

THE CULVER CITIZEN

1930s

Maxinkuckee school house up for sale.

John Bigley bought the school house

There was $100,000 worth of damage.

Boat shop and boat storage building caught on fire.

Members from the academy travel to southern Indiana to help with flooding.

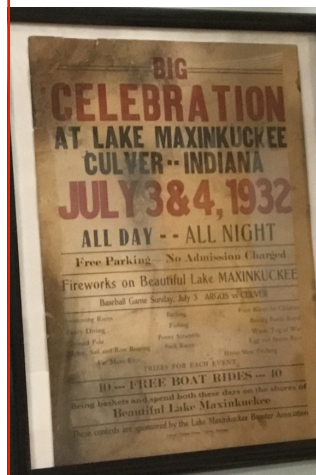

Edwin Culver delayed the progress of the plans of a nonprofit foundation.

The Culvers give up holdings to the Culver Education Foundation at an estimated worth of $6 million dollars.

Fire destroyed the artillery barn at the Culver Military Academy.

Academy plans $165,000 in renovations.

Celebration poster for 4th of July.

Culver
Military
Academy
Black Horse Troop

J. Johnson, B. Keen, A. Macedonio, J. Pizer