Rural Loans

A new Federal Program to finance local business development will help improve the economic climate in rural areas of Indiana, according to J.D. Thompson, State Director of Farmers Home Administration.

Already Letters of pre-application are being received, Thompson, said, requesting financial assistance to develop businesses under provisions of the 1972 Rural Development Act. The Farmers Home Administration, a rural credit service of the U.S. Department of Agriculture, oversees the program.

"Submitting a letter of pre-application is the first step in this program," Thompson explained. "Any individual or group that needs financing for industry or business in Indiana should summarize his ideas in a proposal and submit it to the FHA office in the area, or to a private lender. Priority will be given to projects that strengthen rural communities by improving economic and employment conditions, as outlined in the Rural Development Act."

If the prospective business meets eligibility requirements, Thompson said, the applicant will be requested to submit a formal application. Major projects will be cleared with appropriate local and state officials to assure compliance with development plans for the area.

In addition to individuals, eligible applicants may include partnerships, cooperatives, corporations and public bodies.

Most borrowers will receive loans advanced by private lenders guaranteed, up to 90-percent, by FHA in rural areas and cities not over 50,000 population. Loan funds may be used for working capital, to purchase machinery and equipment, and to buy land, buildings and permanent fixtures.

Public bodies also are eligible for grants to finance industrial sites that will result in development of private business enterprises.

Additional information is available at any of the 35 FHA County Offices which serve the 92 Counties in Indiana.

AMOCO SAYS "DIAL DOWN"

The nation is being urged to "dial down" its thermostats in a massive campaign launched by a major oil company.

"A heating fuel shortage of as much as 10 per cent has been forecast for this winter," the campaign states, and "where we set our thermostats will determine how severe it will be."

PUBLIC NOTICE

There will be a public meeting of all citizens concerned about the proposed zoning ordinance for Marshall County Thursday, November 29th, at Morrison's Livestock (2 miles north of Culver on State Road 17) at 8:00 p.m.

A MESSAGE TO CULVER POSTAL PATRONS

From Postmaster E. Wayne Mattox

We've had to advance our Christmas mailing dates by one full week. We now ask you to mail your packages by December 3rd and your cards by December 8th.

The fuel shortage has caused reduction of hundreds of airline flights; trucks carrying our mail have slowed down to 55 miles per hour; and we can expect serious problems in getting the mail delivered during the Holiday Season.

More than ever before, we need your help. We've appreciated your cooperation in the past, and we ask you to try your best to get your packages mailed by December 3rd and your cards by December 8th.

With Thanks and Holiday Greetings,

E. Wayne Mattox

Parking In Culver

Culver has a parking problem. In each of the two shopping centers, the Lake Shore Drive area and the Main Street area, there is not enough street parking more often than not.

The problems of parking during the upcoming holiday season should make the situation even more apparent.

At the Main Street area, the inaction of the town government forced the Chamber of Commerce to negotiate the purchase of a parking lot, level a building on the lot, and make several payments according to the purchase agreement.

The Chamber has done the Town a service by moving to solve part of the problem, but the Chamber is not the kind of group that should have to maintain such a facility.

We believe that the Town Board should seriously consider taking over the parking lot as a municipal facility. Only the Town has the personnel, equipment, and experience to maintain this lot.

The Town could effectuate the assumption in a way that will guarantee the continued use of the land as a parking lot.

As to the Lake Shore area, one has only to run the gauntlet of the angle-parked cars along about half the length of the south side of the street to realize the hazard this area poses.

We believe the Town Board should consider the possibility of amending parking ordinances to require only parallel parking along Lake Shore Drive, except in the area immediately across from the beach (where the curb is indented).

Such a change should be matched with the purchase and development of an off-street lot in that area, too.

We should all consider this subject of importance because inconvenience in parking could help to force local shoppers to other towns, killing Culver in the process.

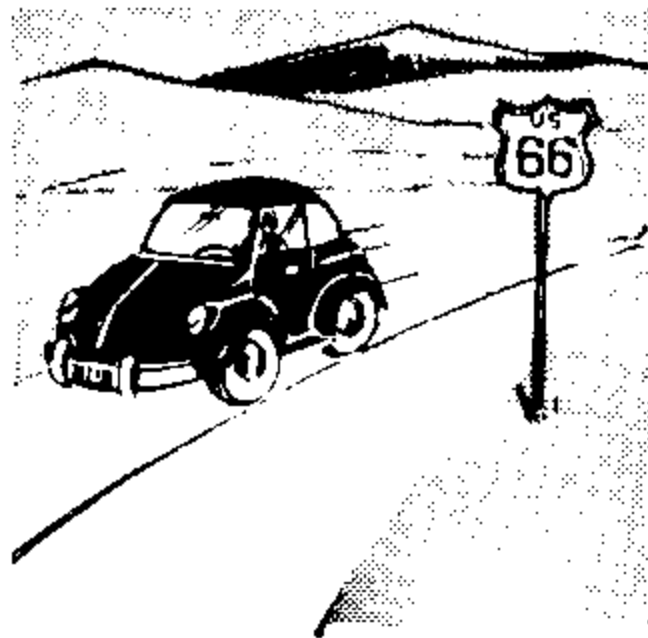

Right To Travel

"The right to travel is a part of the 'liberty' of which the citizen cannot be deprived without due process of law. Movement across frontiers (is) a part of our heritage. Freedom of movement is basic in our scheme of values."

The words are those of the United States Supreme Court. And, during most of our nation's life, there were no governmental restrictions on going abroad. All you had to do was buy a ticket, board the ship, and sail away.

Nowadays, of course, you do need a passport. But even today, the government's exit requirements are subject to careful scrutiny by the courts.

In one case, a member of a radical organization was denied a passport on the ground that he might make contact with radicals overseas. However, there was no evidence that he was an active member or that the organization had any illegal plans of which he was aware.

The Supreme Court ruled that the government could not constitutionally prevent him from going abroad. Such a ban, said the Court, could block him from even visiting a foreign relative or doing research in a foreign library.

Furthermore, the government has even less right to keep a citizen from coming back into the country than to keep him from leaving.

"It is inherent in the concept of citizenship," said a federal court, "that the citizen, when absent from the country to which he owes allegiance, has a right again to set foot on its soil."

On the other hand, lesser limitations on the right to travel have been upheld. In another case, the government granted a passport with "area restrictions"—listing several countries as out-of-bounds.

This procedure was lawful, a court ruled later, because it fell within the presidential power to "conduct foreign affairs." The government could reasonably foresee, said the court, that American visitors in certain trouble spots might complicate our foreign policy.

"Even in a neighborhood community," the court added, "every man's right to roam is restricted."

CROSLY-GAUNT

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Crosley of Fort Wayne, former Culver residents, announce the engagement of their daughter, Denise, to Herb Gaunt, also of Fort Wayne. Both graduates of Homestead High School, Miss Crosley is attending Indiana University at Bloomington. Her fiance is employed by H & L Distributors of Fort Wayne. No date has been set for the wedding.

PLANTE-MANZUK

Autumn flowers provided the setting for the November 10th wedding of Gloria D. Plante and James L. Manzuk. The 2:00 p.m. ceremony was held in the Wesley United Methodist Church, with Pastor Earl Sharp officiating. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Plante, Jr., Route 1, Culver; the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Manzuk, Route 2, Culver.

Miss Elizabeth Pinder was soloist at the double-ring ceremony, and sang her own works as well as other songs.

Miss Paula Bush of Culver served as maid of honor, and Miss Kandi Tuholuski of Mill Creek was bridesmaid. Mr. Stanley Palmer, Plymouth, acted as best man, and groomsmen were Wayne Plante, Culver, and Melvin Brown, Monterey.

Following a reception at the church Social Hall, the couple left for a honeymoon in the eastern part of the state. The couple will make their home at Route 2, Knox.

The new Mrs. Manzuk is a graduate of Culver Community High School. Her husband graduated from Knox High School, and both are employed by the Culver Military Academy.

Christian Science Lesson

The first six chapters of Nehemiah are used in the Lesson-lesson this week. They relate the story of the rebuilding of the walls of Jerusalem in the face of much opposition from the local rulers, and shows Neh. faithfulness to God's direction.

This reference will be read from the Christian Science Textbook, Science and Health, by Mary Baker Eddy: "Divine Mind rightly demands man's entire obedience, affection, and strength. No reservation is made for any lesser loyalty. Obedience to Truth gives man power and strength. Submission to error superinduces loss of power."

You are invited to attend the services at Plymouth, and to use the Reading Room for Prayer and Study at 428 South Michigan Street, open Wednesday and Saturday from 2:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.

ART SHOW AT LITTLE GALLERY

Robert A. Waitches of Knox will have an exhibit of his work during the month of December at The Little Gallery, 211 East Washington, Culver. DON'T GET ZAPPED IN THE TOY DEPARTMENT Ring goes the cash register. Open goes the wallet. And into the sack goes a Christmas morning surprise. Another unsuspecting adult has just been zapped in the toy department!

And he's not the only adult being led down the primrose aisle at toyland, says Dama C. Wilms, Extension human development specialist at Purdue University.

Eager to please an expectant child on Christmas morning, many well-meaning adults spend their money on toys that do their children little or no good.

"Surrounded by mechanical wonders, educational spurs, and television hot sells, adults let reason fly," Dr. Wilms says. "Often adults exchange their money for any toy—just to end the trauma of deciding which to buy."

And the trouble is, most children don't respond to such choices. "Many children," the specialist observes, "may even ask for toys that aren't suitable."

Television or playmates may convince a child that he has to have a certain toy. But after the brief joy of possession is gone, the child may find little pleasure in having Madison Avenue's latest triumph.

The specialist suggests that you develop a system for toy buying "to keep from getting trapped into fast or unwise decisions."

First on her list of precautions is: don't let your child's fickle fancy be your primary consideration. Instead, ask if the toy you are considering is suitable for the child. What can he actually do with the toy?

"Also ask yourself why you are thinking about buying a particular toy," Dr. Wilms advises, explaining that many adults buy toys they wanted as children. In effect, these adults are buying toys for themselves rather than for a child.

Turning to the aspect of toy safety, Dr. Wilms says you should avoid buying a toy that jeopardizes a child in any way. "Don't fall for electrical items that require supervision or toys that require a lot of maintenance," she adds. "Battery failure is disappointing for a child and aggravating to an adult who must make repeated trips to buy batteries."

You'll be more likely to make these important considerations, Dr. Wilms concludes, if you allow plenty of time for toy shopping. "Shop early," she advises. "Late shoppers are more easily stampeded into poor choices."

NIPSCO TO PRESENT "THIS ATOMIC WORLD"

The structure of atoms, operations of a nuclear reactor, concepts of radiation, fission and fusion are among the topics that will be discussed when Gregory Maxwell brings the "This Atomic World" program to Culver Community High School, Friday morning, November 30th.

Sponsored by Northern Indiana Public Service Company, the program is designed to inform the public about the basic principles of nuclear energy, its sources and its role in industry, medicine, agriculture, and research.

Maxwell uses specially designed equipment during the 40-minute program to demonstrate the sources of radiation, how nuclear energy is harnessed to furnish clean electric power for cities, and the use of radioisotopes to aid in diagnosis and treatment of diseases and to learn more about life processes.

Maxwell is a graduate of Purdue University and has had extensive training at Oak Ridge Tennessee Associated Universities.

School Board

RESUME OF MEETING

November 20, 1973

[Supplied by the Superintendent's Office]

The Culver Community Schools Corporation Board of School Trustees met in regular session in the Central Office on Tuesday, November 20th, with all officers and members present.

Following the opening and approval of minutes, the Board proceeded to other business of the evening. The Superintendent reviewed and shared several pieces of correspondence with the Board. He also gave the Board a report on the Energy Crisis Conference which he attended in Indianapolis on Tuesday, November 13th. The essence of the conference was that we are facing an energy crisis with the shortage of fuel and necessary products to provide energy. Schools were urged to prepare some specific guidelines to be followed in an attempt to conserve energy. The Superintendent advised the Board that he proposed to have such proposals ready to present to the Board on its regular meeting on December 4th. The Superintendent also indicated that he also would by administrative directive cause certain steps to be taken immediately to conserve energy, such as lowering the setting of the thermostats and urging that all unnecessary lights be turned off, etc.

The Superintendent then reviewed with the Board the state tax board hearing which was held on October 29th for the 1974 budget.

The state tax board allowed all the appropriations to remain as has been requested and advertised. The tax rates were reduced in each of the four townships due to the fact that the local option tax would bring about a reduction in the tax rate in Marshall and Starke Counties and an additional reduction in these Counties, as well as Fulton and Starke Counties.

cause of increased assessed valuation since the budget was prepared. Also the excise tax and other revenues were determined by the State Tax Board to be greater than the various county auditors and the superintendent had estimated at the time of preparing the budget. The final recommendation to the State Tax Board will be for a general funds tax rate of $4.18 per $100 of assessed valuations.

Marshall County; $4.51 in Starke County; $4.65 in Fulton and Pulaski County. All four townships in the school corporation will have a de service tax rate of 63c and a cumulative building fund tax rate of 20c per $100 assessed valuation.

The monthly claims were approved and the meeting was adjourned.

ULCH IN EXERCIZES
Army staff Sergeant Ralph E. Ulch, son of Mrs. Bertha Howay, Route 1, Ossineke, Michigan...

The Military Airlift Command flew approximately 11,000 U.S.-based Soldiers and more than 1,000 tons of equipment to three different airfields in Germany in preparation for the event.

Immediately after arriving overseas, the redeployed units drew combat gear and vehicles from prepositioned storage sites in Germany and moved to the exercise area to begin the seven-day field maneuver.

Pitted against the airlifted forces were Europe-based elements of NATO Forces of the U.S., Germany and Canada.

The exercise, conducted by the Joint Chiefs of Staff and NATO, focused on the procedures and techniques for receiving, equipping, assembling and employing units after they arrive, rather than on rapid deployment of troops from the U.S.

Sgt. Ulch is regularly assigned as a motor Sergeant in Company A, 10th Engineer Battalion of the 3rd Infantry Division in Schweinfurt, Germany.

His wife, Mary, lives at 802 College Avenue, Culver.

MARTIN ALSO IN EXERCIZES

Army Private Roger D. Martin, 22, son of Mrs. Elizabeth Martin, 205 W. Lambert, Knox, also participated with other American and allied troops in exercise Reforger V in Germany, October 10-16.

Pvt. Martin is regularly assigned as a Cannoneer in Battery A, 1st Battalion, 76th Field Artillery of the 3rd Infantry Division in Kitzingen, Germany. His wife, Corrie, lives on Route 5, Knox.

JAQUISH COMPLETES BASIC

Private Michael Jaquish, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jaquish, Route 2, Culver graduated Wednesday from Marine Boot Camp training in San Diego, California.

While in Boot Camp he received a Sharpshooter medal, and was one of a few recruits during that session of training offered the opportunity to attend Officer's Training School.

He will remain in Culver on a seventeen-day leave, and return December 2nd to Huntsville, Alabama, to assume active duty.
