our club is that each of you brought something unique into the club. All the small things some of you did not go unnoticed. I appreciate all of your efforts.

REFLECT BACK

You know, graduation day really makes you think. Remember the elementary school, the playground with the old tree stump. The step into junior high was a big one for us. We made new friends and had new teachers. We waited anxiously for the roller skating party to come. We thought that we were cool in high school, our heads held high and being big shots meant something!! Remember your first date, hands all sweaty, rehearsing your lines for the 99th time before asking the cute girl in algebra class out. It was a great privilege standing in the senior hall, looking down at everyone as they passed. Now those days are gone, the good times and bad, and only your memories will bring them back. It's kind of funny after 12 years of laughter, sorrow, victories, defeats, friends, and enemies, that will all be over in time. They call my name, I walk up onto the platform, the audience claps while I receive my diploma. School's over and a new life has begun.
