

Culver News 1920s

D. Burkett | P. Goings | R. Voter

In 1922 the recreation building was destroyed.

In 1923 work on the recreation building resumed and was finished.

In 1926 there was the first aerial view of Culver Campus.

In 1927 Emma J. Werner commits suicide following a discovery that she killed Russel West and potentially others.

In 1927 Culver is hit by a small cyclone and a cloud burst that uproots some trees but doesn't cause much damage.

Summer school
Sign up

In 1920 The Aviation School opened in Culver.

Culver Campus began to be packed with pictures of the campus and student activities in 1929.

Military school
Sign up