BANK TO EXPAND AT PLYMOUTH

Looking over on-site construction plans for major expansion of The State Exchange Bank of Plymouth, Robert Berger, Berger-McCoige Construction Co., general contractor, discusses plans with W. O. Osborn, president, The State Exchange Bank, Culver, Plymouth, Argos and The Farmers State Bank, LaPaz; and Plymouth Mayor, Charles O. Glaub, and Sid Smith, president of the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce. Bank officials pictured here as expansion plans were announced are (left to right): Eugene Christiansen, Fred E. Adams, Executive vice-president; Berger, Glaub, Smith, Osborn, D. E. Walker, Ron McKee, manager of the Plymouth Bank, Hampton Boswell and John Deery.

Plans for expansion of The State Exchange Bank 2701 North Michigan Street, Plymouth, were announced last week by W. O. Osborn, president of The State Exchange Bank, Culver, Plymouth, Argos, and the Farmers State Bank of LaPaz, all under one management.

Fred Adams, executive vice-president, was joined by Ron McKee, manager of The State Exchange Bank, Plymouth, in a statement detailing the two-phase construction project now underway.

"In April, 1966, our new bank in Plymouth was opened, and in slightly less than seven years, our growth has been such that expansion of the facility is necessary," Mr. Adams stated. The bank official went on to point out that planning for the facility is a result of extensive studies by the management and staff members.

Ron McKee, manager of The State Exchange Bank, Plymouth, was joined by Mr. Adams in explaining that the building project will involve a 4,500 square foot addition, doubling the size of the present facility, together with a complete renovation of the interior of the present bank building and the construction of a 4-station drive-up facility along with a customer convenient drop-off depository.

When complete the building will provide for 11 new offices, a spacious lobby with new location of seven teller windows. As a convenience, included in the arrangements for customer-teller will be two "tell-a-port" stations, a new banking arrangement in which a customer may be seated as he conducts his personal business.

It is believed that the installation of the "tell-a-port" stations will be among the first in the area.

Among the features of the bank will be a spacious community conference center room. The room, with a capacity of 100, will be available to community groups. Other features provide for expanded office space for accounting, bookkeeping, offices for bank loan and filed representative officers, and a room for staff members.

Adjacent to the bank at the west will be a 41-car parking plaza. A major customer main entrance on the west side will lead to the customer parking area. There will be no change in the exterior architectural appearance.

Phase one construction involving the drive-in and drop-off depository are already under construction and phase two construction will start upon the completion of the initial work in early summer.

Berger-McCoige Construction Company of Culver are the general contractors; Electric Contractors, Delp Electric, Plymouth; Plumbing & Heating, Burton Plumbing and Heating, Rochester; Lim - Kolasinski, South Bend, architects; and Interior Decorating, Continental Business Interiors, Inc., Elkhart.

JR. HIGH TO SELL CANDY

During the first week of April the Culver Jr. Hi 8th graders will be having a candy sale. The proceeds from this sale will help defray expenses of a planned 8th grade trip the last Saturday of the school year. The 8th graders are hoping to visit Kings Island in Ohio Saturday, May 26.

The 8th graders hope that the community will help them earn part of the fare for the trip by fulfilling their sweet-tooth needs through candy purchased from the 8th graders that week.

The subject of the lesson is Reality, Golden Text: Hosea 12:13 By a prophet the Lord brought Israel out of Egypt, and by a prophet was he preserved. This lesson gives us several interesting stories of Moses, Elijah and Jesus. Moses says in Num 11:29 Would God that all the Lord's people were prophets and that the Lord would put his spirit upon them!

It closes with this reference from the Christian Science Text-book, by Mary Baker Eddy "Let us learn of the real and eternal, and prepare for the reign of Spirit, the kingdom of heaven, the reign and rule of universal harmony, which cannot be lost nor remain forever unseen."

Watch out when it's dark out!

FASTENING FACTS
BY THOMPSON

IN ANCIENT TIMES, EVEN THOUGH SCREWS HAD NOT YET BEEN INVENTED, MASTER CRAFTSMEN STILL MANAGED TO BUILD STURDY SHIPS AND HOMES BY FASTENING THEM WITH WOODEN PEGS.

BUT, AS GOOD A JOB AS THESE PEGS DID, THEY DID NOT HAVE THE HOLDING POWER OR LIFE OF TODAY'S WIDE VARIETY OF MODERN SCREWS, WHICH ARE MADE FOR JUST ABOUT EVERY FASTENING APPLICATION YOU CAN THINK OF.

THE EASIEST WAY TO DRIVE A SCREW, INCIDENTALLY, IS TO USE ONE OF THE NEW CRESCENT "BIG FAT GRIP" SCREWDRIVERS. THEIR OVER-SIZED HANDLES ALLOW YOU TO GET A JOB DONE FASTER WITH LOTS MORE TURNING POWER AND LOTS LESS EFFORT.

THE VACATION KINGDOM

KING OF THE BEASTS. A jungle cruise through Walt Disney World's Adventureland brings you in close contact with "wild" life. But don't worry! Your guide will make sure you don't fall into the lions' den.

NEW YORK (ED) Planning your next vacation? Have each member of your family choose his favorite activity from the following list: Golf, sailing, nightlife, jungle cruise, Grand Prix, country music concert, visit with storybook characters, old-fashioned train ride.

If the only compromise you can agree on is two weeks at the local fall-out shelter, consider a trip to the new Walt Disney World in Florida. It has all of the above — and more!

The new Vacation Kingdom is located at the City of Lake Buena Vista, Florida, 20 miles southwest of Orlando. For the outdoor members of the family, the 600-acre Fort Wilderness campsite is situated among pine trees and along winding waterways. Camping or hotel guests (two luxury resorts with family prices have been built so far) can also take advantage of sailing, golf, swimming and horseback riding.

For the children (and anyone who still believes in magic), the highlight of a trip to Walt Disney World will be the Magic Kingdom. Here Disney's "Imagineers" have created six themed lands: Adventureland, Fantasyland, Frontierland, Liberty Square, Main Street U.S.A., and Tomorrowland. Each has its own special brand of make-believe.

Want to take a safari this vacation? Adventureland's Jungle Cruise carries you through murky crocodile-infested waters to the Swiss Family Island Treehouse — if the hippos don't get you first.

When you hanker to get back to the rustic life, stop off at Frontierland. In Grizzly Hall, you can treat yourself to a concert of country and western music, performed by twenty bears. The "Country Bear Jamboree," sponsored by Pepsi-Cola/Frito-Lav, features heart-rending bearfoot sounds such as "Mama Don't Whip Little Buford" and "How Long Will My Baby Be Gone." Teddi Barra, Big Al and the rest of the cub chorus make their own kind of music thanks to the Disney technique of "Audio-Animatronics," the combination of sounds and actions in three-dimensional animated figures.

Other features of interest in the Magic Kingdom include Cinderella's Castle, eighteen stories high, and fit for any princess... a voyage "20,000 Leagues Under The Sea"... a ride on an old-fashioned steam locomotive.

If anyone in your family can't amuse himself at Walt Disney World, you'd better leave him home next vacation!

HERE'S TEDDI... Teddi Barra, that is. And when she's lowered over the stage on her red velvet swing, the other critters in the "Country Bear Jamboree" can't help but whistle. One of the superstars in Pepsi-Cola/Frito-Lavular, Teddi belts a tune, "Heart We Can't

IN THIS WORLD

MAN'S FIRST STEPS IN RUBBER FOOTWEAR:

IN 1731 A FRENCH EXPEDITION IN BRAZIL, STUDYING THE SHAPE OF THE EARTH, REPORTED THAT THE NATIVES USED STRANGE WATERPROOF FOOTWEAR MADE OF A CRUDE RESINOUS SUBSTANCE... EARLY TRADERS CALLED THESE PROTECTIVE SHOES "GUM BOOTS!"

PRIOR TO 1844, WHEN A CHEMICAL PROCESS GIVING ELASTICITY, STRENGTH AND STABILITY TO THIS CRUDE MATERIAL WAS DISCOVERED, THE U.S. IMPORTED OVER 400,000 PAIRS OF NATIVE "GUM BOOTS" A YEAR.

THE NAME "KEDS" FOR CANVAS RUBBER-SOLED FOOTWEAR WAS FIRST USED IN 1917. IT WAS SUGGESTED BY THE LATIN WORD "PED" REFERRING TO FOOT... TODAY, THERE ARE OVER 1,500 VARIETIES OF KEDS BEING WORN IN AMERICA FOR SPORT AND LEISURE WEAR.

MODERNIZED OLD-FASHIONED FRUIT DESSERT

- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/3 cup unsifted flour
- 2 tablespoons sugar
- 1 teaspoon ground cinnamon
- 2 tablespoons Blue Bonnet Margarine
- 1/4 cup (1/2 stick) Blue Bonnet Margarine
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1 egg
- 1/3 cup milk
- 1/4 teaspoon vanilla extract
- 2 cups fresh blueberries or 1 can (15-ounce) blueberries, well drained

Nothing beats the old-fashioned goodness of country-style desserts like this Colonial Blueberry Buckle, a specialty of New England and Northeast Coastal cooks. It's prepared the modern way with Blue Bonnet Margarine.

Old-fashioned country-style desserts certainly had picturesque names! Like "slumps" and "grunts" and "buckles." All fruited desserts, each was quite distinctive. Grunts are made of rich biscuit dough which is dropped, dumpling-style over stewed fruit, then covered tightly and steamed. Slumps are dumplings of baking powder biscuit dough dropped on the fruit which is cooked on top of the range. Buckles are more like coffeecakes, being made from cake batter over which the fruits are scattered, then topped with spiced crumbs. This Colonial Blueberry Buckle is a specialty of New England and Northeast Coastal cooks. It utilizes the fresh blueberries, native to the region. In fact, the blueberry can be called the New Jersey fruit. This state, one of the original thirteen colonies, grows more blueberries than any other state.

Assisting in the preparation of such old-fashioned desserts is Blue Bonnet Margarine. It adds the famous buttery flavor to your foods at only a fraction of the cost.

This is perfect to serve your family on a cold winter evening. Try it!

COLONIAL BLUEBERRY
 BUCKLE
 3/4 cup unsifted flour
 1-1/2 teaspoons baking powder

Sift together 3/4 cup flour, baking powder and salt; set aside.

Combine 1/3 cup flour, 2 tablespoons sugar and cinnamon in a small bowl. Cut in 2 tablespoons Blue Bonnet Margarine until mixture resembles coarse meal; set aside.

In a small mixer bowl cream remaining 1/4 cup Blue Bonnet Margarine and remaining 1/2 cup sugar until mixture is light and fluffy. Add egg; beat well. Alternately blend in sifted dry ingredient and combined milk and vanilla extract, beginning and ending with dry ingredients. Spread mixture into a greased 8-inch square pan. Scatter blueberries over top of batter; sprinkle with cinnamon mixture.

Bake in moderate oven (350°F.) for about 45 to 50 minutes, or until done. Cool in pan or wire rack. Best when served warm. Makes one 8-inch cake.

OES NEWS

Mrs. Bill Allen, worthy matron, opened the meeting of the Emily Jane Culver chapter, Order of Eastern Star, March 20 by reading portions dealing with love from "Symbolisms of the Eastern Star."

Since this was the last meeting of her and Mr. Allen's term in the East, she reviewed some of the highlights of their year. She announced that the chapter's 50th anniversary celebration, which was canceled last Saturday because of the bad weather, will be held at 7:30 p.m. Friday, April 13.

Mrs. Judson Dillon, who is retiring after serving as secretary for nine years, was escorted behind the altar by the conductress, Mrs. Alan Cornett, and the worthy matron honored her with an original parody of Longfellow's "Hiawatha," presented her with a "flying pen" and returned her to her station where she found a gift from the chapter.

After the closing ceremony, Mrs. Max Geiger, worthy matron-elect, directed a ceremony honoring the retiring worthy matron and patron. They were escorted to the West where they were given party hats and informed that the party was in their honor. They were escorted to the various officers who read poems which were given them for their memory book.

Mrs. Charles Clifton, accompanied by Mrs. E. W. Carter at the piano, sang, "Star of the East" for them. A gift was presented to the Allens from the officers.

Installation of new officers will be held at an open meeting at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, March 24. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Kemp Moore, Mrs. George Stevenson, Mrs. Dale Heiser and Mrs. Donald Davis.

Two men were discussing the vicissitudes of henpecked husbands. "But let me tell you," said one, "I'm boss at my house. Last night I found there was no hot water, so I raised the roof."

Believe me, I got hot water, too; and in a hurry." There was a pause and he added, "I hate to wash the dishes in cold water, don't you?"

The Princess, The Bears and Walt Disney World

ONCE UPON A TIME in Florida a castle was built for Cinderella. From the Castle guests may visit other Fantasyland entertainments. A journey into the Seven Dwarfs diamond mines, Peter Pan's Flight to Never Land or a ride with Dumbo the Flying Elephant are special favorites of young visitors to Walt Disney World.

NEW YORK (ED) "Once upon a time, long, long, ago there lived a lovely girl called Cinderella..."

For 275 years, children and adults have loved the tale of the poor mistreated stepdaughter who married the Prince and lived happily ever after. But — where did she live happily ever after? That was the problem facing the Disney designers when they set out to recreate the Cinderella Castle at Walt Disney World in central Florida.

They drew their inspiration from medieval French chateaus, and from the original Disney designs prepared 20 years ago for the motion-picture "Cinderella." The result is the Cinderella Castle, an 18-story dwelling that marks the entrance to Fantasyland.

One of the highlights of the Magic Kingdom, the Castle is 180 feet tall. To enter, visitors cross a water-filled moat. Inside, are five mosaic murals in the shape of Gothic arches that retell Cindy's story. The setting is fit for any princess.

For the youngster (or adult) whose childhood fantasies centered around a lovable Teddy bear rather than a princess, an old-fashioned locomotive leads the way to Frontierland. There in Grizzly Hall some 20 lifelike bears perform down-home music in the "Country Bear Jamboree." Sponsored by Pepsi-Cola/Frito-Lay, the show features bearfoot music in the finest bluegrass tradition. You've never heard the old hit "Blood On the Saddle," sung till you listen to six-foot-tall Big Al's heartbreaking version.

Grizzly Hall rocks to the Nashville sound thanks to an ingenious Disney technique called "Audio-Animatronics." Sounds and actions are combined to bring three-dimensional figures to life. The Nashville-inspired bears twang their guitars and growl such C&W classics as "Mama Don't Whip Little Buford" and "Tears Will Be the Chaser for My Wine."

What would the bears say if they could really talk? That's easy: "Y'all come down to Walt Disney World real soon, y'hear?"

TORCH SONG. Bubbles, Bunny and Beulah sing of heartbreak every day in the "Country Bear Jamboree" sponsored by Pepsi-Cola/Frito-Lay. When they wail "All the Guys That Turn Me On Turn Me Down" the girls in the audience sympathize.

Plenty of room at the top.

HONORED AT BANQUET

The Culver Volunteer Fire Department held a pot luck supper on Saturday evening, March 24, in the fire station in honoring Mr. Henry Hinkle. Mr. and Mrs. Hinkle are pictured above at the banquet.

Mr. Hinkle has retired from the department as of January 1, 1973 and he was presented with a tackle box from the department in appreciation of his 35 years of service.

It seems that everytime the firemen plan something, the fire phone rings, as it did again on Saturday. There was a fire at 5:00 p.m. and another at 8:00 p.m. but there was time between fires to enjoy the good food.

Guests besides the twelve firemen and their wives were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Flora, Culver; Mr. and Mrs. Bus Carter, Culver; Mr. and Mrs. S. Carter, Niles, Michigan; and Mr. and Mrs. Marlon Carter, of Rochester, all family of the Hinkles.

Mister: "Did anyone ever tell you how wonderful you are?"

Miss: "No, I don't think anyone ever did."

Mister: "Then I'd like to know where you got the idea."

CULVER SCHOOL BOARD NEWS

The Culver Community Schools Corporation Board of School Trustees met in regular session in the central office on Wednesday.

Mrs. Marilyn Coby, chairman of the steering committee for the North Central Evaluation, was present to give a report to the board concerning the recent visit and evaluation by the North Central Association Evaluating Committee. Mrs. Coby thanked the board and the superintendent for their attendance at the opening session on Tuesday, March 13. Mrs. Coby indicated that her job as chairman would continue to exist in working with the board and administration to carry out as many recommendations made by the committee as would be possible. Mrs. Coby stated some of the various strengths and weaknesses of the total educational program as viewed by the visiting committee. These will all be elaborated on in detail in the published report which should be available in approximately six weeks. Mr. Harold Fitterling, board member, complimented Mrs. Coby on her report. Her report was both well presented and well received.

Miss Angela Wenino, art instructor at the high school, was present and gave the board a report on the work and activities in the art department. Miss Wenino showed many pieces of work that her art students had done during the year. She indicated that in her program she attempted to cover six basic areas namely painting, drawing, crafts, weaving, sculpture and printing.

Miss Wenno displayed a great deal of enthusiasm for her program and expressed real satisfaction with the accomplishments which she felt were being made. She advised the board that the projected enrollment for the 1973-74 school year were 43 students in Art I, with an added enrollment for the 33 students in Art II and 13 students in Art 3-4. The board and visitors were most appreciative of Miss Wenino's presentation.

The board was advised that Mr. and Mrs. James Turner, school patrons of Aubbeenaubee Township, had contacted the superintendent and asked if the Corporation would lend them some assistance in transportation costs for a deaf child which they have who attends the State Deaf School in Indianapolis. Since the board does help pay some of the transportation costs for each child in the Corporation who attends the Deaf School in Indianapolis, it was agreed that this same courtesy be extended to Mr. and Mrs. Turner.

Following the approval of claims, the meeting adjourned.
