Maxinkuckee Home Supply Affiliates With HWI

Culver - Maxinkuckee Home Supply has become an affiliate member of Hardware Wholesalers, Inc. A member owned buying organization of over 1900 independent merchants.

HWI's home office is located in Fort Wayne, Indiana. HWI serves retail hardware and building material dealers and has an annual sale volume of over $800 million dollars. Charles and Rodney Edgerton owners of Maxinkuckee Home Supply said their firm will now be an outlet for more than 33,000 items in the HWI Distribution Center. Edgerton said their firm will now be able to offer the local market a complete selection of building materials, hardware, brand-name tools, kitchen cabinets, carpeting and paint. Other departments include lawn and garden supplies, housewares, toys, appliances, sporting goods, plumbing and electrical items, which will be carried in stock or may be ordered from the HWI catalog.

Deliveries are made each Wednesday from the Distribution Center in Fort Wayne. Special orders can be delivered during the week in which the order is placed, if the item is ordered before Monday noon.

The company symbol, "Mr. Friendly" will appear in all advertisements. Charles and Rodney believe the Culver area should have a "friendly" place to shop where a well rounded line of items are displayed with prices which appeal to everyone.

Maxinkuckee Home Supply will open their new store in about two weeks with a Grand Opening planned for late June.

Maxinkuckee Home Supply will open a new garden center to be known as Maxinkuckee Lawn and Garden Center in their east building. It will be managed by Mr. and Mrs. Rick Spencer. The new store will feature Bolens mowers, ride mowers and garden tractors, Homelite Chain Saws, Scott's fertilizers and lawn seeds as well as garden plants, tools and other related items. Rick Spencer is trained to repair all small engines.

Maxinkuckee Home Supply, "The Friendly Ones" look forward to serving the people of the Culver area.

Culver School Board News

Culver - Culver's School Board met at the Horse Palace at Ball Lake Monday evening and voted to approve advertising for the $150,000 building fund to be appropriated for the Culver Community High School roof project. They also approved legal advertising to borrow $250,000 in anticipated tax warrants pending the June distribution of taxes.

Member Paul Davidson questioned why the $245,000 balance in the building fund was not in an account that would draw interest. The board decided that the matter should be looked into and the committee on finance formed at the last meeting should investigate the matter and report to the board. Davidson also asked that the school board attorney, Thomas Mulligan, be contacted regarding his opinion on borrowing of monies in the Cumulative Building Fund for general expenditures without prior approval of the board. He asked that these items be put on the agenda for the April 2nd meeting.

In other action of the

...approved this years driver education program, forms, fees, and authorized Supt. William F. Mills to submit application to the DPI.

...adopted form for suspension, expulsion and exclusion of students.

...adopted forms for collection of textbook rental and instructional fees.

...received approval unanimously to retain attorney Don Anderson for the case of Zentz vs the Culver Community School Corp. now pending in court.

...gave permission for Kevin Overmyer to use the Culver Junior High School Gym during the summer for independent basketball.

...also gave permission to Peggy Van Meter to use the Abbe School building for the Alumni Banquet.

...suggested that letters of congratulation be sent to the CMA Hockey team for their victory in the state Championship and to the Argos Dragons for winning the Semi-State finals.

The next meeting will be held at the CCHS auditorium

I Believe In Dragons and I Believe in Love

the whole team. I watches the first game with a friend at another friend's home. I got so carried away that the party sitting next to me has black and blue marks as a result. Watching the second game at home that evening, the same person decided to change sides and sit on my left. Guess he figured if he was going to get maimed it might as well be in an even pattern on both sides of his body.

I'm usually not the excitable type, but that second game made me even more of a "basket" case, (if you'll pardon the expression). I'll probably have to watch the games this weekend by myself. My cats even left the room with an expression of disbelief on their faces. They'd never seen this side of my nature before. My coffee table will never be the same after the beating it took.

I know all of Culver is solidly behind the Dragons. The pastor at the church I attend, mentioned on Sunday morning that we all should share in their happiness. It made me feel like the Lord was on their side.

Argos Dragons, I love you. You may not be the tallest team in the area, but you're giants in my book.

The best of luck this weekend in the State Championship finals. My prayers go with you. Even if it costs me a new coffee table and an old friend!

EPSILON NU CHAPTER HOLDS MEETING

Culver - The Epsilon Nu chapter of Tri Kappa met the evening of March 12 in the home of Mrs. Charles Robeson.

Members of the chapter will be serving the Real Service luncheon on March 21.

Bridge-a-rama playoffs will be held in May and the exact date and location will be announced at a later date.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Al Donnelly, Mrs. Ron Noel and Mrs. Lance Overmyer.

The next meeting will be April 16 in the home of Mrs. William Banfield.

SOCIAL EVENTS

THE CULVER GOLDEN AGERS by Adrianna Hellstrom

Culver - The March 14th meeting of the Culver Golden Agers at Grace Church was opened by Betty Coplen the director of Older Adult Services of Marshall County with remarks and a prayer. The Eagle Auxiliary members Millie Decker, Ruth Ann Kersey, Mary Martin, and Louise Von Ehr served the meal assisted by Adrianna Hellstrom, and Lovina Wesson. The Auxiliary members had decorated the tables with shamrocks in honor of St. Patrick's Day.

Elaine Walker brought two birthday cakes donated by members of the Welcome Wagon club. Elaine distributed birthday cards to Kathryn Lishko, Letoa Miller and James Scott for their March birthdays.

Warner Williams donated a handcrafted sculptured plaque, Bud Craft a hand turned wooden candlestick, Olga Mahler and Mary Kaminski hand made beads for door prizes. Evelyn Parker also brought a door prize. These were won by Retha Boutillier, Minnie McLane, Gladys Jensen, Frances Master and Edith Smith.

For the program Warner Williams showed two films. The first one was a fascinating film on flowers and how they develop and mature captured by a time lapsed camera. A garden may look peaceful to our eyes but plants are always in motion. Each bloom has its own pattern of movement. The various stages were viewed through the time lapsed camera as the blossoms developed. Each needs moisture, minerals, and sun. Flowers are important in the growth of a plant because they contain the seeds for the insects to pollinate, and so to continue the life of the plants.

The second was a Charlie Chaplin comedy about the hazards of working in a bakery. A continuous chuckle was heard during this.

Next weeks program will be a puppet show given by Elaine Walker.

The menu for March 28th will be grapefruit juice, fish wedge with tartar sauce, cole slaw, cheese whipped potatoes, apricots, rye bread, margarine, milk, tea, coffee.

THE ARGOS TRIBUNE
"your hometown paper"

PUBLISHER'S 'PINION

The season basketball schedule is enjoyable, the sectional is exciting, the regional is thrilling - the semi-state is "just plain heaven." Feeling this way, what is it going to be like at Market Square Arena in Indianapolis next Saturday for the Indiana State Championship?

The Argos Dragons had a terrific season - they were favored to easily win the sectional tourney. After the sectional everyone said they should get to the last game of the regional - then the mighty (big school) Elkhart team would eliminate them. When the Dragons won the regional, Mr. John Q. Public was heard to remark that Elkhart (even through it is a big school) really wasn't very tough. The real test would come in the big leagues, the semi-state at Fort Wayne. Well, the semi-state is now history and the Dragons are the victors. Big school, small school, medium sized school - the local team has now made believers out of everyone in the state of Indiana.

The entire Argos community will be converging on Indianapolis this Saturday to watch the best teams in the state - including the local Dragons.

Our cameras will be there to follow the action and cheer our team to a victory. The Argos Tribune, speaking for the entire community, say "Go get them, we are behind you 150%."

introduced to the many sports writers in the area, they all wished the Dragons the best of luck and said they would be cheering for them. Attending the press buffet were representatives from:

Radio stations - WLOI - LaPorte, WOWO - Fort Wayne, WVPE - Elkhart, WIFF - Auburn, WICA - Plymouth, WKUZ - Wabash, WLJE - Valparaiso, WCMR - Elkhart, WKAM - Goshen, WGL - Fort Wayne, WIMS - Michigan City, WMRI - Marion, WRSW - Warsaw. Television stations: Channel 26 - South Bend, Channel 33 - Fort Wayne, and Channel 15 - Fort Wayne. Plus sports writers from every major and minor newspaper in northern Indiana.

All of the sports writers agreed (some reluctantly) that the mighty Argos Dragon ball club and its talented victories would shelve the class basketball argument for many years to come. The Dragons are a great team-as good as-or better than-any team in the state.

Good Luck Dragons

Continuously Compounded Interest
Daily Compounded Interest
Daily Interest

Terms, terms, terms. Do they mean the same thing?
You can bet your last interest dollar they DON'T mean the same thing.

For example, take 5% annual rate of interest. This is the base rate we and our competition use for interest computation.
Those institutions, advertising 5% interest and nothing more, quite possibly, are paying interest at 5% on the lowest savings account figure you attained during an interest quarter (90 days).
When 5% daily interest is advertised you are earning that rate of interest each day your funds are on deposit. Now that's better than the first example.

WHAT DO YOU EARN?

Daily compounded interest is when your funds AND the interest earned each day is figured each following day. Now your funds will earn over 5% annually, 5.13% in fact.

Continuously compounded is the final step. It simply means the daily interest is compounded that much oftener. Now your funds will earn 5.20%. The very most any bank can pay.

To simplify the matter we pay 5.20% on your regular savings. No bank can pay more...few banks pay as much.

history. A game that will be talked about in every corner of the state.

Argos is going to the State Finals, the smallest school in the finals since 1966. On the 25th anniversary of the "Milan Miracle," it seems that destiny helped push Bill O'Dell's last second tip through the basket. Argos, now 28-0, is the first undefeated team to reach the finals in 4 years, while also attempting to become the sixth team to win the crown with an undefeated season. East Chicago Washington was the last to do so in 1971.

Argos, as usual, jumped off to a quick lead, leaving Marion at the starting gate. Fifty-nine percent shooting from the field in the first half, and a 10 for 10 performance from the charity stripe in the second quarter enabled the Dragons to take an eight point lead, 42-34, into the dressing room at halftime. Surprisingly, the Dragons out rebounded the much taller Giants 13-12 in the first half.

Marion didn't shoot much better in the third quarter, but did muscle down 16 caroms compared to the 4 by Argos cutting the Dragon lead to 63-59 going into the final stanza.

In the last quarter both team traded baskets, and fortunately the Dragons were in charge of the last one. The Dragons won the game at the line hitting 22 of 28 for 79 percent, compared to Marions 9 of 17 for 53 percent. Ironically for Marion, they were one of the few teams that outshot Dragons from the field. Marion fired in 37 of 61 for 60 percent, while Argos hit 31 of 52 for 59 percent.

ARGOS GOING TO STATE -- GIANT KILLER

In years to come, one thing will constantly be replayed in the minds of the 1979 Argos Dragon players and fans. In a slow-motion fantasy, they will see a basketball rolling aimlessly around a rim, making no effort to fall through. Suddenly a hand appears above many other hands tipping the ball into a downward trajectory through the basket. The horn sounded and on the scoreboard it reads Argos 84, Marion 83.

It isn't a dream. It's a replay of the final seconds of the Fort Wayne Semi-State Championship game. A game that will go down in

Argos 20-22-21-21-84
Marion 16-18-25-24-83

A MASTER MOVE STILL CAN'T BEAT ARGOS

Jim Master transferred to Harding this year from Plymouth, a fact anyone in this area would know if they follow area basketball very closely. Since he wasn't around Plymouth to face the Argos Dragons in the sectional, it was conveniently arranged that they would meet in the Fort Wayne Semi-State. Unfortunately for the Harding Hawks and Mr. Master, they joined previous Argos opponents on the sidelines, as the Dragons kept their unblemished record intact winning 66-64.

The Dragons caught the Hawks completely off guard in setting up the winning play with 7 seconds remaining in the game. Following two free throws by Master which tied the score, 64-63, Bill O'Dell grabbed the ball and fired a length-of-court inbounds pass to an awaiting Mark Malone, who had already made a break for the basket. The nearest Hawk was 15 feet back from Malone, and only a foul by Master kept Malone from making an easy layup.

Although the Dragons hadn't shot their usual over 50 percent from the field (they shot 47 percent), they were deadly from the free throw line. Following an 11 for 11 exhibition from the charity stripe in the 4th quarter Mark Malone wanted no part of ending that string. He calmly sank two free throws sealing the Dragon victory. The Dragons ended up hitting an unbelievable 18 of 19 from the charity stripe.

Argos showed what they were made of in the last quarter, as they fell behind 58-54 with 6:17 to go, the first time this season they've tailed at that stage of the game. Instead of getting rattled, the Dragons remained patient forcing the Hawks into costly fouls.

Jim Master ended an excellent season with 25 points, while Rick Baumgartner added 18 to the Hawks cause. The Dragons had four players in double figures led by Doug Jennings with 18. The O'Dell brothers, Bill and Don, added 16 and 12 respectively while Dave Calhoun scored 12.

UNITED TELEPHONE RELEASES 1979 PLANS

Plymouth - United Telephone Company has budgeted approximately $32.1 million for 1979 statewide construction projects. This figure is a 22.5% increase over the $26.2 million spent on construction jobs last year. Represented in this year's total is $16,959,000 for specific work orders and $15,141,000 for routine work orders (jobs under $25,000).

MILLER SPEAKS TO SENIOR CITIZENS

Argos - Why did everyone come to the R.E.A.L. Services with a big smile on their faces, saying "We are Number 1?" It's because we are! Our Argos Basketball team will go to the state tournament. They are our boys, so we have high hopes for them.

Sharon Mevis greeted each one and then introduced Ed Miller, a teacher in the Argos High School. Ed spent several weeks of his vacation last July at the Red Bird Mission in Kentucky. He showed slides of the Mission and the surrounding area. The scenery is beautiful - all mountains and green trees. The mobile home he called "home" while there, had a babbling brook running behind it to wake him each morning to it's music and the singing of the birds.

He told of the youth that helped out there. One young girl, Melinda Myers, is a student at the Harvest College in South Bend. Her father, who was shot to death, was a minister at the Red Bird Mission. Melinda, with God's help, returns to help at the mission.

The girl's dormitory is 6 miles away. They have two house mothers, Vicki and Lynn, and they do a fantastic job with the girls. They also have a boy's dormitory.

During the summer they pick up the children and bring them in for summer courses because they forget so easily what they have learned during the school term. A young man named Marlin has worked with these children for two years.

They have a public school, a dental clinic, a hospital, restaurant, and a supermarket all on the grounds or nearby. Here you find youth and the mature working side by side. Ed told of a 72 year old lady who drove her car from Wesley Manor in Frankfort to the Red Bird Mission all by herself and works in the library during the summer. She drives the book mobile to the folks. One stop is on a hill that seems to go straight up. When the book mobile arrives, two little girls run out with blocks to put behind the wheels of the van to keep it from rolling back down.

A new school is being planned around the Queen-dale area. It will be built with their own money. Some land was leased to a coal company and the money has been kept in a fund. There is almost enough to build the school without outside help.

There is no work around this part of the country except coal mining. The folks at Red Bird Mission do a lot of craft work and one of the things are honeysuckle baskets. The honeysuckle grows wild everywhere so it isn't hard to find. It is cut and soaked in boiling water; then a cloth is rubbed along the length of it. This removes the bark and softens the stick so it can easily be bend and woven. Then made lots of wood craft articles but are finding it hard to pass this craft along, as the younger folks are to impatient to sit long enough to learn it. These things are sold to help make a living.

Ed showed slides of beautiful butterflies and moths; also roses that grew at his door. He stated that often the sun had to burn off the fog and mist, and that the sun can't be seen until 9:30 or 10 o'clock. Ed plans to return again to work with the folks.

Sharon read a poem and said the grace. Then the folks filed into the dining room where they found the Green Township Ladies were rushing the season. The tables were decorated for the Easter season. An egg tree and a family of bunnies made by Edna Ruffing were nested there. One set of bunnies were won by Malcolm Miller to be put on the refrigerator and the other set for the table was won by Alice Good.

Next week the meal will be served by the Home and Hobby Club and will be orange juice, ham, macaroni and tomato casserole, mixed fruit cup, cookie, wheat germ bread, margarine, coffee, tea, and milk.

Ray Clark from Plymouth will be the speaker. Please call in your reservations to 892-6436. Thirty-four meals were served on Monday.

Feece - Winenger To Attend Boy's State

Argos - Curt Feece and John Winenger have selected as delegates to Hoosier Boys State, an American Legion activity of high educational value for training youth in practical citizenship. Don O'Dell and Randy Umbaugh were named as alternates.

Objective learning processes are employed on the thesis that good citizenship is partly a matter of knowledge and intellect. Hoosier Boys State is a School of Government and practical politics. It has been designed to give actual experience to the boys who attend.

The first Hoosier Boys State in Indiana was organized in 1937 and it has operated each year since, with the exception of 1945 when war regulations made it seem inadvisable to operate. About 37,000 young men have enjoyed and profited by their experiences.

The 42nd annual Boys State will be held Saturday, June 9 at the campus and building of Indiana State University in Terre Haute.

AUTOGRAPH PARTY FOR LOCAL AUTHOR

Rochester - An autograph party for Thomas Aylesworth, author of 31 books and a Rochester High School graduate, will be held March 23 at 7:30 p.m. in the Rochester High School cafeteria. The event will be co-hosted by Fulton County Historical Society and Tri Kappa Beta Mu Chapter. Aylesworth will give a speech on writing. Two of his most popular books, "If You Don't Invade My Intimate Zone" and "Monsters From the Movies," will be available for purchase both at the party and at the Rochester News Agency. The public is invited. Refreshments and souvenir bookmarks will be given free to all who come.

An experienced and entertaining speaker, Aylesworth was the featured speaker at the University of Southern Mississippi's 12th annual Children's Book Festival earlier this month. Aylesworth is a former science professor and presently a senior editor with Doubleday. He has written 27 books especially for young readers including topics on science, astrology and the occult. The two new books to come out this year are "Geological Disasters: Earthquakes and Volcanoes" and "Be Your Own Vampire." He is currently writing "The Story of Witchcraft," which he hopes to get out for Halloween next year.

AG Day Observed By Walnut-Green Farmers

Argos - In recognition of Ag Day on March 19, the Green - Walnut Young Farmer Chapter showed a film and distributed farm coloring books to Argos Community School first graders.

Monday, March 19 was set aside to honor one of America's most important industries, agriculture. Agriculture in the United States provides food and clothing for the nation - indeed the world - creates jobs and is a vital strength in the American economy.

On this day the community says a proud "Thank You" to the many farmers and related workers in the Argos area.

Rita Middaugh distributes coloring books to first grade.

MARIZETTA KENNY IN SEMINAR

Culver - Marizetta Kenny, Culver Clerk-Treasurer, was one of the 35 elected officials of Indiana counties, cities and towns who participated Thursday in a six hour seminar on "Understanding Federal Grant Programs" held at the Holiday Inn in Plymouth.

Designed to help officials seek and obtain federal assistance for local governments, the Plymouth seminar dealt with three principal types of federal grants (categorical, block and jointly funded), how to use the Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance, and an understanding of the inter-governmental grant administrative process and federal agency forms, among other related subjects.

Participants included mayors, treasurers, clerks, clerk-treasurers, auditors, The instructor for the seminar was Dr. J. Douglas Nelson, Director, Center for Public Service, Anderson College. He was assisted by a representative of the Michiana Area Council of Governments.

The Academy offers many such continuing education programs for elected state and local public officials. It is financially supported by Lilly Endowment, Inc., and is affiliated with the Georgetown University Graduate School, Washington, D. C.

Reeves further stated, "many of our free standing stores are located in smaller communities without this convenient food source. Because of changing life styles, the need definitely exists and we're excited to become involved. We insist on keeping the stores separate from our drug store operations," he continued, "as mixing the two would be counter to the professional standards we require in the drug store business."

The new Fortville Quick-Way store will be managed by James E. Kimmell Jr., who started his career with Hooks while a student at Ball State University in 1972. He has also served as merchandise manager of several Hooks Drug Stores.

Hook's now operates 238 drug stores in 121 Indiana communities and recently opened its first out-of-state drug store in Fairfield, Illinois. Hook's operates three other drug stores in Hancock County.

Argos - Membership plaques of the Hoosier State Press Association were received this week by the Culver CITIZEN and Argos TRIBUNE. The Hoosier State Press Association is an organization of weekly and daily newspapers in the State of Indiana. Almost all major newspaper are members.

Membership entitles the newspapers to legal counseling and advice as well as promoting the newspaper industry in the state legislature. Highlights of membership include the annual newsroom seminars held in the Fall of each year. Awards are presented to Indiana newspapers for outstanding achievements during the luncheon of these sessions.

The local newspapers will now receive copies of the INDIANA PUBLISHER which is the newspaper's newspaper in Indiana. It is pleased to have the Argos and Culver newspapers as members of this worthwhile state association.

PROGRESS CLUB DISCUSSES TOWN GOVERNMENT

Argos - Twenty members of the Argos Progress Club and their guest, Mrs. Clara Nichols, heard a member of the Town Board, David Scheetz, discuss problems and achievements of the town's government when they met for their regular session Tuesday evening, March 13, in the State Exchange Bank Friendship Room.

He mentioned different items of progress already made and for the near future, lamented the rate increase in electric bills caused by the same raise to the town from NISPCO and pointed out the town has appealed the high rate of increase. Expansion includes the annexation of a factory area and pointed out that such growth also creates problems and an output of capitol.

Improvements in the offing are the use of the HUD grant recently allowed to cover demolition, housing, streets, drainage, sewage and electric improvements in the northeast part of town. Any future grants hinge on the success of this completion.

He stated that the initiation of a town court has proven to be an asset to the general fund. Manpower grants are available for park and recreation use. He mentioned rising prices as a factor in the contract awarded for garbage collection. He told of town election changes that have been made.

Mrs. Ardith Davis, president, was in charge of the meeting. Mrs. Charles Myers conducted the devotional period, using Helen Steiner Rice's "Why Should He Die For Such As I?", William Wordworth's "March" and an unknown author's "Drop a Pebble in the Water" and closing with prayer.

Mrs. Guy Thayer, music chairman, introduced Steven Pletcher who played for a piano solo Chopin's "Minute Waltz."

Mrs. Ward Redinger gave the call to the County Convention to be held at Culver on March 22 and reminded members of the District Art Contest to be held at the Argos Methodist Church. The hostess committee, Mrs. Holice grossman, Miss Florence DeMont, Mrs. Byron Gilchrist and Mrs. Redinger served refreshments in St. Patrick's motif. The April meeting will be April 10 in the Friendship Room with Mrs. Kenneth Powell, Mrs. George Wolf, and Mrs. Max Deamer. The program is in charge of Miss Irene Mahoney.

HOMEMAKERS LEARN ABOUT WARDROBES

These were points made by Louise Voreis when she presented the lesson on Wardrobe Planning at the Green Township Homemakers Club meeting on Tuesday afternoon. She also stated the current skirt length is anywhere below the knee.

Cindy Sargeant hosted the club in the home of Doris Miller for fourteen members. Lori Sargeant was a guest. The president, Darle Smith, presided. Evelyn Hughes used the Easter theme for her devotions and Mary Hope Winenger led group singing. Announcement was made. A series of Know Your Rights meetings to be held at the Marshall Savings and Loan Community Room at 7:30 p.m. on March 28, Public Benefit of Township Poor Relief; April 11, Utility Regulations; April 25, Consumer Credit, Consumer Protection.

Brethren with April 12 being deadline for entries. SUFFICIENT FUNDING OF 1978 SCHOOL DISTRIBUTION FORMULA
 Indianapolis - "The State Budget Agency's recommendations to fund inadequately the 1978 school distribution formula will cost Marshall and Starke County school corporations in excess of $1,797,000 in the biennium," Rep. Cook estimated recently.
 Rep. Cook pointed out that a public school distribution formula was enacted in 1978, but that the formula was ignored by the State Budget Agency. He also said that the State Budget Agency's recommendations is $114 million less than is needed to fund adequately the formula.
 "To make up for the shortfall caused by the Budget Agency's failure to recommend state support, school corporations will have to choose between cutting back on basic educational services or increasing their reliance on the local property tax," Rep. Cook said. "Since there are adequate monies in the state's general surplus to fund sufficiently the distribution formula, I favor appropriating additional funds from that source to prevent public schools from relying too heavily on the local property tax or from cutting back educational services."
