Monterey Girl Scouts Collect 40,000 Pop Tops

THANK YOU by Pat Weaver

Monterey - The Monterey Girl Scouts would like to thank the Culver Community and the Culver, Letters Ford and Kewanna areas for the help they received in collecting pop tops for the Kidney Foundation.

The goal was set at 20,000 tops and due to the overwhelming response from the people we reset a new goal of 40,000 tops. This goal has been reached, thanks to you.

Some very special help came from the Kewanna School students who contributed 6,000 tops! Marlene Mahler was responsible for the delivery of these from the Kewanna area. Thanks Marlene.

A special thanks to John and Carol Elliott who have supported us through this project and collected several thousand pop tops in the office. Thanks also to Arlene Nix for supporting us.

Carol Smith and Sara Westfall, Monterey Scouts

both collected over 3,000 tops each, other girls in the troop collected about 1,000 each. Thanks girls.

We will be delivering these tops to Winamac on Friday, Dec. 21st. Thanks to Mrs. Milo for seeing that these will be taken to the recycling plant as a Christmas present for someone who needs a dialysis machine. They are worth 1 second for each top.

This project was started because the girls had to do a good deed for the community in order to earn the right to make up a badge of their own. The badge will be named the "Helping Hands" and each girl had to collect pop tops and also they had to adopt a Senior Citizen for the school year.

Since all the girls in the troop have done both these deeds they all will receive their badge. The girls will be visiting the Nursing Home for Christmas where they will be giving the patient a greeting card and then singing Christmas Carols later.

We then will return to Monterey for homemade pizza and hot chocolate with the help of some mothers.

The girls will be caroling in Monterey later that same evening and then refreshments will be served before returning to their homes.

We hope that through our projects that somebody will have a better Christmas. Maybe the person that needs the Dialysis Machine or maybe one of the adopted senior citizens that would not have been remembered on Christmas or maybe some one from the Nursing Home that will just enjoy the company of young people.

We feel that these projects have been worth while and very rewarding for us. Won't you take time to wish someone a Merry Christmas this year as we Girl Scout from Monterey are wishing each of you a Merry Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

See you next year, 1980.

CMA Student Named To All-American Soccer Team

Culver - Luis A. Quintana, Culver Military Academy senior, has been named to the second team, Midwest section, of the U. S. Soccer Coaches' Association All-American team. CMA head Coach John Chadwick was informed of the selection last week by telephone.

Quintana was on the third team, Midwest section, All-American, last year. The powerful center forward broke his own single season scoring record by scoring 35 goals this year. He had set the previous record, 28 goals, in 1978 which in turn had broken the record he set in 1977, 24 goals. Before Quintana, the CMA record was 18 goals in one season.

CMA shared the Northern Indiana Soccer Conference title with Argos this year, and Quintana was among three CMA players named to the All-Conference team.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernardo Quintana, Mexico City, Quintana hopes to attend the Universidad Nacional Autonoma in Mexico City and major in business administration. His brother, Bernardo, is a 1969 CMA graduate.

His father, a noted engineer, encouraged him to play soccer. Quintana most admires the playing style of two South American stars, one past and one rising --

Pele, who played for Santos (Brazil) and the New York Cosmos, and Diego Maradona, the 18 year old Argentine sensation of last year's World Cup, who plays for Argentinos Juniors.

Although Quintana has seen American players improving during his three years on the CMA varsity, he thinks their skill level is not as high as Europeans' and Latin Americans'. "American players are much stronger, but they don't have the skills," he says. "They play rough, and use their bodies a lot." American soccer probably will evolve like German soccer, he thinks, with less emphasis on finesse and technique.

The U. S. Soccer Coaches' Association elects the All-American team by vote of its members. The entire All-American team will be announced at the U.S.S.C.A. national convention in January.

Kelly Lawson Receives DAR Award

Culver - Kelly Jane Lawson, senior at Culver Community High School has received the Marshall County DAR Good Citizen Award. The selection was announced at a DAR reception last Saturday at the home of Mrs. Eva Lemert of Plymouth. Kelly's scores on a qualifying test will be forwarded for state wide competition.

Kelly Lawson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Latham Lawson, Culver, has compiled a notable record of achievements at CCHS, in 4-H work at local and state levels, and in community organizations.

Kelly is president of her senior class, is past president of the junior class, is a member of the National Honor Society, is active District Vice President of Future Educators in Action, is a member of the Wesley United Methodist Church and choir, is Past Worthy Advisor of the Culver Chapter of International Order of Rainbow for Girls and is the holder of several blue ribbons in 4-H work at the county and state levels. She has earned blue ribbons at the State Fair through competition in clothing construction, fashion revue, and macrame' art.

Following her sophomore and junior years in CCHS Kelly participated in the Summer Honors Institutes at Indiana State University, studying Archeology, Mathematics and Computer Science.

Kelly has been admitted to Indiana University where she will major in Anthropology with a specialization in Archeology.

School Board News

Culver - Only four of the Culver Community School seven man board showed up for the Monday night meeting. Those absent were Paul Davidson, Marvin Good and Don Keller. No explanation was received concerning their absences.

The board accepted the low bid from two firms on the high school track project. The Leslie Bros. of Indianapolis will do the sealing and striping of the track. McMahon-O'Connor of Rochester will do the conversion to metric system. Total cost of the project will be $10,225.00. The board hear a report from Mrs. Peggy Clark concerning cost-factors and needs for the summer remedial program in the school corporation.

The board appointed a 16 member committee to study the needs of the gifted children in the corporation. They then adjourned and went into executive session for a discussion on a negotiator and evaluation of administrators.

The next meeting will be January 7th at 7:30 o'clock in the administrative office.

A Training Course For Santa

ulations even apply to Claus now. I read an le about a training e for would-be Santas instructed Santa not to erything he's always No loud ho ho ho's -- too o asking if the child been good -- too atening -- and no ises. uldn't help wondering was left for the jolly fat in the red suit, but e it wasn't such a bad ecause training course graduates don't have eemble their promises. kids haven't sat on 's lap for years and , but I remember the time the youngest girl anta asked, "Have you a good girl all year?" s," she lied. ough, "Now come on , I'm a big girl and I wasn't even good all year." "What do you want Santa to bring you for Christmas," he said. "A baby," she answered, "and a farm with real live animals, a gas station for my brother, a doll house and a Cadillac for mama and" That was the time before training courses for the old gent and he promised her everything she asked for. I even cried when I didn't get the Cadillac. I recall it was the year that we got them the "easy to assemble with simple enclosed instructions" toys. We couldn't get a farm with real live animals, of course, but after the kids were put to bed my real live Santa with the 10 o'clock shadow said, "I told you last year not to get anything that has to be assembled." "I'll do it," I told him, meekly. "Oh no, if I don't help, you'll be looking like a martyr by 2 a.m. and have everything put together wrong." "Flat metal gas stations that have to be bent into shape wasn't my best subject in school," I confessed. Neither were toy kitchen appliances from two years ago," he muttered while trying to fit tab "A" into slot "B". Ignoring that remark, I started on the doll house with a patio that could have belonged to J. Paul Getty and boasted an Esther Williams swimming pool. "I hope this pool holds real water."

"Why?" he mumbled absently. "So I can wash my hands. My fingers are bleeding."

Feigning a worried look he replied, "Don't let it drip on the carpet, it won't match our decor."

Looking around at the array of toys, he added, "One of them usually asks for a nurse's kit, wouldn't you know it would be the first year we don't have one?"

"Those are out," I told him, "bionics are just coming in. Instead of bandaging the wound you just replace the part."

"Maybe, you could finish this," I said, "I'm really more adept at inserting batteries which aren't included." "Here's one," he offered, "Stick it in your ear and see if your brain is operating." "It couldn't be, I got married didn't I? I told him. We finished everything early, about 1:49 a.m. After applying 14 bandages, which wasn't bad considering I only had 10 fingers (at last count anyway) we sat down to survey our handiwork. We could never get them all of the material things they thought they wanted. They had learned, though that giving was as much fun as receiving and we'd taught them the deeper, more meaningful importance of the holiday -- His birth. "Well, the marauding angels will be up soon. If we sleep fast we can get in about three hours," he said.

"Ok, Mr. S.," I answered, with a yawn, "Let's dispense with the ho ho's and heave ho."

Going past the dining table, I noticed my book of birth dates I had left open to the month of December. I picked it up and showed it to my husband.

There were four names on their respective dates of birth writtin in ink. Pencil in a childish scrawl in large letters opposite December 25th was... JESUS.

The powers that we might add a few prayers to Santa's training course!

PUBLISHER'S 'PINION

by Dave Tranter

The staff and management of Tranter Printing and Publishing Co., The South Whiteley Tribune, The Culver Citizen, The Argos Tribune, The Pierceton News and The Tribune Printing Co. wish everyone a very Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

Let us not forget the real meaning of the Christmas season - the birth of Christ almost 2,000 years ago. Each holiday season brings many presents, delicious food, and a gathering of family and friends. Because of these many activities, it is easy to forget the real meaning. Gather the family together just before the annual Christmas dinner and thank the Lord for enjoying another holiday season.

costly foreign crude oil. Since our "cheaper" dollars buy less overseas, many of the goods we import cost more, adding to our inflation rate. At the same time, U.S. manufacturers of similar goods - cars for example - can raise their prices and still remain competitive with higher priced foreign products.

Normal mail service will resume on December 26 and January 2.

Part 6 - "Dollars and Sense," your inflation guide.

What does the fall of the dollar have to do with inflation?

In recent years, the value of the dollar has declined in comparison with the currency of many other industrialized nations. One reason is that we have been importing more than we have been exporting, especially

Culver Beats Glenn 57-56

Culver - The Culver Community Cavaliers outscored the Glenn Falcons 19-10 in the final quarter and claimed a narrow 57-56 victory for their first win of the year on the Falcons home floor.

Culver was behind at each quarter stop, trailing 14-12 at the end of the first period, 30-24 at halftime and 46-38 at the end of the third stanza.

Culver finished with a 41-18 rebounding edge and held Glenn's Craig Ochs, who had tallied 19 points in the first half to just six in the second and none in the fourth quarter.

Jason Young led the Cavs at attack with 18 points and Charles Harris followed with 14.

Both ball clubs are 1-4 on the year and will play in the Culver Holiday tourney this Thursday and Friday.

Culver shot at a 41 percent clip but managed 58 shots from the field. The Falcons shot an impressive 55 percent from the field but only got off 40 shots. Both clubs finished with 17 turnovers.

Bremen Edges Cavaliers

Culver - The Bremen Lions squeaked out a narrow 56-54 victory over the Culver Cavaliers last Saturday evening, after holding a 10 point lead with only 1:41 minutes remaining.

After cutting the score to one point at 45-44, Culver went over three minutes without a score while Bremen rattled off nine straight points to build up the 10 point spread.

However, no sooner had the Lions thought they put the win in the score book, then Culver knocked off 6 straight points in 55 seconds making the score 54-50 with 40 seconds left. The Cavs were forced to foul to get the ball back and Andy Swain and Todd Adams each sank the first end of their 1 and 1 John Glenn.

For Coach Doll, it was a hard loss to take, especially since it came after the Cavs first victory Friday over John Glenn, but there still was some light shining through the tunnel.

The first quarter saw the two squads exchange the lead until Bremen opened up a 14-11 margin with 1:04 left. But with just one second showing, junior Dave Taiclet scored for Culver cutting the margin back to one.

In the second period, Bremen widened its margin to six points, 20-14 but the Lions suddenly went on a three minute 15 second cold spell brought on by the Culver press and the Cavs caught up and tied it at 20 all with 3:41 left.

Swain broke the Lions' dry spell at the 3:21 mark but both teams traded points until halftime which ended with the score knotted at 26 all.

It was Culver's turn to run up a small lead as the third quarter began. For the first five minutes, the Cavs held on to brief four point leads at 32-28 and 34-30. Bremen came back and regained control after which the two squads again traded baskets until the horn sounded and Bremen was ahead by one point 39-38.

For the first four minutes of the final quarter, each team exhibited fine offenses. Each was aggressive yet patient. Neither team took unnecessary shots and often drew fouls when trying to work the ball inside.

Culver tied the score at 39 just as the quarter got underway. Bremen then connected on two shots, building the lead back to four, but that didn't last long as Charles Harris and Jason Young hit a basket and free throw respectively to close the margin to one at 43-42.

After that period the Cavaliers went into a 3 minute 15 second dry period while the Lions notched nine points in that time period. To add insult to injury, the last two Lion buckets during that period came on fast breaks by Swain and Muncy when the Cavaliers defense broke down. Doll then called a time out to regroup his charges.

And regroup they did. Harris, Jeff Foust and Young each scored quick easy baskets as the Cavs defense came to life forcing Bremen to turn the ball over, cutting the spread to 54-50 with 40 seconds left.

The Bremen coach called time out to calm his squad down and take away some of Culver's momentum. His plan worked equally as well as the Lions broke the press and forced Culver to foul Swain, who hit the first of a 1 and 1 with 26 seconds left in the game.

Harris then scored on a tip in but Culver was forced to foul Adams with five seconds left and he also hit the front end of a 1 and 1 to give the Lions another four point margin at 56-52. The Lions then let Young get an easy layup at the end to make the final score 56-54.

Young led the Cavaliers with 19 points and a game high 11 rebounds.

JORDAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY NEWS

Argos - On December 13 the Jordan Missionary Society met at the home of Mary Hope Winenger with 10 members and 2 guests, Mrs. Bonnie Rice and son, Billy, present. Mrs. Evelyn Hughes, president, was in charge of the meeting.

"Silent Night" was sung by the group and Mrs. Betty Campbell read the secretary's report. Everyone answered roll call with a Bible verse from Luke.

Mrs. Darel Smith gave devotions. She read the Christmas story from Luke and read the poem, "Christmas Guests." She closed with the poem, "Prayer of Christmas."

Evelyn Hughes read a Christmas letter from Rev. Burnette and Rev. Gerald Fish of Kenya, Africa. They are retiring from the African mission field and will be living in the WGM Retirement Center in Sacramento, California in mid-March. They stated that they will still need financial help from the Missionary Society because they will still be with the WGM missions. Any money should be sent to them at Box 948, Marion, Indiana. Individuals and groups are invited to be with them at Taylor College in Upland, Indiana from June 25 to 29. The Society voted to donate $25 to them and $10 to the Sangrealea Boys Home near Peru. Five dollars will be donated to a student from Peru who is studying for the ministry.

Two lap robes were contributed by Mrs. Hughes to be taken to Miller's Merry Manor. The group formed the Friendship Circle and "Blessed Be the Tie That Binds" was sung to close the meeting.

The afternoon was spent preparing Christmas plates to be sent to shut-ins. Refreshments were served by the hostess, Mary Hope Winenger. The next meeting will be January 17 at the home of Irene Myers. The leader will be Mary Hope Winenger. Acts will be the book of the month.

frame. The boxes stacked in glittering disarray under the tree.
 Why don't I hear chimes?
 Remember the small boy who made the chimes ring in a fictional story years ago? As the legend went, the chimes would not ring unless a gift of love was placed on the altar. Kings and men of great wealth placed untold jewels on the altar, but years year after year the church remained silent.
 Then one Christmas Eve, a small child in a tattered coat made his way down the aisle and without anyone noticing he took off his coat and placed it on the altar. The chimes rang out joyously throughout the land to mark the unselfish giving of a small boy.

 I used to hear chimes.
 I heard them the year one of my sons gave me a tattered piece of construction paper on which he had crayoned two hands folded in prayer and a moving message, Oh Come Holy Spirit!

I heard them the year I got a shoebox that contained two baseball chards and the gum was still with them.
 I heard them the Christmas they all got together and cleaned the garage.
 They're gone, aren't they? The years of the lace doilies fashioned into snowflakes... the hands traced in plaster of paris... the Christmas trees of pipe cleaners... the thread spools that held small candles. They're gone.
 The chubby hands that clumsily used up two dollars' worth of paper to wrap a cork coaster are sophisticated enough to take a number and have the gift wrapped professionally.
 The childish decision of when to break the ceramic piggybank with a hammer to spring the fifty-nine cents is now resolved by a credit card.

The muted thump of pajama-covered feet padding down the stairs to tuck her homemade crumb scrappers beneath the tree has given way to pantyhoose and fashion boots to the knee.
 It'll be a good Christmas. We'll eat too much, make a mess in the living room. Throw the warranties into the fire by mistake. Drive the dog crazy taping bows to his tail. Return cookies to the plate with a bite out of them. Listen to Christmas music. But Lord... what I would give to bend low and receive a gift of toothpicks and library paste and hear the chimes just one more time.

I FELT CHRISTMAS
I felt it in the tingle of cold frosty air.
I felt it in the love of people that seemed so much stranger at this blessed season when wrongs are righted, quarrels forgotten in the slow walk of brotherhood inspired by the Prince of Peace.
I felt it as I listened once again to our pastor's sermons reminding us of that Holy Gift.
I felt it in the very presence of that newborn King.
I felt Him so near, with the true meaning of Christmas warming my heart.
I felt His life and His death held purpose.
I felt "Peace on earth, good will toward men" would once again be true.

Fruit Sales Big Success For Culver Lions

4,280 pounds of citrus fruit for the club. On right is the fruit program chairman, Pat McCarthy.

Culver - The Culver Lions Club held their annual Ladies night dinner meeting at the Lions Den recently and Pat McCarthy announced that the 1979 goal of 20,000 pounds of citrus fruit to be sold was exceeded this year by 800 pounds. McCarthy was chairman for the event.

Lion Larry Pachniak presented a trophy to Lion Jesse Overmyer for his efforts in selling 4,280 pounds of fruit.

The program entitled, "Waiting for the Christmas Guest," was presented by Rev. and Mrs. Tom French. Others assisting in the skit were Mary Louise Krieg, Dan Adams, Judy Patton and Beth Rakich.

Mrs. Clara Hansen, who caters the dinners for the Lions all year, was presented a check for her long and appreciated efforts in preparing delicious meals for the club's meetings.

HE KNOCKED AGAIN

by Nila R. Hafert

I have no secrets from the Lord,
He knows my every thought.

You cannot say I'm lost in sin,
My freedom has been bought.

Light are my burdens,
great my joy,
My heart is filled with peace,
I'm glad I've learned to know the Lord
His blessings never cease.

I was a sinner in despair,
My body wracked with pain,
The thought of Death I could not bear,
I prayed, but 'twas in vain.

Of times before, the Lord had knocked,
But he could not get in.
This time the sound was sweet to hear,
For I was sick of sin.

Throwing wide the door for Jesus,
And falling at his feet,
I begged forgiveness for my sins,
It came so fast and sweet.

And now, such happiness I know,
And you can know Him, too,
If you will answer when He calls,
The knock in meant for you.

CULVER GOLDEN AGERS MEET

by Adrianna Hellstrom

Culver - On December 12th the Golden Agers at Grace Church in Culver found the members of the Culver City Club Freida Clarno, Gwen Hoesel, and Naomi Kaiser setting the tables and serving the meal assisted by Adrianna Hellstrom and Lovina Wesson.

The room was tastefully decorated with a Christmas tree and hanging ornaments. Betty Coplen the director of Older Adult Services for Marshall County greeted guests and members with a joke, a poem, and a prayer.

Guests were Ted Clarno, Shelton Kaiser, and Malcolm and Maxine Miller.

Welcome back were Oscar and Lovina Wesson.

The program was "Show and Tell." Members brought all kinds of handmade things they had made for Christmas to use or to give as gifts. Jo Adams showed a darling sweater set she had made for a 2½ year old grandson. Clara Mahler brought hand crocheted baby dolls in all colors. There were many Christmas decorations. Bea Taylor showed an oil painting she had done. Bud Craft showed a small child stool he had made in the shape of a turtle.

Some of the things were donated as door prizes. Minnie McLane donated one of her famous Chocolate Angel Food Cakes won by Helen Kress. Maxine and Malcolm Miller had just made a trip to Florida so they donated fruit won by Effie Kline and Hazel Thornburg. Nora Charland brought a wrapped present won by Robert Bernauer. Katherine Lischcko won a Wishing Well made by Olga Mahler and Mable Zukowski donated a filled Christmas basket won by Olga Mahler.

A good time was had by all.

Don't forget the V.F.W. Christmas dinner next Saturday night at 5:30 at the VFW Hall.

The menu for December 26th will be vegetable cocktail juice, sauerkraut and sausage, parsley buttered potatoes, rye bread, margarine, plums, milk, tea, coffee.

ARGOS SENIORS TAKE SPELLING TEST

Argos - O-c-c-a-s-i-o-n and g-u-a-r-a-n-t-e-e were the two "most misspelled" words by the Argos Seniors as 71% successfully spelled at least 105 of the words on a 112 word list.

The list, a result of the CAPPS program, was compiled by student, teachers, and parents. The words were selected, according to Stephen Keith, principal, because of their importance, frequency of use, and/or difficulty.

Students unable to reach the 105 word standard will be given to underclassmen later in the second semester.

Old Jars Displayed For Argos Seniors

Francis LaTurner displays jars.

by Barbara Hann

Argos - Sharon Mevis greeted the Argos seniors on Monday, December 17 as they arrived at the Argos United Methodist Church. It seemed everyone was glad to get inside and out of the cold. Sharon asked how many had their Christmas trees up, and how many had all their gifts bought and wrapped. Most had that job all done.

The ill members were: Hazel Thompson, who is with her daughter; and Irma Wagoner, who had surgery on her eye. Some of our members have left for Florida and others are preparing to go. This weather will help them make up their minds to go now. A letter, written by Nellie Leffert, who is in Florida, was read.

Then Sharon introduced Frances LaTurner who had a display of old canning jars on a table. The first and oldest was dated 1850. He said the first jars were made when Napoleon Bonapart asked for someone to make something to preserve fruit for the army. He offered a prize and a crockery jar was made. The lid was sealed down with sealing wax. Later John Mason patented a jar made of glass and this too had a lid that had to be sealed with wax. later he made one that had a zink lid and sealed with a lid and a rubber ring. Some old cans had a wire spring to hold the lids down. The Ball Company started making jars and since the Mason jar company had the patent they had to make their own jars and several other small companies were bought out so they wouldn't have to pay Mason any royalty. Frances has all kinds of jars from the larges to the midget. Also one milk glass that was made mostly for show. He has green, blue, and amber jars, at least 200 or 300 of them. Many questions were asked and answered by him. We thank him for a very interesting morning.

Sharon had the noon time prayer and then on to the dining room where Lorilee Thompson, Lida Thompson, Inez Eley and Vi Ward served the meal. The Hospital Auxiliary had the tables beautifully decorated. Several old coal oil lamps were on the tables and tinsel entwined the length of the tables with a Christmas theme. They also furnished pretty plates of candy as door prizes. These were won by Jessie Annis, Clara Nichols and Grover Shaffer.

An after-Christmas party is being planned at the home of the Heisers (Sharon's mother) for January 4. So get your names in for a ride on the R.E.A.L. Rider.

We also have a dinner planned at the church for the Dec. 31. It's a R.E.A.L. meal, so call your reservations in to Coma Singpiel at 892-5012.

The menu will be grapefruit juice, breaded veal cutlet, cooked red cabbage, parleyed potatoes, pears, wheat bread, margarine, milk, tea and coffee.

Jan Parker will be there to tell about her puppets. Please wear warm clothes or a sweater as the rooms aren't too warm and we want everyone to be comfortable.

We wish you a Merry Christmas from all the Senior Citizens of Argos and wish to thank all the clubs in the Argos area for serving the meals in 1979. Also, the Argos United Methodist Church for letting us hold our meetings there. It certainly is a nice gesture and appreciated by all.

Green Township will serve the January 7 meal in 1980.

FARMERS FILE FOR WOOD INCENTIVE PAYMENTS

Argos - Wool and lamb producers must submit their sales slips from 1979 wool and unshorn lamb marketings and file an application before they can receive their incentive payments. William E. Elliott, Chairperson of the Marshall County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (ASC) Committee, said. They have until January 31 to file and avoid late payments.

The support price for 1979 shorn wool marketings is $1.15 per pound and $1.94 per pound for mohair. Elliott said pulled wool will continue to be supported at a level comparable to the support price for shorn wool through payments on unshorn lambs. Shorn wool payments are based on a percentage of each producer's return from sales. The percentage is the amount required to raise the national average price received by all producers for shorn wool in 1979 up to the support price of $1.15 a pound. Shorn wool prices averaged between 80 and 85 cents per pound in 1979.

According to Elliott, mohair payments will be calculated in a manner similar to wool. However, these payments probably will not be necessary in 1980 as it appears that the average market price received by producers in the open market will be higher than the support price.

As of December 12th, thirty-two local producers had filed for their 1979 wool incentive payments.

Letters To The Editor

With interest the listed names of students who made the Culver Community Junior High Honor Roll were read and appreciated. However there was some missing element, those names of students who belong to the C.C.H.S. system, but attend Monterey Elementary School who made the honor roll with their excellent grades. It is assumed the C.C.H.S. does not have a double standard, nor the Culver Citizen a discriminatory bias? First hand, I can report that the students at Monterey feel they have been omitted in many areas, all the way from recognition as honor students, to equal playground facilities and gym equipment and to quality teaching staff (that is transferred out when found). To find out for yourself, a quick examination and a few interviews will reveal the truth.
