School, Holidays, Barking Dogs and Ships That Pass Out of Sight

School beginning and the Labor Day weekend approaching makes for a busy time in the newspaper editor, writer, delivery person, photographer's life. Especially when you have to squeeze in a family reunion in Michigan amongst the doings.

Then someone stopped me at a local restaurant Sunday and asked me to write an article about barking dogs. It seems she's bothered by a large dog which is tied and yapping constantly. She's tried going to town hall, she said, but to no avail. I told her to write a letter to the editor, but I guess she figured that wouldn't do much good if the dog couldn't read.

Since I don't have time for such an article now and wouldn't know what to say other than, they do bark, I would suggest she bark back and maybe he'll shut up and listen. or, perhaps, even bit the dog. Then we'd have a "Woman bites dog" story.

With children in school all day, most mothers will find themselves with more time and a schedule with less interruptions. Kids can hassle their teachers instead of their parents for the next eight months or so.

Following the last big blast of the summer -- Labor Day -- we can all settle down to a more routine, humdrum existence.

Hopefully, I'll travel to Saginaw, Mich. on the 1st, home on the 2nd, then get stores and photos in Monterey and Culver on the 3rd, get the paper out on the 4th and collapse on the 5th. By that time I might collapse "with a 5th. Top all you teetotalers out there - I'm, just joking.

It's great to be busy.

though. Beats standing in the unemployment line.

Besides, if humans have a lot of time to think, they become too introspective. Anyone who reads my column knows that I don't have too much time to think. Wait, that didn't sound just right.

Oh well, lets hear it for the great American legal holiday Labor Day. (I wonder what an illegal holiday is).

P. S. Just as I finished the above column Sunday, the phone rang and Joe McCarthy notified me that he'd heard on his scanner that the Yarnell had sunk at the Academy pier. Trying to be an investigative-type reporter, I drove quickly to the academy with camera in hand. After wandering around and walking 40 miles or so, scanning the horizon, I finally discovered the miniature destroyer under water and snapped two photos.

I would have liked to get close ups, but I have this thing about getting my feet wet. Besides, I was sure the publisher would take a dim view of me using the Citizen camera while standing in ten feet of water.

Be sure to tune in next week for another episode in the life of Brenda Starr, Lois Lane or whomever.

PUBLISHER'S 'PINION

Norm Kelly of Hatton Motors in Culver (the local Chrysler - Plymouth dealer) stopped this reporter last week for a short chat about the problems facing Chrysler Corporation and the negative reporting the auto maker has received from television and newspapers.

Norm attended a dealer's seminar and received a ten page report that sums up Chrysler's problems and the causes.

Rather than trying to reprint the entire ten page report, we will attempt to give you a summary of the major points.

The Federal regulations imposed on the auto makers are not possible for a company the size of Chrysler (Chrysler is a great deal smaller than the number one and two sized auto makers) -larger companies have more money to spend on product development and new technology.

regulations are sharply reducing competition in the auto industry. The cost of regulations has magnified the importance of economies of scale, leaving the larger companies in a far better position to compete.

To try to obtain the money necessary to meet these high cost regulations, Chrysler has:

- sold off its overseas investments to focus on North American Market.
- reduced operations costs by over 500 million dollars to make efficiency.
- restructured management team and the hiring of industry's most talented personnel.
- asked the UAW for a two year freeze on wages and benefits.
- eliminated the dividend on common stock.
- ask suppliers to defer all price increases.

Chrysler implemented these plans to try to meet the cost of government regulation, but become caught in the recent depressed market for its big cars due to the high cost of gasoline, this has almost made the problem unbearable for the number three auto maker.

Thus, Chrysler Corporation is now seeking government assistance to ease a bad situation that has now become worse.

If the government does not offer assistance the consequences could mean the loss of over 360,000 jobs. This job loss would cause an 11 billion dollar tax loss plus $2 billion in additional welfare payments.

The assistance from the government would never have been asked had it not been for the imposed regulations.

The future of Chrysler depends on its ability to retain its share of the market place. The new cars they plan to introduce in the next few years should insure its future and a sound economic condition.

RETURNS HOME
Culver - Timothy Banks of Culver was dismissed from the Parkview Hospital.

FCCHS PLANS 4TH TRAIL OF COURAGE RENDEZVOUS

Rochester - The Fulton County Historical Society made plans for its fourth annual Trail of Courage Rendezvous to be held September 15 and 16 at its meeting at the home of Vincent and Wilma Berwanger, Bruce Lake.

It was decided to have a pre-sale of tickets for the Rendezvous at a reduced price of $1.75 for adults and 75 cents for children.

Newly enforced food regulations in Fulton County prohibit the use of home baked cornbread so FCCHS is asking all members to contribute hamburger buns for the buffalo burgers and roast pork. Andy Leagbo of R. 5 Rochester will roast two pigs for the Rendezvous.

Harold Reese and SPEDY workers repaired the booths and built log benches for the Indiana dance arena. Wood for the benches was donated by Omer Holloway of Talma and Ralph Bryant, Firewood and donated by Miller's Sawmill of Perrysburg and hauled by Clyde Neff and SPEDY boys.

A wooden barrel is needed to have water for the food workers to wash their hands. Anyone with a wooden barrel that will hold water is asked to contact FCCHS.

ARGOS R.E.A.L. SERVICES

by Barbara Hann

Forty-two senior citizens gathered at the Argos United Methodist Church on Monday, August 27 for a visit and a meal with their R.E.A.L. Service friends. Sharon Mevis arrived with a ball of twine and everyone tried to guess what she was going to do with it or ask us to do with it. The chairs were all in a circle so some thought it was musical chairs. But it was a game called "Ring on a String". Each one placed both hands on the string on which were placed two rings and as the rings were moved from one person's hand to the next, a person in the middle of the circle was to find the ring. The last one to have the ring received a gift which was given to Lucy Good and Alice Good.

It seems everyone enjoyed their trip to Peddler's Village and ate their fill. Another trip is being planned by Betty Copeland to Arkansas on September 17 & 18. The cost is $203. Call Betty for further information.

Mary Hynnman shared with us that she had visited with relatives and an uncle from France who is 85 years old and still travels alone. Betty Copeland visited with us and told that the Plymouth site must go on 5 days a week with R.E.A.L.

meals soon and we were asked to write letter to try to keep on the one day basis, letters can be written to Commissioner Robert Benedict, Administration on Aging, Office of Human Development Services, Washington, D.C. 20201.

Sharon read from the Guide Post the story of sharing a meal and of belief in God supplying our needs and offered prayer before the meal.

Mr. and Mrs. Claron Hinson, and Mrs. Albert Huls from the Union Church of the Brethren, assisted by Ruth Gordon, served the meal and furnished platters of lovely vegetables for prizes. These were won by Lona Shafer, Florence Rains, Nellie Lefert, Barbara Hann, Grover Shafer, Edna Shafer and Pearl Woodcock.

There will be no meal next week so celebrate Labor Day, attend the parade, and eat blueberry pie at the Argos United Methodist booth to show we appreciate the use of the church meeting rooms for our weekly meetings.

September 10th meal will be vegetable cocktail juice, pepper steak with gravy, whipped potatoes, broccoli with margarine, nectarine, whole wheat bread, milk, coffee and tea.

CAVALIERS LOSE OPENER TO NEW PRAIRIE

Last Friday night the Cavalier football team lost their home opener to New Prairie, 25-0.

New Prairie scored in the first quarter on a 22 yard pass to Ray Turk. New Prairie came back to Turk in the second quarter on a 32 yard scoring pass making the score 14 to 0.

Both scoring passes came as a result of a mix-up in the Cavalier defense. New Prairie added two more scores in the game to make the final score 25-0.

The two bright spots for Culver were the passing of junior quarterback Dave Aiclet and the pass receiving of senior Jason Young. David passed 19 times completing 10 for 128 yards. Jason caught 6 receptions for 68 yards.

Although the Cavs were beaten by 25 points there were some bright spots since New Prairie is a double A enrollment of more than that of Culver. New Prairie has 22 returning lettermen. Eight of whom were on offense. Their defense in the last 6 games of last year didn't allow any points scored on them. They are also the defending Northern States Conference Champs. Their premiere running back Mitch Kane who averages nearly 180 yards rushing per game was held to just 80 yards.

According to coach Heath "we played very poorly in our running offensive game, we were out manned in the line by the size of New Prairie's defensive line. We passed well tonight but we stopped several scoring drives of ours with stupid penalties and blown blocking attacks. We have a lot of work to do and the team's attitude is excellent and we will have a very good week of practice I'll promise you that, we got to prepare for next Friday's game with Fairfield on their field, they are coming off of a big win over Jimtown, 30-0, we have our work cut out for us, but our kids aren't quitters, and we are going up there to win, not to just play better."

PERMITS REQUIRED PRIOR TO MAKING ALTERATIONS OF LAKESHORE PROPERTY

Indianapolis - Lakeshore property owners are required by Indiana statute to receive permits from the Indiana Department of Natural Resources prior to making alterations of the shoreline or lake bed, according to Victor Wenning of the Department's water division. Application forms may be obtained from the Division of Water in Indianapolis, or from local Conservation Officers. There is no charge for the permit.

In reviewing the code (IC 13-2-11 and 13-2-14), Wenning explains that such construction or alteration would include the installation of sea walls, placing sand or gravel on a beach, the cutting of channels (including boat slips) into the shoreline, the construction of permanent piers of steel or concrete, or the installation of any device that might interfere with boat operation.

It is also unlawful to treat aquatic vegetation with chemicals without a permit unless the area to be treated does not exceed one-half (1/2) acre or fifty percent of the existing area of aquatic vegetation, whichever is the lesser.

Persons having questions as to when a permit is required, should contact the Division of Water, 317/633-5267, Indiana Department of Natural Resources.

"Views In The News"

Culver - Mrs. Irene Peck is shown with Beefmaster tomatoes grown at her home on the Tippecanoe River near Monterey. She stated that they were fertilized with coffee grounds and dishwater. The plants, some over seven feet tall, bore these huge tomatoes. The largest weighed one and three quarter pounds. Mrs. Peck sent five tomatoes (a total of 7 and 3/4 pounds) to the Ben Franklin store in Winamac where she purchased the plants.

ARGOS BOARD AMENDS JUDGE QUALIFICATIONS

Argos - Town Board members Lewallen, Scheetz, and Faulkner were present for the regular session Town Board meeting held August 21 at 7:30 p.m. Clerk-Treasurer Zentz, Attorney Gifford and Water Supt. Wilmer Harley were also present. The August 21 regular session Town Board meeting was held in the Police Station/Town Court building at 152 S. Michigan Street in Argos.

Trustee Lewallen moved that the minutes of the regular session meeting on August 7 be approved without being read by the Clerk-Treasurer, stating they had been reviewed and found to be in order. Trustee Faulkner seconded the motion and it passed by a 3-0 vote.

The Board tabled any action on the proposed Economic Development Bond issue for financing of the L&M Manufacturing Co. construction program at Bourbon until the Board's special August 27 budget adoption meeting.

The Board of Trustees of the Town of Argos now deem that it has become necessary to introduce an ordinance amending ordinances #258 and #282 as pertains to qualifications for the office of Town Court Judge. Trustee Scheetz then introduced proposed ordinance #291. The proposed ordinance #291 is entitled: An Ordinance Amending Ordinances #258 and #282 as Pertains to Qualifications for the Office of Town Court Judge. Trustee Scheetz then moved that Town Attorney Gifford be instructed to read said ordinance for the first time in full. The motion was seconded by Trustee Lewallen and passed in a 3-0 vote.

Said ordinance #291 having been read in full and provisions of the same having been discussed by the Board, Trustee Lewallen moved that the first reading of said ordinance #291 be adopted. Trustee Scheetz seconded the motion and was passed by a 3-0 vote.

Trustee Lewallen moved that all the rules of the Board which unless suspended might prevent the final passage of the adoption of said ordinance be suspended, and that Ordinance #291 be read a second time by title and a third time in full and placed upon its final passage. The motion was seconded by Trustee Scheetz and on call of the roll the following vote was recorded: Ayes - Faulkner, Scheetz and Lewallen. Nays - None.

Said ordinance was then read a second time by title and a third time in full and said ordinance having been read in full for the third time and provisions of the same having been discussed by the Board, Trustee Faulkner moved that Ordinance #291 be adopted by the Board, which motion was seconded by Trustee Lewallen. On a call of the roll, Ordinance #291 was passed and adopted by the following vote: Ayes - Scheetz, Faulkner and Lewallen. Nays - None.

There being present at the Board meeting at least 2/3 of all member-elected to the Board of Trustees and said Ordinance #291 having the affirmation of all members present, President Lewallen declared said ordinance #291 duly passed and adopted. Thereupon said Ordinance #291 was signed by the Board and attested by the Clerk-Treasurer, Roger Zentz.

LETTER TO EDITOR

You will excuse, I hope, my temerity in writing to you without proper introduction. However, realizing the assiduous and regimental schedule of your newspaper and staff, I can only hope for a fragmented portion of your time, and if granted such, then minutes is the criteria for hearing my story.

To begin, my name is Ron Kelly. I'm incarcerated at the Southern Ohio Correctional Facility in Lucasville, Ohio. Having been incarcerated since 1974, I feel, in spite of the adversities, that I've managed to gain and maintain a positive realistic, and constructive outlook concerning the essence of reality and life.

Knowing the nature of your business forum, the subject of prisons and prisoners is obviously a familiar one. For that reason, Sir, I have brought my situation of imprisonment to your attention with the hope of gaining your assistance in helping me acquire correspondence by printing my following request for such in your paper.

My name is Ron Kelly, I'm 29 years of age, 5'11" tall, and weight 160 pounds. Having been incarcerated since 1974, I feel, in spite of the adversities, that I've managed to gain and maintain a positive realistic and constructive outlook concerning the essence of reality and life. Because of my situation, communication with the "outside world" on a large - or even normal - scale simply eludes me. For that reason, I'm seeking to establish the link of such with all sincere persons who care to write.

Ron Kelly No. 138-517; P. O. Box 45699, Lucasville, Ohio 45699.

Sir, I have no funds with which to pay for the printing of this ad. However, my offerings at this point, as little as they may seem, are those of the greatest appreciation and gratitude for such an allotment of your time and assistance.

Assuring you of my best intentions, I remain

Very truly yours,

Ron Kelly

New Gallery Opens

Culver - Mrs. Dorothy C. Barnes held an informal opening at her new gallery, "Cherry Villa Artisans," Culver, recently. Although she will remain open during the fall and winter, she's planning a grand opening in the spring.

The gallery contains a varied array of ceramics, sculpture, paintings, photographs, doll houses and furniture, collectibles, quilts and hand loomed textiles. The arts and crafts displayed are hand made items, many by local artists.

In one room framed photographs are displayed which were taken by her grandson, Robert E. Potter, III. He is in his senior year at Valparaiso University and is an Art major. Robert says he hopes to work for a large newspaper in the Chicago area following graduation. "My ultimate goal," he said, "would be to photograph for Life or National Geographic magazine."

Another grandson, Peter E. Barnes, a graduate of DeKalbe University of Illinois has many of his triptych sculptor items on display at the gallery. Local artist, Emmy Lou Martin, also has some ceramic work and jewelry displayed and will be submitting water colors this fall. Mrs. Barbara Miller Meeker of Munster, who has a cottage on Lake Maxinkuckee, recently brought her paintings to the gallery. Mrs. Meeker is Associate Professor in Architectural Technology at Purdue University, Calumet campus.

There are scarves, afghans and shawls by Churchill Weavers and elaborate doll houses which may be purchased in kit form or assembled. The kits are available beginning at $91. All kids of doll house furniture is also available for purchase.

Prices are very competitive, but whether you want to make a purchase or just browse, Mrs. Barnes invites you to stop by. She also has antiques and plans later to hold gatherings where local artists will be invited as guest speakers.

The Cherry Villa Artisans is located at the end of Mill Street on Lake Maxinkuckee. The hours are noon to 6 p.m. Thursday through Sunday and other hours by appointment.

Culver - Robert E. Potter III is shown at the Cherry Villa Artisans gallery in Culver with two of his many photographic works of art. The gallery is owned by his grandmother, Mrs. Dorothy C. Barnes.

Culver - This tongue in groove Victorian Gingerbread Doll House by Real Good Toys is on display at the Cherry Villa Artisans gallery at Mill Street and the Lake. It is one of many available for purchase in kit form or assembled.

INTERNATIONAL FRIENDSHIP GARDENS

A fantastic dream of world friendliness, once the vision of three brothers, has been revered throughout the world, and is now respectfully known as the International Friendship Gardens, a philanthropic enterprise located one and one half miles East of Michigan City, Indiana off U.S. Highway 12. It is located in the beautiful valley of Trial Creek, safely nestled within the wooded hillside of stately elms, oaks, and sentinel pines. This is truly a gem of nature along with the many exotic Gardens which represents the arts and treasures of the nations of the world.

Three brothers, Clarence, Joseph and Virgil Stauffer, dreamers and doers, were the first to realize their goal of a permanent exhibition. From the start of International Friendship Gardens in 1934 to the present 65 nations have joined the charter membership. Generous gifts, along with the dream and the toil of the three brothers have seen the Gardens grow and flourish to this day.

From early spring one may walk the paths that dignitaries of many nations have walked. Here, in the quiet of the secluded spot one may room for hours, entranced at every turn by a new and delightful vista. Typical plantings from the many nations lie side by side or separated by vast beds of roses or hedges of Arbor Vitae. The Gardens are a veritable study in traditional and modern horticulture and floriculture. It is a mecca for garden clubs and lovers of nature from everywhere. They also form a huge bird sanctuary attracting song birds of infinite variety.

One of the outstanding features of the Gardens is the provision made for cultural entertainment. The unique Theater of Nations, the stage of which is built on an island in a small lake creating a reflecting pool for the audience seated on the adjoining hillside which forms a natural amphitheater. Here, each year, the finest operatic, choral, and orchestral productions are being offered during the heart of the summer season under the auspices of the International Friendship Gardens Musical Festival Inc.

The most outstanding aspect of the Gardens in recent years has been the development of the wedding haven. Here amid acres of serenity and peace wedding are held with increasing frequency. The entire wedding area is covered with a translucent canopy, formed in a huge arch, to shelter the altar. This is the beauty and handiwork of God and man working together.

Guests of International Friendship Gardens may have the honor of meeting and talking with 93 year old Clarence L. Stauffer, one of the original founders of the Gardens. Clarence still moves like a man half his age and quite often escorts tourists and visitors about the Gardens and shares with them the fulfillment of his envisioned dream.

International Friendship Gardens are known the world over. Many visitors return year after year to bask in the breath taking beauty of this "Garden of Eden". People of every race and religion are always welcome at International Friendship Gardens.

AMISH ACRES
by Doris Camden

Today's problems and pressures will be shed as you enter Amish Acres on U.S. 6, one mile west of the Amish community of Nappanee, Indiana. Amish Acres is nineteen buildings, a growing vegetable and herb garden, and farming - a living look into long ago.

Farmers and homemaking methods of over a hundred years ago are relived with candle making and dipping, quilting, fruit and vegetable drying, oen at work, and baking in an outdoor oven. In season, fresh cider, apple butter and maple syrup appear. Much of this remains the way many Amish work and live today.

The 80-acre farm of Amish Acres was surveyed in 1830. Widow Barbara Stahly from Germany and her four sons were the first Amish settlers near what has become Nappanee. One son, Christian, built a 12' x 15' one-room house on the property in 1874. It still stands. A 40' x 100' Sweitzer bank barn was built in 1876. Nine rooms added to the home make it typically Amish style, square and white, with a porch across the entire front. The home contains authentic Amish furniture, some of it the original. Today all of this is preserved and restored as Amish Acres where visitors can enjoy the sights, sounds and simple foods of the past.

The Victorian Room in a barn has tall windows framed with vines and blooming flowers. Sunshine streaming in falls on sparkling red, blue, green and amber glasses on the tables covered with white cloth. The tables are varnished, or painted rose or blue to match the chairs in the dining room, which seats 4090. Cane-bottom chairs and rockers, a haysling, braided and woven rugs, milk and cream cans, antique dishes and crockery - all add atmosphere to the formal family style menu which is reminiscent of a threshers' dinner of the past. Heaping bowls and steaming iron kettles of simple fare are passed around the table.

In addition to guided tours of the restoration and a 28 minute documentary movie, Beyond the Buggy, footpaths, horse and buggy rides, a meat and cheese store with sawdust floor, old-fashioned ice cream parlor, bakery, fudge shop, facilities for the handicapped, orchards, animals and a pond provide a day of cherished memories for those who visit Amish Acres. The gift shop offers glassware, crockery, quilts, sunbonnets, Amish dolls, fur rugs and hundreds of lovely items.

Weekday hours at Amish Acres are from 9:00 AM to 8:00 PM and on Sundays from 11:00 AM to 6:00 PM, May through October. Other times the restaurant is open from 11:00 AM to 8:00 PM on Saturdays, and on Sundays from 11:00 AM to 4:00 PM. All times are Easter Standard Time. Amish Acres is closed Thanksgiving Day Christmas and New Year's weekends, plus the winter months.

Picnic areas are available. Parking is free. Package prices of dinners and tours, children's package prices and group prices are available, and Tour groups are welcomed. Amish Acres was opened to the public in 1969 by the Pletcher family of Nappanee, and they maintain the areas as they were. A history lesson for youngsters, Amish Acres is a reminiscence for seniors. Peace and quiet will accompany you home from Amish Acres. You will be welcome.

MARENGO CAVE PARK

Although there are over two hundred privately owned caves in the United States open to the public, only Indiana's Marengo Cave offers more than one tour. With the opening of the new "Dripstone Trail" tour, Marengo Cave offers a contrast and variety of underground splendor unparalleled in any single case. The delicate beauty and huge corridors of this new tour contrast with and complement the massive flowstone and forests of spectacular formations seen on the existing "Crystal Palace" tour.

The new "Dripstone Trail", which will first be available for tours on Memorial Day weekend, will traverse a section of Marengo Cave sealed off for over half-a-century. Tours visited this area of the cave on a primitive basis prior to the turn of the century, but it was close to the public by the Supreme Court because of a property dispute. To properly develop this remote section of the cave, one of the most difficult engineering feats ever undertaken in a cave was necessary. A tunnel was blasted through solid limestone to intersect a long hidden cave passage. Now level walkways and modern indirect lighting will allow visitors to see intricate and colorful formations such as Snow White's Castle, the Great Wall of China, the Prison Bars, and unbelievable totem pole stalagmites.

The "Crystal Palace" tour has been viewed by millions of visitors since it was first opened to the public in 1883. The famous Crystal Palace has been rated by the Saturday Evening Post as one of the most fantastic cave rooms in America. Also seen on the "Crystal Palace" tour are onyx filled rooms such as Pillared Palace and the largest formation in the cave - Diamond Dome. This summer a new pageant in the Crystal Palace theater, highlighting the discovery of Maengto Cave, will climax the tour.

Qualified guides conduct tours approximately every fifteen minutes. Safe, level walkways and modern indirect lighting throughout the cave allow the tour to be enjoyed by young and old alike.

A 75 acre park immediately over the cavern includes a modern swimming pool with bath house and snack bar, picnic areas, shelter house, wooded campsites, and nature trails.

The cavern is open daily all year round and is located directly on State Highway 64, 10 minutes north of Interstate 64 via State Highway 66.

FISHIN' TIPS

from... Tom Mann

Today we're going to talk about the base of all fishermen who use a levelwind reel, a #4@X±!! backlash. You can spend hours picking out one, if you don't know how, so let's talk about how to go about it.

A backlash, in simple terms, is a muss-up in your line caused by your not stopping the spool when the lure stops pulling on the line. An overrun, really. So, adjust the braking mechanism on your reel so that the spool stops when the lure quits pulling. This helps prevent overruns.

However, when you get a #4@X±!! backlash, and all of us do, here's what to do: Nothing. Look at it carefully. Locate the line coming from your rod tip, and pull, don't jerk, on it.

Note the "V" it makes in one loop of line on the spool. Okay, get hold of that "V" and pull it free. Don't pull loose any loops of line that aren't the "V" holding the running line.

Take your time and work out these "V's" one at a time until you have unmassed your backlash. An excellent tool for this is one of those little curve-tip fingernail cleaners that come on some pocket knives. And if it's really bad #4@X±!! backlash, use the blade on your knife and cut it out.

BRER TOM'S CLOSING TIP: When going to fish in a remote spot, let someone know where to find you in case you get into trouble. This could save you a lot of discomfort, even your life.
