Gov. Bowen Becomes Oarsman Of "Aubbeenaubbee Bay"

Know all men by these presents: WHEREAS, the Great ones of the Pottawatomie tribe who once roamed the shores and fished the waters of Lake Maxinkuckee, who id at all times possess those talities so important to the reservation of this beautiful habitat, and WHEREAS, it came to us that a certain portion of id Lake Maxinkuckee me to be known as Aubbeenaubbee Bay, named after its great chief, Chief Aubbeenaubbee, and WHEREAS, certain aves from near and far have distinguished themselves and have shown great interest in the perpetuity of those honored qualities that have added to the continued respect of those hallowed waters, and WHEREAS, there has endeared himself to the citizens of the Culver Community one OTIS R. BOWEN, M.D. Distinguished by his wisdom; love of nature; and inspiration in leadership: NOW, THEREFORE, recognizing his greatness, I do hereby appoint

Oarsman of Aubbeenaubbee Bay Witness my hand and seal of the Council of Aubbeenaubbee Bay, at Culver, Indiana, this 4th day of September, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and seventy-nine. John R. Mars Chief of Aubbeenaubbee Bay Council Members: Fred E. Adams Robert L. Osborn Robert Rust

Gov. Otis R. Bowen was conferred the title of Oarsman of Aubbeenaubbee Bay and presented with a commemorative oar at Culver's Chamber of Commerce meeting. Left to right are Robert L. Osborn, Bowen, Fred E. Adams and the Chief of Aubbeenaubbee Bay, John R. Mars.

CULVER ACADEMIES' 1979-80 CONCERT SERIES

Culver - Spanning the artistic spectrum and representing distant shores both real and imaginary, the Culver Academies' 1979-80 concert series offers a well-rounded sampling of popular arts. All performances will be at 7:30 p.m. in Eppley Auditorium, just off Academy Road on the Academies' campus in Culver.

The series begins September 20 with the excitement and color of a Polynesian festival. Leilani, a dancer-choreographer and recognized authority on the cultures of the Pacific, will lead authentically costumed members of the Kanikapila troupe in the songs and dances of Hawaiians, Tahitians, Samoans and the Maori people of New Zealand.

The silent language of the hula will be exchanged for the silent language of the mime October 17 with Yass Hakoshima. Already established as an outstanding mime in Europe and Australia, Hakoshima now is spending more time in the United States.

Through performing some of his numbers in the traditional style of Marcel Marceau, Hakoshima has diversified his art to include entire stories in mime. His evening program ends with the flight and death of an eagle, a truly stirring performance.

On December 4, it will be the audience who takes an imaginary flight - in this case, to Middle Earth, home of Bilbo Baggins, as the Hutsah Puppet Theatre of Chicago brings Bilbo and his friends alive.

The Hutsah Puppet Theatre's production consists of six persons who manipulate more than 30 nearly life-sized puppets across a three-tiered, 20 foot long stage. When Bilbo and his companions finally reach the greedy dragon's cave, they find the dragon belches clouds of real smoke.

The first two 1980 programs highlight

American music. The St. Louis Jazz Quartet performs January 21. This jazz group's vocalist, Jeanne Trevor, uses her voice as an instrument instead of pursuing traditional forms of jazz singing. The group's repertoire includes jazz, blues and ballads.

The Tucson, Arizona Boys Chorus will bring a program of authentic Southwestern music to Culver February 21. The chorus has entertained audiences from coast to coast and around the world since 1939.

The highlight of the concert series may well be the return, by popular demand, of Dimitri, a one-man circus. He appeared at Eppley Auditorium two years ago and scored such a smashing success that many who had seen him then asked for his return. It will be February 4.

Famed violinist Yehudi Menuhin said of the performer, "Dimitri is a clown in the very greatest tradition, a clown who can move one from tears to laughter in a split second, and without uttering a word. He knows our deepest sorrows and our greatest elations through his own, and because he has compassion. Whether it is a five year old, or an eighty year old, he touches them all in the same way. A wonderful musician, a remarkable acrobat, a juggler, and above all an artist, a human being who makes us in the image of a child."

The concert series is open to the general public, and season tickets can be bought for $15 or $12 from Harvey Firari, the Culver Academies director of theatre (842-3311). Tickets for single events may be purchased in advance or at the box office on the night of the performance. Student and group rates are available. "I may be a bit prejudice," Firari says, "but I think the Culver concert series is one of the best bargains you'll find in this country of spiraling prices. This series has a variety of quality programs at inexpensive admission rates."

CULVER COMMUNITY HIGH SCHOOL SPORTS ADMISSION PRICES 1979-80

Culver - The Culver Community High School Sports admission prices for the school year are as follows.

Football, Adult admission, $2.00; student admission $1.00; adult season ticket, $8.00; student season ticket $4.00.

Volleyball, Adult admission $1.50; student admission 75 cents; adult season ticket, $8.00 and student season ticket $4.00.

Girls Basketball, Adult admission $1.50; student admission 75 cents; adult season ticket $8.00, student season ticket $4.00.

Boys basketball, Adult admission $2.00; student admission $1.00; adult season ticket $14.00; student season ticket $7.00.

9th Grade Boys Basketball Adult admission $1.00 student admission, 50¢.

Wrestling, Adult admission $1.50; student admission 75 cents; adult season ticket, $8.00, student season ticket $4.00.

All Sports Ticket - Adults $30.00 and student $15.00. An all sports ticket would save $37.00 for an adult and $18.00 for a student over general admission. It would save $16.00 for $8.00 for the cost of season tickets.

An all sports ticket would average about seventy cents a contest for an adult and less than 40 cents for a student.

Season tickets for basketball and the all sports ticket would be good for admission to home freshmen games.

Lifetime all sports tickets are still available for $150.00. Senior citizens who show their cards would be admitted for 50 cents, the same as last year.

Culver FFA Attends Purdue Soils Contest

by Eddie Rickman Culver - Fifteen members of the Culver FFA plan to join with over 500 members throughout the state to compete in the Eighth Annual Purdue Invitational Soil Judging Contest on Saturday, September 15.

These young agriculturalists will best their skills in identifying the physical properties of the soil at several different locations. Then they will make decisions in regard to the best management practices for those types of soils. This Purdue clinic will be a warm-up session for county and district contests which will be held next month. Purdue professors will be on the site to act as official judges and give an educational review of the soils. Also, they will see career displays on various opportunities in soil-related jobs, and hear talks by Purdue students in these field. The hosts for this event are the Purdue Agronomy Club, Collegiate FFA, and the Indiana Vocational Agriculture Teachers Association.

In the afternoon they will attend the Boilermaker Tractor Pull. Tim Overmyer, a former Culver FFA member, will be competing in this event. He will be assisted by Maurice Loehmer, a junior at Culver Community High School. Other members attending from Culver are Bart Mersch, Bill Vantwood, Lawrence Loehmer, John Franklin, Roger Sherow, Dean Poort, Tom Bailey, Tim Mattison, Doug Smith, Bill Lentz, Dve Stevens, Bill Thomas and Gary Kline.

TRAIL OF COURAGE
RENDERDOWN AT
ROCHESTER Sept. 15-16

Rochester - The Fourth annual trail of Courage Renderdown will be held Sept. 15 and 16 at Kern's pine woods on the corner of New 2, S. 21 and Tippecanoe River north of Rochester. Featuring a tipi village, musical banding, shooting matches, Indian dances, pioneer foods and crafts, and a canoe landing, the festival is a historical re-enactment of the days when the Potawatomi Indians camped along the river in the 1830's. The Renderdown is sponsored by the Fulton County Historical Society and its purpose is to commemorate the courage of the Potawatomi when they were rounded up at gunpoint and forcibly removed to Northern Indiana in 1838. So many died on the trek west to Kansas that the removal march became known as the Trail of Death.

The Menominee Muzzle Loaders of Marshall County are in charge of the tipi village and shooting contests every hour the day over. Primitive costume is required by all participants. Only open sight muzzle loading guns using round ball ammunition will be allowed.

No this year will be a trapper landing by canoe as staged by the Ketchikan Lografters of Fort Wayne. This will be at 10:30 a.m. both Sat. and Sun. The trappers will be outfitted by life and drum and a Chinese print playing the part of Father Pelet, the missionary who accompanied the Potawatomi on the Trail of Death. On Sunday Prof. Lawrence Shultz of North Manchester will play the part of Chief Menominee.

Another new attraction will be the story teller's learn-to Indian legends and stories of the daily life of Potawatomi children will be featured. Breadwork and Indian crafts will be demonstrated by Phyllis Whitmore of Nyona Lake, a former Indian-pulit scholar.

Tipton Lodge (Order of the Arrow) will perform Indian dances at 12 and 3 p.m. both days. The renderdown will be open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Admission will be $2 for adults, $1 for students, and free for children under six. Craftsmen from all over the county and neighboring states will demonstrate blacksmithing, candies, pottery, leather, wood carving, dulcimer making, fire-saving chair casting, basketry, quilting, corn-bulk dolls.

Pioneer foods will include roast pig, buffalo burger, bean and onion in a hand-crafted milk bag ground coffee brewed over wood fire, coconut tea, popcorn, sweet corn, sourdough bread and cakes, 49¢-butter made in a big copper kettle, and French prairie made from an 1800 recipe.

For more information, write Fulton County Historical Society, 710 and Postiac, Rochester, Ind. 46775.

EVENTS

CCHS Football

by Coach Doc Heath
Culver - The Cavalier football team lost a real heartbreaker to LaVille last Friday night 21-14. The game was extremely close and aggressive. LaVille scored first when quarterback Tim Dykstra ran in from 23 yards out. The kick was good and LaVille lead 7-0. The Cavs put on a sustained drive from their own 38 yard line with Robert Lee Hyart capping that drive with a 3 yard run for a score. A pass from David Taiclet to Vern Peterson was ruled "out of bounds" so the Cavs missed the 2 point conversion and trailed 8-6. LaVille scored just before the end of the half with Dykstra going 2 yards for the score. The kick was good so LaVille lead 14-6 at the half.

The Cavs regrouped at halftime and immediately scored in the third quarter as Robert Lee Hart scored from 2 yards out. Hart

The Lancers and the Cavs then played super defense as neither team could gain an advantage. The lightning struck Tim Dykstra then hit John Murray on a 49 yard bomb taking the ball to the Cavs 18. Dykstra scored 7 plays later and Laille was ahead 21-14.

The Cavs mounted two more scoring chances but a holding call and an interception nullified each. The Cavs play Tippecanoe Valley (No. 2 in class A) this Friday night at the Cavalier field.

CMA Football

Culver - With its record evened at 1 - 1, the Culver Military Academy Eagles football team is looking forward to a tough game at 2 p.m. Saturday at the Academy.

The opponent will be Northwood High School of Nappanee, the team that shellacked Plymouth 43-18 last Friday night.

"They beat Plymouth badly," said CMA Head Football Coach Dave Nelson. "we're going to have our hands full."

That may have been the feeling of the Delphi coach last Saturday afternoon when his team met CMA. The Eagles stunned the visiting team 45 - 0 in their first victory of the season. Bouncing back from a 16-0 defeat by Plymouth eight days earlier, the CMA team rushed 369 yards and scored six touchdowns and a field goal in the rout. Senior quarterback John Hughes tallied 109 yards rushing and junior tailback Everett Richardson 100. Chris Hater, also a junior, kicked a 37 yard field goal and six points-after-touchdowns.

LOCAL ARTIST WINS FIRST PRIZE

place red ribbon for the magnolia painting on the wall.

During the summer Mrs. Martin studied water color painting under Tom Reising at Arrowmont School of Art and Crafts in Gatlinburg, Tenn. She was also an art major in college and dabbles in many different medias. Emma Lou will be presenting a one man show at the Cherry Villa Artisans Gallery here in October.

ARGOS METHODIST WOMEN HOLD MEETING

Argos - The Argos United Methodist Women met at the church at 7:30 p.m. on September 6. Bernice Masterman had opening devotions. She read an article about the sorrows of the disciples, lonesome for their Lord after the crucifixion. His appearance eased their sorrows. So it is with us.

Irene Mahoney, president, conducted the business meeting. Besides regular business and announcements, members told of their visits to the sick and shut ins. Ruth Gordan reviewed articles on India and the Philippines from Response magazine. Hope Circle will serve a salad bar luncheon at the church on September 19. Donation is $2.25.

Elizabeth Stephenson had the program on "Aloneness and Loneliness". She brought out the differences between them. Many of us need some time alone and enjoy it. Loneliness is an unhappy feeling and one can have it amid others. She gave some examples. If we go to God we are comforted. It helps to live our religion, to find some way to help other. She told about or read portions of some favorite essays which are pertinent.

The hostesses were Thelma and Gladys Gates, Irene Hissong and Bernice Masterman. They served cake, nuts, homemade candy, coffee and iced tea from a flower decorated table. Louisa Davis, Sec'y

Culver - Ron Clemons of Lakeville poses with his 1st place winning team at the Horse Pull at Culver Eagles Hog Roast on Saturday, Sept. 8.

Culver - Christi Westafer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Westafer, Culver, is shown as she rides in the rumble seat of a 1930 Model A Ford during the Blueberry Festival. Christi is the 1979 Heart Princess. The car is driven by Shelton Kaiser of Culver.

What a difference a Bilco Door makes!

Here's the way to add new beauty to your home. Replace that wooden hatchway with a modern, all steel Bilco Door. It's ruggedly built, weather-tight, and so easy for everyone in the family to use! What's more, it will make your basement more secure against intrusion. And it will pay for itself many times over by saving repair and replacement costs.

If your home was built without the convenience of a direct basement entrance, ask us for Bilco's new handbook "How to Add Valuable Living Space to Your Home."

Stop in and see our display. We'll give you free literature on how to do it. Or, we can suggest a man to install it for you.

WALNUT TOWNSHIP
HOMEMAKERS CLUB

by Barbara Hann
Argos - The Walnut Township Extension Homemakers club held their meeting September 5 at the Argos State

Exchange Bank Friendship
room.
Alberta Middaugh opened
the meeting, and Zella Mc-Cay led the group in reciting the pledges to the American and the Christian flag, and also the club creed.

Neva Grossman gave the devotions using Jeremiah 31: 3 and Galations 20, stating the saying diamonds are forever but those who receive diamonds aren't necessarily forever but God's love endureth forever.

The song "School Days" was sung as our song of the month and the birthdays of Esther Rohrer, Harriette
Winterrowd, Edna L. Shaffer, Chloa Fletcher, and Barbara Hann were celebrated by singing "Happy Birthday" to them.

Harriette Winterrowd gave the lesson on Energy Home Audit. It was mostly on insulating our homes to save energy. The attic, walls, basement ceiling or crawl space under the house. Storm windows, tight fitting doors.
Check for any cracks between the house and foundation. Several types of insulation was given - fiberglass batts, insulation made of treated shredded newspapers, foam and styrofoam were mentioned. It was even suggested that the water heater could be wrapped in insulation to help save heat loss.

Mary Ruth Snyder gave the lesson on "Energy and Clothing" concerning energy

from heat loss of the body.
Wear several thin layers of clothing instead of one heavy
one, wear a turtle neck
sweater with ribbed wrists
and bottom, a light weight quilted jacket, several thin
socks, gloves and scarves, sweat shirts zipped to the throat, with a hood to cover the neck. A snuggle bag can be used while reading or watching T.V. She also showed pictures of different warm clothes that can be worn and the thermostat turned lower.

A report was made on the picnic at Shady Rest home. A lovely time was had and we made a tour of the home and visited with our "lady". The picnic was certainly delicious. A report on the "Eat Out" was given and it will be at Grandma's Kitchen on October 3 at 6:30 with a guest speaker.

Dessert was served by Neva Grossman, Bertha Putterbaugh and Edna I. Shaffer.
